ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

PICKARD-POUND-PICKARD

Rollins must hand Rex Beach a laugh. He remembers when the "big shots" here were not so glad to see him.

We hope the administration has enough honorary degrees to go around Founders' Day. We think Charley Noack ought to have one.

Too bad Osceola can't come back Founders' Day. He would be good material for a degree.

It's a good thing old "Ossie" can not return to see what happens at his expense every year.

In "Doc" Bailey's opinion platon-ic love is like the ashes of a fire that never burned.

"You have only tasted the dregs of life until you have been in love," says Pink.

We thought that the dance after the game Saturday was O. K. Some of the chaperons seemed to think it was all wet.

Wonder who the biscuit shooters wanted at the Kappa Alpha house? They asked for Mr. Smith, Mr. Doe, and Mr. Blank.

Barney Google announces the installation of the Rollins chapter of the "Brotherhood of Billy Goats." He promises us a "Nanny Goat" chapter at an early date.

There is no compulsory chapel. Seats were assigned only to insure students a place in the crowded assembly hall.

Laundrymen and Gators Give Frosh Tough Time

Steam Laundry Wins 36-20

The Steam Laundry five, of Orlando, outplayed the Rollins Freshmen in the college gym Friday, Feb. 11, winning by a 36 to 20 count.

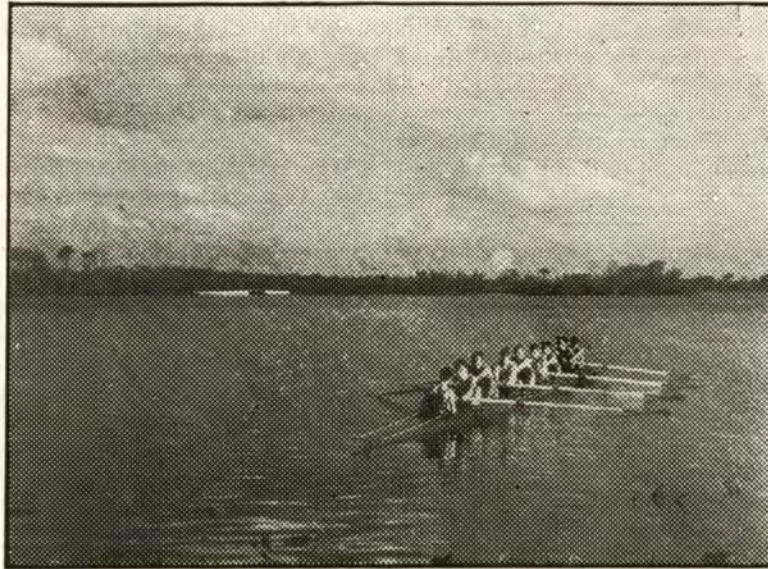

This was the second time the two teams have met in the last half of the Orlando Independent League tournament. In both contests the Orlando team was victorious.

The Steam Laundry Quintet won the first half of the tournament and with this second win over the freshmen they feel confident of winning the pennant.

Gator Rats Take Another 41-15

The Florida Rats trounced the Rollins Frosh for the second time this season on Monday, Feb. 13, in the Rollins gym. The score was 41 to 15.

For the first few minutes the teams were on even terms but the Gators soon ran up a comfortable lead which they held through the remainder of the game.

ROBERTS-BIZE MOTOR CO. DOWNS ROLLINS 31-21

Roberts-Bize Motor Company of St. Petersburg defeated the Rollins Varsity before a small crowd in the college gym Friday, Feb. 12, by a 21 to 31 score.

The St. Pete team captured a ten point lead in the first quarter which they held throughout the game. At no time during the contest did the Rollins boys display the team work they used against Stetson the previous week.

Hill Leaves Rollins For Wichita University

Samuel H. Hill, Athletic director of Rollins College, resigned his post to accept a position as director of athletics at the University of Wichita, Wichita, Kan.

Coach Hill came to Rollins last fall from Wesleyan College, where he was a member of the coaching staff.

Mr. Hill's ability as a coach is already known in Wichita as he was previously employed as coach at Fairmont College, which is now Wichita University.

The students and many friends of Mr. Hill regret that he must depart from our midst and wish to congratulate the University of Wichita on being able to obtain his services.

Ford Truck Hides Under Buick Fender

Shortly after eight o'clock classes started Tuesday, students, and others, were awakened by a terrific crash. Reports and guesses as to the cause were exchanged as the students began to congregate. The most plausible one was that "Chem-

OSCEOLA PAGENT TOWERS OVER FORMER PROGRAMS

February 22 has been set for the return of Osceola, great chief of the Seminoles, to his "happy hunting grounds" in Winter Park.

In an Indian village set up on the banks of the lake that bears his name, in what is now the Brewer estate, the braves of his tribe will await his return. Impatient, they will smoke the peace pipe and sway in the grotesque motions of the tomahawk dance. Their patience will be rewarded with the return of the scouts, who sorrowfully tell of Osceola's betrayal by the white men and his death.

A surprise awaits the faithful braves and squaws, when one of

Glee Club Goes Over Big in City of Palms

The Girls' Glee Club made an interesting and successful trip to Ft. Myers last Friday and Saturday. The Club served as a splendid advertisement for the "New Rollins," both as a preface and a conclusion to Prexy's speech "Why I Believe In Florida."

The girls left Rollins Friday morning and reached Ft. Myers between four-thirty and five o'clock in the afternoon. One car, driven by

German Scientist Wants Films of Florida Plants

Dr. Ernst Lehmann, professor of botany at the University of Tubingen, Germany, wrote Dr. Uphof, of the Rollins Department of Biology, for films of Florida scenery and of wild plants, which will be used for making lantern slides for lectures on plant geography and plant ecology at his university.

CREW NIGHT CARNIVAL HAS MANY ATTRACTIONS

A torch light parade, vaudeville acts, side shows, stunts, and dancing will be the main attractions of the Annual Crew Night celebration to be given on the Rollins Campus on the evening of February 18th. Activities will begin with the torch light parade, headed by the members of the Varsity Rowing squad, carrying their twelve foot oars for banners. After disturbing the peace of Winter Park by a march through the business district, the merry makers will lead the way back to the campus and to Recreation Hall where the rest of the Program will take place.

A program of ten fine acts will then include a pirate play with student cast, especially dancing by Bud and Vilma Ebsen, a faculty stunt by members of the Rollins faculty, and several other clever number will be presented at fifteen minute intervals.

During the intermissions the crowd will take advantage of the fun afforded by the booths and side shows to be operated by the various student organizations. These will include "hit the nigger baby," "Punch and Judy," and other similar games.

In addition to the above, there will be dancing, the music for which will be furnished by the Rollins Jazz band.

The purpose of this frolic is to raise funds for crew activities. It

Rollins Players To Present "Figureheads"

"Figureheads," a one-act play by Louise Saunders, and a member of short pantomimes will be presented by the Little Theatre Workshop of Rollins College at the Woman's Club tonight in conjunction with the Woman's Club annual ball.

"Figureheads" is a fantasy which might have happened any place, at any time. Colorful costumes and a picturesque setting are used in the play which is laid in a mythical kingdom. The story tells of a selfish princess who refuses to marry

Dr. Edwin E. Slosson To Speak Here Feb. 21

Dr. Edwin E. Slosson of Washington, probably the most widely known chemist in America and author of "Creative Chemistry," etc., will be the lecturer on Tuesday evening at the Congregational Church, on the subject "The Fall of Energy and the Rise of Man." Dr. Slosson has the happy faculty of making science popular and is and has been for some years the editor of "Science Service."

The Sandspur

Established in 1894 with the following editorial: "Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

Tomorrow is the first day of Founders' Week. Already many alumni have arrived on the campus or in Winter Park, and more are arriving. To all you who return to renew former associations and friendships, to fulfill long cherished hopes, and to get into the stride of the New Rollins Movement, we extend a most cordial welcome.

Though, perhaps, not so noticeable to the outside observer, Rollins has made considerable progress within the past year. Several men of outstanding ability in their respective subjects have been added to the Faculty. The Two-Hour system has become more stabilized with both professors and students reaching a clearer understanding of the best working methods for the separate classes. The campus has taken on a more orderly and well kept appearance. Like all true progress, conditions at Rollins have held a steady upward trend.

Due to some misunderstanding and lack of funds intercollegiate athletics have not been so prosperous, but both students and faculty are striving toward a solution that ought to help in this line.

Rollins has gone to extra trouble in her efforts to make your return this year more enjoyable than ever. The various programs exceed in splendor all those of former years. Now it is up to you as loyal former students of this college to see to it that these celebrations do not prove to be failures. Get into the game and support them with your presence—and contributions where necessary.

We looked over the program for the next week with the intention of reminding you of the various affairs which will be of interest to you, but there were so many things planned that we gave up in despair and decided to mention only the first one of outstanding importance.

Tomorrow evening what is known as the Rollins Crew Night Carnival will take place in the gym. Rowing at Rollins is just getting started and the students put on this celebration each year to raise money enough to defray the expenses of the new sport. Asking you to attend this carnival is not like asking you to contribute a dollar, because you will receive there many times your money's worth in entertainment. Others who know nothing about Rollins will be more likely to contribute to her support if you who love her as your Alma Mater stand behind her activities.

AMONG THE FACULTY

Coach Chase breezing off with his crew for Palm Beach. Good luck!

Mrs. Haggerty received a corsage from her boys at the Waiters' Ball last week.

We believe Mr. Hanna is full of information for our column but he is too exclusive about his jokes.

We regret to say that Coach Hill is leaving our midst. He has accepted a position in Kansas.

Speaking of coaches—we hope Coach Jackson isn't leaving us.

Coach Pound has had his hand reset but seems to be rapidly improving—his spirits are still high.

Professor Weinburg is to lead the academic procession on Monday. Small, but mighty.

Heard on the campus after chapel last Thursday, "Doctor Taintor is a good cabbage."

THE RAMBLERS

News is getting to be as scarce as the hair on Thams' head. Had a big meeting at Charlie's after the Dance last Saturday night. Practically everyone of any prominence at all in school was there, except the faculty. "Unk" Starnes, famous man about school, who came in the back way, whispered very confidentially that he had paid the chef a dime to knock-off the cover charge. The general topic of conversation was the Two-Hour System; the Specialty Dancer; who wet the Chaperones, and dancers; why Rollins lost the game; and every other thing that the Kids talk about.

Starnes was accusing one of the five of stealing his stuff. During the evening the fire truck rushed by and everyone was in high hopes until they found out it was not what they hoped. Fisher and Boney dropped back from Wachula and "Dek" reports that he put his feet under Ma's table for a change.

The Faculty had another meeting Monday. Wonder if they contemplate improving the system some more? Rumors are going around the campus that a new system or rather an improvement and addition to the already successful plan are being considered. The new seating arrangement in chapel is the stuff, according to a few. The few are the fellows who are sitting between some of our Zeigfeld possibilities.

Founders' Week looms in the offing with the promise of lots of good times around the old place. Heard "Lefty" Moore was to be toastmaster at the Sandspur banquet. Hot stuff. Will be great to see all the alumni back again. Oh, yes, crew night draws nigh and from what info can be gathered here and there, things will happen that never happened before. Just a tip—do not fail to see the boxing exhibits, sure-fire hits.

Freshmen defeated by Florida Frosh Monday night. Played a good game and the small crowd enjoyed it. There is more news around than anyone would suspect, but it is really time to knock off as the Ed will cut this down anyway. Don't miss the Pageant on the 22nd. Indians, races, tableaux, and if you see anything, see the four fairies dance—and how—sapioti. The Iowa Corn Club meets soon—and a large cup of coffee—Charlie.

"FORUM"

Who said anything about eligibility? To use a popular slang phrase, "Why bring that up." In a recent issue of the Sandspur an editorial discussing Rollins position in the S. I. A. A. appeared, advocating our immediate withdrawal. We most heartily agree with the writer, but still we can stop to wonder what difference it would make—if any! The benefits to be derived from being in the S. I. A. A. seem yet to be determined, since they are not evident, but it was regarding some of the drawbacks that the article was written. After a hurried review of the situation, and a check up on the alleged eligibility of over half the men who participate in athletics here, we are forced to draw the conclusion that it really doesn't seem to matter so much after all, whether or not we remain in the Association.

In view of the policy of the administration towards "Clean Athletics" the whole situation seems to be a big joke on someone. Is it a joke on the teams who play with us? Or is it on the S. I. A. A. for allowing Rollins to remain within its organization? LITTLEFIELD.

A party of tourists was watching a volcano in eruption. "This looks like hell, isn't it?"

"Ah, ze Americans," sighed a Frenchman. "Where have zey not been."

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS
ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Le Cercle Francais held an interesting meeting last Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, in Lyman Hall.

The club elected as officers for the year 1928: President, Helen Massey; vice-president, Ross Robertson; secretary, Ethel Hahn; treasurer, Warren Ostlund.

Two short plays were given after the business meeting. The first was "Les Etrennes" in which Louise Ingham and George Holt took part. Helen Massey and Robert Burhans starred in "Dans Un Ascenseur."

Beatrice Jones read the poem, "Les Elves." Richard Haywood gave one of La Fontaine's fables. Aurora McKay and Olie Bandy presented the "Sonnet a Helene" by Ronsard.

CHASE SELECTS CREWS
FOR WAR MANEUVERS

With the division of the rowing squad into two crews, the Blue and the Gold, an element of competition was brought into the early spring war maneuvers of the Rollins navy in its preparation for an initial sham battle at Palm Beach on Feb. 22. The two aggregations are perfectly matched and have been rowing a nip and tuck race for the past week from one end to the other of the mile and a half course on Lake Maitland.

SOUTH GEORGIA A. & M.
LEADS SCORING, 29-26

The Rollins basketball team was defeated by the fast South Georgia A. & M. quintet Wednesday night at the Recreation Hall, in the last game of the season on the home count, by the score of 29-26.

The Tars played listless ball throughout the encounter with the exception of the last quarter when they cut down a 26-14 lead of the Georgians but did not have the final push to get on the large end of the score.

The Georgia team played a neat brand of ball and deserved the win as they outplayed and outfought the Rollins team throughout most of the battle.

Occasionally the Tars would show a spurt of speed good for two or three markers and then slow down again.

Moore and Zoller led for Rollins in the offensive play while Littlefield played a fast guarding game underneath the basket.

A large enthusiastic crowd attended the game and gave the Tars the kind of support they did in the Stetson game.

NOBLE SPORT ADVANCES IN POPULAR FAVOR

While the overemphasis of football is discussed far and wide throughout the country, and interest lags in minor college sports, rowing quietly continues to hold its time honored eminence in the leading Universities of the country. The inception of the sport at Rollins, when the crews make their first public bow at Palm Beach this month, should go far to focus the eyes of the entire sporting South on the college.

It is hoped that interest will be aroused in some college near at hand.

At present Rollins is, so to speak, pioneering in sports as well as in education, and lacks a conveniently nearby opponent. Who knows—future headlines may read, "Great Annual Southern Rowing Classic, Rollins versus Miami," or what have you.

Rowing is certainly the queen of sports, descended as it is from the races of lordly Roman triremes and quintiremes, held to celebrate the victories of returning emperors.

Modern rowing races were first held on the river Thames between Eton and Westminster schools. In 1829 the first of the world known Oxford-Cambridge races was held. The first of the Yale-Harvard boat races was held in 1852. Since that time the sport has spread to all corners of the globe. And has been taken up by many amateur and professional clubs.

A more exciting sport, or one that requires greater endurance and stamina in its participants, is not to be found. Coach Chase and his aquatic Ben Hurs may do much for the sporting future of Rollins and Florida. The sport has undreamed of possibilities in this climate with the thousands of winter visitors from the north, eager for such entertainment. Buy a ticket for crew night and help launch the sport.

ALPHA OMEGA

Alpha Omega wishes to announce as pledges Miss Virginia Jenkins of Sanford, Fla., and Miss Elinor Fowles of DeLand, Fla.

The pledges entertained Dot Johnston, Mrs. Noack, Mrs. Jimmy Bartlett, Betty Wheatley and the active members with a surprise party at the home of Jewel Leuter on Friday evening.

A lively bunco party started off the evening. Bobbie Daly won the first prize, a dainty sachet, and Carol Walters was consoled by a lovely wall vase.

Dancing and refreshments followed, after which Jewel, Dot, Betty, and the pledges spent the night at the sorority house.

Carol, Bob, Phyllis Walters, Gerry, Ginny, and Beatrice Swallum entertained with a birthday dinner for Miss Jackson at the "Latchstring" Tuesday evening. The guests were Miss Jackson, Ruth Cole, Mrs. Noack, Dorothy Johnson, Mrs. Walters, Lillian Gare and Mrs. Graves.

Red heart shaped boxes of candy and Valentine place cards effectively carried out the table decorations.

Were we thrilled to see Amelia again? She is much better now, and came up Sunday to spend a few days with us.

Gene took Tiny home to Ft. Myers with her for the week-end.

PHI OMEGA ENTERTAINED

Mrs. R. F. Leedy entertained for Phi Omega sorority at her home in Virginia Heights Tuesday afternoon in celebration of their seventh anniversary.

The Valentine motif was effectively carried out in the decorations and refreshments for the occasion.

Mrs. Joseph Bueno presided at the tea service.

Miss Vivian Weir of Orlando entertained the eighty-five guests with several vocal selections.

At the conclusion of the tea, the sorority girls adjourned to the Latchstring in Orlando where the annual anniversary dinner was held. The favors were tiny parasols and butterflies in rose and silver, the sorority colors. The honor guest, Mrs. Frank Thayer, was presented with a lovely corsage bouquet.

A brief talk by Miss Suzanne Peschman, sorority mother, and a reading by Marion McCutcheon were given between courses.

After the dinner, the party attended the Tuesday evening lecture in Winter Park.

GIRLS BEGIN FIGHT FOR BASKETBALL TROPHY

The first battle of the classes began Wednesday afternoon in the college Recreation Hall when the specials scored a clean victory over the freshman second team.

The real contests are expected between the freshman and sophomore teams. Their initial game takes place at 3:30 Friday afternoon.

GRAY PERRY PATRON TO PHI BETA FRATERNITY

Monday night in the studio of Miss Leila Niles, induction services were held for Gray Perry, pianist, who became a patron of the Fraternity.

After the services a Valentine bridge party occupied the first floor of Pinehurst. Miss Niles received a jet necklace for high score. Mrs. Johnston was presented with a box of stationery for her second wedding anniversary remembrance.

Refreshments of fruit punch, cakes, sandwiches and mints were served. An impromptu program of burlesque dances and recitations followed. Miss Beatrice Jones proved to be the most adept entertainer.

K. E. KOMMENTS

Mrs. Sidney Osmer, of Denver, Colorado, was entertained this past week by Mrs. Frederic W. Cady for Kappa Epsilon.

From eight to ten, Wednesday evening a benefit bridge was held at the K. E. House on Chase Ave. There were eight tables. When scores were tallied, Mrs. Neal was awarded the lady's high score, a piece of linen; Mr. Irja Sutliff received an ash tray set for men's high score. Salad and coffee were served later in the evening.

Pet and Aurora report a most successful trip to Tampa to see the new nephew. The baby will probably be called William Howey Lindsey.

After the Glee Club trip to Ft. Myers, Elizabeth and Janet visited Barney over the week-end in Tampa.

WAITERS' DANCE

The Beanery waiters were hosts at a dance, on Saturday, February 11, at the Recreation Hall. Mrs. Haggerty was presented with a beautiful corsage of sweet peas. Several exhibition dances were given during the evening. The waiters certainly proved their ability to serve other things besides biscuits.

SIGMA PHI SLIVERS

Welcome Sigma Phi alumni! We're looking forward to a big reunion. Eleanor Pressey arrives from Beeville, Texas, today.

And did you know Dorothy Dutera, Gertrude Davies, Violet Sutherland, Marian Mulligan, Kay Hicks, Margaret White, Mildred McConnell, Willifred Carswell 'n lots of others will be here.

Pledges of Sigma Phi gave a delightful Valentine bridge at the home of Mary Alice Kimmel on Circle Lake, Orlando, Wednesday night.

High score prize was won by Miss Anna Margaret James who received a deck of Sigma Phi monogrammed playing cards. Consolation prize of a "Bobby Comb" was won by Barbara Sheffield.

Don't miss the shocks of your lifetime. "The Chamber of Horrors" and "The Noble Lover" which will be among the stellar attractions in the sideshow lines of crew night.

The "Villa" was nearly deserted last week-end when half of its occupants went on the glee club trip to Ft. Myers, and part others to Mt. Dora with the Little Theatre troupe.

Kay Hosmer gave a party for the glee club after it performed Friday night.

Thomas A. Edison's birthday cake was six feet through. And Kay was at the party and brought back two pieces of cake to her sisters. Good work!

The Benefit Bridge at the San Juan Hotel in Orlando last Saturday was very successful.

Mrs. McMichael sent us a Valentine surprise Tuesday. Chicken salad, strawberries, angel food cake, an' such were eagerly gobbled by members of the house—and guests, Louise Hall and Damaris Wilson.

Edna sent us scrambling to bed Tuesday night when she got an anniversary (second wedding?) call over the telephone from "Happy," who is in Cleveland.

Don't forget the Sprague Speaking Contest.

PHI OMEGA NOTES

Phi Omega sorority wishes to announce as pledges Dorothy Emerson, Morgantown, West Virginia, and Donna Chapman, Cleveland, Ohio.

After pledging service on Monday the pledges and Mrs. Frank Thayer, of Chicago, were guests at a dinner party held at the Whistling Kettle.

Phi Omega sorority entertained Monday evening with a bridge given at the home of Miss Grace Edwards, in honor of their honoraries and their two new pledges, Dorothy Emerson and Donna Chapman. High score was awarded to Miss Helen Gleason, who won a pair of pottery candle sticks. The consolation award went to Miss Donna Chapman. Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, punch and cakes were served.

EVENS AGAIN DEFEAT ODDS IN CANOE RACE

The Evens scored another victory over the Odds last Thursday afternoon in the girls' war canoe race.

Harriet Pipkorn and Margaret Lo Bean placed first in the doubles. The spectators were especially amused in the canoe tilting between Pip Pipkorn, Ginny Fisher, Maggie Wilson and Easy Holland. Pip and Ginny, suddenly aware of their defeat, sunk.

On Thursday morning, Feb. 16, the Woman's Athletic Association held its regular monthly meeting. A constitution was adopted and is now on the Lakeside bulletin board for all girls to study.

The Odd girls sat on one side of the chapel and Evens on the other, giving their yells at the cheer leaders first public appearance.

Copies of the W. A. A. song were distributed and sung.

News Item: Boy missing in first long pants.

They should have looked in the pockets.

MUSICAL PROGRAM TO CONTAIN RARE NUMBERS

The Chamber Music program to be given on Monday evening February 20th, will contain a number of compositions very rarely heard even in active musical centers. The fact that the School of Music has among its faculty and students players of the more difficult wind instruments makes possible the performance of works written for unusual combinations such as the Beethoven and Mozart Quintets for Piano, Oboe, Clarinet, Horn and Bassoon. Mr. Andrews is preparing an arrangement of one of Mozart's String Quintets for performance with Flute, Oboe, two Clarinets, and Bassoon. Other works to be played at this time will be the Ravel Sonatina in an arrangement for two Violins, Cello, and Piano, and a Bach Concerto for two Violins.

the prince her subjects choose for her. She refuses to give his envoys an audience. Her people, rising against her, are ready to storm the palace. The prince, in the meantime, enters the princess' chamber in the disguise of a fisherman. She has never seen him before and does not recognize his disguise. The manner by which he finally wins her and saves her country from a revolution forms the basis of the plot. "Figureheads" is full of clever lines and amusing pantomime.

The cast of "Figureheads" is a capable one. Aurora McKay will have the role of the princess. Russell Fuller will play the prince. Others taking part in the play are Louise Howes, Daniel Schnuck, and Colfax Sanderson.

CREW NIGHT CARNIVAL HAS MANY ATTRACTIONS

This Mansco Combination Started Something

AS might be expected, Manhattan introduced the idea of slip-over shirts and colored track pants. And how men have rallied to them!

For when such convenience is added to fabrics so delightfully cool, tailoring so uncommonly fine, and fit so exactly correct, you have a combination of advantages without parallel.

All Mansco Underwear styles are everything you would expect from the makers of Manhattan Shirts. And we are ready to fix you up with your size in either two-piece combinations, or open-back or slide-back union suits.

with its several new features will be no exception.

Several prominent visitors, Rex Beach, the novelist, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews, and others, will be present to participate in the evening's merry-making.

The public is cordially invited to attend and may obtain tickets at the Rollins College office.

GLEE CLUB GOES OVER BIG IN CITY OF PALMS

Ray Green, stopped at Mountain Lake to see the tower for the carillon given by Edward Bok.

The concert scheduled for eight o'clock could not begin until Prexy arrived from a Banquet and Edna's lost music stand was found. The girls made a charming picture in their light-colored evening dresses and they sang equally as well as they looked. A party at Katherine Hosmer's after the concert completed the evening.

OSCEOLA PAGEANT TOWERS OVER FORMER PROGRAMS

their number discovers a phantom canoe approaching from across the lake. Overcome with awe, they fall on their faces and silently watch the spirit of their leader pass close by their camp and fade into the distance.

The return of Osceola is only one colorful episode in the mammoth historical pageant to be presented at the Founders' Day celebration in Winter Park on Washington's birthday.

Revised and greatly improved over the pageant of last year, this production of Rena Sheffield has been especially designed to please several thousand spectators who gather each year to witness the Founders' Day events, following the activities of the previous week which commemorate the founding of the city of Winter Park and of Rollins College.

Mrs. Orpha Pope Gray will direct the pageant. She has had a wide experience in the dramatic arts, having had charge of the pageant last year, as well as being connected with the department of expression at Rollins for several years and doing some creditable work in the promotion of the Little Theatre workshop.

ic" Warner had blown up Knowles while fooling with one of his concoctions. A few Sherlocks and Watsons soon appeared on the scene and uncovered the real trouble. "Sody" Soller was found weeping in front of Carnegie and when asked what it was all about was so nervous that she could only point to the line of cars parked on the street.

"Marg Lo Beams B-b-b-buick is b-b-u-u-sted," blurted out "Sody" as she began to regain composure.

Sugg Hampton, of the Little Theatre Workshop, discovered the real trouble when he noticed a Ford truck parked under the rear fender of the Buick. Subsequent explanations were that a big black vampire car had forced the truck to the side of the street and the driver, being a wise boy, had hit Marg's nice car instead of the approaching vehicle.

Davey Patterson Schnuck assisted in removing the debris and escorted the Buick and Marg to the garage. The only statement the blonde Marg would make was, "Why did he have to pick out my car to hit, when lots of others were around."

Give him the best

In stationery, there can really be no alternative—the best is none too good. The written letter is an intangible symbol of the one who pens it. There is always something so intensely personal in a gift of this kind—so surely an indication of the good taste of the donor.

Men, while not always admitting it—are appreciative of fine stationery and none can be found that will be better than the widely diversified line of

WHITE & WYCKOFF'S DISTINCTIVE STATIONERY

To the boy off at college—the sweetheart—the father or brother... this Christmas—give writing paper as the Gift De Luxe. For innumerable days, afterward, through the year, this gift reacts your wisdom in selecting it.

We make it very easy indeed for you to select not one gift of stationery but many, by putting in the widest possible line and in modish styles from paper makers who are acknowledged artisans in their field.
