ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

Ye studes sure were roped in by the invitation to hear the special chapel announcement Tuesday.

Some of our confirmed chapel dodgers solemnly vowed they would not be gypped again.

Even Roe Pickard was there.

And Charlie Noack, the genial hash house proprietor complained that his gang of 10 o'clock breakfasters did not show up for rations.

We predict in time the big, burly "soap-box athlete" will hog the lime-light from his less fortunate brother of the gridiron at Rollins.

One consolation, no longer will the good name of Rollins bow under the humiliation of 75-0 defeats.

Fish, the brain food par excellence, will no doubt be the chief substance on the training table.

Thermisticles kept in training by walking around with a mug full of pebbles. Little rocks are pretty scarce around here but then acorns might do.

Despite all our inquiries no one seems to know how many scrimmages per week are necessary to keep the new "squad" in the pink.

Wonder if Coach Carlson intends to use the huddle system!

No reason for Bob Proctor to wear a long face. Organized cheering will surely have a place in the new sports.

As a final plea, fellow studes, let's give 'em a rousing send-off with fifteen agriculturals.

Rollins Players Announce Program Of Revivals

Many requests have been received by Miss Dorothea Thomas, director of the Rollins Players, to present a program of one-act plays that have been given in previous years by the Little Theatre players and have received especial commendation. On Friday evening, December 7th, a program of four plays that have been especially approved of by Little Theatre audiences in the past will be given in Recreation Hall. No reserve seats will be sold for this program and the general admission price will be only fifty cents. The proceeds of this presentation will be used to buy a set of new chairs to replace the traditional benches. The casts of the plays have been announced as follows:

PLANS FOR EDUCATION MEET NOW COMPLETE

The program for the 43rd Florida Educational Association meet, November 30, and Dec. 1, in Orlando, has been completed. Four thousand teachers are expected to attend. The San Juan Hotel is to be the headquarters of the association.

Dr. George D. Stray of Columbia University, New York City, and director of the educational survey of Florida spoke at the general session today, at 1:30 p. m., in the Municipal auditorium. His subject was "The Work of the Educational Survey, and the Legislative Program Necessary to Carry Out Recommendations of the Survey."

There will be commercial and industrial exhibitions. Different groups will meet in special sessions and round-table talks. Dinners, breakfasts and luncheons have been arranged for by many organizations, among which are the Kappa Delta and Phi Delta Kappa, Rollins College, and the Alumnae Association, Florida State College for Women.

Mayor Autrey has asked the citizens of Orlando to give the city a festive appearance by decorating stores and streets and to extend to the visitors every courtesy.

Dr. and Mrs. Pattee Welcomed To Rollins

The English faculty of Rollins formally welcomed Dr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis Pattee when they were introduced to about eighty faculty members and trustees of Rollins at the home of Professor and Mrs. Harris on Wednesday, November 28.

This is the first time this year such a faculty group has been entertained. During the evening a musical trio consisting of Mary Boyer, violinist; Frances Vallette, pianist, and Grace Cardwell, cellist played. Refreshments were served later.

Professor Grover has been particularly influential in getting Dr. Pattee to come to Rollins. Rollins, as a college, welcomes such an authority on American literature as a member of her faculty.

Juniors Win Championship Over Undefeated Sophs 8-6

Playing the closest contested girls basketball game of the year, the Juniors settled the championship, Monday evening, November 26, when they broke the two tie games fought with the Sophomores.

At the end of the first half the score was 5 to 0 in favor of the Sophomores. But at the close of the second half the Juniors held the edge by 8-6. The rooters' interest was keen throughout the evening.

DR. GROVER LECTURES ON ROMANCE OF THE BOOK

The third of the Tuesday Evening Lectures was delivered by Edwin Os-good Grover, professor of books, in the Congregational church, November 27, his subject being "The Romance of the Book."

Mr. Grover called attention to the fact that, while most of our culture and inspiration comes from books, we actually know very little about them. He then took up the development of the alphabet in Southern Babylonia by the Sumerians, based on picture writing.

Mr. Grover showed the five great steps in the evolution of the book, including writing on clay tablets, papyrus, on vellum with ink and water colors, taking impressions from inked, carved, wooden blocks, and the invention by John Gutenberg of movable type made from metal. Mr. Grover also gave a graphic description of the development of printing through Germany, Italy, France and Holland to England, where the first book in English was printed by William Caxton, in 1482. He also touched on the introduction of printing into America, one of his several exhibits being a facsimile of the Horn book, the first book printed on this continent.

Among other exhibits was a leaf from William Caxton's first book and a page from the Gutenberg Bible, the first book printed from movable type.

Black Eagles To Play For Football Prom

The annual football prom will be held in the gym, Saturday night. The Six Black Eagles will furnish music for the dancers and they have promised to "put out" real music.

Advance dope favors a big evening. Let's all get out for a good time. Start that spirit rolling.

Rollinsites Frolic At Beaux Arts Bal

Devil dancers and Latin students, Indians and colonial ladies, tramps and Spanish señoritas, — all frolicked together congenially at the first Beaux Arts Bal which was held at the Orlando Chamber of Commerce Friday evening, November 23.

Rollins College was colorfully represented among the guests of the evening, and her faculty succeeded in carrying off a majority of the prizes. Professor and Mrs. Bingham in genuine Chinese dress won the award for the most unique costumes. Miss Virginia Robie took first prize for the most beautiful costume among the ladies. She wore a medieval dress of brocaded satin featuring ivory and jewel trimming. Two others won prizes, who, if not directly Rollins-

SOUTHERN OUT-PLAYS TARS 58-0 IN LAST GAME

Playing their last game of the season, the Tars were unable to stop the Southern college Moccasins at Lakeland last Saturday and lost by a 58-0 score. Out-weighted between 20 and 25 pounds to the man, the Tars fought a valiant battle, but it was not enough to hold the team which claims the S. I. A. A. supremacy within the state.

The game was featured by the playing of Goodell, Zollar and Banks. Goodell and Zollar fought the best grid battle of their career for their alma mater.

Opening the first quarter, Southern drove steadily to their first touchdown. The try for placement failed. Southern again advanced toward the Rollins goal, by a long pass putting the ball almost on the goal line. However, it took Southern three plays to carry the ball over. They failed to score for the extra point, the quarter ending 12-0.

In the second quarter Southern annexed two more touchdowns, the first on a 30-yard run and the second after the Moccasins had put in nine fresh players. Previous to the first the Tars held for four downs almost on the goal line, Southern be-

Rollins Tennis Team Ties In Daytona Match

Last Sunday the Rollins racquet-tees traveled to the Clarendon courts at Daytona Beach, where they played the Daytona Tennis club to a tie in their first regular match of the season.

Bob Proctor, playing number one, was slow to start but wound up in great style to win from Rogers, first man for the club. Score 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. The match was close throughout.

Bennie Green, number two for Rollins, played a fine match to win from Sablogh 6-3, 8-6.

Starnes and Stephens were nosed out in the singles and lost a hard three set match in the doubles.

Trojans Defeat Rollins Rats By Aerial Attack

The Rollins Freshmen bowed again to the St. Pete Jr. College boys Friday, 23, at St. Petersburg by a 31 to 13 count.

A dazzling air attack and the sweeping end runs by the Trojans again spelled defeat for Coach Berry's much crippled squad.

Flashy "Rip" Miller, Rollins quarter, with his bursts of speed and broken field running, starred in the back field for the rats while terrible "Tommie" Spencer and Don McKercher, the lad from Wisconsin,

The Sandspur

We take pleasure in welcoming Miss Lida Woods as an honorary member of Kappa Epsilon.

Some of our new pledges were busy with marsh-mallows and oranges in front of the K. E. fireplace Saturday night.

We are indebted to Betty Tone and the Winter Park Ice and Coal company for a ride back to the house Saturday morning.

SIGMA PHI SEZ

The Sigma Phi Sorority takes great pleasure in announcing as pledges Gwendolyn Bartholomew, Alice Burdett, Anita Cross, Clementine Hall, Lucille Le Roy Jane Mathewson, Frances Porter, Miriam Sprague, and Virginia Wilder.

Helen Cavanaugh was hostess at a delightful tea given for Sigma Phi at her home in Orlando, Tuesday afternoon. The guests included members of the Sigma Phi Sorority rushees, and members of the Orlando Alumnae Chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

Tuesday night the Sigma Phi Sorority held their annual banquet at the Orlando Country Club. Beside the active and alumnae members of the sorority and rushees, the guests included Miss Gartland, Mrs. Grey, Mrs. Bingham, Miss Jackson, and Miss Ludwig.

Mrs. A. S. Hall paid Louise a flying visit Saturday morning.

Saturday night Finney was honored by a surprise birthday party. Skipper acted as cook and made the cake while the rest of us acted as guests and ate it.

Louise Holland came up from Bartow and spent the week-end with us.

Helen Massey stopped in to see us Sunday afternoon.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Sunday evening after the pledging service, Mrs. Phil T. Hall entertained at her home in honor of Gamma Phi Beta pledges. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. C. G. Circum, and Miss Grace Edwards.

Ione read to the pledges the telegrams of congratulations received from the members of Alpha Mu who are not back this year.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Alpha Mu Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta takes great pleasure in announcing as pledges: Virginia Richardson of Lancaster, Ohio; Virginia Ralston of Miami, Florida; Harriet Van Dame of Sarasota, Florida; Grace Cardwell of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Margaret Chapman of Newton, Massachusetts; and Louise Shinn of Coral Gables.

Norma Mae Borthick of Alpha Theta Chapter at Vanderbilt University visited us Sunday afternoon.

Ginny, Van Dame, Richardson, Billy, and Cardwell had dinner at the Dutch Kitchen Saturday evening and then attended the "Street Angel" with H. Pipkorn, Boots, Popey, and Murphy.

We surely are grateful to our big brother, Phil Cummings, for the party last week. He looked like one of the Pilgrim Fathers returning from the hunt on the day before Thanksgiving when he entered the house bearing six boxes of marsh-mallows, four quarts of ice cream, four pounds of fruit-cake, and heavens knows how many pounds of nuts. And have you seen the edition of "Salome" he presented to our living-room table?

ALPHA OMEGA

Alpha Omega Sorority wishes to announce as pledges the following girls: Mildred Hope, Thirza Fluno, Audrey Snyder, Lib Hury, Carolyn Heine, Donna Kimball, Phyllis Walter, Marian Morrow, Irene Hartsell, Mary Veasey, Aldia LaVigne, and Mary Howard.

Nadine Wright and Tiny Peterson of Daytona Beach, A. O.'s who attended Rollins last year, were guests at the house on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Nadine Wright became the bride of Mr. W. R. Meek of Oviedo Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Robinson in Orlando. Mrs. Robinson will be remembered as Betty Oller, a charter member of Alpha Omega. After a wedding trip through the southern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Meek will make their home in Oviedo.

At 3:30 Thursday afternoon the members of the Alpha Omega Sorority and their rushees left Winter Park in a special bus en route to Howey-in-the-Hills. Having changed into formal evening dress at the Lawrence residence they proceeded to the Floridian hotel for their banquet.

Ruth Cole, the vice-president of the sorority, presided as toastmistress for the evening. Virginia Lawrence gave the welcoming speech in verse. Preceding the main course Flora Furen gave a musical reading accompanied on the piano by Betty Wheatley. Opie Read, famous author and story teller, delighted the company with a few of his anecdotes. Flora Furen gave a history of the sorority after which the members sang two of their songs. The favors were red roses and green and red compacts.

After the banquet the party went to the beautiful home of Mrs. Howey for a bridge and bunco party. First prize was won by Lib Hury, second by Aldia LaVigne, and consolation by Mary Howard. Marion Morrow won the bunco prize.

Guests included Irene Hartsell, Elizabeth Hury, Lucille Tolson, Lottie Turner, Marian Morrow, Vivian Mousselet, Carolyn Heine, Mildred Hope, Mary Howard, Mary Veasey, Florence Holmquist, Phyllis Walter, Donna Kimball, Audrey Snyder, Thirza Fluno, Aldia LaVigne, Mrs. Wheatley, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Howey, and Opie Read.

CLOVERLEAF CAUSERIE

Louise Briggs, Irene Hartsell, Pauline Bumby, Georgina Jeffries, Anne Lupton, and Billie Fiske spent the week-end at home.

Ruth Smith, a friend of Genevieve Litsey from Stetson, was with us for a few days a short time ago.

Now that rushing is over we don't expect to be disturbed any longer by pirates and sailors sauntering in at mid-night, and by clogging exhibitions at the afore-mentioned hour.

This epidemic of coughs, colds, or what-are-we-offered has given a good many the long awaited opportunity to bring forth crepe-de-chine flufferies and languish luxuriously in bed for a couple of days — classes forgotten.

Someone tried to smoke us out a while ago and caused a little excitement. However, we have no panic to boast of as have our Lakeside neighbors.

What is Chase Hall doing with Southern signs? Perhaps Miss X of Cloverleaf could offer some explanation.

KAPPA PHI SIGMA

Ronald, as usual, went to Daytona for the week-end. Hereafter our notes may be considered as beginning with this item, even tho nothing is said about it.

Bob Stevens went over Sunday morning to participate in the tennis tournament.

We have a new member of the "crockery squad." Pep says he was back passing a ball but three Southern men disapproved of his method, so they rushed up and jumped on his knee. Now John Ostlund has challenged him to a tennis match.

Bill Palmer and Don French took a fling at the bright lights of Tampa while on the St. Pete trip.

Some of the boys are earning a physical ed. credit on the woodpile since Boreas has been at work the past few days.

Everyone at the house enjoyed the half hour extra sleep when the bugle failed Saturday morning. We are cheering for more and better Frosh football trips with a berth on every one for Dave.

Rodman's folks were down to see him Sunday afternoon.

We congratulate each sorority on their pledges. And of course each one received the best.

Harrison dashed off to the City of Palms Wednesday afternoon on one of his sudden trips.

LAKESIDE RIPPLES

On Friday night several of the Lakesiders disguised or rather costumed as pirates, Chinese ladies and Mandarins attended the Beaux Arts Ball in Orlando. Mrs. Bingham won the first prize for having the most unique costume, that of a Chinese gentleman.

We wonder at the courage of the girls in the suite, Mary, Verna and Winnie went on a 4 o'clock hike to Maitland Sunday morning. They cooked their breakfast over there, then hiked back.

Jane Folsom spent the week-end at her home in Lakeland.

Thelma Cawood attended the Southern-Rollins game Saturday.

Frances Doggett was ill this week-end and it was necessary for Dr. Burkes to come to the rescue.

Cecil Piltz spent Sunday in Orlando.

Elizabeth Rhedey was hostess at a Hungarian supper at the Methodist Parsonage Sunday evening.

Mary B., Sarah, Ethel, Pressey, Clara, and Thelma were among those present at the Phi Beta Benefit bridge Monday night.

THETA KAPPA NU

Cold weather sidelights — Warner trying to dress in bed; Gough using rugs for blankets; Unk with his pajamas on over his clothes.

Thanks for the waffles, coffee, et cetera, K. E.'s. The way to a man's heart is through his stomach, and the coffee was strong.

THETA KAPPA NU NOTES

We were glad to see our old friend Big Ben Pound back for the weekend.

The boys have gotten musical — Joe Jones and Bassett with banjos, Bob Burhans with a sax, and, of course, Bill Rice on the piano. Bill really can play a piano, but the piano just can't seem to believe it.

Pledge Cooke has been visiting a certain sorority house and now you can hear all sorts of Hawaiian expressions from the members.

Theta Kappa Nu is pleased to announce as pledges, C. W. Banks, Fred Cooke, Arthur Stafford, and Theodore Kew.

CHASE HALL

We notice a sudden blossoming out of pipes and cigarettes among the rat football squad now that the season is over. Ask Levitt to smoke one of those fat cigars for you, like the one he had at St. Pete.

The first cold weather caused the forming of another Chase Hall association, which might be called the Toe-Toasters. We meet in front of the fire every cold morning. Now we know why the crafty townspeople use hedges instead of wooden fences.

If the Chase Hall boys had to attend as many meetings as the Cloverleaf girls, most of us would live in the boat-house.

George Orr is nominated to the hall of fame as the only human who can sleep at any time and any place.

On the way home from Lakeland Harvey Gee volunteered to get the rats all the tangerines they could eat. We stopped at a wayside grove, and waited for him to appear from the dark. In about fifteen minutes he came running down the road with five very green grapefruit in his arms. His excuse was that in Wisconsin the tangerines grow much larger than in Florida.

KAPPA ALPHA

The Alpha Psi chapter of Kappa Alpha takes this opportunity of congratulating the sororities on their successful pledging.

were the mainstays in the Rollins line.

Beasley and Hewitt, St. Pete backs carried the burden for the Trojans.

Altho the Freshmen lost four out of five starts this year, Coach Berry has developed some boys who will add much strength to the next year's varsity.

Proctor and Green battle their doubles opponents to eleven-all in games, when the match was called on account of darkness.

The tennis team led by Captain Proctor meets Stetson on December 8 and will play off the tie with Daytona on December 9. Both matches will be played away from home.

ing unable to push the ball over. Banks again broke up the try for the extra point after the second touchdown and the half ended, Southern 25, Rollins 0.

Southern bagged two more touchdowns in the third quarter. The first try for the extra point failed but the second succeeded on a forward pass.

The final period started with Goodell receiving the ball on the goal line and carrying it clear back to the 50-yard line. The battered Tars fought their hardest to hold the Moccasins in this last quarter, but Southern, with a supply of fresh first string players back in the fray, tore through for three additional touchdowns. Two of the three tries for placement succeeded. The second touchdown came when Coe, Southern back, intercepted a pass and raced 50 yards to score, aided by perfect interference. The teams were doing battle in mid-field when the final whistle blew.

ites, are nevertheless members of the Rollins family. Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy were judged the most outstanding couple on the floor. They were in reality Mrs. Cecil Eastman, sister of Mrs. Ruby Warren Newby, and Mr. C. D. Parsons, whose wife is an instructress at the Rollins Art Studio.

Miss Barbara Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Parsons, gave a charming Russian dance as one of the specialty numbers featured on the program. Miss Dorothea Thomas of the Rollins drama department also gave several musical monologues in costume.

Among the Rollins students and faculty who attended the ball in fancy dress were: Camille Beach as an Arabian dancer and Joe Browning Jones as a Spaniard. Anita Cross wore the costume of an Egyptian lady, while Bud Lasbury became a fascinating Romeo. Margaret Chapman and Rusty Moody, Stella Weston and Phillip Cummings, were two dignified colonial couples. Herman Siewert and Ruby Warren Newby were attired as a shiek and shiekess—or whatever a lady shiek is called. Dr. Cole was striking in a black and silver coptic veil.

Altogether it was a colorful group of dancers who whirled about in a setting of Japanese hibiscus, palmettos, and vari-colored balloons. It has been rumored that the Rollinsites are already planning their costumes for the Beaux Arts Bal next fall.

JUNIORS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP FROM SOPHS

Hill carried the burden of the Soph scoring. While Wilson and Beach, Junior centers, showed up well.

Holding their own all through the game, the Juniors defeated the Freshmen, 14-6 on Friday evening, November 22.

Quick and Carr, Junior forwards, played good basketball. Passwork in every section was the Junior strong point. Lane, Freshman captain, was the outstanding player on her team.
