ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

Being all registered, and re-registered, lets go. But be careful, don't study too hard. Curiosity killed a cat.

"The Thundering Herd"—students on their way to get their marks. "The Roar of the Crowd," after they got them.

Well! Well! Our old friend "Lefty" Moore pulled in Sunday all set to enter school. "Lefty" will join the Sandspur staff and believe us folks, he is a "writin' fool."

The good ship Pani-Pani, flagship of the Rollins Yacht Club fleet, is undergoing extensive repairs under the able direction of Capt. Ellsworth Watson Bassett.

Now that Rollins canoes have been officially denuded of all those things which formerly made a canoe fascinating, i. e. mattresses and pillows, we expect the Yacht Club to foster a series of "moonlight sails" etc., when the weather moderates of course.

It is evident that those who are responsible for the banning of these comforts in our canoes have never been canoeing in the moonlight or else have been too often.

Speaking of marks again, we noticed one fellow with an "incomplete" in swimming. We would say that swimming is a dangerous subject as a pastime to said party. It suggests to us, "Down went McGinty to the Bottom of the Sea."

And wouldn't it be awful if one of our co-eds made an "incomplete" while swimming back from a canoe ride.

Freddie Cooke sez:
"If we could buy ourselves for what we are worth and sell ourselves for what we think we're worth, somebody would get sadly cheated."

Little Theatre to Present New York Stage Play

"Icebound" is the title of the play written by Owen Davis which won the Pulitzer Prize for the best play written by an American author during the year 1923.

The play has been received by New York theatre goers as one of the best that has been on the American stage, and subsequent to its New York run it has proven a pop-

PRES. HOLT ATTENDS COLLEGE CONFERENCE

President Hamilton Holt left Wednesday for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he is attending the 15th annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges and Affiliated College Boards of the Congregational and Presbyterian Churches, which is being held Jan. 10-12 at the Read House.

One of the principle subjects for debate is, "What Constitutes a College Teacher?" Under this heading nine new plans of education are being considered, of which the "Workshop Method of Rollins" is one. President Holt is to lead the discussion with reference to Rollins.

Other progressive educational systems being explained are, "The Harvard Tutorial System," by A. Lawrence Lowell; "Teaching at Princeton," by Luther P. Eisenhart; "Teaching at the University of Minnesota," by Melvin E. Haggerty; by Arthur E. Morgan; "How We Teach at Reed College," by Norman F. Coleman; "Teaching Honor Students at Swarthmore," by Raymond Walters; "How We Teach at Whittier," by Joseph Herschel Coffin; and "The Independent Study Plan of Stanford University," by Edgar E. Robinson.

Dr. Holt will deliver a formal address before the College Board of Presbyterian Churches and is also taking part in the conference of the Churches.

World Peace Emblem Shown Here in Chapel

An interesting flag was shown at chapel last Friday by Rev. J. W. Van Kirk, representing the World Peace Emblem which has been accepted by the Twentieth International Peace Conference at The Hague 1913, and has since been raised at many international, political meetings of importance.

In introducing the speaker, Pres. Holt referred to him in highest terms as the man who is carrying the message of peace and good will around the world, without the backing of any church or organization, delivering his talks without charge. Since Dr. Holt felt sure everyone present stood for the peace movement, he requested the Rev. Van Kirk not to dwell on that subject, but to tell of his experiences and activities.

The speaker stated that after being pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Youngstown, Ohio, and building a beautiful edifice there, he was granted a leave of absence.

He went on a tour around the world, proclaiming the message of peace to many peoples. Since 1920 he has spoken approximately at 2200 high schools, colleges and universities, 800 churches and clubs.

As brotherhood grew to be a world wide idea, he wrote a compliment to our declaration of independence, proclaiming the principles of

ROLLINS CONTINUES TO ATTRACT NEW STUDENTS

Again demonstrating the lure of the conference plan and our efficient faculty, 17 additional students have entered Rollins with the opening of the winter term. This number includes nine who have transferred from other colleges and five new freshmen. Among the new colleges represented on the campus are the University of Chicago, Ohio State University and Western State Teachers college.

The list of new students with the places from which they come follow.

New freshmen: Frank J. Cowan, Lakewood, Ohio; Isabelle Hill, Chicago, Ill.; Mary Lee Korn, Olean, N. Y.; Norman Lombard, Jr., Sound Beach, Conn.; Helen C. Voorhees, Dade City, Fla.

Freshman transfers: Helen Baker, University of Chicago; Ella Mac Weeks, Rice Institute, Houston, Texas; B. M. Walpole, Jr., Citadel.

Sophomores: Janet M. R. Cadman, Florida State College for Women; Isabelle Hough, University of Chicago; James M. Sheldon, Jr., University of Chicago; Hardy A. Sullivan, University of North Carolina.

Juniors: Eleanor Bode, Ohio State university; Ruth E. Ellsworth, Josephine Jentes, Ohio State university.

Old students will be very happy to learn that "Lefty" Moore, star athlete, is back with us again. Lefty was not able to return for the first term because of old football injuries which were troubling him.

Miss Christy Loring MacKaye daughter of Percy MacKaye, has registered as a special student.

Miss Alice Kretzinger has changed from a special to a regular student.

Major Putnam Gives Tuesday Evening Lecture

Major George Haven Putnam, noted publisher, author, soldier, and preacher, addressed a capacity audience at the Congregational Church Tuesday evening, January 8. Major Putnam who has long been an important link between England and America, spoke on "Relations Between England and America."

The talk opened with a review of the meeting in England to celebrate amical relations between her and her sister across the sea. At this meeting, Major Putnam who spoke in behalf of America, created a "Declaration of Interdependence" to express the new relation between the countries. Thus the meeting came to be known as the "Meeting of Interdependence."

The Major summarized the necessity for cooperation between England and America and, in fact, between all English-speaking peoples.

"The literary interests of English-speaking peoples is the same. Books are an important connecting link between sympathetic readers.

VARSITY CAGERS POP LID WITH MIAMI TILT

Hopes for a victory over the Hurricanes of Miami "U" were bolstered by the reappearance of Captain Zoller, Buddy Goodell and Dave Schnuck. These men have been on the hospital list since their return from the pre-season trip through the state, but are putting out some great work since their return to the court.

Coach Jim Bailey has developed his charges into a smooth working team that has shown both offensive and defensive power.

The game Saturday will be the first college game of the year and the boys are determined to make it a win.

Advance reports are to the effect that the Miami team is a strong one and that they are hard at work preparing for the Tars.

The team leaves for the southern city early Saturday morning.

The Conservatory of Music will present the program for the Tuesday Evening Lecture Course on the evening of January 15th at 8 o'clock in the Congregational Church.

This program will consist of a variety of music and it is hoped that all students will avail themselves of this opportunity to again hear the Conservatory in Concert.

FLU

If one believes the old adage "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," now is the time to apply it with flu in the air.

A number of students have been late in returning from sieges of it and others are suffering with it now.

Those who have the illness should report to Dr. Burks at once for care. Further, the patient should not hesitate to protect himself and his classmates by adherence to the good advice of sleep and seclusion.

The prevalent cases are a very mild type of flu, the symptoms being: coughing, headaches, backache, sore joints and burning of the eyes. Students having any of these owe themselves and classmates the duty of reporting for medical attention.

General rules for precautionary measures to avoid contagion are hard to define but two good ones are: do not mingle in crowds any more or any longer than necessary; and keep yourself in as fit a physical condition as possible.

Established in 1894 with the following editorial: "Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

ROLLINS YACHT CLUB

The first meeting of the Rollins Yacht Club was held on December 20th. Not having the yacht with which to start the club it was unanimously voted to procure a tub of some sort. The ideal boat was discovered up to its neck in chameleons and water on the south-east side of Lake Virginia. Being much too bulky for stealing, it was thought best to try to buy the good ship.

On December 22nd the good ship "Vestris" was paddled and bailed to the shore behind the Gym. Here it received a scraping and painting that was indeed noble. Except for several yards of sail that were missing, the boat was found to be in excellent condition. It was a most pleasant surprise to find that the brig floated right side up most of the time.

The great blow came on the 27th when it was found that the name had been left off. This was remedied with a soap box perch for the painter and a can of black paint. The Commodore has become terribly proficient in catching and murdering all stray zephyrs. The crew seldom, if ever, fall in the lake. Two cases of near drowning have taught the deck hands to play that they are sails and stick close to the stays. Second Mate Harris gives some neat exhibitions of dodging the boom and Kaki Cooke can do double cart wheels on the bowsprit unaided.

Abbott and Abbot, maritime lawyers, are taking charge of all legal matters for the club. The life insurance offered by said company for all accidents occurring on the high seas is quite different and convincing.

The next meeting of the club will be held some time this week. At this time the officers will be announced.

SCRUB CLUB MEETS GEORGE HAVEN PUTNAM

Major George Haven Putnam, of the G. P. Putnam and Sons Publishing Company, was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Scrub Club and their friends which was held at the home of Dr. Holt Sunday evening December 6.

The Major entertained the gathering by recounting his experiences here and abroad. Many of these tales took place at the time of the Civil War and of the World War.

At the conclusion of his talk, the Major answered various questions put to him by the members of the Scrub Club. At this time, by request, the Major gave a vivid description of Abraham Lincoln who he met at the latter's Cooper-Union Speech in New York City.

Among the other guests of the Scrub Club Sunday evening were: Judge George C. Holt, the Misses Holt, Mrs. Hamilton Holt and her sister, Mrs. Mary Smith, Fred Chase Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Bingham, Clementine Hall, Asa Jennings, Polka James, Richard Hayward, Mary Lee Korn and Philip Cummings.

The thought is amusing, horrifying, laughable or ludicrous, yet it is an apt analogy for what is thoughtlessly going on in the fine old art of writing letters. People are writing letters of high social importance on cheap, commonplace paper; letters of business import on folded sheets of various hues. We are offering especially attractive and appropriate selections of modern writing paper, suggesting the three kinds that etiquette demands should be in every home: Crane's for the very best; Eaton's Highland Linen for everyday correspondence; Eaton's Deckle Vellum, a flat sheet for the man. Come to us for the latest and the best.

W. A. A. NOTES

Hockey, the major winter sport, is now being played on Tuesdays and Fridays at the Harper-Shepherd field. Announcements of Odd-Even games will be given later.

The basketball championship was successfully won by the Evens for the second season.

All girls who waited too long to join W. A. A., last term start working now for membership.

K. E. KOMMENTS

Kappa Epsilon takes great pleasure in announcing Mrs. Katherine Holland Brown as honorary member.

Becky Caldwell, who is teaching in the Philippines now, sent some red and white Japanese pins to our pledges. Becky sends us some interesting snapshots of her two year tour in the Orient.

Mat has returned to the house at last after keeping us in suspense a while.

Tuesday afternoon we enjoyed a visit around our fireplace with Miss Sylvia and Miss Constance Holt.

Betty Rathbone made a late appearance on the campus when she returned Sunday from spending her Christmas in Massachusetts.

We rejoice that both Mrs. Osterling and Mrs. Powers are recovering rapidly from recent illnesses.

Miss Overton, of Miami, stopped to visit us on her way to Brenan College, Gainesville, Georgia.

Pet's vacation is entirely ended. She is back at her old post of chief firemaker.

SIGMA PHI

We of Sigma Phi sorority are mourning the loss of our beloved honorary member, Mrs. J. Dudley Calhoun, who suddenly passed away of heart failure at her home in New Rochelle, N. Y., on Thursday, January third.

Mrs. Calhoun had endeared herself to us by her generosity, her intimate interest in all our affairs, and by her wise and friendly advice on all occasions. Words cannot express our deep sense of loss.

GAMMA PHI BETA

The Gamma Phi Beta winter benefit bridge will be given at the Woman's Club on Saturday afternoon, January 12 from 3:00 to 6:00. Faculty and students are cordially invited. Reservations may be made with Helen Morrow or Louise Shinn.

Alpha Mu of Gamma Phi Beta wishes to announce the Misses Adeline and Caroline Wing of Bangor, Maine, as patronesses.

Estelle Pipkorn returned from Sarasota Sunday night. Van Dame came up with Glad Morton on the train.

Krause joined the ranks of flu victims last week. She's back now.

Chapman, Schanck, Pope and Murph went pump hunting with the Commodore and Second Mate of the Yacht Club Sunday afternoon. The season would have been quite successful if the bolts hadn't been frozen tight.

We've about come to the conclusion that Ginny should have left "Pinky" animal in New York.

ALPHA OMEGA ANTICS

Bob Daly and Mary Veasey returned Sunday from their homes in Wisconsin and Oklahoma where they spent the holidays. They are the last to return to the fold.

Kitty spent Sunday in St. Cloud. Jerry Laurence is in Howey and we are looking forward to a visit from her in the near future. Good ole' Jerry! It sure will seem good to see her again.

Patsy is now a galloping big dog, to use Ginnie's expression.

A few of the Alpha Omega girls were mistaken for country lassies, when they left Wilson's camp to attend the New Year's Eve movies in Winter Garden. However, they enjoyed the experience.

CLOVERLEAF CAUSERIE

Cloverleaf held out friendly arms to welcome scores of girls returning from the ardors of the Christmas holidays.

Not only does it safely enfold the old girls once more, but it also shelters the new arrivals: Misses Ella Mae Weeks, Mary Lee Korn, Helen Voorhees, Ruth Ellsworth, Isobel Hough, Helen Baker, Isobel Hill, Precious Whisk Whitefoot. The last named young lady is an exchange student from New York City. She has been studying at the University for Select Alley Felines and will be quite an addition to our numbers. Everybody is cordially invited to call and make her acquaintance. She may be found with her room-mate, Virginia Ralston, or asleep in almost anybody's lap.

For a few days it looked as though Cloverleaf would become a hospital. That danger has been averted, however, as Helen Porter, Doris Stone, and Alice Burdett have tired of chewing on Dr. Burk's thermometer and have risen from their beds of pain.

Our adored Miss Hughes is back in her accustomed place and we are mighty glad to see her there.

We feel that it is our duty to warn you to look in your beds before retiring. Stella Lane has imported a baby 'gator from Tampa. She says that sleeping in strange beds is his weakness now. So beware!

Both our Billies have deserted us. B. Fiske has moved to her parental roof, while B. Chapman now hangs her hat at the Gamma Phi Beta house. Another case of "gone but not forgotten."

LAKESIDE RIPPLES

We are very much pleased to have four new residents in Lakeside. Eleanor Bode of Columbus, Ohio and her room-mate J. Jentice of Doverville, Ohio are Delta Gammas from Ohio State.

Miss Rannie Baker of Indianapolis is working for a Master's degree in teaching. Miss Betty Lockwood from New Britain, Connecticut is also living in Lakeside. She is Mr. Hanna's assistant in the office.

Miss Helen Bingham, of Manchester, New Hampshire, arrived Wednesday to spend two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Bingham.

We are very sorry that Mr. Bingham has been ill with a cold for several days.

Jane Folsom has been ill for a couple of days. We hope that she will be up and around with the merry throng soon.

Courses of sophistication are being given in Professor Doggett's room every Monday night.

George Orr is our star caller. We like to have you George but you know dark corridors are dangerous.

Sunny Hazard visited Frances Poggett Monday night.

Sarah K. Huey and Thelma Caewood played in the Symphony in Orlando Sunday afternoon, Monday and Tuesday night.

It seems great to have everybody back again and according to all reports we all made "whoopie" during Christmas vacation.

CHASE HALL NOTES

Christmas is long past, yet the market in neckties is still depressed. Good cigarette lighters are quoted at two Christmas ties each, lavender and yellow ones excepted.
