ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

By FRANK STERRY ABBOTT

And now the Religious conference. We don't know much about the racket but we shall see what we shall see. Welcome, delegates and speakers.

Some of the questions that those leaders will have to answer or dodge are wows!

We notice that the Rollins debaters are sharpening up their tongues preparatory to their gab-jest with Georgia A. & M. Better put on some cleats too, debaters. Remember, "a slip of the tongue—"

The team's wind is in fine condition. They played through the entire Miami U. wrangle without a substitution being necessary. And they won!

"At Rollins a student is right until he can be proven wrong"—Sandspur.

In the old days he was "tight" until he could prove himself sober.

Well, as Patrick Henry said, I would rather be tight than be president. (Note: He never got to be president).

Now this chapel controversy is on again. Our suggestion is to cut out most of the speakers and limit them with regard to time. It used to be done in the old days.

Chapel properly run, is a good institution in a college—improperly run it is a bore. And modern youth refuses to be bored.

We have heard some remarks about "colorless announcements." We suggest that in the future, the announcements be set to music or done in pantomime. Anything to relieve the situation.

Wattles Dishes Food For Thought In "Y" Meet

Professor Wattles gave an inspiring talk on modern religious problems at the joint Y. M.-Y. W. meeting last Sunday evening. He illustrated and supplemented the talk by selections from his own poetry. Mr. Wattles gave everyone present an impetus to deeper thinking about their personal religion.

The meeting had the privilege of hearing the first Winter Park reading of some of Mr. Wattles work. This exceptional program was the last of the series of joint Y. M.-Y. W. meetings under the present administration.

Election of officers for the ensuing fiscal year of Y. M. C. A. work will be held next Tuesday. The election is to be held in room 103 Knowles following the chapel.

COLONEL SANBORN GIVES STUDIO PEWTER EXHIBIT

Friday morning, April 13, Mrs. Newby's class in Art Appreciation had the enviable opportunity of hearing Colonel W. Y. Sanborn of Mt. Dora, tell something about his collection of pewter, which is one of the finest in this country.

Colonel Sanborn is a friend of Rollins and has often talked about Indian life here. He is a collector of antiques and old books also, and has some very rare possessions.

"Pewter has been known as an article of utility and ornament for more than 1500 years," said Colonel Sanborn, "and some Roman coins dating back to the 3rd century A. D. have been found and melted into the old English trenchers used commonly in England today."

The oldest piece of pewter known is said to be a drinking cup found in the ancient camp of lake dwellers in Switzerland. This is a wooden cup with an inlay of the soft metal.

About 800 A. D. pewter was known in Japan and Colonel Sanborn possesses a small lacquer box inlaid with pewter which is very lovely.

The French have used pewter for ornament much as did the Japanese and strips of pewter have been found inlaid in the rafters of French churches.

As early as 1290 A. D. King Edward had 100 pewter flat dishes, 100 pewter mugs and 100 pewter salt sellers, and a little later the guild of pewter makers in England was an important power in the 15th century, pewter being high in price. The king even sent expeditions to get the pewter communion services from the Irish churches to be melted into money in England.

All old pewter had to be stamped with some word of the guild, or manufacturer, or grade, and pieces found marked with the cross and crown are very valuable today.

Colonel Sanborn has some rare old pieces stamped the mark of the best makers of the day in England such as Compson, Townsend and

Ling Nyi Vee Speaks Before Orlando Sorosis

Miss Ling Nyi Vee addressed the Sorosis members of Orlando at their regular weekly meeting Tuesday afternoon. Her subject was that of Chinese life and customs, something of new China and the relationship of America to the Orient.

The members were delighted with Miss Vee's method of delivery and presentation and were charmed by her personality. She was received most enthusiastically.

Mrs. Parker Enwright was in charge of the program and introduced Miss Vee to Sorosis members.

BOBBIE JAMES IS LATEST ROLLINS GOLF SHARK

Last Saturday, April 13, Robert H. James, student at Rollins college, defeated Max Elliot of Tampa, in the finals of the Florida State Amateur golf championship in the fifth division, 4 up and 3 to play.

James, after a poor qualifying round on the preceding Wednesday, brought himself out of the slump to defeat Cole 7 and 5, Gibbons, 6 and 5 on Thursday. Friday morning saw the defeat of Smith 4 and 3, and in the afternoon Stallings, 2 up, taking him into the finals against Elliot. Playing nice golf, James shot a pretty 82 against Elliot's 86.

The persistent slice which was so noticeable in the qualifying rounds and early matches, had entirely disappeared and his shots were clean and straight down the fairway. James was the only one of about 20 Orlando entries to bring home anything besides a should-of-had-it story.

Miss Moore Appears In Evening Recital

Miss Helen Moore, of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music, delighted faculty members, students, and friends of Rollins Tuesday evening in a piano recital at the Winter Park Women's club. Miss Moore was at her best and interpreted the following program in her usual flawless and finished manner.

- I. Four Sonatas (Longo Collection)—Scarlatti. E Major. No. 1, C Major No. 3, D Minor No. 12, E Major No. 10.
- II. Partita in C Minor—Bach.
- III. a. Impromptu op. 39; b. Waltz in A flat—Chopin.
- IV. a. Reflets dans l'Eau—Debussy; b. Sonatine—Ravel; Moderne Movement de Minuet, Anime.

Rollins Club Of Tampa Holds Annual Luncheon

The meeting of the Rollins Club of Tampa was held last Thursday, April 11, at the Forest Hills Country club. President Hamilton Holt was present and told of the activities at Rollins. Mr. A. J. Hanna, executive secretary of the Alumni Association was also a guest for the occasion.

Officers elected at the meeting were: C. W. Lawrence, Jr., president; Mrs. Carrie Price Greene, vice-president; Margaret McKay, secretary; James F. Taylor, treasurer.

Those attending the meeting were: President Hamilton Holt; Mr. A. J. Hanna; Mrs. H. Lane Coachman; Eleanor Upmeyer; Mrs. C. W. Greene; Mrs. Emma Gaylord; Mr.

RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE OPENS HERE TONIGHT

Following the banquet in the Commons at 6:00 tonight, when President Holt will receive the Parley leaders and introduce them to Rollins College and our guests, the first forum will convene at 8 o'clock in the Woman's Club.

Dr. William Adams Brown will open the forum with a brief statement of the possibilities in the discussions of this week - end. Father Ross will then make the first address, and reply to questions from the floor. Everyone on the campus whether registered or not for the round-tables, is invited to the forums.

Rabbi Goldman will discuss Judaism in a forum at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Prof. Kruse will speak tomorrow night at 7:30, and at the close of this session Dr. Brown will summarize the Conference.

An interesting and important change has been made in the published program. At 12:30 luncheon will be served in the college Recreation Hall for students, faculty and friends. The Rollins College Glee club will entertain with a short program. Immediately following this summary reports will be made from each of the morning

The Sandspur

Established in 1894 with the following editorial: "Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

Faculty and student-body join in sorrow at the restless way our classmate and youthful friend, Warren Ostlund, chose to sleep. We will miss him here. Our heartfelt sympathy to his Mother and Dad and John.

When we students get to wondering, we are pretty liable to discover ourselves along one or two personal avenues of thought.

Along one road we scan today and the coming year for our immediate careers weigh our college degrees-to-be and try to compute their money value to us.

And again we stroll a highway that stretches further into the distance, striving to know man's true purpose and guess his end if there be eternity.

Religion has unhappily come to have restricted connotations for the modern mind. Still there is no one so religious as a young person; for what is religion but earnest sincerity in your beliefs?—and what normal young person is not earnest?

Rollins may justly be proud to be chosen for the gathering place for liberal truth seekers. The religious Education Association of America, the National Conference of Jews and Christians, and the Federal council of the Churches of Christ in America paid us signal tribute in choosing our progressive college for their first inquiry into southern collegiate religion. May we realize our opportunity.

A REAL VOTE OF THANKS TO THESE

The following committee is largely responsible for the success of the Rollins end of the coming week-end. Their interest and cooperation is greatly appreciated by the college and those grateful for the opportunity thus afforded them.

Robert Burhans, General Student chairman.

Aurora McKay, John Sinclair, Carolyn Heine, Stella Weston, publicity.

Dorothy Allen, R. Stillman, Rooming and boarding of delegates.

V. Fisher, Meeting and Transportation.

Ernest Zoller, Entertainment.
Flora Furen, Places of meetings.
Faculty Advisors: Dr. Campbell, Care of speakers. Meeting, housing board and entertainment.

Miss V. R. Hughes, Care of publicity and housing of delegates.

Mr. J. M. Forbes, Care of correspondence, Chairman of Faculty Religious committee.

Volunteer registrars: Mary Lee Korn, Elsie Braun, Stella Weston, Iverne Galloway.

SPRING FEVER

"The birdies that burst into bloom, tra-la,
Have nothing to do with the case."

Which really has nothing to do with this spring's case, or craze of trying to soak all the sun that God intended for the birdies that wanted to burst. Oseola would feel in his element to the last degree if he would suddenly step out among these coppery sons and daughters of good old Rollins.

It is right sad to see these fair maidens tripping around with that hurt expression which only means "don't touch—sunburn!" We old timers cherish fond memories of sweet girls all white and pink in lace and blushes. Old traditions have gone down before this onslaught of bare legs, short linens and sunburn. What is our modern generation coming to? I'm sorry. You'll have to puzzle this out by yourself. I have a date on the diving tower in ten minutes. Sure, I'm getting sunburned, too!

COLLEGE NOVEL CONTEST

COLLEGE HUMOR DOUBLEDAY DORAN

There is no more provocative field of life in America today than the college. College men and women are sifting, experimenting, and thinking more boldly than any other group. They are building the new America.

The Campus Prize Novel Contest is open to all college undergraduates, or to graduates of not more than one year. The prize novel may be a story of college life, or of college people in other environments; it may be your personal story or the novel you always have wanted to write about your generation. A $3000.00 Cash prize will be paid the winning author.

The winning novel will be serialized in College Humor and published in book form by Doubleday, Doran and Company. Book royalties will be paid the author in addition to the prize, and motion picture and dramatic rights will remain with the author. We reserve the right to publish in serial and book form, according to the usual terms, any of the other novels submitted. The closing date of the contest is midnight, October 15, 1929.

The contest will be judged by the editors of College Humor and Doubleday Doran. Typed manuscripts of from 75,000 to 100,000 words should be sent with return postage, name, and address, to the Campus Prize Novel Contest, College Humor, 1050 La Salle Street, Chicago; or to the Campus Prize Novel Contest, Doubleday, Doran and Co., Inc., Garden City, N.Y.

RESOLUTION OF KAPPA PHI SIGMA

April 16, 1929.

Kappa Phi Sigma records its love for Warren N. Ostlund and its sense of great loss through his death.

He was secretary-treasurer of the fraternity during the past year, and was respected and loved by all who knew him.

Kappa Phi Sigma extends to his Mother and Father and members of the family their deepest sympathy, and join with them in mourning the loss, not only as a worthy member of our fraternity, but as a brilliant student of our college.

K. E. KOMMENTS

Kappa Epsilon wishes to announce Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Walter Stevens and Mrs. E. R. Donnelly as honorary members.

Evelyn made a visit to Mountain Lake, Tuesday, with President Holt and some friends.

Pet, Cam, Betty Rathbone, Nick, Aurora, and Quinny Stelle all served at Mrs. Rose's and Mrs. Lettuce's tea in Orlando Tuesday.

Miss Aurora McKay entertained several friends at an exclusive progressive dinner Sunday night. Special features of the affair were a sight-seeing tour of East Park avenue and an interesting grab bag at the final stop.

Nick and Mat did a sister act at the studio this week and won first and second prizes for their vatiks in the Allied Arts exhibit.

Our Garden Party on Saturday, was a success in spite of a little rain. We are very grateful to Mrs. Osterling, and to Frances Vallette, Hazel Darlington Yarbrough, Mary Boyer, Barbara Parsons and Rudolph Fisher for the musical program.

SIGMA PHI

Glad Wilkinson and Easy Holland spent the week-end with us.

We're sure the Rotary club of Lake Wales enjoyed their last luncheon since Skipper was there with Dr. Holt and Evelyn Green.

We all went to Mrs. Ormiston's to a party Tuesday night. We had an awfully good time. Mrs. Ormiston told us some of her very interesting experiences at a mission church in New York and fed us well upon ice cream and cake.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Talk about good times! You should have been along on the beach party at Billy's Sunday at Daytona. Four carloads left at ten and arrived in time for dinner at the "Black Dragon." The afternoon spent swimming, tanning and driving on the beach; tea of sandwiches and caramel mousse served just before we dashed off for home! What a life! A mad rush for home ended one of the biggest times we've had this year. Mrs. Race, Mrs. Newby and Virginia Hughes went along to chaperone. Many thanks to Mrs. Chapman, Billy and Polly for an awfully nice day.

Polly Chapman came back from Daytona with Camille to spend a few days with us. Concerning tans, Polly could run Tommy a close race.

Irene Pipkorn and her sister, Mibs Haas are expected to spend the week-end with us.

CLOVERLEAF CAUSERIE

Ladies and gentlemen, allow us to present the new hall president, Miss Virginia Ralston. She will be assisted in her strenuous duties by Penelope Pattison as vice-president; Mildred Hope, secretary; Elva Arnold, treasurer; Betty Rathbone, chairman of social committee. Look out for political reforms now that the administration has changed hands.

Phyrne Squier invites all her friends to come to see her at Miss Grace Edwards' on Interlachen avenue. We hated having her leave like well-you-know-what, and are only partially consoled by the fact that Miss Edwards' beautiful garden will probably inspire her to write more of her lovely poetry.

And by the way, did you notice all the Cloverleaf contributions to this month's Flamingo?

THETA KAPPA NU NOTES

We were very glad to have our Grand Scribe, Dr. William A. Whiting, of Birmingham Southern, with us over last week-end. Dr. Whiting was keenly interested in the Rollins experiment. He should be able to appreciate the "golden personality" professor since he himself has been voted the most popular professor in his own college for three consecutive years. Dr. Whiting was much impressed with our climate here and with the state, this being his first visit to Florida.

We will all miss Brother Al Bartlett and wife, but wish them the best of luck in their new northern home. Al assumes a position with a steamship company on the Great Lakes, immediately.

Bob Cross writes that he is doing well on his new job in Birmingham.

Province Archon Warner is expected to pay us a visit this week-end. Charlie is in business at Daytona Beach.

MISS JACKSON IS HONOREE AT DAINTY BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. Glen E. Carlson and Mr. Edmund A. Moore were hostesses at a bridge and miscellaneous shower, Friday evening, April 12, complimenting Miss Lucille Jackson, whose marriage to George McClure of Pittsburgh, Pa., will take place this June.

This bridge was in the form of a progressive party. During the early part of the evening the guests were entertained by bridge at Mrs. Moore's. Miss Virginia Hughes was awarded the first prize and Mrs. Ervin Brown received the consolation prize.

After the prizes were awarded the party progressed to Mrs. Carlson's, where the honoree was presented with a lovely pink and white parasol. Gifts were attached to the handle by tiny pink and white ribbons. Refreshments, further carrying out the dainty pink and white color scheme, were served.

Miss Jackson has been the honoree of many delightful entertainments since the announcement of her engagement.

Guests for this occasion were: Miss Jackson, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Walter, Mrs. Forbes, Miss Hughes, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Anderson, and Miss Cox.

THE MISSES WING ENTERTAIN GAMMA PHI

Misses Adaline and Caroline Wing entertained in honor of Gamma Phi Saturday afternoon at a treasure hunt and buffet dinner at the Batchelor estate, where they are spending the winter.

Because of the weather, the treasure was placed about the house, the jungle, rose garden, open air theatre and fish pond all being represented. Each couple had a separate trail to follow, each club being marked with a small gift. At the end of the trail each couple found a patroness for who they acted as escort to dinner. Nancy Brown and Frances Arnold finished first and won the prize of a box of Potter's candy.

After all the hunters had finished they escorted their 'dates' to the guest house, where dinner was served. Tuna fish salad, olives, sandwiches and deviled eggs were distributed in individual boxes tied with the colors. Angel food cake and strawberry cream were served for dessert. Dinner was followed by lawn bowling.

Those asked to be present were: Mrs. Hamilton Holt, Mrs. Ada Holme, Mrs. Philip Halla, Mrs. Austin Race, Ruby Warren Newby, Mrs. Charles H. Weston, Mrs. J. B. Thomas and Misses Grace Edwards, Helen Moore, Loretta Salmon, Virginia Hughes, Mary Lee Korn and Margo Holmes.

A very delightful time was enjoyed by those attending the informal gathering last Sunday evening at the home of Professor Forbes.

Mr. Bueno sang some of his favorites: "On the Road to Mandalay," "La Paloma," "The Lost Chord," and some Portuguese songs. Mr. Forbes' mother also gave some Portuguese songs. Miss Virginia Richardson played several numbers on the piano and sang "To A Wild Rose," and others. Elio Gianturco received great applause for his performance on the piano.

At 9:15 refreshments were served, followed by some informal singing led by Mr. Forbes. He later featured "Timbuctoo", which proved very popular.

WE HAVE WITH US—SENIORS

IVERNE GALLOWAY

Iverne Galloway migrated from Canton, Ohio, to Winter Park in 1925. Prior to that time she had collected all the honors lying around at McKinley high school, and proved a pride and joy to her family in many ways.

Having passed a year at Rollins, Iverne went back to Ohio with her family, and there attended Worcester college. But,—she says that the memories of southern moonlight and Spanish moss were too much for her, and so back to Rollins she came!

To tell of her many accomplishments here is a long tale. She is a member of Sigma Phi, sec.-treas. of Rollins Key, sec.-treas. of Rho Kappa Sigma, assistant-editor of the Tomokan, editor of the Purple Buz-zard and contributor to the Flamingo. Furthermore she belongs to Le Cercle Francais, R. L. S., International Relations Club, and the famous Scrub Club. But in spite of her many activities Iverne has found time to take an active part in athletics. In 1927-28 she was a member of the W. A. A. Executive Board and a member of the hockey and war canoeing teams.

Next year she will study in Switzerland as she has been awarded the coveted Swiss scholarship.

In her leisure hours Iverne draws silhouettes, writes triolets and rondos, and plays contract bridge!

Thus she does anything and everything, and with it all she has made her friendship a very real thing to many.

ROSS ROBERTSON

The old saynig that "a great little man is never as good as a good big man" may hold in the realm of those concerned with the Marquis of Queensbury rules but we submit proof that this does not carry in the world of intellect. Among the seniors who will be sorely missed by graduation is Ross Robertson. Ross is a little man but he has stood head and shoulders above the average student throughout the major portion of his four years at Rollins. He has for two years maintained a straight "A" average and his scholarship standing has never fluctuated to any marked degree.

Ross is a Kappa Alpha, president of the Rollins Key Society, president of the French Club and is a past president of Rho Kappa Sigma, honorary chemical fraternity. In his freshman year he was a member of the debating club. Besides his regular schedule Robertson has for the past year acted as assistant to the head of the chemistry department.

This little blond with the grin-like smile is one of those who is always willing to lend a helping hand, and the value of his help is in the fact that he always seems to know what he is doing. He is a confirmed optimist.

Ross' friends are not worrying about his future for they know that he will make a success of whatever he chooses as his life work. He has already shown the stuff that makes successful men.

We thank Griffith high school, Springville, N. Y., for its contribution to Rollins and hope that it will send us more men of Robertson's calibre.

LING NYI VEE

Almond eyes, flowing sleeves, sleek black bob, little tight collar, and quick bright smile—that is Ling Nyi Vee, the Oriental portion of the Rollins senior class.

Ling Nyi entered Rollins in November after being enticed away from Columbia University by President Holt's glowing description of the well-known Rollins atmosphere. And glorious to relate, Ling proclaims that she has never for one minute been disappointed in what she found at Rollins.

Ling hails from Soochow, China, although she graduated from high school in Shanghai. In 1926 she came to the United States to complete her education in American colleges and universities. She attended Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia, for two years, and also took two summer sessions at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Last summer Ling entered Columbia University in New York City, and after her graduation from Rollins, she expects to return to Columbia to work for her master's degree.

Ling has made a place for herself in the Rollins family which it will be impossible for anyone else to fill. She is the personification of the Friendly Spirit, and is extremely popular with both the students and the towns-people. She is a member of the International Relations club, and has spoken before many audiences throughout Florida. She and Zsuzso Rhedey have combined their forces to form the professional-dining-out-team, and have graced bigger and better dinner tables throughout Winter Park and Orlando than have any of the rest of us.

Ling has quietly but effectively been soaking up the best American culture and the finest things in the Rollins system of education. Her adaptability to occidental ways has made it possible for her to gather in much of interest and information which she intends to carry back to her people in China. Her aim is to secure a teaching position among her own people, and we wonder how much of the Conference Plan will enter into Ling's career as a "prof."

Best of luck and our best love to you, Ling. And do you mind if we strut a little now and then, because you, a member of the world's politest nation, approve of us just as we are?

Colonel Sanborn has old communion wine cups, spoons, hot plates, candle-sticks, tankards, lamps, tumblers, and sun-dials in his collection.

Colonel Sanborn says that some day he hopes perhaps to have Rollins have the benefit of some of his treasures.
