ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

By FRANK STERRY ABBOTT

We don't feel like writing a column this week but the heartless editor cracked the whip and we had to jump through the loop.

The reason why we don't feel like writing a column is because we spent last week-end at the McKay cottage on the Gulf and contracted lots of sunburn also spring fever in its advanced stages.

Then too, we are supposed to be doing French this period and not writing this drivel. And we got a letter from home with money in it and that makes us lazy and independent.

And on top of all that we received a sailing list from the Clyde Steamship Company and that made us homesick.

Of course there are lots of other reasons. For instance we might say that it was because graduation is so near—we will say it—it's because graduation is so near. What's that Chief? You don't think we ought to? Oh alright, we won't say it.

Then there is the weather—that's always good for a stall.

And that shooting uptown kind of made us nervous.

But probably the real reason why we don't feel like writing a column is because we haven't anything to say except—

That we hear Buddy Goodell is married. That will make a happy summer for him, what with a wife and that Norris Athletic trophy to look after and keep polished (the trophy, we mean.)

We notice that Dr. Holt has the student body divided into three classes with regard to the new tuition rate, those who will, those who can't pay, and those who won't.

Well, Chief you can go soak your head for a column this week 'cause we won't write one—so there!

Editor's Note: The moral of this is, "Never put anything down in writing. You can never tell how it will be used against you."

A New Conference for Rollins Next Month

Young people of the Presbyterian Church of Florida are to enjoy the facilities of Rollins College for a period of eighteen days in June according to an announcement made this week by President Holt who said that the Seventh Presbyterian Young People's Conference would convene at Rollins on June 18 and continue through the 28th. It will be preceded, June 11-17, by the First Florida Presbyterian Conference for Seniors, whose delegates

WORKSHOP SEASON CLOSES WITH CONTEST PLAYS

By SYLVESTER BINGHAM

The Little Theatre Workshop concluded its 1928-29 season last Wednesday evening with the annual play contest. Before an appreciative audience the three winning plays were reviewed, and may we say here that they surpassed their original performance on repetition.

Before the rise of the curtain Miss Dorothea Thomas, director of the Rollins Workshop, announced the two prizes to be awarded for the most finished production of the year, introducing a sympathetic feeling of suspense into the audience.

Even though the three plays have all been previously reviewed, I feel it necessary to comment on particular people whose performance or performances as the case may be, delighted me.

In the "Antick," the play by Percy MacKaye, Miss Mary Hall, as Mrs. White, undoubtedly starred. She was more than support for the caste; she ran away with the play while on the stage. At least she and "her" Myrtle did, for no one could have entered into this infantile part or drawled more convulsingly "Hello, I saw you first," than did Miss Emerson. At the first performance, Mr. Pepper surprised his acquaintance with his insight into the character of the romantic parson, who urges youth (Miss McKay and Mr. Schmeltzer) to revolt.

With the exception of Miss Eleanor Pressey, the dainty Pierrette the caste of "Poor Maddalena" was entirely new. Mr. Schmeltzer and Mr. Jones taking the places of Mr. Sanderson and Miss Nathewson. So completely did this trio enter into the spirit of the fantasy that this play was chosen by the judges for second prize.

The third play, "The Birthday of The Infanta" was real theatre. Miss

Tomokan Staff Shown Through Atlanta Plant

James Bartlett and Robert Burhans, editor and assistant of the 1929 Tomokan, and Harriet Pipkorn, editor for 1930, were shown through the printing and engraving plants while in Atlanta, Georgia on Tomokan business.

Mr. John Long, of the annual department of Foote and Davis, conducted the Rollins party through the large printing plant which was working at full pressure. On Monday, May 13, Mr. Wrigley showed the inside of the Wrigley Engraving Company from the art department to the photographing of zinc plates.

Both trips were valuable. A wealth of opportunity for the young journalists was revealed. The newspaper play, The Front Page, presented at the Atlanta Theatre, was the climax. Miss Race, Pipkorn, Mrs. John Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. James Bartlett and Bob Burhans were the guests of Mr. Long.

HOLT MAKES ADDRESSES IN LEESBURG AND ORLANDO

President Holt motored to Leesburg Tuesday evening where he was the principal speaker at a joint banquet of all the Kiwanis clubs of Lake County. The subject of Dr. Holt's talk was "An Adventure in Common Sense Education."

There were 165 men present, representing among other clubs those of Eustis, Tavares, Leesburg, Clermont and Mt. Dora.

Mr. Holt was accompanied by Miss Lida Woods, Dr. Helen Cole, Mrs. Borchert of New York city, and Lefty Moore.

Tuesday morning the Rollins student trio played before the high school of Leesburg in one of the student programs being given before different Florida high schools.

Dr. Holt on Thursday morning spoke before the International Relations club of Orlando Senior high school, taking as his subject, "World Peace." The affair was in commemoration of Peace Week.

Foreign students attending Rollins accompanied President Holt and also gave short talks. Rudolf Fischer played the cello, Elio Gianturco the piano, and Ling Nyi Vee and Elizabeth Rhedy appeared in national costume.

Rollins Glee Club Serenades St. Augustine

At one o'clock Monday a long line of cars carrying the Rollins College Glee Club of seventy voices left the campus for St. Augustine.

The club directed by Dr. Nice gave a varied program the same evening under the auspices of the St. Cecilia Club.

Several groups of numbers were given among which were "Nightfall in Granada," "Melodies from the South," "Dusk of Night" and the "Italian Street Song."

The male chorus presented a number of comic songs and ballads. Specialty numbers were given by Rudolph Fischer, cello; Sid Stoneburn, sax; and Joe Browning Jones entertained with a number of comic readings.

Miss Emilie Sellers, a versatile member of the Rollins conservatory accompanied the Glee Club and solo numbers.

Following the program the cars were re-filled and re-fueled, then the journey home was in order, or possibly disorder. The drivers checked in with their passengers at various periods of the A. M., after an interesting day up the state.

At the recent Faculty Meeting the chapel plan recommended by the student body in the last Student Association meeting was officially adopted. We congratulate our faculty on the soundness of their judgment. Student-made laws are more liable to observance. There's a mutual happiness in co-operation.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL CHAMPIONS MEET HERE

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the sectional champions of Florida will battle for the interscholastic baseball championship of the state. Palatka, Inverness, Tallahassee, Walton High of De Funiak Springs, Kissimmee, Orlando, Hillsboro High of Tampa and West Palm Beach, victors in their respective districts, are each expecting to win the state title.

Judging from the pre-tournament dope this seems to be anybody's meet. Orlando, state champions in 1928, are favorites again this year. In winning nineteen of the twenty games on their schedule the Tigers have shown up well in hitting and pitching. Their weakness is at present a slightly erratic defense.

The tournament will open with games Friday, ending with the final game Saturday afternoon. Rollins is sponsoring the meet with Coach Bailey in charge. John "Red" Davis, head official last year, will again be umpire-in-chief. All games will be played on the Tinker Field at Orlando.

Soph Co-eds Swim Away With Inter-class Meet

With the juniors and sophomores tying until the last event, the class W. A. A. swimming meet, Wednesday afternoon, on Lake Virginia, was a nip and tuck affair. Louise Briggs, frosh captain, was the surprise of the day, being individual high point scorer.

In spite of choppy water the competition was keen. And the odd-even meet on Wednesday, May 22, promises to be a real contest.

The results of the speed events were: Briggs (2), D. Wilson and S. Dickinson, (2) first placers; Cole, Lewter, Ralston, Morton, and Pipkorn, second placers.

The form events were followed by an exhibition canoe race in order to rest up the swimmers for the relay.

The Sophs came off the victors in the relay. The outcome of the meet was uncertain until after this final event, and excitement ran high.

ANNUAL W. A. A. BANQUET TO BE AT RENDEZVOUS

W. A. A. girls talk about the big event, the annual spring banquet, which will be held on Friday evening, 7:30, May 24, at the Rendezvous Cafe, Orlando. A dance will follow this climax of the athletic year.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday noon at 1:45 at the P. E. office, members should register and receive their admittance tags.

Wilie: "Did Mr. Edison make the first talking machine, Pa?"

Pa: "No, my son. God made the first talking machine, but Edison made the first one that could be shut off."

The Sandspur

Established in 1894 with the following editorial: "Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION DRIVE MAKES PROGRESS

Under the directorship of Fred Ward, assistant treasurer of Rollins, the campus beautification committee has launched an extensive program for a fund with which to begin the permanent development of the campus horseshoe. This will be the main open space on the new campus, the building of which is to begin in the first part of June with a dormitory section donated by Mr. Rollins, commonly known as "Dad" Rollins.

It is expected that the faculty, students, alumni and friends of the college will make it possible to install the permanent water system without which it would be useless to begin the extensive planting destined to make the Rollins Campus an example of Southern landscape gardening.

The mark set for this drive is $2,500, of which $1,500 has already been pledged provided the remaining $1,000 is raised within a given time. This $1,500 stimulus has caused the beautification committee composed of students from each class to speed up the drive for funds. It is expected that contributions will reach the mark by the end of the present week.

DUKES STEP OUT FOR PARTING HOP

The Dukes of Rollins gave their parting dance for the school year in the Colonial Club Inn on Friday, the tenth of May. Prof. and Mrs. Leland H. Jenks chaperoned the affair, and Prof. Jenks played accompaniments for Miss Gwendolyn Bartholomew, who sang for the guests. An iced buffet supper was served at 10:30. Those present were the Misses Lucille Tolson, Alice Burdett, Gwendolyn Bartholomew, Ruby Quick, Louise Briggs, Lottie Turner, Jane Folsom, Mayon Brabant, Doris Bartlett, Laura Lane; and Messrs John Sinclair, Kenneth Wallis, Harvey Gee, Jr., Donald McKercher, Harry D. Orr, Jr., D. A. McCallum, George Orr, Eduardo DeArias, John Arnold and Horace Miller.

CONSERVATORY

Several instrumental students of the Rollins College Conservatory of Music gave a recital last Tuesday evening at the Winter Park Women's Club under the direction of Clarence C. Nice. They were assisted by Lillian Eldridge, contralto, Frances Valette and Emilie Sellers, acting as accompanists.

Hollis Mitchell opened the program with May Night, Palmgren and Romance, Sebelius, displaying power, brilliancy and good technique. Following was a cello solo by Grace Caldwell, who showed in her artistic interpretation and excellent, smooth tone that she has made great progress during this season. The piano solos by Velma Jones were a decided contrast to those of the first player. She plays with delicate touch and womanly charm, bringing out the different character of her selections by Debussy and Bach.

We were sorry to hear that Mary Boyer, the violinist, was not well enough to appear, as announced by Mr. Nice. He was fortunate to secure in her place Lillian Eldridge, who replaced the two omitted violin solos with two vocal numbers. In the operatic aria, "Voce di Donna" from La Gioconda, Pretrello, her mellow, velvety voice was heard to good advantage. Her English songs, Do Not Go, My Love and May Magic, were much appreciated.

Schumann's selections from the Childhood Scenes were well adapted to the playing of Elizabeth Rhedey, the petite Hungarian girl. She brought out the daintiness of the music with skill and delicate tone. Vincent Slater played his numbers with decided finish. Two masterpieces like Prelude and Fugue in C Minor, Bach, and Liebestraum, Liszt, require years of study, musicianship and technique. He gave proof of all these and greatly delighted the audience by responding with an encore.

In commemoration of Music Week and Mother's Day, the Rollins Conservatory program was shifted from the usual Wednesday presentation to Friday morning. Members of the conservatory staff and student body furnished music for several morning as well as evening programs in Central Florida during Music Week, also.

A conservatory faculty trio composed of Messrs Harve Clemens, violinist; Rudolf Fischer, cellist; and Miss Emilie Sellers, pianist, played several numbers on Friday, and Miss Dorothy Ann Minter, contralto, sang "Mother Machree." Included in selections played by the trio were "Deep River," a negro spiritual, and "Song Without Words" by Tschai-kowsky.

Professor Nice told the students they would be able to hear the college trio over the radio almost any evening, though their titles might range from "Fosgate Market Trio" to "Morgan Funeral Home Trio."

ROLLINS KEY SOCIETY

The Rollins Key Society met last Wednesday at the Kappa Alpha house to discuss plans for next year. President Holt and Dean Anderson were guests and aided the society with helpful suggestions.

Among other things it was decided to entertain all persons receiving honorary degree during Founder's Week. Other plans will be announced later.

After refreshments of ice cream and cake the meeting adjourned with piano selections by President Holt and the singing of the Alma Mater.

R. L. S. PICNICS

Ruby Newby's camp chortled off three more shingles as it beheld Prexy Holt and the R. L. Sers trooping through its gate. All duffle was dumped unceremoniously on the porch table; bathing suits were snatched from the pile; and soon Lake Conway heaved in surprise as a boatload of chorusing coeds captained by Prexy sang their way across the water. Various modes of modern bathing suits and various methods of entering and leaving a loaded rowboat in mid-water were displayed to the wondering minnows.

Soon the call to mess echoed down the dock, and the gang dripped back to camp to compliment the cooks. And what a repast was consumed. Mrs. Haggerty's name was praised in rising vociferation as each succeeding contribution from the box of Beanery plunder met its mark. The party became quite "hey-hey," as Zsuzso Rhedey put on a little song-and-dance number. Fortunately there were no chandeliers to kick, but it was only by superhuman effort that the kerosene lamps were rescued from Zsuzso's wayward slippers.

Another feature of the evening's entertainment was a Shakespearean Romance Contest which soon revealed the actual "watt-o-meter" of each aspiring literary light. The result showed that Dolores Wylie shone with greatest brilliance... a feat for which she was presented with one of Mr. Grover's gift books. That dim little spark, Kitty Kimball, received a Hershey bar as consolation.

The remaining exhibitions of Rollins talent were displayed in some duets on tin whistles by Prexy Holt and Boots Westen, by several numbers on the "Animated Organ" (may we suggest that tuner give it immediate attention), and by a truly artistic representation, directed by Carolyn Heinie and Mary Lee Korn, of that beautiful old melodrama, "The Gathering of the Nuts."

After cleaning up the camp and stripping the jasmine bushes for dormitory decorations, the R. L. Sers piloted Prexy back to Pinecastle, where he threw his third cold drink party for the evening. Then the old soaks burned up the trail homeward and arrived exhausted and

ODD-EVEN GIRLS' TEAMS CHOSEN IN VOLLEY BALL

Sifting the best players from the class volley ball teams was a difficult process. After deliberating a long time the following odd-even lineup was voted upon:

ODD	EVEN
Schofield	LaVigne
E. Morton	F. Arnold
V. Wilson	Ralston
Krause	Quick
F. Fuller	E. Arnold
Lewter	Pipkorn

TOMOKAN FOR 1930

Now is the time to give suggestions for the 1930 Tomokan theme. This is your book. You want to have something of yours in it. Any suggestions are welcome. If you have had experience with yearbooks, or if you are interested in working with the staff, tell the editor now. Candidates are being considered according to reliability, interest and ability. Yearbook work is practically the only permanent activity of college. There is a satisfaction of achievement that will last.

K. E. KOMMENTS

We are going to see Peggy Canning Goodell this week end and get the whole story from her. And, Buddy, we think you ought to have an extra shower of rice and old shoes for keeping us in the dark so long.

"Chief" left us to our own devices again last week end. Her latest trip was one down to Indian Rocks and Tampa with her fellow journalists.

Mrs. McKay and Margaret, Ada and Mary Jane came up Wednesday night to see the Little Theatre plays. We were glad to see all of them again and to have some more news of Pet. Mary Jane spent the night at the house with us.

Sarah proved what she's been doing in her daily workouts in old Virginia these lazy spring days, when she walked away with two first places—one in speed and one in form—in the interclass swimming meet. Evidently she didn't think she had brought home enough bacon when she won the $100 state poster prize and she and Nick captured the Allied Arts' first award for batiks.

Miss Green is fast becoming an experienced school teacher. She specializes in French lessons three times a week and at nonunion hours.

Aurora was as successful as usual in her plays Wednesday night. We are very proud of our Leading Lady.

SIGMA PHI NOTES

"Kay" fulfilled her threat and bade us farewell for the rest of the summer. "See you in October!" were her parting words.

It's evidently the newest thing to leave for home a few weeks earlier than customary. Jane left last Friday, due to illness, and Louise Hall went home Monday. Hope someone will be here to give the grads a big send-off.

Helen Massey is entertaining with bridge at the Little Grey House Friday afternoon.

Send our mail to Daytona this week end, and if there are any long distance calls take the message. It's the week end of the annual house party.

We entertained our honoraries at the house Wednesday afternoon.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Mrs. Race spent Sunday with her mother at Leesburg.

Estella, Billy, Martha, Helen and Fritz toured the northwestern part of the state Saturday and Sunday. They have a complete set of snaps and songs which they will show and sing for anyone making the request. The one about Freda is particularly informing.

Every time Popey thinks about spending the rest of her life in South America she beats it home—if she has a spare week end.

Camille left for Tampa Thursday to select her outfit for her sister's wedding in June. Having been a flower girl, once, back in the dear dead days, we can understand how thrilled she is.

Fritz, E., Billy and Murph picnicked at Palm Springs Thursday afternoon. Quite a lively time was had swimming and fighting yellow flies. Lunch consisted of all the indigestible things known. Murph proved that she can climb anything—in case of fire—or goat.

Harriet and Murph left for Atlanta Thursday night with Ruth and Jimmy Bartlett and Bob Burhans. Atlanta was properly done—and incidentally the Tomokan was all fixed up. H. and Bob can now furnish any desired information concerning chop suey joints and Whitehall Street; Ruth is quite an authority on churches; Jimmy is evidently going into the tombstone business after hauling all the loose granite back from Stone Mountain.

Boots took in the Journalism and Glee Club trip over the week end. Ralston, Rathbone, Cardwell, Van Deame and Frankie accompanied Mrs. Arnold to Daytona for the week end. After looking at Frankie's sunburn, it is very evident where the color of Tangee lip stick originated.

Jewel also bridged along with the Glee Club. We take great pleasure in announcing her as the only living Red Cross Examiner at Rollins.

And Grace performed very admirably at her recital Tuesday.

Miss Peschman, our Phi Omega mother, left for New York Friday at 7:00 a. m. Sounds fishy, but a goodly number of us saw her off.

Jinx, Fritz and Blue Heat paid Winter Haven a little visit Sunday.

Harriet says that with all the durned plant board men carrying off the trees, shrubbery, fruit, etc., she wouldn't be a bit surprised to come home and find the double-decker gone—or Flitted!

ALPHA OMEGA NOTES

Gertrude and Lucille spent last Wednesday night at the Pattee home in New Smyrna.

Seventeen of us with Mrs. Wheatley and two distinguished guests, frightened the fish and the fur-covered nut-crackers at Vi's camp last Saturday. We broke the sylvan solitude about 2:30 and there was no peace for the natives until sundown. After diving into the laughing wavelets and cool, nice (?) mud for a time we adjourned in favor of dry land, and while some danced in the cottage to the tune of a well-meaning vic, others participated in a game of baseball such as Babe Ruth, himself, has never seen. It was the No-Sox against the Pigmies. In the meantime several more infantile members (we blush for them) were enjoying the baby swings. The picnic dinner was in a class by itself with Miss Huges officiating at the potato salad and Aldia at the ice cream freezer. On the way home we had to stop at the post office for Lucille J. Wonder why!

We are proud of Ruth, Charlotte Steinhans and Rod Lehman, who spoke to the young hopefuls in New Smyrna High last Wednesday when Dr. Glass' education class visited there. Ginny, Gertrude, Lucille and Kitty also went.

Dot now has her Life Saving Certificate. Atta girl! Worth stuffing—we mean framing—Dot.

Thinking she was to stay all night at Vi's camp, Marion, in the flurry of taking off, brought only her toothbrush. She finds it hard to live down. Is that the sisterly attitude, we ask you?

What causes the chug-chug in Vi's car. Rather musical—modernistically speaking.

Since when, Donna, have they been making carbonated chocolate bars? You're right, Donna. Why bring that up again?

The members of the sorority entertained the honoraries last Tuesday evening with a buffet supper at the House. After a discussion of plans for next year the party attended the recital of the Woman's Club. The honoraries present were Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Ruth Bartlett, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Frederick, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Lenfest, Mrs. Harrison and our faculty adviser, Mrs. Carlson.

Gert and Cile spent last Wednesday night all by their lonesomes in Dr. Pattee's cottage at New Smyrna. After looking under the bed and in all dark corners they passed the night uneventfully.

Mildred Hope went to Lake Wales again.

Verna went to Tampa for the week end, returning home on the 1:30 a. m. train Monday. We met her and were escorted home by a policeman.

Mother Wheatley celebrated a birthday last Friday. That evening we surprised her with a cake all lighted up with candles and she shared it with us. My! But it was good. Many more Happy Birthdays, Mother Wheatley.

CLOVERLEAF CAUSERIE

We dance these days to the music of hammers and saws and mortar mixing, for the reception halls, praises to Prexy, are in the process of redecoration. Lots of other nice things are going to happen to us, too. Now don't die of curiosity. We'll tell you all about them later.

For rent—one seat on the sofa at reasonable rates to couple who will carry out the traditions set by Jane and Ralph.

LAKESIDE RIPPLES

Louise left Monday on her way to Lowell, Mass. We all were sorry to see her go.

Five of us, together with Mr. and Mrs. Bingham and Mr. and Mrs. Carlson, spent a delightful week end on Coronado Beach at the Pattee cottage.

Thelma and Dot seem to be traveling a lot lately. They no sooner returned from a week end at the beach than they hied off to St. Augustine. Miss Baker went, too.

We hear Lakeside had unexpected guests Saturday evening and that they played the piano quite well. We are sorry we missed the concert.

Szuzso played in a recital Tuesday evening and we are proud of her.

KAPPA PHI SIGMA

Perhaps you have noticed what has happened to our front yard. Well, you know Florida used to be an old pirate stronghold, and we that maybe—

Our garage annex has been going strong lately. Hank can be found underneath a car almost any old time.

Old 97 is serving its apprenticeship admirably, doing over 500 miles last week end on the Tampa trip. Steve Spingarn says that if he were asked where he was at a given time (Continued on Page 4)

WE HAVE WITH US—SENIORS

LUCILE LANGSTON

Way back in 1911 Lucile came from the Panhandle district of Oklahoma to Florida. After her graduation from Titusville high school she went to Southern College for one year. Hearing that Rollins was to have a new president and a new idea of classes with an opportunity to meet "golden personalities" "Cile" transferred her affection and 'Buick' to this ideal small college of America.

Lucile lives in Orlando and any morning you can see her "picking up" classmates all along the highway in order that they will get to classes before the last bugle.

Rollins and Alpha Omega in particular will miss Lucile when she leaves and starts her life work of teaching "young hopefuls."

ALVERA BARBOUR

Here's one senior that Rollins won't "lose by graduation." Alvera Barbour intends to be back next year studying in the conservatory.

Although born and brought up in Pennsylvania, Alvera came to Florida and Rollins in time to enroll as a freshman for an A. B. degree. But as she says, "one day I talked with Edna Johnson and before I knew what it was all about my course goal was changed from an A. B. to a B. M., with a major in public school music."

Alvera is a member of Phi Beta and for two years she has been singing in the Glee Club. Incidentally she has also sung nearly all of the Winter Park choirs.

Alvera recently appeared in her senior recital at the Woman's Club. The next days 'write ups' said of her performance: "Her rendition of every number indicated good taste and well rounded study."

LUELLA LYLE

Among the seniors who march with measured tread down the aisle on June 5 will be Luella Lyle.

Luella comes from Smethport, Pa., where she went to high school. In '17 she graduated from Clarion State Normal and taught English in grade schools until she decided that the southern climate and a degree from Rollins would be worth trying. At present Luella is on a leave of absence and next fall expects to return north to her old job.

Though she has only been with us one year she has been very active in R. L. S. and International Club.

Howard A. McDonald

Howard A. McDonald, or just plain "Ham," is ready to bid Rollins adieu. He came here direct from the Canadian wilds. The rigors of the Canadian winters were becoming too severe for him and he had to seek a more favorable climate.

Ham has done a number of things besides study. He has been an all around man on the campus. He has worked at nearly every job that is performed by students. For a couple of summers he was assistant to the superintendent of grounds and buildings.

His biggest job was that of boat-house keeper. The secrets that he has learned about the patrons of canoes would fill volumes, but Ham will not divulge his knowledge. He keeps secrets—his ancestors were Scotch. There is no doubt but that his future will be rosy.

Ham is a member of the Spanish Club and the International Relations Club. At all times he has done his best to promote the interests of the college and be a true and loyal student. Rollins will miss him next year.

WORKSHOP SEASON CLOSES WITH CONTEST PLAYS

Aurora and Mr. D. B. McKay gave remarkably fine interpretations of the charming petulance of the Infanta and the pathos of the "grotesque," the rest of the caste ably supported them, and this play won the first prize. To climax the evening came a burlesque by Miss Thomas. Practically every member of the Workshop participated in this and swept the audience into hysterical laughter. It would be difficult to pick out the most humorous portrayal from such a galaxy of comic characters, for each in his own way was perfect.

After the final curtain the audience was invited to the stage to meet the Thespians and to have refreshments. And they accepted eagerly.

Miss Thomas is to be congratulated on having trained her actors and actresses to such versatility and ability in the short time of a school year and in spite of the many conflicting distractions.

A NEW CONFERENCE FOR ROLLINS NEXT MONTH

will be limited to the ages of 15, 16, and 17.

Mr. A. J. Coakley, Director of Religious Education for the Synod of Florida, will be in charge of these conferences and the buildings, library, and water sports facilities of Rollins College will be loaned to the young Presbyterians for their annual gathering.

After all, Flaming Youth is nothing in the world but the old-time Younger Generation warmed over.

while at Tampa he could say he was either on the way from Tampa to Indian Rocks or from Indian Rocks to Tampa.

Steve has been relaxing from his head waitership by playing tennis against the University of Florida—unsuccessfully as yet.

Prof. Sprague (junior) is all hot and bothered about the trip to Salt Lake City. We are wondering of the people or sects out there have anything to do with it.

Bill Jennings visited the Civic Club in St. Augustine Monday with Dr. Holt, Fred Hanna and Al Rashid.

THETA NU NOTES

D. B. McKay came up from Tampa to take part in the Little Theatre plays Wednesday night. Incidentally, he played a lead in the prize winning play of the year, "The Birthday of the Infants."

We are very proud of the manner in which Abbott, Jones and Burhans brought to a close their theatrical performances as students at Rollins.

Jimmy Bartlett and Burhans were in Atlanta three days last week on business for the Tomokan.

Rice, Abbott and Moore were lucky members of Colonel Wattle's journalistic excursion to Tampa, St. Petersburg and Indian Rocks.

We wish to announce Harold Cochenour as pledge.

CHASE HALL NOTES

I'm inspired this morning, up in the clouds. If I could ever write spring poetry I could do it now. I'm using a baby blue typewriter trimmed in darker blue. Such luxury. "Glendale, my fur-trimmed carriage boots!"

Watermelons are quoted at above par these hot days. If you never have eaten your way through a melon, literally, like the approved fashion at Chase Hall, if you never have sunk your chops into the center of a juicy, red melon, fresh from its cool nest in cracked ice, there's a new delight waiting to be tried out.

The birds in this country are disgustingly healthy. In any other place birds sing timidly, but down here they open their mouths and bellow. There's a long, gray fellow that comes around to the ash can on the balcony at Chase, searching for something to fill his stomach. Yesterday that bird sat on the edge of the can and swore at me. If a bird ever wore a sneer on his face that bird did. He looked me up and down as though he didn't think much of me and made noises which sounded more like yelps than any other sound. Well, what can you expect in a country where the cockroaches drag your socks into the corner?

What to do! There aren't any more water meets, religious conferences or institutes of statesmanship. We don't start studying for a couple more weeks, and the days are too cloudy for Daytona. Bring out your marbles, boys, and let's have a game of keeps.

MISSSES EDWARDS TO ENTERTAIN WITH LUNCH

Misses Helen and Grace Edwards will entertain with a garden luncheon in honor of the members of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority at their home on Chase Avenue Saturday afternoon from four to six o'clock.

The Edwards rose and flower gardens, which are so well known and admired, will serve as the background for the luncheon. Afterwards, several lawn games will be played. A lovely time is anticipated by all.
