This special Columbus Quincentenary issue of the Florida Historical Quarterly is dedicated to Hector C. Borghetty, of Clearwater, Florida, who provided the financial support for its publication. Mr. Borghetty, a retired chemical engineer, is a native of Wellington, New Zealand. In his travels, he has followed the sea and land routes of the early Spanish explorers. Mr. Borghetty is historian at Safety Harbor Museum and is an active member of the Florida Historical Society.
