Call for Papers

The 2005 Annual Meeting of the Florida Historical Society will be held on May 18-21 at the Colony Hotel in Palm Beach. The meeting theme is "From Gators to Glitz: Community Builders in Florida," and papers and panels that focus on the community builders from Henry Flagler, Addison Mizner, and Carl Fisher to Cyrus Weed Teed and the Walt Disney Corporation are welcomed. Presenters are encouraged to suggest session chairs. Please send a full vitae (including email address) and a paper proposal to Dr. Nick Wynne, Florida Historical Society, 2005 Annual Meeting, 435 Brevard Ave., Cocoa, FL

Deadline for submissions is 1 February 2005. Scholars who are accepted for the program will be notified by e-mail by 15 March 2005. A full-length copy of the paper will be due to the Society offices by 15 April 2005.

Conferences

The editors of H-Florida and the Florida Historical Quarterly are pleased to announce the 2004 Florida History Online Symposium. The symposium theme is "Florida as Global History." The symposium will take place in person and online. In September 2004, H-Florida will post the online symposium to its subscribers. The Southern Historical Association will feature a round table of the symposium participants at its annual meeting in Memphis, 3-6

November 2004. In a future issue of the Florida Historical Quarterly, the individual essays and other commentary will be reproduced as a special issue. In order to subscribe to H-Florida, visit <http://www.h-net.org/~florida/>. For further questions, please contact Daniel S. Murphree at dmurp@mail.h-net.msu.edu or Robert Cassanello at cassanel@mail.h-net.msu.edu.

Websites

Issues of the Florida Historical Quarterly through 1996 are available online. Visit the Florida Heritage Collection at <http://susdl.fcla.edu/fh/> and do a title search for "Florida Historical Quarterly." While users may freely search and read these electronic versions of the Quarterly, permission to distribute them either in print or electronically must be received from the Society's office. Directions are available at the website.

Important Notice

As of 1 June 2004, the headquarters of the Florida Historical Society moved to 435 Brevard Ave., Cocoa, FL 32922, in the Alma Clyde Field Library of Florida History. The new telephone numbers is (321) 690-1971 and the new fax number is (321) 690-4388. The changes are necessitated by the Society's continued development of and renovations to the Rossetter House Museum and Gardens. The anticipated grand opening of this facility is expected on 1 September 2004. For further information, contact the Society offices.
