The award was presented to Dr. Percy and the Florida Historical Quarterly at the Society's Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C. in March 8, 2007.

FLORIDA BOOK AWARDS

Wayne A. Wiegand, Director of the Florida Book Awards and John Fenstermaker, chair of the Executive announce the 1st Annual Florida Book Awards Best of 2006.

"The Florida Book Awards is an annual program established in 2006 that recognizes, honors, and celebrates the best Florida literature published the previous year. It is coordinated by The Florida State University Program in American and Florida Studies, and co-sponsored by the Florida Center for the Book, State Library and Archives of Florida, Florida Historical Society, Florida Humanities Council, Florida Literary Arts Coalition, Florida Library Association, 'Just Read, Florida!,' Governor's Family Literacy Initiative, Florida Association for Media in Education, Florida Center for the Literary Arts, and Florida Chapter of the Mystery Writers of America.

"Submissions were read by seven juries of three members each nominated from across the state by cosponsoring organizations. Jurors were authorized to select up to five medalists (including one winner and one runner-up) in each of the seven categories."

In Memorium

The Florida Historical Quarterly joins the Florida Historical Society in mourning the passing of Olive Dame Peterson (1915-2007). A former president of the Society and winner of the Caroline P. Rossetter Award as Outstanding Woman in Florida History and the Dorothy Dodd Award, Olive Peterson was a well-known figure to Florida historians around the state. She was a founding member of the St. Lucie Historical Society and served as chair of the St. Lucie County Historical Commission. She also served on the Florida Advisory Council for Historic Preservation and the Fort Pierce Preservation Board. She was the author of two books, a biography of artist A.E. Backus (A. E. Backus: Florida Artist) and a book of paintings by the artist (A. E. Backus).

Olive Peterson was twice married, first to Lt. Ben S. Forkner, a naval aviator; after his death, she married Pete Peterson. Olive Peterson is survived by her husband of 59 years, a son, John, a grandson, Benjamin, and countless friends and admirers.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS TO THE FLORIDA HISTORICAL QUARTERLY

The Florida Historical Quarterly is a peer refereed journal and accepts for consideration manuscripts on the history of Florida, its people, and its historical relationships to the United States, the Atlantic World, the Caribbean, or Latin America. All submissions are expected to reflect substantial research, a dedication to writing, and the scholarly rigor demanded of professionally produced historical work. Work submitted for consideration should not have been previously published, soon to be published, or under consideration by another journal or press.

- Authors should submit three copies of the manuscript to the Florida Historical Quarterly, Department of History, CNH 551, University of Central Florida, Orlando, FL 32765-1350.
- Manuscripts should be typed and double-spaced (excluding footnotes, block quotes, or tabular matter)
- The first page should be headed by the title without the author's name. Author identification should be avoided throughout the manuscript. On a separate sheet of paper, please provide the author's institutional title or connection, or place of residence, and acknowledgments, if any. Citations should be single-spaced footnotes, numbered consecutively, and in accordance with the Chicago Manual of Style.
- Tables and illustrations should be created on separate sheets, with positions in the manuscript indicated.
- In a cover letter, the author should include phone number, fax number, email address, and mailing address. The author should provide a statement of the substance and significance of the work and identify anyone who has already critiqued the manuscript.
- Illustrations must meet the following guidelines: Pictures should be 5? x 7? or 8? x 10? black-and-white glossy prints; prints will be returned after publication. Images may be submitted in EPS or PDF electronic format at 300 dpi or higher. All illustrations should include full citations and credit lines. Authors should retain letters of permission from institutions or individuals owning the originals.
- Questions about submissions should be directed to Connie L. Lester, editor, at the address above or by email at clester@mail.ucf.edu or by phone at 407-823-0261.
