Speakers

Denise Bogart
Dorothy Mays
Mel Pace
Marta Westall
Denise Bogart

Denise Bogart is the program director of the Smathers Library at the University of Florida. She also teaches community college classes and seminars in stress management, leadership and supervisory skills. She earned her BS in forest resources and conservation, MS in science education and Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from the University of Florida. Ms. Bogart is a member of several associations including the Society of Human Resource Management, the Association of Academic Women, and the College and University Personnel Association.
Dorothy Mays

Dorothy Mays is the Head of Public Services at Rollins College. She has an MA in History from the University of Virginia, and her MLS from Indiana University. She has worked as a reference librarian at Wright State University (Dayton OH) and Ohio State University (Columbus OH). Her upcoming reference book, "Women in Early America," will be published by ABC-CLIO in 2005. Dorothy has been with Rollins since 2001.
Mel Pace

Mel Pace has been the Associate Director of the School of Library and Information Science at the University of South Florida for the past four years. His duties include teaching undergraduate and graduate level courses and writing grants. He has also been involved with several academic projects in South America. Prior to working at the University of South Florida, Mr. Pace taught at various elementary schools and worked in sales and marketing for many years.
Marta Westall

Marta Westall, Director of the Central Florida Library Cooperative (CFLC), has more than 25 years experience as a librarian, technology trainer, administrator and manager. CFLC is a member organization of more than 90 libraries in the Central Florida area. She began her career as a serials clerk, moving onto positions in academic, special, school, state and public libraries. At CFLC she is able to work with all types of libraries and see how their collaboration and cooperation makes each library better. She is Immediate Past President of the Florida Library Association. She received an M.L.S. from the University of Texas at Austin in 1979.
