NEWS YOU CAN USE FROM YOUR UCF LIBRARIES

August

2006

Welcome to the Libraries' 1st Issue of InSTALLments.

This newsletter will appear in every library stall and will be updated on a monthly basis.

Busy schedule giving you that "squeezed" feeling? Drop in at the main floor of the Library for an "Infusion" of coffee and snacks. Surf the web or just unwind!

Infusion new this fall at your UCF Library!

The Main Library shelving is approximately 96% filled to capacity, leaving very little available shelving for the roughly 40,000 print volumes added each year to the Library's collection. This near-capacity status means that Library employees are constantly looking for creative ways to make room for new books. In the photograph, employees are using a "stacks-mover" to literally lift and move an entire range of books over several inches to make room for a new section of shelves to be added to the end of that range.

"You've really got to start hitting the books because it's no joke out there"
— Spike Lee

Ever wonder how to cook up a "Goosberrie Fool," or what the ingredients are for "Quince Cream?" The recipes and cooking instructions for these dishes and more (such as "Sack Posset" or "Calves Feet") can be found in A True Gentlewoman's Delight, a cookbook published in 1653 by Elizabeth Grey, Countess of Kent. You can read this book ONLINE in the Women Writers Project, an electronic database available through your UCF Library. The Women Writers Project can be found @ <http://library.ucf.edu/Databases> - click on "W" from the alphabetical list of database titles.
