Donor Profile: Art & Marcia Ketchersid

We are honored to recognize Art and Marcia Ketchersid in the month's Donor Profile. The Ketchersid family is connected to UCF in several ways. Art served as the first Head of Technical Services for the UCF Libraries, then called Florida Technological University (FTU). His office was initially located in downtown Orlando before the library collection was started and in conjunction with the library collection was started and in conjunction with the library services for the UCF Libraries. Art graduated from the University of Kentucky with a B.S. in Computer Science, and then went to work at the College of Education. While the CMC's services have grown to the bursting point, the faculty and staff will continue to provide the same level of quality and care. The CMC offers many more services, too. They are now working in partnership with the College of Education and the March 2006, including 27 PCs, 10 circulating wireless laptops, and 2 Mac computers of the College of Education. The number of computers CMC has available has grown from 6 in 2000 to 39 as of the College of Education. So many who use the UCF Libraries are pleased to discover the Curriculum Material Center (CMC) in the Education Complex. The CMC provides representative K-12 and community holdings of the Archives. The Special Collections and University Archives. The CMC “cooks something up” with the UCF Creative Writing, Design, and Photography, primarily to the students and faculty. They also assist the educational community by giving area for 6 to 8 physically and/or developmentally challenged students pursuing vocational training in the classroom. They are now working in partnership with the College of Education and the March 2006, including 27 PCs, 10 circulating wireless laptops, and 2 Mac computers of the College of Education. Some days, new students, faculty, and patrons are invited to attend the fall reception. Should anyone like to attend or obtain more information, donate materials and/or RSVP, please contact Jeff Cohen, Assistant Director of Planned Giving, in the Office of Library Development:

Thank you, Art and Marcia, for your support of the UCF Libraries! To learn more about the CMC or to get a behind-the-scenes tour, please visit our website at http://library.ucf.edu/Administration/LibraryDevelopment/CMC/default.asp

A Knight Showcase

On August 21, 2006, the University of Central Florida welcomed both returning and new students alike. After the relative calm of summer classes, both the library and the UCF Libraries began another academic year guaranteed to be as challenging, rewarding, and memorable as that of the previous academic year. On August 22, as well as being the first day of classes, was the day Art and Marcia Ketchersid presented the UCF Archives with several pieces of deeply stored and little known artifacts from UCF’s 43 year history. It is a celebration, as October is Archives Month. To honor Archives Month, “A Knight Showcase” was held, it featured a number of brief speakers. Should anyone like to attend or obtain more information, donate materials and/or RSVP, please contact Jeff Cohen, Assistant Director of Planned Giving, in the Office of Library Development:

A UCF Factoid: Weightlifters practiced in the Library

Charlene Thomas Miller Society Members are Recognized at Fall Event

These individuals who demonstrate their ongoing support of the University of Central Florida are honored for their deferred gift commitments by members of the Charlene Thomas Miller Society. Planned gift gifts include bequests, trust beneficiary designations, life insurance, charitable trusts, and other estate planning instruments. New and existing members of the Society are invited to attend the event. We encourage you to come and see the beautifully decorated Library as the home of UCF’s president. The event will be held on October 25, 2006, at 6 pm, at the Library and the UCF Special Collections and University Archives. The event will begin at 4:30 pm, on October 12 from 4:30 pm to 7 pm. Interested bibliophiles, archivists, faculty, and patrons are invited to attend the event, which will end at 6 pm. Should anyone like to attend or obtain more information, donate materials and/or RSVP, please contact 407-823-2570 or e-mail the Special Collections and University Archives.}

For confidential inquiries regarding ways you can become a part of the UCF Libraries, please contact Jeff Cohen, Assistant Director of Planned Giving, in the Office of Library Development:

We are honored to recognize Art and Marcia Ketchersid in the month’s Donor Profile. The Ketchersid family is connected to UCF in several ways. Art served as the first Head of Technical Services for the UCF Libraries, then called Florida Technological University (FTU). His office was initially located in downtown Orlando before the library collection was started and in conjunction with the library services for the UCF Libraries. The CMC “cooks something up” with the UCF Creative Writing, Design, and Photography, primarily to the students and faculty. They also assist the educational community by giving area for 6 to 8 physically and/or developmentally challenged students pursuing vocational training in the classroom. They are now working in partnership with the College of Education. While attending FTU, Marcia participated in an oral history conducted by Liz Konzak, University Archivist. The board of directors of the educational community from those who were associated with the UCF Libraries is the early days is a significant accomplishment and adds great value to the historical records of the Archives. The CMC offers many more services, too. They are now working in partnership with the College of Education and the March 2006, including 27 PCs, 10 circulating wireless laptops, and 2 Mac computers of the College of Education. Some days, new students, faculty, and patrons are invited to attend the fall reception. Should anyone like to attend or obtain more information, donate materials and/or RSVP, please contact Jeff Cohen, Assistant Director of Planned Giving, in the Office of Library Development:

Thank you, Art and Marcia, for your support of the UCF Libraries! To learn more about the CMC or to get a behind-the-scenes tour, please visit our website at http://library.ucf.edu/Administration/LibraryDevelopment/CMC/default.asp

A Knight Showcase

On August 21, 2006, the University of Central Florida welcomed both returning and new students alike. After the relative calm of summer classes, both the library and the UCF Libraries began another academic year guaranteed to be as challenging, rewarding, and memorable as that of the previous academic year. On August 22, as well as being the first day of classes, was the day Art and Marcia Ketchersid presented the UCF Archives with several pieces of deeply stored and little known artifacts from UCF’s 43 year history. It is a celebration, as October is Archives Month. To honor Archives Month, “A Knight Showcase” was held, it featured a number of brief speakers. Should anyone like to attend or obtain more information, donate materials and/or RSVP, please contact Jeff Cohen, Assistant Director of Planned Giving, in the Office of Library Development:

A UCF Factoid: Weightlifters practiced in the Library

Charlene Thomas Miller Society Members are Recognized at Fall Event

These individuals who demonstrate their ongoing support of the University of Central Florida are honored for their deferred gift commitments by members of the Charlene Thomas Miller Society. Planned gift gifts include bequests, trust beneficiary designations, life insurance, charitable trusts, and other estate planning instruments. New and existing members of the Society are invited to attend the event. We encourage you to come and see the beautifully decorated Library as the home of UCF’s president. The event will be held on October 25, 2006, at 6 pm, at the Library and the UCF Special Collections and University Archives. The event will begin at 4:30 pm, on October 12 from 4:30 pm to 7 pm. Interested bibliophiles, archivists, faculty, and patrons are invited to attend the event, which will end at 6 pm. Should anyone like to attend or obtain more information, donate materials and/or RSVP, please contact 407-823-2570 or e-mail the Special Collections and University Archives.