While in Seattle to attend the American Library Association Mid-Winter meeting, Barry B. Baker, Director of Libraries, hosted The UCF Libraries...Then, Present, and Future, an event that provided library updates to UCF alumni and donors. Attendees enjoyed complimentary hors d'oeuvres and drinks as they mingled and engaged in conversation, reminiscing about time spent in the library. Special themes were extended to Jeff Looman, UCF Alumni Chapter Leader for the Seattle area, for his assistance in the planning and execution of the event.

If you would like to have The UCF Libraries represented at your event or gathering, please contact the Library Development Office at (407) 823-5982 or e-mail dwaine.teague@ucf.edu.

Elisabeth DeVos

A gift of $50 will enable you to honor someone with a "Memory" of friends or family and you may also designate gifts "In Honor" or "In Memory..." of specific funds within the library, and you may also designate gifts "In Honor" or "In Memory..." of specific funds within the library. As always, thank you for your support of the UCF Libraries.

Elisabeth DeVos' UCF Career and Memory Bookplates

No one became a software developer because they spent their childhood playing elaborate computer games. As it turns out, four years post graduation, Elisabeth decided that software development was not her cup of tea. Elisabeth went back to UCF and took a creative writing course. That course was the beginning of her fiction career.

Following a move to Seattle in 1986, Elisabeth enrolled in the University of Washington Extension Writers Certificate Program and earned a certificate in science fiction and fantasy writing. Her first novel, The Seraphim Rising, was published in 1993. She has had short fiction appear in Spaceport Magazine and the anthology Imagination Fully Dilated. Her first essay appeared in the anthology Mapping the World of Pegasus, which she is currently working on the second draft of a new novel. Although Elisabeth didn't stay in the software field, as a speculative fiction writer working on the second draft of a new novel, it is now easier than ever to show your support for the UCF Libraries!
