NEWS YOU CAN USE FROM YOUR UCF LIBRARIES

The Library will be CLOSED
Monday, January 21st
in honor of Martin Luther King

Martin Luther King Jr. 1929 – 1968

In the years since his assassination on 4 April 1968 in Memphis, Tennessee, Martin Luther King Jr. has evolved from a prominent civil rights leader into the symbol for the civil rights movement in the United States. In 1986, the U.S. Congress made King unique among 20th-century Americans by designating his birthday, January 21, a federal holiday.

To read more about Martin Luther King try searching one of the library's online resources: The Biography Resource Center. This online resource is available from the library homepage: <http://library.ucf.edu/Databases/Subjects/biog.asp>

Start Your Semester with a Bang!

Get a head start on those semester projects! If you need more help than can be provided at the Reference Desk or from the Ask-A-Librarian Service schedule a Research Consultation with a librarian for extensive, in-depth research assistance.  <http://library.ucf.edu/Reference/ResearchConsultations>

Coming Soon... IM with a Librarian!

The UCF Libraries will be updating their Ask A Librarian Ch@t Service this semester to add Instant Messaging! Soon you will be able to contact a librarian through AOL IM. We will still have the old forms of communication open—chat, email and telephone, but IM will make it easier than ever to contact a librarian about library resources, services, journals, books, and more. Keep checking our website for updates: <http://library.ucf.edu/Ask>
