Your Librarian
You know who your professor is but do you know who your librarian is? Each subject taught at UCF has a librarian assigned to assist students with their research. Visit the library website to look up YOUR librarian today!

Study Rooms
Go online and reserve a study room up to seven days in advance. Equipment varies by room, so look at the details to ensure you get what you need.

How-to Videos
Check out the Libraries’ Vimeo channel for videos showing how to find peer reviewed journals, use Interlibrary Loan, renew your books and much more! Don’t see a video you’d like? Let us know. We’d love to hear from you! https://vimeo.com/ucflibraries

Books
Choose from millions of books and ebooks for your academic paper needs as well as best sellers for some relaxation reading.

Textbooks
Select from hundreds of print textbooks on reserve, or see if your course textbook is available as an ebook.

Articles and Databases
Need peer-reviewed articles? Visit the library website to learn how to find articles and how to request the ones we don’t currently have.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL)
Can’t find the book or article that you’re looking for? Submit a request to ILL, so they can get it for you from a partner library.

Research Guides
Research Guides are second only to librarians as a great place to start your research. They can point you to the best databases and recommend print sources for your topic.

Videos/Media
Browse through the Libraries’ extensive collection of films offered on DVD or streaming formats. Feature films and educational films are available to support coursework or just when you need to take a break.

Other Collections
Curriculum Materials Center
Visit the CMC Library to find K-12 teaching resources as well as picture books, YA books, graphic novels, and movies.

Special Collections & University Archives
Check out SCUA to find UCF history and other unique primary resources like manuscripts, photos, and rare print materials.
The John C. Hitt Library building improvement project is here! The project will be completed in three phases providing amenities for students and faculty. New features will include automated book-retrieval, spaces for collaboration, a grand north entry (Student Union side), a scenic Reading Room perched atop the automated-retrieval center, over 3,200 seats, accessible restrooms, updated technology, and more creative learning environments.

For project updates, follow UCF Library on Facebook, Instagram, & Twitter, and check out our 21st Century Library blog: library.ucf.edu/21st.
