Students, Faculty Feel Bind of Spending Cut

The moratorium on statewide spending will have a direct and indirect impact on FTU. A memo from FTU Business Affairs Vice President John Philip Goree, dated Monday, Feb. 8, should worry faculty, students and staff.

The memo stated that as of 8 a.m. Tuesday, there would be a moratorium on purchases within the university, and that the curtailment would continue at least until specific guidelines could be issued.

"If a purchase cannot be deferred, our Action Committee will make a minimum expenditure decision," said Linda Davila, a sophomore psychology major at FTU, who tried to vote on it. The proposal does not name change through the Secretary of the Board of Trustees at FTU.

Just before the meeting, students tried to make a micrographic赚

"They may find they won't be able to get the services of their telephone because some of the services will be discontinued," Goree said. He realized that the hardships that would be imposed on the entire university staff will be a great loss from everyone concerned.

The whole state is in this thing together," Goree said. "This is our share of the load."

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has proposed an additional $19,000 to Florida's educational agencies for the fiscal year.

"This money has been earmarked for development of an undergraduate program in social welfare at the University."

Word of the grant proposal was received by Dr. William D. Allen, chairman of the Board of Regents, who predicted that all such funds are used only to stimulate growth.

The continuing grant is subject to renewal and may be continued, Dr. Allen explained.

Since February 1969, $129,000 has been used to develop a social welfare curriculum which has created an interest among educational students, according to Dr. Allen. As a result, he said, seven other universities are expected to join the moving spring quarter.

Another $100,000 for the boards and offices of the Florida Department of Education and Welfare continued to be used in the University of Florida's social science curriculum. Several FTU students are expected to receive the increased funds in the near future. The grant program have been accepted into graduate schools of the University.

Social Welfare is one of three groups of programs featured by FTU's Department of Sociology. Others are communications and criminal justice. A major factor in the social welfare training is the opportunity for field work and the tax-exempt practical experience.

Censorship, a proposed raise in the costs of tuition throughout the Florida University system and a hike in the costs of food and housing at FTU were among the subjects discussed in an interview with Louis Murney, M.D., a member of the Board of Regents and a active local physician. Murney predicted that in the board meeting on Monday, February 1, all three subjects will be discussed. Murney said that a definite decision will be reached only in the event of a proposed 12 percent hike in the expenses of food and housing at FTU. The proposed procedure, he explained, will be that President Charles N. Milligan will publicly propose the rate increase along with an argument for the proposal. The board will then discuss the matter and, hopefully, vote on it. The proposal does not need the approval of the state legislature.

When asked about the prospects of an increase in tuition, Murray said that the Board of Regents was researching the aspects of $15 and $25 dollar increases but that other Governor Askew or a legislative committee come up with the idea of a $50 markup. He went on to say that, as far as he knows, there will be a year before the state legislature to decide. The Board of Regents lacks the authority to finalize such a decision and can only recommend actions to the legislature after researching the issue.

The alternative to a tuition increase are the phasing out of certain programs in the system, general austerity throughout, or a moratorium on all new Ph.D. programs.

Krenn Art Print To Be Featured In 71 Pegasus

FTU's Pegasus '71 Yearbook will be printed by Taylor Publishing Company this year. Word that the bid for $42,000 for the yearbook manufacturing was awarded to Pegasus Editor Rose Page also announced that the yearbook would be the first with an undergraduate program.

He urged curtailment of printing, a major factor in the current financial crisis. He suggested that the board may have to consider that the present rate of expenditure will go through, the board meeting to be held in the Administration Building.

A agenda is proposed to be held in the Board of Regents' meeting to be held in the Board of Regents' Conference room.

Don't Be Bored On Board

Higher authority usually means authority too high to reach. But this Monday, it will be only three stories high. The Regents is holding its monthly meeting in the FTU Administration Building's Conference Room. The meeting is open to the public. That encompasses students, faculty, staff, parents, and any other interested parties. The main issue on the agenda is a proposed increase in housing facilities. The range will increase to as much as $50. When they meet in athletic competition. Then it usually consists of so...
Homecoming Is Coming

PTU's first Homecoming is coming. Activities will begin Thursday, January 28, and continue for two more days, until Saturday, February 2.

Joanne Pugliese, chairman of the Homecoming Committee, announced plans for the Student Government and Village Center-sponsored event.

On the first day of Homecoming, Homecoming Queen candidates will be presented, and elections for Homecoming will begin. Elections will continue through Friday, and a coronation will be given at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The parade will be held Saturday afternoon, and the festivities will continue through the evening.

Saturday will be the culmination of Homecoming activities. An Open House and road rally will be featured during the day. The evening will bring the homecoming basketball game, the Homecoming Dance, and the coronation of the Homecoming Queen.

Library Getting More of LLRB

Library expansion is continuing with the move of some books off the LLRB's third floor. When they are moved, the third floor will be usable by spring quarter, the library, currently the reserve desk and copying equipment. There will also be tables and carrels for study on the third floor, as well as lounge areas.

The third floor will house not only the reference service and periodicals, but also current and back copy. It will also house the reserve desk and copying equipment. In addition, the third floor will move its reference and periodical department downstairs.

AWORD IS PORTA THOUSAND PICTURES!
Inflation Even Hits Auxiliary Services

Commuters, in case you wondered just how bad things had become at FTU, now have a $1.15 lunch! That's right, next week you'll pay 16 cents more for the same food. The price increase is due to the cost of doing business in our present inflationary world.

When the price of last quarter's $0.99 lunch was raised to $1.15, the economics department recommended that rice be served. Eller thinks it is a better food item, and the cost will not be increased. However, Mays also has a word of counsel: the series of plays will be next. This is to provide easy opportunities. These are our two main goals.

Due to Nixon-Agnew Economic Policies, we are forced to DROP OUT of the Price Spiral Race!

Nursing Future in Fla. Tech Seminar Subject

A look at the future of nursing education in Florida will be the subject of a special seminar this Friday at Orange Memorial Hospital, hosted jointly by Florida Technological University and the Chancellor’s Office of the State University System.

Scheduled to participate in the three-hour session that begins at 11 a.m. will be representatives from the Florida Board of Regents, State University System, campus nursing, hospital and nursing officials, and key interest groups.

Coordinating the seminar for FTU are Dr. W. E. Ellis, Jr., Director of Research and Graduate Studies; and Dr. Pye, Chairman of FTU’s Department of Allied Health Sciences.

The nursing seminar series follows on the heels of similar action taken by the Board of Regents last year relative to the profession in developing medical education programs in the state.

The entire field of health care is under challenge to reorganize for more efficient service to the public,” stated Dr. Kenneth E. Penrod, Vice Chancellor for Medical and Health Sciences, State University System. “Traditional roles and responsibilities of personnel must be re-examined in the light of new knowledge and advances.”

The first hour of the informal seminar at Orange Memorial Hospital will be devoted to a series of ten-minute presentations by panelists who have spent considerable time in nursing education in Central Florida. There will be similar sessions statewide in general. The remainder of the session will be devoted to floor discussion and a question and answer period.

Panelists will be Virginia Albaugh, Division Chairman for Nursing, OMH; Dr. Ellis; Mrs. Lisette Pettey, Division Chairman for Nursing, Polk, Ocala, Orange, and Margaret Monahan, Executive Director, Florida Board of Registered Nurses Association; and Mrs. Rowena Rogers, Director of Nursing, Lake Highland Nursing Home.

In his charge to the seminar, Dr. Penrod noted a number of points for consideration. Among them: How does present day preparation suit the nurse for her patient care? How should the changing care patterns of the next decade or two affect nursing education? How can education be better articulated?

The Orlando seminar is the second in a planned series of nursing education sessions throughout the state, each hosted by a state university. The series follows a recommendation for statewide studies in the subject by the National Commission for the Study of Nursing and Nursing Education and the National League for Nursing.

Walk A Mile
For The March

A representative of the Orlando district of the March of Dimes will be on campus Tuesday at 11 a.m. to encourage students to “Walk A Mile for the Life of a Child.”

A 30-mile walk is being organized by the March of Dimes for March 8 to six miles to raise money to research prevent birth defects, and to make available services to any pregnant woman.

Money will be raised through requests for contributions to pay an amount of money for every mile a walk is cut. Each walker must have at least one sponsor, but can have more if he wishes.

The walk will begin in the morning March 8 at the Florida Normal Bank, N. Orange Ave., and will go south to Colonial Drive, from Colonial, the walkers will go east to Highway 158, turn north to Highway 17/92, and walk back to the starting point.

There will be checkpoints about every two miles for volunteers to report how far they have walked. Gatorside, furnished by Royal Crown Cola Co., will be available at all checkpoints, and there will be sandwiches at some of the points.

In order to receive free for the volunteers have walked, they will be given cards which will be punched at all checkpoints. Volunteers may then give the cards to their sponsors.

Although this walk is presented by the local chapter, March of Dimes walks are being planned throughout the U.S.

Lotz Nominated
To Submit Art

Lotz Leon of the FTU art department has been asked to submit samples of his work to be considered for an exhibit in Georgia College’s Fine Arts Symposium, “The Arts: The Eighth Decade. He is one of five nominees from Florida.

Nominations from ten southern states were chosen on the basis of recommendations from fellow artists to represent their state in an exhibition, “Painter’s Choice," which is part of this symposium.

Now Lotz, with the other nominees, will submit from six to ten slides of his work to be considered for the exhibit. Two painters from each state will be chosen to exhibit two paintings in her show, for a total of 40 works.

Raku Pottery Master Comes To FTU Library

By Grace Kehrer

FTU will host a unique and varied craft exhibit from February 2 to February 12. The work of Charles M. Brown, raku pottery master, and the fabric collages of Marilyn Pappas will constitute an exhibit in contrast. Mrs. Pappas’ work is as modern as the worlds of Pop and Op. Conversely, Brown’s raku ware is a new world revival of an ancient Japanese technique.

Mrs. Pappas is university-trained and at present an associate professor of art at Miami Dade Junior College. Brown is a self-admitted full-time potter. Both are award winners at craft shows and both evidence an individual and very personal style.

Mrs. Pappas has always worked in the field of art. She began her career as an elementary art teacher in Massachusetts. Brown began his career in 1962 as a result of a University of Florida extension course given in Jacksonville High School. In 1962 Brown’s recreation became a vocation. In 1962 he resigned a managerial position with a produce firm in order to devote himself full-time to pottery making.

In Mrs. Pappas’ work utilitarian forms and fabrics become the dimensional space. The vivid line between craft and art is blurred in her cloth assemblages. She strives for a new realism and tries to create an exciting stimulating visual experience for the viewer. Ingredients in a Pappas fabric collage may include parts of old shirts, worn socks, old coats, fake fur, buttons, army insignia, and a checked tablecloth. In the wall hanging entitled “The Wedding Dress” she includes old lattice and a hand embroidered Tennyson poem to help “enchant the romantic Victorian flavor” implicit in the garment.

Brown digs his own clay and grinds his own color for glaze. His pots grow out of subtle green and blue hues. In other pieces, the earthy colors of the ceramic form a backdrop for shimmering glazed tones of brown and copper. His black clay pots, finished in a unique manner to create this blackness, are decorated with geometric patterns that reflect his contact with pre-Hispanic ceramic techniques. Brown’s display will include examples of his ceramic hanging spheres, pendant jewelry and medallions.

A reception will be present at 1 p.m. scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. February 2 in the LLRB. The show will close 10 days later. This 10-day period provides the opportunity for more to explore the ever-expanding and expanding world of crafts and witness the eclectic, imaginative and original style and techniques of the craft artist.

Kinetik Art Series II, a collection of international creative films, will be screened in the Engineering Building on February 2 and 9. Program II is Feb. 10, and Program III is Feb. 17 and 24. All programs start at 8:15, and adjourn promptly at 10:00.

Seven of the films in this series are receiving their world premiere showings in the U.S. Several films have only been seen in film festivals, and right now this is a rare opportunity to see them. Kinetik Art Program is designed to bring international films by leading film makers to the North American audience.

Brown II includes such films as “The Room,” by Ornstein, Budapest; “The Great Personality,” Jan 115. Admission free.

Racketeers Swinging At Tech

1971 TENNIS TEAM – The ancient game of court tennis, considered by many a sport's enthusiast as being the largest growing sport in America, enters its second season at FTU in full swing.

The team's top-ten players, under the coaching of Dr. Alexander Wood, foresee a rough lineup of matches ahead this season. They are scheduled to play several powerhouse teams including: Rollins College, Florida International University, University of South Florida, Stetson University, Florida Southern, Florida Atlantic and possibly the University of Florida.

 Ranked number one on the tennis team is Donald Hodskins. Last year Hodskins won the title of All-American Junior College in tennis for the Central Florida area.

Battling for second and third places are Charlie Herring and Jim Kellhar. Herring brings a tennis scholarship from Orlando Junior College (now the College of Orlando) and a second place rank. Kellhar too has a tennis scholarship from OJC with a number one ranking.

Freshman Larry Whiter plays position number four on the tennis team. Whiter came to FTU from William H. Buena High School where he played the number one spot.

Ranked number five is Ralph Stone. Stone comes from Titusville High School where he was active in tennis.

Filling the number six position is Bill Bell. Bell is a transfer student from the University of Alabama where he was actively engaged in tennis.

Alternates Howard Brandwater from Bishop Moore High School, Dave Elzold from Maynard Evans High School and Bruce Broussard from Boone High School will serve as relief men during matches.

Coach Wood holds an interesting background in the league of professional tennis players, who in the early 1960's beat Italian tennis star Nick Pfeirangele then ranked number three in the world. In the 1960's Dr. Wood was a nominee for the Davis Cup in South Africa.

Before coming to FTU two years ago, Wood coached the varsity tennis team at FSU for five years.

The next tennis meet occurs February 11 when FTU plays the varsity team of Rollins College at Rollins.

Mike Lalone will be a fielding a team of extramural stars, led by Don Rabinson, a 6-3 guard who managed 14 points per game.

Team captain Thomas Egan, in an exclusive interview Wednesday, noted that the team recently lost Tom Cooper, a forward who averaged 23 points per game.

Coach Gene "Torchy" Clark, commenting on tonight's match, said, "The team's ready. We're coming to play, always." Egan explained that the lineup tonight depends on what the base is doing. "Many of the men are on the flight line, and may have duty tonight. Egan, a dentist at McCoy, a 6-0 guard who played half on Saturday. U. He averages 10 points per game.

He explained that two of the Tech starters were recently underscreened because of operations. "There's not a whole lot you can do without a specialist in the game. The team has a 24 point per game average. Mike Lalone leads the visiting New Yorkers with 35 points. The win put FTU's record at 2-0 for the season.

New Program At Tech
KnockedAbout:Clackers

A new coed intramural sport has been added to FTU's program, Den Glisson, head coordinator of Tech's intramural program, noted.

The implications for this new addition to the FTU intramural program have not been fully realized as of yet, but one idea knocking around is that such a "contact" sport should be allowed to open, to see "how the ball bounces." Gilson, in explaining the ramifications of this latest coed venture, revealed that the secret to winning is "how long you can clock 'em." It was noted that this contact will take place "possibly" at the Village Center Circle, Tuesday Feb. 9, at 11 a.m. in addition to the other sports on campus, perhaps a "Clackers Club" will be formed, and, upon approval by the Student Government and representing "crashing their success" in the eyes of the administration, be allowed into extramural competition. Then, perhaps, because of the brutality of the contact, FTU would form a "Flag Clackers Team" or a "Touch Clackers Squad," in hopes of reducing the injurious contact.

Then, if in nocrease, the Tech Clackers could possibly swing at area. A coach for the "Knight Clackers" would have to be brought in, and funds would have to go into the sport.

To get such approval, though, as many said sport as the FTU campus would have to "get on the thing." The tournament Tuesday might be something big -- not to mention food.

Miami Drops Grapplers

Miami Dade North junior college, the state's defending championship, beat FTU's grapplees 31-13 Friday. FTU is now 1-3 in the Independent League, are both undefeated and the winner of this game is the undisputed independent league basketball champion till the end of the season.

The game was played on the University of Tampa, one of the stronger teams, Wednesday night, Feb. 8 at 5 in the Village Center.

By Larry McCollum

Beulah's Bombers and the Roadrunners tangle tonight in a crucial independent league game. These two teams, the powers of the Black division of the Independent League, are both undefeated and the winner of this game will take the inside track towards the playoffs in the Men's Intramural Basketball League.

In the Preliminary League, TKE, led by Steve Barry's 21.5 points per game average, recorded victories over AX 72-69, AX 78-56, and AX 71-69. AX, after being defeated by TKE in the first half as they were overcome 26-25, in the second half, AX played TKE even 24-24. PAB, undoubtedly the most impressive team, beat SX 49-47 and pasted AX 78-29. In that game, PAB outscored AX 18-16 in the opening stanza. The other undefeated team, KS, walloped TEP by a score of 29-19. In another fraternity game, RX outscored TEP 34-29.

Beulah's Bombers, Circle K and the Roadrunners all recorded victories last week in the Black division of the Independent League. The Bombers won easily over PAB II 56-16, despite having only one player on double figures. The Bombers exhibited balanced scoring in Steve Jackson (10 points), Bob Gibson (9), Midley Lev (8), and Ray Bowen (6). Rick Turner and Gary Myers each contributed 18 points as the Roadrunners ran over, and, under, around TKE II, 61-51. Circle K outdistanced Tommy in a defensive battle 22-30, Ricks at 5 pm, undefeated TKE played twice defeated TEP. At Wednesday at 6 pm PAB will battle hapless TEP and on Thursday TKE will clash with AX.

Another important Independent game will be God's Children against GDII, led by Jerry Brown, and Albert Smiley on Tuesday at 10 pm. God's Children will face AX 76-28.

Chi Alpha is proud to announce to the FTU community their colonization, with Lambda Chi Alpha, this Sunday. The initiation ceremony is to be at the American Federal Savings and Loan Bank in Orlando with the Stetson chapter conducting the ritual. The day's schedule includes a banquet at Marks Club, a best party for all that night and probably the rest of the week.

Zeta numbers were given out this week and it is customary to give the number one to the brother who through his leadership and outstanding character has done most to instill the Greek ideals in the fraternity. Chi Alpha selected Daddy Gundy for the honor and Solar Alpha for the rest of the week.

The announcement of American history record cases of numerous political leaders that were arrested and characterized as dupes by their peers. Yet today many of these individuals are recognized as the true patriots of the past.

- Senator Edmund Ross was not only political but was also an important figure in the impeachment of President Johnson. Though he denied the charges, Ross could not, in good conscience, vote for the impeachment of President Johnson. Therefore, he refused to vote, and his name was added to the list of those who were considered dupes by their peers.

The defeat of Al Smith in 1920 was a significant political event that took place in the establishment of the role of religion in politics. Smith, a candidate for the Democratic party and a devout Catholic, was opposed by the Protestant establishment and lost the election. However, his defeat has been seen as a lesson for political leaders, reminding them of the importance of maintaining their principles.

He explained that the bill for electricity and utilities alone at FTU is $50,000 a month. How long will the curtailment of spending last?

"At least until June, maybe longer, if the legislature doesn't come up with some tax reform measures," he said.

"I wouldn't speculate on the long range effects to the university, but other university officials were meaning that the financial freeze could mean a curtail in future enrollment, hiring of teachers and other vital services."

"This financial problem hits FTU particularly hard," the business VP noted, "because FTU is in a real growth period.

Judy Cole will be the kind of teacher everyone would want to bring home. Judy, a Bishop Blue-eyed Sophomore Art Education major who, despite her campus activities and her studies, still has time to be beautiful. Judy might well be tennis and horseback riding and plans to teach art to a future art major."

The Placement Center announces the opening of an Employment Publications Library in Room 264 ADM.

There is now a full range of materials for most organizations coming to recruit on campus. In addition, a number of firms who are unable to come to FTU this year have asked that their materials be set up in the library with a list of names of persons to whom the student may send resumes or write for information. Many companies have sent application blanks which are on file for the student's use. There is a special section of the library devoted to Government literature, both Federal and State.

All seniors are welcome and encouraged to come visit the new Placement Center Library and spend a few minutes browsing and becoming familiar with jobs available in their chosen field. The literature is set up alphabetically for convenience of handling and easy distribution.
