The Florida Board of Regents gave unanimous approval to four FTU requests as its February meeting in the Regents Conference Room. The apparent change to FTU was the approval of a 12 per cent hike in food and housing costs for residents.

Also approved were a proposed undergraduate degree program in law enforcement, senior grants to 19 faculty members, and the promotion of William K. Gentry to Chairman of the Communications Department.

The increase will be effective in September and will add $640 per quarter to the housing cost. It is the first hike in room and meal costs since the opening of FTU in 1968. J. P. Goree, Vice President for Business Affairs, when giving reasons to the Board for the increase, said that the increase in salaries, utilities and food costs necessitated the hike. He explained that the University came under the minimum wage law after it opened. The motion, along with five other points on the program was voted on and unanimously approved by the Regents.

Following a 10-minute break Chairman D. Burke Kibler resumed the meeting and allowed Jim Stringer, SG president to have the floor and make his comments. Stringer had previously been told that he would have an opportunity to address the Board. He was, however, not given the floor until after the vote.

One of the points in attendance at the meeting then took the floor and was told to be seated as she was not on the agenda. With the rise in resident room and meal rates, students in double rooms will pay $140 per quarter after Goree's proposal was made, without any discussion.

"These are the things that create problems on the campus - the decisions affecting the students that they can't control," Stringer continued. "I think President Millican owes an apology to many people. He is not only responsible to the Board of Regents but to the students, parents, and community." Stringer was told by the Board that he would be given a spot on the agenda to speak in reference to the proposed hike. He was not given an opportunity to speak. D. Burke Kibler, Regent chairman, publicly apologized for omitting Stringer from the agenda stating that he had misunderstood Stringer's request.

"I have checked over the figures and the funds are most definitely needed. However, there has been no student-patient input. No one knew about the increase besides University officials," said Stringer.

The rationale behind the hike was presented to the Board by J. P. Goree, Vice President for Business Affairs. The housing hike was part of a step-park package unanimously approved by the Board. It was the only one of the points discussed.

The official agenda was not handed out because of the ignorance of the spectators. The motion was approved immediately.

FTU’s First Homecoming, with FTTU’s “Time Machine” as a theme, is beginning Thursday and will last until the end of the Homecoming dance, which begins at 9 pm on Saturday.

In between will occur a movie selection of a Homecoming queen, wrestling, a street dance, road rally, a medieval festival and an FTTUFTU basketball game.

Thursday beginning at 9 am, followed for Homecoming queen, will be in the GCB and the LCLR photographs of the candidates will be posted near the ballot boxes. The candidates will be presented to FTU students in the Multi-Program Room at 11 am to noon Thursday.

"True Grit," the Academy award winning movie starring John Wayne, will be shown at 10 am Thursday in the SCAUD.

Friday’s activities will begin with a continuation of the Homecoming queen, elections which will be held in the GCB and LCLR. A lunch concert will be at 11 am Friday in the Multi-Program Room featuring folk trio "It’s Time."

The evening, the Nite of Knights will feature skits, a wrestling meet and street dance. Skits performed by campus organizations will be at 6:30 pm in the FTU Ten. A wrestling meet between the visiting campus and FTTUFTU basketball game, and a street dance, at 9 pm, will be in the multi-purpose room. Those in private room will continue to pay $180. Goree explained that the prie room cost was not raised because the rate is high already. The 15-meal weekly food plan will be increased to $100 and the 21- meal plan will go to $175.

The FTU spoke with J. P. Goree concerning the hike. He explained that a $9,000 deficit was incurred by housing and food service in the 1969-70 academic year with housing responsible for $18,000 of the deficit. A deficit of $18,000 has been projected for 1970-71. According to Goree, if there are no extra funds from the dorm construction, the increase in food and housing would have occurred last year.

Goree stated that the increase will amount to approximately $30,000 this year. The remaining $9,000 will be placed in a separate account.

One of the causes of the hikes, utilities, has increased over 18 per cent. The university spends about $75,000 on fuels and the increase is greatly affected due to the drought. According to Goree, if there are any extra funds from the dorm construction, the increase in food and housing would have occurred last year.

At Monday's meeting of the Board of Regents, as most of you know, an increase in room rent and food plan charges for FTU was approved. The Board voted to increase the per diem rate for students at the Engineering programs by $15, and raise the room rate by $25 per month. The increase was due to the fact that the university administration was facing financial difficulties and needed to increase revenue. The per diem rate for Engineering students will increase from $200 to $215 per month, and the room rate will increase from $250 to $275 per month.

A constitutional amendment was introduced into the Student Senate that would divide the powers of the president and vice president of the student body. The constitutional amendment stated that "Only the Vice President of the Student body can call special meetings of the Senate." This amendment was voted down. I feel that this was a mistake on the part of the Senate. As it stands now there are really two people who can originate senate meetings: President Jim Bringer and Vice President Richard Lassiter. This constitutional amendment, if passed, would have eliminated one of the rising possibilities. A second agenda was made up just before the meeting occurred and asked that the President of FTU not be involved in the issue, although FTU at the meeting, President Millican and Vice President Rich Nordly were asked what items "three through eight" were--item number eight was -- the 1/2 per cent hike in food and housing costs at FTU.

What happens if you want to give the Board your opinion? You have to write it down like a letter, although you can't try to speak before the board at one of its meetings. At that meeting one woman tried to speak and was told to sit down because she couldn't be recognized before the meeting was called to order.

Jim Stringer, the FTU Student Government President, managed to talk to a Chairman Riley before Monday's meeting and was given recognition. Unfortunately, the chairman misunderstood Stringer's interpretation. He then made his final statement after the vote was taken on the issue for which he wished to speak. But then, why would he wish to speak after the proposal has been decided?

In order to speak before the Board you have to put a request through President Millican. He, in turn, will put it through a vice-chancellor who will give it to his department before the scheduled meeting. That's the easy part. Next you have to know who, in turn, will put it through. How will you know when that will be? The presidents of the universities get large, quiet letters before the meeting and have never quite gotten the specific one.

So, if you are writing a letter? You still have to know what to write. The 1/2% increase was supposed to be voted on during the Board meeting, but the Board had decided that a January vote would have taken everyone by surprise. At least this time we knew, almost by reading it, that we were going to have to pay an increase.

University administrators at all levels seem to have a constant fear of student protest demonstrations at FTU as well as at other universities in this country, for that matter. Because of the student newspapers like these and the subtle hairline fractures that already exist, you will have to watch your every move if you are on an academic or non-academic program. They're probably remembered for the class of '71 took everything in stride as the dissension of the future. What then the administration won't realize is that the dissatisfied students of the future may be the ones who will be on the agenda of the next meeting.

The real purpose of the meeting appeared to be a forum to allow the student body to express their opinions. Some, I believe, wished to present the human side of the proposals because we, unlike those students who can be directly related to student abuse, this may sound like racketeering, was able to discuss. The idea of the student body to speak before the Board at one of its monthly meetings. At the last meeting a month ago, this meeting has been held, the two officials representing FTU at the meeting, President Millican and Vice President Rich Nordly were asked what items "three through eight" were--item number eight was--the 31% hike in food and housing costs at FTU.

As for the rate increases on room and board, about the only thing that can be said is this, it was inevitable. This increase in room rent has been mounting on the horizon for a long time, and I'm surprised that it didn't happen before now.

The main reasoning behind the rent increase is the raise in maintenance costs, and the rise in maintenance costs can be directly related to student abuse. This may sound like the same idea at the same time. It is an example of the fact that the money that we are spending on our dormitories is a result of the cost of dealing with abuse and property which borders on vandalism.

It is indeed unfortunate that the majority of residents are going to be hit by the rent hike, for some few students, even they their carpet for an ashtray, or pound holes in their walls, or try to turn their bathrooms into swimming pools. Until those students with a few exceptions, don't increase their room rent, the majority will continue to be penalized for the immature actions of a few.

Mackey Named President

Dr. Cecil M. Mackey was named President of the University of South Florida. In the February meeting of the Board of Regents at FTU, Mackey, 42, currently Executive Vice President of Florida State University, will be the second president of the 11-year-old university. Mackey was one of 27 candidates and will succeed Dr. Harry Dean, acting president of USF.

The Board also appointed Dr. Charles Cornelson as Dean of the $21 million College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Florida, replacing Dr. Mackey, 42, at Florida Technological University. The proposed expansion is scheduled to open in 1974.

In other Board action, it was approved the medical schools - University of Central Florida. The proposal was approved by the Board and sent to the Legislative for action.

Dr. Mackey was named President of the University of Florida and Florida International University. The proposal was approved by the Board and sent to the Legislative for action.

The state of Florida is in the process of establishing two new state universities - University of North Florida and University of South Florida. University students attending the University Center Board approved a contract for School of Clinical and Medical Education.

The Second Annual TKE Installation was held on Monday evening, March 6. The theme was "It's Greek to Me," and was enjoyed by all the brothers and guests. This year, beginning next fall, the College at the University of Florida will host an all-Greek turtle race with all fraternities cheering on their favorite turtle. Then, on Sunday, the Tye meet the Tri-Ks in a football game with the International Fraternity, as part of the ceremony which made it extremely dirty last Saturday. Sir:
The purpose of this letter is to express my concern over our American Prisoners of War and Men Missing in Action in Southeast Asia. You, the North Vietnamese, Father Lao and Viet Cong, have refused to release a complete list of prisoners or any assurance that the men receive humane treatment.

Please do not be misled into thinking the American people do not care about the plight of these men. We do care and are appealing to you to honor basic codes of decency by releasing the men and by releasing these men, held so long, to their wives and families.

And the Children Wrote In Chalk

By Grace Kehrer

Once upon a time in a land far from the dust cities a concerned monarchy began to build a special kingdom just for the children. This government built a castle for its children to play in while it awaited their coming of age. It was the way of this monarchy that the children would be happy and grow strong in this special place, free from the cares of ordinary life.

After the building was well under way and the first of the children settled in the kingdom, the resident magistrates looked about and saw the children were unhappy. The children were sad, the officials reasoned, because they were isolated and therefore ignorant of the delightful shimmering visions alive in the world beyond the kingdom’s borders. After much discussion, the magistrates decided they would make the children smile by bringing the dreams of the outside world to the children. To achieve these ends, a proclamation was published calling for men of vision to come and amuse the children. Royal representatives were commissioned to carry the message to lands beyond the horizon; judges, hunters, poets, priests and prophets were invited to come to the children’s kingdom and display their singular wares and talents. The children soon discovered, the children would be happy. The children would be entertained.

But one day a strange program was presented to the children. It was a show composed of two distinct yet related parts. The first was a kind of adolescent frenzy to manifest itself in some of the children. Part of the exhibit was positive nature of creative man. One part of the show had the air was surrounded with draperies, clothes closets, toy chests, rag bags and dusty attics. Army uniforms, metals, insignia, ribbons. Possibility it was the emotional force of the exhibit that so upset some children; no one knows. What was clear, to the most casual observer, was this show caused a kind of adolescent frenzy to manifest itself in some of the children. Maybe because this exhibit caused them to think and to feel some became agitated. Thinking and feeling can be painful. Pain doesn’t cause confusion and bewilderment — this is true. The children’s comments, written comments on the Charlie Brown exhibit, were sought, and comments were exactly what the children were less than complimentary.

The other half of the exhibit was challenge the children. Thinking and feeling can be painful. Pain doesn’t cause confusion and bewilderment — this is true. The children’s comments, written the display. In this half of the exhibit, this part grew so quickly from the present that G.I. took immediate action. It was closer proximity to a Victorian wedding dress then did it to modern jewelry and mini skirts. The other half of the exhibit was the joyful lube of a gentle man, who, by his own admission, maintained a humble attitude toward his creations. A man who continued to search for perfection in the concrete realization of his dreams. A gentle man who created because he knew he must. A man who found happiness in his work and purpose in his labor. A quiet

Winning Films

Flick At FTU

Central Florida’s answer to the international film circuit is being found Tuesday at FTU, when a three-part series of prize-winning films from around the world gets underway under sponsorship of the university’s Village Center.

This full evenings and 22 films comprise the series, which has been dubbed “The Kinetic Art” by the distributor, Universal/Palace.

Films to be shown ran the gamut from the legendary “Egypt, O persepolis,” directed by the late Jean Cocteau, to some far-out animation and sick-quick. Seven of the films are world premiers in the series, and another seven have been shown only at festivals. Night are by American film makers.

The series has been designed to bring the choice new films of leading film makers directly to North American audiences. An example is Philippe Garrel’s “Marie Pour Meme,” the first of his films to be exhibited in this country.

The schedule of showings of “The Kinetic Art” Program I, Feb. 9-10; Program II, Feb. 16-17; Program III, Feb. 23-24. The first did honor to international films, including “Egypt, O persepolis”; the second honored the documentary films, including Bruno Bozetto’s “Ego;” the third honored the genre films, counting Garrel’s “Marie.”

All showings were done at the SCAUD at 8:15 p.m. Admission will be $1 at the door.

Tech To Get Gymnasium?

Big-time athletes at FTU in the near future may be more than a dream, insiders say.

Coach Gene "Torchy" Clark has often mentioned the fact that his scheduling was be better facilitated by having a gymnasium. "We could get more practice with more team like Stetson and Rollins to come and play if only we could get the facilities," explained Clark.

So the key to big-time athletics at FTU, or, as Clark would say, "Tech To Get Gymnasium?" is learning that King got in touch with Snyder a few days ago for King to talk with him to New York.

It seems that Snyder wants to talk about a gymnasium, and to get interested in "helping" a school that needed it. It seems that the New York universities turned Snyder off. King explained the situation here at FTU and Snyder said, "But I want to talk in New York about it." King, dismayed, thought that Snyder meant he wanted to invest only in schools in the New York area. But Snyder further explained, "There is no way that I can afford to do that." King came up in New York to talk.

"So, with plans in hand, King has traveled north in hopes of bringing back a gymnasium for FTU. He is due back today.

John Rouse Leads Knights To Victory

Ever heard of the Paul Snyder Teaching Gymnasium? Maybe your fingers crossed and one day you might see it rising from campus. This is an architectural drawing Executive Assistant George King took with him on a visit to New York where he was going to talk to Snyder. King, a millionaire and former student of King's, was interested in the idea of a football team. So he was going to talk to Snyder, a millionaire and former student of King's.

King recently got in contact with Snyder. When he got in touch with Snyder, he learned that Snyder had begun a company named Queen Freeze, owner of a New York pro basketball team and philanthropist in general.

FTU wrestling coach Gerry Gorgely, also knew Snyder and had been a student at Snyder's Queen Freeze. Gorgely drew up the plans for a possible "George P. Snyder Teaching Gymnasium" a few days ago for King to take with him to New York.

It is said that Snyder "was not interested in "helping" a school unless he could see a profit in it." Snyder recently said that he was interested in "helping" a school "with a chance." Since then, Snyder has turned his attention to the New York universities turned Snyder off. King explained the situation here at FTU and Snyder said, "But I want to talk in New York about it." King, dismayed, thought that Snyder meant he wanted to invest only in schools in the New York area. But Snyder further explained, "There is no way that I can afford to do that." McGyver Tops FTU, 104-97

After trailing at halftime, McGyver came back to hand FTU's Knights a 104-97 defeat. While FTU was ahead at the half by a score of 49-46, All five starters registered double figures for FTU. McGyver led by Sapp with 25 points and Thornton with 24.

Mike Clark took in 32 points to lead all scorers for McGyver. The Knights were in double figures: Rudi Jesse scored 20 for Sun Flanagans, Mike Lalone had 13, and Ed Smith contributed 14.

The McGyver AFBL will challenge FTU's 104-97 record at the Orendo High School Tuesday night. King's Knights travel to Southwestern Georgia Monday night and will challenge the AFBL Thursday night.

FTU Basketball:

Dr. Lewis Murray, Oralband on the Board of Regents, said Monday in an exclusive FTU Sports interview, that a football team for FTU "is out of the picture right now." He did not dismiss the idea of a football team, though, saying, "I think FTU could get one, if they could get the right person to the FTU campus and university in general. I hope we can get one in the near future.

The item of a football team was not brought up at Monday's Board of Regents' meeting. It had not been put on the agenda, and after the hours of struggling with the other struggling with the other financial matters, it was not even mentioned by the FTU staff present.

SPTES SHORTS

Patti Mackowen and Linda Stith see the forerunners in the Women's Intramural Table Tennis tournament. The tournament is still in progress.

Teambasketball is coming up for women beginning February 25. The deadline for entry is the previous day 6 pm.

PAE Takes KS, 35-26

By Larry McCooch

PAE remains the only undefeated freshman team on the FTU campus. They defeated KS Monday, 35-26. This is a hard-fought battle, with next Monday's home game against Blackroadrunners and GDH. Rather than try to use the only perfect series in the Independent ranks, PAE's victory over KS isn't without keeping with their higher scoring past performances. The game turned out to be as the 1971 Super Bowl. Both teams were up to par with PAE having the height advantage overall.

"The House of Happy Banking"
Staff 'n Such is a column designed for FTU club news. Any campus club is welcome to submit articles by noon on the Tuesday before the desired publication date. These articles may include the announcement of a new club's formation, meeting times, officer elections, and any activities the club has participated in or is planning.

Also, occasional pictures of selected club activities will be taken to be used with the column. If a club is planning an activity that they feel merits a picture, they may request a photographer from Nancy Jones. Staff 'n Such columnist, in the Homecoming Advisor, Ad 114.

Picture requests should be made a week in advance to insure that they will get into the issue immediately following the event. The "Staff 'n Such" column, including copies of pictures which can be purchased from the FTUAds, can be of great value to club historians. Any and every campus organization is invited to make use of the column.

OUTDOOR CLUB
Do you like fun in the sun? Do you enjoy camping, canoeing, horseback riding, fishing? Do you enjoy any other form of outdoor activity? If the answer is yes, head for the Outdoor Club. The club meets on Tuesday at 11:30 am.

New outdoor planning is a beach party, including fishing, boating, and cookout. Students interested in going must sign up for it at the Tuesday meeting.

More outings will follow. All FTU students are invited to join the club.

Sponsor of the club is Dr. Roy Jones of the math department.

MEETING
Tired of the present social activities of the dormitories? Want to set up your own rules? Now is the time to do something about it! The Men's Residence Association (MRA) will soon be planning a plan to subsidize dormitory government so as to allow each half of the dormitory to evolve their own rules. But, students must demonstrate cooperation and active interest! Contact Terry Grimes, R-1 dorm, suite 180, room B, ext. 4201, about dorm reorganization.

Let's get our own rules.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB
The International Club, recently formed on campus for those students interested in foreign cultures, holds its meetings each Thursday at 11 am in Ad 147.

Yesterday there was a social, theatrical, organizational, discussion-type meeting. Next Thursday John DiPierro, professor in Hispanic languages, will discuss "Job Opportunities in Latin America." An open house with coffee and doughnuts will be held on February 18, and on February 25, DiPierro will give a lecture on "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme.

Presently the members of the club are preparing a series of short Spanish plays to be presented at a later date. Last Saturday a small group attended a loan in honor of the Populism of the Spanish students at the Parliament House. Plans are to be made to take an active part in making exchange students welcome in the community.

PUBLIC RELATIONS
A public relations club is now forming on campus. Membership is open to any student, with a definite interest in public relations. Meetings are held in Ad 149 every other Tuesday at 11 am.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, and vacancies for officers will be filled. Chris Thomas is president of the organization, and Bob Bailey is vice-president. To be chosen Tuesday are the secretary-treasurer, publicity, and project coordinators.

If you are interested in joining, please see President Charles Millikan, Dr. Stephen Levensohn of Humanities and Fine Arts, or Dr. Charles Unkovic, chairman of Social Sciences, among others. The idea is to learn more about some of the outstanding men on campus.

FTU's two representatives, Maryke Loth and Janet Vickers, to a Florida Residence Housing Association conference in Tallahassee the weekend of January 22.

Student Wanda Martin was guest of the Student Government representative. There is a possibility of FTU hosting a conference of the association in the coming year.

WRA, in trying to set up activities for the resident students, has planned activities for this weekend, which include kite flying (weather permitting) and coke-rap-slumber party for housewarming or bored women residents.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS
The FTU chapter of Young Republicans is ready for another quarter of hard work. Under the leadership of its newly elected president, Mike Rodgers, they hope to be as active this quarter as they were last quarter. The new officers are Mike Rodgers, president; Neil McMillan, vice-president; Bob McMillan, treasurer; Paul Gouglerman, secretary; and Ted Linton, sergeant-at-arms.

The club has grown to fifty members and is in the May convention to have even more. Members are being solicited. Join the political group that is more than just words.

Practicing for the next faculty recital are Leonidoo Sarakatsanis, chairman of the FTU Music Dept.; Arpaez Scomore, assistant professor of music, cellist. The concert, to be held Monday, Feb. 15 at 8:30 pm in the Science Auditorium, will feature the works of Richard Strauss (Sonata in F Major, Opus 6), Manuel De Falla (Suite Populaire Espagnole) and Zoltan Kodaly (Sonata for Unaccompanied Cello, Opus 8). FTU students, faculty, and staff are invited as are members of the community. No admission. (Photo by Chuck Seltzer)

Due to the graduation of two officers, the Theta Sigma Chapter of the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi held elections to choose a vice-president and a new president. Congratulations to Russel Cole, the new vice-president, and Harry Fletcher, the new chancellor.

Theta Sigma Pi is proud to announce that 10 new brothers entered the brotherhood of Delta Sigma Pi.

Congratulations to the following men: John Arco, Rose Cole, Eddie Collier, Howard Howell, Hieko, William Huford, Kenneth Martin, John McMann, John Tubb, and Duane Williams.

After a very successful rush period, Theta Sigma Chapter of the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi is happy to announce their new pledges for the winter quarter. They are Eugene Collier, Eric Gamble, Charles Leonard, Joe McMillian, Ronald Rutstein, Kenneth Smith, Robert Snowden, Jeffrey White, and John Wolfa, Jr. Congratulations to these men on their first step toward brotherhood.

A national nod of recognition has been given to Delta Sigma Pi.

The fraternity has been honored as one of the 10 most efficient chapters of college and university Delta Sigma Pi around the world.

To win the honors, Theta Sigma Pi had to prove that they were the most efficient honors chapter in the professional and business-male manner in which they conducted their chapter affairs and also for contributing to the welfare of the university and community.

Among accomplishments recognized by the FTU Delta Sigma Pi are: first local fraternity to be granted national affiliation, highest academic average of any FTU fraternity in 1970, most speakers on campus from the university, and a host of civic projects.

The law enforcement degree program received endorsement largely based upon wide support for the proposal from lawmen throughout central Florida. Objectives of the program are to train professionals in law enforcement at various levels and to provide training for officers who display potential as administrators.

Millican said that the increase was "a routine business matter, needing to be brought to the attention of the Board." He explained that although it appeared that the request was "pushed" through, it was handled with what he considered normal dispatch. The increase was originally scheduled for approval at the January Board of Regents meeting in Tampa. Millican said that the request had been placed before the Regents again program received endorsement from the ban, and also ask that the public nuisance law, under which the ban was made, be declared unconstitutional.

Named in the countersuit was County Solicitor Ram Powell, State Attorney Robert Eagan, Sheriff Dave Starr and Vice Squad Lt. Bob Tanner.

Battle Of Band Ban

FTU Sophomores Morris Furenman, Orlando Sports Stadium Owner Pete Ashlock and Ashlock's wife have filed suit in federal court asking that a ban on rock concerts at the stadium be lifted. Eisenman is a successful promoter of rock shows at the stadium, scene of repeated controversy involving the local law enforcement drug crackdowns.

Recently, after county vice squad agents claimed they were chased from the stadium grounds by a group of chanting, swearing young people, a circuit court judge ordered Ashlock to refrain from further concerts bookings. The Ashlocks and Eisenman are now seeking federal court relief from the ban, and also ask that the public nuisance law, under which the ban was made, be declared unconstitutional.

Named in the countersuit was County Solicitor Ram Powell, State Attorney Robert Eagan, Sheriff Dave Starr and Vice Squad Lt. Bob Tanner. The plaintiffs ask $20,000 damages for alleged loss of revenue from cancelled bookings of rock groups.

They claim they have been forced to become "self-censors" of musical groups and have been forced to determine not only what they believe the term 'hard rock' to mean, but in addition to determine what the defendants define as 'hard rock.'

Powell and Eagan, the suit alleges, have tried to suppress free expression and assembly by obtaining the ban and the sheriff's office failed to provide adequate law enforcement officers to keep the peace at the stadium. The suit also cites "continuous harassment and intimidation by local newspapers.

A hearing has been set today before U.S. Judge George C. Young for the purpose of seeking the temporary restraining order to lifting the concert ban.
