APPLICATION FOR GRANT

Prepared for:

The Los Angeles Academy of Vocal Arts

June 7, 1982
June 7, 1982

Mr. Daniel Selznick
Louis B. Mayer Foundation
9441 Wilshire Boulevard
Beverly Hills, CA 90212

Dear Mr. Selznick:

The purpose of this letter is to submit to the Louis B. Mayer Foundation an application for a planning grant for and on behalf of the Los Angeles Academy of Vocal Arts.

The Los Angeles Academy of Vocal Arts is a proposed teaching institution formed under the leadership and direction of Mr. Seth Riggs. Its program will offer a comprehensive and intensive instruction for a full-time enrollment of 20 singers with recognized talent and professional potential. They will receive intensive instruction in vocal technique, repertoire, site singing and ear training, audition preparation, movement, dance, pantomime, fencing, acting, language and other skills and techniques essential to the preparation of the aspiring vocal artist. The teaching approach and the vocal techniques espoused will be those developed by the director of the institution, Mr. Seth Riggs, whose pupils have demonstrated an uncommon ability and preparation for professional advance (see attachment A). Mr. Riggs' pupils completely dominated this year's western regional audition awards for the Metropolitan Opera Association (first and second place).

At this stage of its development, the institution needs funding for the planning and feasibility study which will guide and launch its formation. Topics to be covered include:

- Legal structure and non-profit incorporation
- Trustee selection
- Statement of purpose and philosophy
- Curriculum and instruction plans
- Space requirements
- Site alternatives
- Proposed operating Budget including revenues, expenses, and development needs

Considerable progress has been achieved in all of these areas—in particular a prominent list of interested citizens—vocal performers, business people, entertainers, producers, medical doctors and the like have expressed willingness to serve in a trustee role.
Among those who have expressed such receptivity and interest in trusteeship are Ms. Jean Dalrymple, Mr. Thomas Hayward, Mr. Georgi Tozzi, Mr. Frank Guerra, Ms. Carol Burnett, Mr. Hal Prince, Mr. Stevie Wonder, Dr. Lillian Glass, Dr. Edward Cantor, Dr. Henry Rubin, and Mr. Daniel Wolfus.

Tentative curriculum plans and programs have been developed and investors identified. A first year operating budget of $320,000 is estimated and initial space requirements on the order of 4,000 to 5,000 square feet are indicated. Tuition of $4,000 is proposed which is 25 percent of the per student cost of the proposed educational service. A need for endowment and scholarship support on the order of 50 percent of cost is indicated and a student teaching support program equivalent to 25 percent of cost is planned. Students in the Academy will teach affiliated apprentice students to earn these funds. Degree programs are proposed. The Academy objective as to accreditation is not yet determined.

What is now needed is a presentation which communicates all of the planning done to date in a format which aids its implementation. The non-profit corporation needs to be incorporated and a board of trustees put in place. A calendar for implementation needs to be established which would include a statement of Academy programs and curriculum, staffing, budgetary and operating requirements, alternative sites and space availabilities and other aspects of planned operations.

The magnitude of the grant requested for these purposes is $7,500. The largest part of that amount would be used to fund the costs of preparing the required planning documents identified above. This statement will be prepared under my direction and its costs are estimated at two thirds to three quarters of the stipend requested. My qualifications in preparing planning materials of this kind are known to you and include extensive feasibility planning for CalArts, Orange County Music Center, and other cultural institutions shown in the attached brochure.

Please let me know if additional data is required.

Respectfully submitted,

Harrison A. Price
President

Broadway, with six seasons as guest-artist with the New York City Opera, and on their tours.

Basic premise of teaching is that "if you can't sing your own English language with an 'even registration' it is not going to sound better in a foreign language."

Loves foreign languages and loves all of foreign repertoire but he's not so impractical as to believe that it is the "end all of singing."

"In the U.S., unfortunately for a young singer, state requirements for accreditation are foreign languages and foreign repertoire, which brings about a sad opportunity to sing poorly through bad instruction. English language can be unintelligible because of the ignorance of the foreign language, i.e., when the singer uses English, both teacher and student have to 'bite the bullet' as poor vocal technique is exposed."

Pet Peeve: "That musical theater, which is a truly American form, and opera, which is primarily an European form, are made to look down on each other through the ignorance of a workable vocal technique which can support both forms, and enable the singer to earn a decent living in this country."

He suspects that "it is the teachers' ignorance of such technique which makes them fear such a concept."

"This is understandable because many of the teachers were 'brought up' in academia and have never done professional work in this country, and, therefore, have no direct knowledge of the vocal requisites. And, even though they may be members of an opera union, they don't have the experience of working as an actor on stage, or as a dancer that can move."

Mr. Riggs, himself, has been used in four productions by Agnes de Mille, as 'an actor-singer who can move well.'

Mr. Riggs will show baritones vocalizing through Hi C, without strain, without pulling "bottom," or going into "falsetto," heavy soprano voices, up through coloratura range, and show vocal similarities between pop, musical comedy, and opera.

Last summer, Mr. Riggs replaced three international voice technique teachers at Banff, (in Lake Louise, Canada,) where he was in charge of 33 opera singers for the Canadian government. He was asked, and consented, to work with 20 young actors from Stratford. This, again, is an indication of the practicability of his vocal approach to a workable technique.

He also does vocal therapy, that is, elimination of vocal nodules, polyps, and various conditions of fibrosis for Dr. Hans Von Leden, President of the L.A. Medical Association, Dr. Edward Kantor, Dr. Henry Rubin, and Dr. Robert Fedder.

Mr. Riggs' students have won over $250,000 in prizes, grants, and fellowships over the last 10 years including Metropolitan National Awards; Chicago's WGN; Rockefeller Grants; Young Musicians' Awards, Saltzburg Festival Award; and Fullbright and Rotary Scholarships to Europe.

He draws an average of 600 new voice students per year; 40% opera, and 60% musical theater.
