Central Florida Future, Vol. 35 No. 11, September 23, 2002

9-23-2002

Find similar works at: https://stars.library.ucf.edu/centralfloridafuture

University of Central Florida Libraries http://library.ucf.edu

Part of the Mass Communication Commons, Organizational Communication Commons, Publishing Commons, and the Social Influence and Political Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

https://stars.library.ucf.edu/centralfloridafuture/1691

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Central Florida Future by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact lee.dotson@ucf.edu.
Claiming turf for free speech

Hitt to sign revised policy to open three new campus locations for assemblers

ADAM ROSCHE STAFF WRITER

President John Hitt is expected to make his decision later this week on a proposal to expand free assembly zones on campus.

The proposal will expand the zone from a single existing location in front of the Math and Physics Building to include three other high-traffic areas on campus.

The proposal wants to open the brick mall area between the John T. Washington Center and the Student Union, the open grass area bounded by the Chemistry Building and Apollo Circle and the grounds near the northeast corner of the Arena for petitioners and political activity.

The discussion has expanded on the free assembly zones on campus.

During an open forum at UCF in April, President Hitt agreed to form a committee to look into the issue. A committee of approximately 10 people, appointed by vice president William Merck, unanimously approved the plan to expand the zones to the three additional areas.

"What we thought we would do is make this recommendation to the president, assuming he approves it, and then we try it out," said Merck. "Over the course of the next year, if it needs to be tweaked or changed, every year we can up vote and change it."

The free assembly rule is outlined under UCF's Golden Rule, which allows university buildings and grounds to host exercises of free speech and assembly in specifically designated areas.

William Faulkner, director of Student Leadership Programs, said the expansion is a result of the school's growing campus.

Since the original zone was implemented in front of the Math and Physics buildings, new buildings have been constructed in the past two years that have redirected traffic to other areas on campus, away from the Math and Physics buildings.

I don't walk over there [Math and Physics building], but I often walk near the Student Union," said freshman Stephanie Holmes.

Students in the past, who have had an option to stop and listen to speakers in the free assembly zone or avoid them by taking alter-...
2002 All New GTI
Lease for $253 per month +
monthly tax for 48 months
17" Alloys, Side Airbags, ABS, Keyless Entry, Alarms and much more
• 4 Yr. 50,000 Mile Bumper-to-Bumper Warranty
• 5 Yr. 60,000 Mile Powertrain Warranty
See sales person for details.

2002 Jetta GL
Lease for $219 per month +
monthly tax for 48 months
Side Airbags, ABS, Keyless Entry, Alarms and much more
• 4 Yr. 50,000 Mile Bumper-to-Bumper Warranty
• 5 Yr. 60,000 Mile Powertrain Warranty
See sales person for details.

2002 New Beetle GL
Lease for $219 per month +
monthly tax for 48 months
Side Airbags, ABS, Keyless Entry, Alarms, and much more
• 4 Yr. 50,000 Mile Bumper-to-Bumper Warranty
• 5 Yr. 60,000 Mile Powertrain Warranty
See sales person for details.

2003 All New Passat GL
Lease for $299 per month +
monthly tax for 48 months
Side Curtain Airbags, ABS, Keyless Entry, Alarms,
Power Pillows and much more
• 4 Yr. 50,000 Mile Bumper-to-Bumper Warranty
• 5 Yr. 60,000 Mile Powertrain Warranty
See sales person for details.

2002 Golf GL
Lease for $209 per month +
monthly tax for 48 months
Side Airbags, ABS, Keyless Entry, Alarms and much more
• 4 Yr. 25,000 Mile Bumper-to-Bumper Warranty
• 5 Yr. 60,000 Mile Powertrain Warranty
See sales person for details.

Drivers Wanted

ARISTOCRAT VOLKSWAGEN
407-365-3300 www.aristocrat.vwdealer.com

We can assist you with:
✓ College Grad Program
✓ First Time Buyer
✓ Credit Problems

*Deposits are not required with all credit-eligible individuals for some vehicles. See dealer for complete details and restrictions.
Green peace petitions politicians with post cards

Danielle DiPari

"Hey do you like clean energy in Florida?" Jessica Isola, an intern with Green Peace, calls out to students walking into the Student Union.

Danny LeJeune, a biology major, hears her question and stops at the informational table to find out more regarding the issue. He admits he doesn't know much about clean energy in Florida but is worried about the environment and believes the government should be concerned as well.

Jessica explains to LeJeune that global warming will inevitably cause disastrous consequences in Florida — diseases, boiling temperatures and diminished beaches.

LeJeune signs and says, "If we don't take care of the environment, we will have no place to live, and then nothing else will matter."

Green Peace, an international environmental organization, is heading a campaign called Clean Energy Now! in Florida. The purposes of the campaign is to educate Floridians about global warming and its impact on the environment.

Green Peace is currently in Orlando coordinating programs at UCF and Rollins College. At UCF, Interns and volunteers are educating students and encouraging them to sign a post card that states a generic statement of support for solar energy in Florida. The post cards will be mailed to Gov. Jeb Bush's office.

The post cards are signed and volunteer recruitment will take place for three weeks and is just one portion of a long-term program.

Isola said: "The purpose of the program is to put pressure on government and government candidates."

"So far we have been very successful here in UCF, most people are signing and students have been pretty responsive."

Daniel Gross, Central Florida field organizer for Green Peace, said that the main point of the post cards is to encourage Bill McCrude and Bush to take a stand to promote clean energy.

"The cards are a powerful vehicle for community and public concern about global warming."

"The campaign will prove effective when the Florida government begins to make clean energy a part of their political agenda."

Politicians commonly mass post cards to voice an effort to convince residents to elect them into office.

Kevin Bruenbeck, correspondence director for Senator Bill Nelson's office, said that their office has seen many voters begin to utilize mass mailing as a way to inform politicians of their position on particular issues.

"Some people no longer read newspapers, they have the internet, phones and cell phones. The internet access is an invaluable tool for these people."

"People now have the methods to communicate with their representatives."

"Most mass mailings prima- rily express concern about healthcare issues, entitlements and the environment, the complaint," he said.

"We like to hear from all Floridians and consider everyone's opinion," he said.

Currently, city leaders in Orlando have experienced a vast amount of political feedback from voters through mass mail- ings about a potential amend- ment to the city's anti-discrimin- ation law.

The proposed amendment, which would add sexual orienta- tion to the list of protected classes, has garnered such an overwhelming amount of mail, mainly from Orlando citizens who adamantly oppose the amend- ment, that City Council hired a person to handle the flow of mail that comes to City Hall.

"City councilwoman Patty Sheehan said, "By far through the most mail I have received has related to banning discrimi- nation based on sexual orienta- tion for housing and public accommodation.""

Sheehan and political science professor Audrey Jewett say the mass mailing method is not the best way to influence politicians and not an accurate way to gauge voter support.

Sheehan said: "When I had a lot of mail regarding my first controversial issue, I checked whether the people (who were writing) were threatening my re- election votes. (Ironically, most were not even registered to vote, and this is a public record.)"

Sheehan and Jewett explained that mass mailings are not as effective as personal letters. The personal letters allow one to understand issues better.

"Mass mailings, that are simply post cards that all say the same thing in exactly the same words, tend to be somewhat ignored by politi- cians. Taking time to write con- cerns on an individual's own words is generally more effective."

While some politicians say that mass mailings are not influ- ential as personal letters, Green Peace has managed to prove successful.

In California, Green Peace petitioned for solar power legis- lation as a viable source of energy and obtained it by mass mail- ing post cards to state leaders. The organization hopes to accomplish the same feat in Florida.

Green Peace will encourage students to write individual let- ters to politicians expressing their concern about the issue, as they become more informed about the issue throughout the campaign.

For the next few months, Green Peace will speak to classes to inform students about global warming, will host various activities and will use their solar bus during Bush and Michael Moore's visit to campus at the end of October.
Financial aid, environmental preservation among major concerns

Palast to produce documentary on November gubernatorial help George W. Bush capture the state's electoral votes, and ultimately the presidency. In the film, Perez and Sekler accuse Gov. Jeb Bush of taking blatant actions to help his brother win the presidential election.

FROM PAGE 1

"Unprecedented" reminds viewers that the state's recent election troubles are nothing new. The problems involved in the Democratic primary, the filmmakers said, resulted from the faulty leadership of Gov. Jeb Bush.

Palast, an investigative journalist for the British Broadcasting Company and the author of the bestselling book, "The Best Democracy Money Can Buy," will speak before the screening. Palast uncovered much of the material upon which the documentary is based.

"I can't imagine why other reporters weren't investigating it," said Palast. "This was a Jim Crow election. There were thousands of black voters who were denied. I was in London and saw one black person after another come forward and say they hadn't been allowed to vote."

Said Perez: "I think the film illustrates step-by-step how the Republican Party stole the presidential election in Florida, and how they undermined democracy."

Said Sekler: "Jeb Bush and [Secretary of State] Katherine Harris asked a database technology company to include thousands of names of people on a felons list. Names of innocent people who had never committed a crime were put on the list." Felons cannot vote in Florida's elections.

Perez and Sekler said they have copies of internal documents that prove their claims, which they cover in the film.

Palast said a comparison of vote counting in two counties, Leon and Gadsden, illustrates the manner in which the 2000 election was rigged to aid George W. Bush.

- Election officials refused to count the votes of many black voters who made small inadvertent marks on their ballots in the predominantly black Gadsden County while white voters in Leon County who made similar marks were allowed to vote again, said Palast.
- Palast blames the flawed democratic process in Florida for the blunders during this month's Democratic primary.
- "I don't think it's a problem with the Democratic primary, it's a problem with Florida democracy," he said.

Perez and Sekler, independent filmmakers from Los Angeles, will visit UCF as part of a statewide tour to promote the film, which they recently completed.

"I think it's really incredible timing that we finished the film at a time when this is happening again," said Sekler.

Perez described the motivation to make their film.

"Joan and I were really upset during the election fiascos," said Perez. "That was the most obscene thing to us. We were in California. We were pissed off that this could be happening in our country."

Perez added: "Every time we screen this film, people leave upset. We want people to channel that anger at the ballot box."

Palast describes "Unprecedented" as a humorous call to action.

"You'll see me chasing the Florida elections supervisor with evidence in hand," he said. "It's grim, but it's also humorous."

Asked why people should see "Unprecedented," Perez answered: "Because there is a botched contested election in November in Florida. We want to motivate people to get out and make a difference."

Progressive Council will show "Unprecedented" in Room 101, Computer Science Building. Wednesday evening's presentation will begin with a speech by author Greg Palast at 7 p.m.

Palast will appear again at UCF at the end of October while he documents Florida's gubernatorial election. He will attend the gubernatorial debate at UCF on Oct. 22.
Upcoming Activities September 23 - October 5

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23
Homecoming King and Queen applications due in OSA office by 5 pm

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24
8 pm Tuesday Knight Live Comedian, Louis Ramey, Wackadoo's, SU

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25
11 am - 2 pm VUCF Green Ribbon Day, SU South Patio
12 pm - 2 pm CAB Caribbean Festival, SU South Patio
12 pm - 2 pm Campus Activities Board "Table of Activities," TieDye - Bring your own shirt, SU South Patio
7:30 pm "Say it Right, Hear it Right" Communication Workshop by EKCEL, SU Cape Florida Ballroom

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28
3pm - 1am Freshman Frenzy, SU
10 pm - 2 am Late Knights, SU

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1
1:30 pm Knights of the Round Table Meeting, SU Rm. 316AB
3 pm Homecoming Organizational Meeting, SU Rm. 316D

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3
5 pm - 7 pm VUCF Best Buddies, Carpool from Millican Hall 4:30 pm

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5
6 pm - 12 am Cultural Arts Movie Knight, "Minority Report" and "Mulan," Knights Crossing Phase 3 Club House

Special Upcoming Events

EKCEL Workshop - "Say It Right, Hear It Right"
September 25, 7:30 pm, SU Cape Florida Ballroom
Using games and fun, we will go over how to communicate effectively with those around you. Learn how to get your point across in any situation so that others will hear what you are really saying - and vice versa. You will leave this session understanding what you are really saying when you speak to others.

Late Knights
September 28, 10 pm - 2 am, Student Union
Come once a month for a night of free fun and entertainment right here on campus! Highlights include free food, comedians, inflatable games, karaoke, Dj, movies and more!

The North Star Summit was a success!
Congratulations to all the students who were part of making this leadership conference UCF's newest tradition. It's never too late to get involved! Visit our web site to find more opportunities for leadership development.

For more information on any of these activities visit the office of Student Activities, SU Rm. 208, or call 407.823.6471

Visit us on the web at osa.ucf.edu
Funded by the Activity and Service Fee as allocated by the Student Government Association
Game day outlook: strict measures, low tolerance

Tiffany Repecki
Staff Writer

Officers are turning up the heat against alcohol misuse and abuse through a prevention program called Operation Knightwatch.

UCF’s first home football game this Saturday will launch the start of the joint effort between Seminole and Orange Counties Sheriff’s Offices, Florida Highway Patrol and Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco to nab underage tailgaters who drink and drive.

“Every year there’s one or two students killed in a [alcohol-related] accident. We’re trying to prevent that,” said UCF police department Lt. Mike Zelanes.

Sophomore Antoinette Theodore has no opposition to punishing students for underage drinking.

“If you’re under 21, you’re not supposed to be drinking,” said Theodore. “So [the police] are doing what they’re supposed to be doing. They’re protecting us.”

Along with underage drinkers and intoxicated drivers, the program targets convenience and liquor stores that sell alcohol to underage customers. The program also checks to make sure establishments are not selling alcohol after 2 a.m.

“Some of these places, you could be 12 years old and walk in and they’ll still serve you,” said Zelanes.

Besides enforcing the law, Knightwatch wants to work with local bars and student hangouts to prevent alcohol abuse and ensure establishments have enough security to handle large crowds.

Said Williamson: “We’re not really grading the program on a scale, we’re working together to prevent the abuse of alcohol.”

Shootin’ hoops

Scott Jackson puts up a shot on the basketball courts at the Recreation and Wellness Center Sunday morning.

URSA’s KING OF PIZZA

679 N. Alafaya Tr., Orlando, FL 32828
United Resident’s Student Association proudly announces the winner of the 2nd annual King of Pizza contest, chosen by popular vote!

URSA would also like to thank other contributing businesses for their support of UCF residence life programming.

Get FREE Legal Services

Problems with? Need help with?
- Landlords • A will
- Name change • Insurance
- Divorce • Contracts
- Police • Notary

Student Legal Services provides students with assistance in selected areas of law such as landlord/tenant, consumer, chapter 7 bankruptcy, criminal, traffic & uncontested dissolutions. Qualified students can receive consultation and representation free of charge.

http://pegasus.cc.ucf.edu/~stulegal

For information or an appointment call 823-2538 or visit Student Resource Center Room 155
Monday - Friday 8am-5pm
Funded by Activity & Service Fee through the Student Governing Association
THE ALL-NEW TIBURON. CATCH ONE WHILE YOU CAN.

At just $15,999, the all new Tiburon gives you exhilarating performance. Plus standard features like dual front airbags, front side airbags, air conditioning, 6-speaker stereo with CD, power windows, door locks and heated mirrors, cruise control, alloy wheels, and the freedom of America's Best Warranty, the Hyundai Advantage." So take the drive today. Because this is one car that hates to sit still.
The bill, sponsored by Student Body President Marco Singh, said he wanted to reconsider his first vote. Singh said his reason for reconsidering was that more senators joined the meeting after the first vote occurred. The bill, sponsored by Student Body President Marco Peña, failed during the first vote by 8-6. Brian Kirtlow, student body vice president, has the ability to break tie votes, but he abstained on the vote. After the first vote was taken, Singh declared that hiring lobbyists was a good idea, but later voted against the bill. Singh told senators it should wait on voting because SGA did not know how much funding it had, and some of its members were still too undueated about the issue to make a knowledgeable decision.

A change in software made current financial data unavailable for a report to Senate, said Ryan Komanski, comptroller/financial officer to SGA.

Singh's move to reconsider his vote made Sen. Anthony Tsomilis suspicious.

Said Tsomilis: "Singh was pretty clearly against [the bill] and for him to reconsider his vote, he would probably only do that because of some sort of pressure or some sort of play made to affect him or one his clubs he represents."

Singh would not comment on the issue, and Tsomilis did not want to name the person who he thought may have changed Singh's decision.

Out of 39 current senators, 23 attended Thursday's meeting — 16 of whom engaged in the lobbying bill's first vote. The bill passed on its second vote by 13-7 and three abstentions.

Before senators voted for the second time on the lobbying bill, Marcus Gould, a former senator and current director of SGA's Special Projects division, spoke to the body explaining the importance and need for a private lobbying firm.

Said Gould: "We need this place to function like a business. Can any of you name any corporation that has a $10 million budget where the CEO of that corporation does not have a legal adviser that is actually a lawyer?"

The lobbying bill must be approved by Peña and Tom Huddleston, vice president of Student Development and Enrollment Services, before it can take effect.

POLICE BEAT

Silly student, kicks aren't for cops

CARLY MORRIS
Vernon Writer

Andrew John Odell, 20, was arrested Sept. 14 on charges of resisting arrest with violence, possession of marijuana under 20 grams, possession of a counterfeit identification and disorderly intoxication.

Odell presented a fake ID to get a wristband at a Kappa Sigma party. Sergeant Troy Williamson asked Odell where he went to school and where he was from, to which Odell gave several conflicting responses. Williamson told Odell he would be arrested if he did not tell the truth, but Odell insisted that the ID was his.

 Williamson tried to handcuff Odell, but he resisted and refused to follow instructions. Officer Mangus and Sergeant Carpenter were called in as back up. Odell kicked Mangus in the right arm when he attempted to remove something from Odell's pocket.

Odell was handcuffed and carried to the patrol car for further questioning. Once in custody, Odell told Mangus, "You aren't Bill Rollins (College security).

I see fake people

Mark David Tishman, 18, was arrested Sept. 15 on charges of possessing a fraudulent license and alcohol under the age of 21. Officer James Roberts stopped Tishman for having a broken headlight.

- Roberts observed a bottle of Budweiser rum in the back seat of the vehicle. Roberts asked Tishman and his passenger Adam Jeffrey Robbins who purchased the rum.

Tishman admitted he did and gave Roberts the fake ID. After arresting Tishman for possession of alcohol and a fake ID, Roberts searched Robbins' wallet for a fake ID.

Roberts found a counterfeit Wisconsin driver's license with Robbins's name and photo inside. A search of the passenger area of the vehicle uncovered a burnt pipe with marijuana residue.

Robbins, 18, was arrested on charges of possession of counterfeit identification and drug paraphernalia. Tishman and Robbins were both transported to the Orange County Jail.

Strike two

George Michael Sologuren, 23, was arrested on charges of driving with a suspended license and possession of marijuana on Sept. 15.

Officer Michael King stopped Sologuren where he got the rum, he said Orman gave it to him. Roberts asked Orman for his side of the story, and Orman denied drinking. During the search of his vehicle, Roberts found a counterfeit $5 bill.

Orman's passenger, Michael Skoile, 18, was arrested for drinking rum earlier in the evening. When Roberts asked Skoile where he got the rum, he said Orman gave it to him. Roberts asked Orman for his side of the story, and Orman denied drinking. During the search of his vehicle, Roberts found a counterfeit $5 bill. Orman was transported to the UCF police department.

Twice Orman dissolved officer or stopped over the handcuffs to place them in front of his body. Additional charges are pending for the counterfeit $5 bill.

Colleagues Carly Morris can be reached at cmorris@utflorida.com.

The Central Florida Future • September 25, 2002

8 • News

Huh?

Healthy Eating: College Style

Hey, FREE healthy snacks!

NEW AMAZING WORKSHOP!

Wellness Center

CAMPUS WELLNESS CENTER

407-823-5841

for more info call, or stop by the Rec. & Wellness Center.

Thursday Sept 26th

7-8 pm

University of Florida press-based distance education courses (correspondence study) offer students convenience and flexibility. Study at your own pace, reset prerequisites, satisfy the Gordon Rule, and complete program at your own pace. Go to our website for details, and a complete course listing, or to enroll online.

www.fed.ufl.edu

800.327.4218 - 352.392.1711

Degree seeking students must get authorization from their academic division to enroll properly.
‘Girl Gone Wild’ may get her day in court

JAMES L. ROSICA
KNOTL RIDGER NEWSPAPERS
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The case of a former Florida State University student who exposed her breasts and unwittingly became a “Girl Gone Wild” may go to trial in Tallahassee.

But the Girls Gone Wild video makers defeated a similar lawsuit in Louisiana earlier this year, in which a judge ruled that women who “flash” in public don’t have to consent to being filmed.

Jury selection has been set for Oct. 7 in Becky Lynn Gritzke v. M.R.A. Holding and Mantra Films, producers of the Girls Gone Wild video series, which features young women baring their bodies, usually in public.

The 25-year-old Gritzke, a one-time swimsuit calendar model, said she was videotaped without her permission when she pulled up her top on New Orleans’ Bourbon Street at the 2000 Mardi Gras celebration.

The footage wound up in the Girls Gone Wild “Sexy Sorority Sweethearts” video, which includes unrelated scenes of other women performing sex acts, according to court documents. Gritzke’s photo also is on the cover and nationally-distributed ads.

She first sued in September 2001; the case now is in federal court before U.S. District Judge Robert Hinkle.

Gritzke is seeking more than $75,000 in damages, and an undisclosed cut estimated to be in the millions - of the profits from the video’s sale.

Her case now rests on two claims: That her likeness was used without her permission, and that her appearance in the video has unjustly subjected her to ridicule, embarrassment or disdain.

But the Girls Gone Wild team has wrapped itself in the First Amendment, saying in court records that Gritzke’s “removing her shirt in public at the world famous Mardi Gras celebration is certainly a matter of public interest (and) publications of public nudity generally are considered newsworthy.”

Case law largely has not recognized a right to privacy in public. But the courts have affirmed a person’s right not to have his or her image exploited commercially.

Gritzke’s lawyers at first said she did not know she was being taped because the video cameras were hidden. The tape featuring her was shot by an independent cameraman who sold it to Girls Gone Wild.

But according to recent court filings, Gritzke asked the cameraman, “What’s with the light?” and he answered he was “making a video.”

That doesn’t constitute consent, according to documents filed by her attorney, Kelly Overstreet Johnson of PLEASE SEE Gritzke ON 11.

UCF vs Liberty
Sept. 28th
Get your ‘game day’ apparel at CB&S or Knights Corner Bookstores to show your spirit and save your money.
Saturday hours 12:00 to 6:00pm
Receive a free MAC conference pin with any $50.00 clothing/gift purchase.

www.collegebook.com

GO KNIGHTS!
A university is noble place to foster reason, not merely a loudspeaker for skulls full of mush.

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]

[ cuts ]
TITLE VI: THE ELECTION STATUTES

From Page 9

Tallahassee, Johnson declined comment to the Tallahassee Democrat, citing federal court prohibition on talking about impending cases.

On March 3, Judge C. Hunter King of the Florida 2nd District Court dismissed the suit by three underwomen who were included on another Girls Gone Wild videotape.

In that case, the women—two were at the time and the third was 17—were drinking at a New Orleans club during March 2010 and had to return to their breaths to a cameraman.

Johnson said that the suit by the 2nd District Court did not involve any charges of doubtful votes or photographic taking place, he said, according to a hearing report by two people who seemed like they were pretty willing... "When you do it on Bourbon Street and you know and you know there is an individual with a video camera", certainly you must expect that is going to be shown all over the place in 2010," Hunter’s decision was not appealed, so Johnson conceded that Judge King’s analysis of whether the evidence for a new trial...

[Florida Statutes, unless otherwise noted]

A. Special Elections

A. A Special Election will occur if any of the voting machines are to be replaced.

B. Candidates

Only qualified candidates (those who win in the Primary Election, including written, verbal, and/or electronic campaigns) shall be placed on the ballot for the Special Election.

On the ballot for the Special Election shall be placed as follows:

- C. Election Process

D. Special Elections

A. Special Elections will follow the next regular election.

E. Voting Dates

- F. Voting Hours

- G. Verification Process

H. Certification Process

I. Final Report

J. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

K. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

L. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

M. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

N. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

O. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

P. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Q. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

R. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

S. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

T. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

U. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

V. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

W. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

X. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Y. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Z. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

A. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

B. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

C. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

D. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

E. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

F. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

G. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

H. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

I. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

J. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

K. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

L. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

M. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

N. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

O. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

P. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Q. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

R. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

S. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

T. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

U. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

V. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

W. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

X. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Y. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Z. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

A. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

B. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

C. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

D. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

E. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

F. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

G. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

H. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

I. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

J. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

K. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

L. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

M. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

N. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

O. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

P. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Q. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

R. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

S. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

T. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

U. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

V. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

W. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

X. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Y. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...

Z. Senate Statutes

Section 231 of the Florida Constitution...
When will people learn that the First Amendment is not meant to protect the speech that society deems nice or appropriate? How many times will college administrations attempt to deny college newspapers their right to free speech, and how many times will they get away with it?

Last week Seminole Community College attempted to trample on student journalists' rights, threatening to halt their publication unless they agreed to remove offensive words like bitches, ass and shag that appeared in an opinion column about contraception. The government does not know what crime any given foreigner commits, but it is their right to remove offensive words that cross the proverbial line. The government does not have a right to tell the student the truth that their argument is false. The government does not have a right to censor the article that will cause more outrage and interruption than running a few profane words could.

SCC's administration reversed because they knew that to censor the article would cause more outrage and interruption than running a few profane words could.

By trying to restrain information as a way to teach their students responsible judgment regarding the rules of journalism, the guidelines for libel, slander and obscenity, administrators showed students that the First Amendment is actually secondary when it comes to compromising appropriateness and neatness.

Lucky for The Service and other college newspapers across the nation, that editors like Acker realize that newspapers have the right to report and editorialize, no matter how intelligent or moronic their language and discourse.

Most college students can stand to read an opinion column that contains a few naughty words, but won't stand by and allow administrators to deny them their right to free speech.

Our Stance:

No right more fundamental than freedom of speech

"Only two things are infinite, the universe and human stupidity, and I'm not sure about the former." -ALBERT EINSTEIN

Letters to the Editor

There are several other reasons students might agree with this move. The move continues the government's effort to inform students before they search their records.

The Registrar's Office receives requests for student information on occasion. "It's not uncommon," said Burgess. Burgess said that local law enforcement agencies have brought forth occasional subpoenas to investigate possible immigration violations, but, as far as he knows, no inquiries relating to terrorism.

Burgess did not want to speculate what evidence investigators could gather from student records, and he said the school does not know what crime any given for subpoena is for.

Government agencies thus far have not invoked the Patriot Act at UCF, but hundreds of universities across the nation have given up students' records to investigators. In the process, the government has violated the privacy of those students. The country gave up students' records to investigators. The government does not know what crime any given foreigner commits.

For the wrong reasons, administrators showed students that the First Amendment is actually secondary when it comes to compromising appropriateness and neatness.

Lucky for The Service and other college newspapers across the nation, that editors like Acker realize that newspapers have the right to report and editorialize, no matter how intelligent or moronic their language and discourse.

Most college students can stand to read an opinion column that contains a few naughty words, but won't stand by and allow administrators to deny them their right to free speech.

Our Stance:

War on terror does not justify violation of students' privacy

The government must be obligated not to tell the student the truth that their argument is false. The government does not have a right to censor the article that will cause more outrage and interruption than running a few profane words could.

By trying to restrain information as a way to teach their students responsible judgment regarding the rules of journalism, the guidelines for libel, slander and obscenity, administrators showed students that the First Amendment is actually secondary when it comes to compromising appropriateness and neatness.

Lucky for The Service and other college newspapers across the nation, that editors like Acker realize that newspapers have the right to report and editorialize, no matter how intelligent or moronic their language and discourse.

Most college students can stand to read an opinion column that contains a few naughty words, but won't stand by and allow administrators to deny them their right to free speech.
Free speech shouldn’t compromise standards, professionalism

HORSE WITH NO NAME

Joey Myers
Staff Writer

Seminole Community College student Margaret Acker is fighting the wrong battle.

Acker, the editor-in-chief of The Scribe — SCC’s school newspaper — is defending her right to freedom of speech after her school’s administration deemed an opinion column by one of her staff reporters inappropriate and demanded she alter the opinion with their revisions.

Acker, who had revised the opinion about unwanted pregnancies and sexually active teens once already, refused to make any more revisions and SCC’s administration literally stopped the presses to prevent the vulgar column from going to print.

Acker’s concern appears to be the idea that if she gives an inch, it will inevitably turn into a mile, and if her school’s administration objects to printing a few profane words, they may next time pull an article that slams an administrator.

What journalist wouldn’t agree? As a journalist myself, I would stand up in a heartbeat to defend the First Amendment. Each one of us has the right, thanks to our forefathers, to speak our minds and express ourselves freely.

But Acker’s intentions, while noble, are misplaced. She’s defending her right to free speech even though free speech isn’t the issue at hand.

SCC is not doing anything illegal or unethical — they aren’t trampling all over her right to express an opinion. As the publisher of The Scribe, SCC administration has the final say in anything that goes to print. That is the way it works at The Future, as well as at any other newspaper.

The issue is not a free speech issue, simply a policy that the newspaper’s publishers, the SCC administration, have in place that calls for a certain level of professionalism — one being that profanity has no place in college newspapers.

What SCC administration has done is set standards that they expect its publication to abide by. Acker’s job as editor is to provide an informative and possibly entertaining publication within the realms of what their publishers expect in accordance with the policies of the newspaper.

If Acker wants the right to publish an opinion that contains profanity or inappropriate material, then she has the right to publish whatever she desires in her own publication that she has funded with her own money.

There are plenty of words I cannot use in my own forum, even though from time to time, I slip them in. However, they have yet to make the pages of any published issue.

The reason they never make the published pages is because my editors view my content and decide what is and is not appropriate, based on certain guidelines.

Miss Acker, if anything, you have not done your job. Possibly, you are just an idealistic girl, full of angst, hoping to stir the pot. Maybe you felt you were truly in the right. Perhaps, you felt you were standing up for college journalists everywhere.

You weren’t. What you did was compromise your own professionalism as well as the newspaper’s reputation.

Granted, you got some attention, and so did your publication. But is it the kind of attention your newspaper needs or deserves?

Isn’t it better to motivate readers to read your material, not because it’s scandalous, profane or tasteless, but because it is thoughtful, informative and compelling?

Guest blogger J oey Myers can be reached at joeym@ucffuture.com

SPEAK YOUR MIND

Does something on campus really tick you off?

Don’t agree with one of The Future’s columnists?

Let us know about it!

editor@UCFuture.com
Letters to the Editor

Club DSM members face financial consequences

I wish to voice my opinion to you about Leon Terry's article "Central Florida's Fast and the Furious" that published Sept. 16, 2002. In the article, Mr. Terry has referred to Club DSM as a "national street-racing club," and that is as far from the truth as possible. I demand that a retraction be written to this as I think this is slander!

I think that from now on when Mr. Terry writes an article that it may be in his best interest to check his facts and make sure what he is printing is true. The statement that he has made can in fact cause financial damage to each of our members as it can cause rumors in the law enforcement area as well. Please follow through with this as Club DSM is a nationwide organization with many members that are very displeased with his comments.

—GLENN H. SHELTON III

United States a thorn in the United Nations' side

Worse, the time the wicked organization welcomes Saddam Hussein's right hand man, but shuns Colin Powell, the only representative to speak out against the ethnic cleansing and racist policies in Zimbabwe. How about an organization whose Human Rights Commission chair is Libya, a state sponsor of terrorism and human rights abuser? Sounds like an organization that is corrupt and prejudice. One that may be making selfish and bad decisions constantly. Maybe Enron or the Mafia?

The U.N. investigated political murders in China. It took no action. When slave labor was on the rise in the U.S.S.R., the issue was removed from the U.N. agenda. All of these instances of human rights abuse go on ignored while these nations continue to sit at the U.N. table of power. Americans value their freedom and liberty. Our civil rights and standards do not fit into the U.N. or European Union charter. Our Constitution is a thorn in the U.N.'s side. In fact our money is the only reason the U.N. or the E.U. wants us around.

—ISAAC DANIEL AQUIN

LA Health & Fitness

One Week SPORTS CLUB PASS

REDUCE BY 9/30/02

LAFITNESS

SPORTS CLUBS

WATERFORD LAKES TOWN CENTER

(407) 380-1526

749 N. Alafaya Trail

Come into LA Fitness Sports Club and receive a One Week Pass. Sales presentation that expired. Other mentioned may be purchased. Non-members only. Must sign up to use. Must be 18 years or older or have a legal guardian and show ID the pass per person, per year. Some restrictions apply. First-come, first-served. Please see entry for more information. No entry fee. Please ask about the latest fitness programs.

Ask about our student specials!

State of the art sports clubs with top of the line equipment and all at a reasonable rate.

Start CHANGING your life now.

BOXING • CYCLING CLASSES • YOGA • EXTENSIVE GROUP FITNESS PROGRAM

KID'S KLUB- BABY SITTING* • STATE-OF-THE-ART EQUIPMENT

PERSONAL TRAINING* • FREE WEIGHT CENTER • AND MUCH MORE!

LA Fitness Sports Clubs are registered with the state of Florida as a health spa. Registration number H-9570.
Garner fan support first, then sell tickets

JASON IREY
STAFF WRITER

I recently spent a very warm Saturday afternoon in Gainesville working security at the Florida Gators – Miami Hurricanes football game. As this was my first venture into 'The Swamp,' I was initially awed and overwhelmed by the experience.

The stadium was completely packed and extremely loud, alive with thousands upon thousands of University of Florida students, decked out in orange and blue, cheering their team on. Early in the game, the fans truly were the "12th man". Sure, the 12th man couldn’t stop Miami, a truly superior team, from running all over Florida, but the fans’ enthusiasm still made the game very exciting. For a visiting team playing at Gainesville, intestinal fortitude is quickly tested when surrounded by thousands of University of Florida students, tickets and T-shirts. Money.

In school where spirit barely exists, where fans are a minority and even an aggressive marketing campaign to “fill the bowl” can’t convince students to attend UCF’s football games, implementing a system to keep inactive students from attending for free does not even half as many fans as games do – tested when surrounded by thousands of University of Florida students, tickets and T-shirts. Money.

Students can expect to have their student ID scanned to obtain admission for the home opener against Liberty on Sept. 28.

COUNTERPOINT
Real fan support is about financial backing

RENEE BEAUDETTE
STAFF WRITER

As UCF students, we complain. We complain about what SGA does or doesn’t do with our money. We complain that our SGA president should resign. We complain that tuition is too high. Now some students are complaining that preventing non-UCF students from gaining free admission into athletic events is also wrong.

Some feel that this will only decrease fan support leaving just the athlete’s parents to cheer them on. However, this move to eliminate the practice of non-UCF students from getting into games for free is beneficial to everyone involved.

UCF athletics need money as badly as it needs prestige. The university needs money to fund athletic scholarships, advertising and marketing. When you let 30,000 people into the game free, UCF doesn’t make money to fund these things. UCF football particularly needs revenue since the football program is a huge expenditure for the university’s athletic program.

All UCF students pay the athletic fee that entitles us to get into any home game for free, along with other events. If a student from Valencia Community College wants to go to the game, they have every right to, but they should also kick in the same dollar that UCF students do to attend.

UCF cannot afford to let everyone who feels like attending a football game or wants to watch a baseball game in for free simply because the Knights need all the fans they can get. It’s ridiculous to paint a picture of UCF as a school that so desperately needs to fill seats at sporting events, that it’s willing to let any warm body in to garner fan support. We all complain about how much UCF wastes our money, and now that UCF is doing something to protect a privilege that we pay for, some still complain.

People shouldn’t get to mooch off the same events and services that UCF offers to students who do pay. It only serves to cheapen the privilege that you and I pay for.
Welcome to the MAC

Marshall hands UCF its first conference loss

HUNTINGTON, W.Va.—Close but no cigar is a recurring theme for the UCF football team.

After losing by three points to open the season at Penn State, the Golden Knights fell Friday to Marshall 26-21 in their first-ever Mid-American Conference game. UCF pulled to within five points with 1:15 left in the game, but failed to find the end zone in its final four possessions.

The Knights’ last chance at a comeback came with just over 2 minutes left in the game. Cornerback Asante Samuel picked off Marshall quarterback Byron Leftwich on the UCF 47-yard line. The Knights failed to convert on third-and-three, and on fourth down Ryan Schneider was picked off by the Herd’s Terrence Turpley. It was the second consecutive drive that ended with a Schneider pick.

The UCF defense did all it could at the end, holding Marshall scoreless for the final 23 minutes of the game.

“When crunch time comes, that’s our job,” strong safety Atari Bigby said.

The defense held Leftwich, a Heisman Trophy candidate, to less than 400 passing yards, breaking his streak of four consecutive games with 400-plus yards. The defense also picked him off twice and sacked him once.

“Our defense bent, but didn’t break,” UCF Coach Mike Kruczek said.

UCF’s first drive started on its own 47, after an 18-yard punt return by Samuel. The Knights drove to Marshall’s 36, but a fumbled handoff between Schneider and Kruzek was recovered by the Herd’s James Funchess.

Saturday night against Rice.

MAC STANDINGS

East Division

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Conference</th>
<th>Non-conf.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Marshall</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kent State</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miami</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Buffalo</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Akron</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UCF</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ohio</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

West Division

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Conference</th>
<th>Non-conf.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bowling Green</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Toledo</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Central Michigan</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Western Michigan</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Northern Illinois</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eastern Michigan</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ball State</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

NOTEBOOK

Volleyball drops two close ones

The UCF volleyball team went to five games in all three of its matches this weekend, beating Liberty on Friday, but losing to Rice and Georgia on Saturday at the Outback Invitational.

The Golden Knights played tournament host Georgia in their final game Saturday, falling 25-30, 25-30, 31-29, 29-30, 1-15. UCF was going for its second win over an SEC team in a week after the Knights beat Ole Miss on Sept. 21.

Junior setter Jenny Frank recorded her second double-double of the day in the game with 15 kills, 52 assists and 10 digs. Junior outside hitter Leyre Santaella Sante and freshman right side Emily Watts both recorded doubles in the loss. Sante had 16 kills and 10 digs and Watts had 15 kills and a career-high 10 digs.

Frank landed her first double-double of the day against Rice, but it wasn’t enough as the Knights fell 25-30, 30-25, 30-22, 23-25, 18-15. Frank finished with 14 kills, 54 assists and 16 digs.

Sante had 26 kills and 17 digs in the match, while Watts also had a double-double with 17 kills and 14 digs.

The Golden Knights’ only win of the weekend came in a five-game decision over Liberty on Friday. Sante led UCF with 26 kills as the Knights won 26-30, 29-30, 29-30, 20-25, 18-15. Sante had 26 kills and 12 digs in the match, while Watts also had a double-double with 17 kills and 14 digs.

The Golden Knights also had 25 kills and 14 digs in the win. Freshman Chaz Arah knocked a career-high 12 kills along with three kills.

Frank has stellar weekend

The setter had two double-doubles and a double-double in three games last weekend earning her a spot on the all-tournament team.

PLEASE SEE Running on 17
Running game gets going against Herd and Haynes gave the ball back to the Herd.

Carlos Thompson picked off Leftwich in the end zone on the ensuing drive, giving the Knights a touchback.

The Knights used the momentum from the turnover to get on the board first with a 65-yard touchdown pass from Schneider to Tavaris Capers. Three consecutive rushes by tailback Alex Haynes, a rare occurrence in UCF's pass-oriented offense, set up the long pass.

The Herd answered back with 10 points of its own before Haynes broke loose for a 58-yard touchdown run, the longest of his career. That put UCF up 14-10, but Marshall scored 10 more unanswered points and took a 20-14 halftime lead.

UCF failed to score in the third quarter for the third straight game. Marshall scored a touchdown with 8:06 left in the period, but the two-point conversion attempt failed, putting the Herd up 26-14. The Knights have been outscored 45-0 in the third quarter this season.

It wasn't all bad for the Knights, though, as they showed a national television audience they could play with the premier team of the MAC. "It shows a lot about us and our football team," punter Ryan Flinn said. "How good we are and how good we can be. We just need to just pull it all together as a team."

Kruczek said UCF is learning how to exist in a conference. "This is a work in progress for us," he added.

Quarterback Ryan Schneider hands the ball off to receiver Doug Gabriel, who gained nine yards on the play. Gabriel also caught three passes for 52 yards during Friday's game.

One bright spot for the Knights was the running game. Haynes rushed for 131 yards, his longest total of the year. He averaged five yards a carry.
Alex Haynes
The tailback ran for a season high 137 yards, including a career-best 58-yard touchdown run. He also caught a 19-yard touchdown pass from Schneider.

Atari Bigby
The strong safety had seven solo tackles and two assists in less than two quarters of play. He left the game with a high ankle sprain toward the end of the second quarter.

Inside the Numbers
131
The number of rushing yards Alex Haynes totaled.

46.9
Ryan Flinn’s punting average.

58
The distance of Haynes’ touchdown run, the longest of his career.

65
The distance of Tavarius Capers’ first-quarter touchdown reception.

340
The number of passing yards the UCF defense held Marshall quarterback Byron Leftwich to, the first time in five games he did not pass for over 400 yards.

2
The number of times the UCF defense picked off Leftwich, the first interceptions the defense recorded this season.

Golden Knights get first interception

Chris Bernhardt
Despite their best efforts, the Knights fell short against Marshall, losing 26-21.

The UCF defense had their first two interceptions of the season Friday night against Marshall.

Schneider more than half-way to Daunte
When Ryan Schneider connected with Tavarius Capers for a 65-yard score, it gave him 12 straight games with a touchdown pass. That ties him for second on UCF’s all-time list with Darin Hinshaw. Hinshaw did it twice between 1991 and 1994.

He’s a new man.
Atari Bigby had a high ankle sprain toward the end of the second quarter.

The Central Florida Future • September 23, 2002

Dean & University (407) 673-8888
Waterford Lakes (407) 384-1221
Casselberry (407) 860-5633
Winter Springs (407) 895-5303
Maitrezz (407) 900-8297
Hunter’s Creek (407) 888-8500
Orange & Michigan (407) 841-9998
Coming Soon: Kissimmee • Ocoee • Oviedo
DELIVERY, DINE IN AND DRIVE UP WINDOW

$2.00 OFF
ANT ORDER OF $10 OR MORE

GO KNIGHTS!
UCF wins in a night of firsts

Tom Alexander
Staff Writer

The UCF men’s soccer team blanked the University of California-Riverside 1-0 Friday night in Las Vegas in the first round of the UNIX-Files Classic.

Freeman Austin Gunning scored his first collegiate goal for the game-winner. Gunning took a rebound off the crossbar at 44:02 and shot it past opposing goalkeeper Alex Keough, who had four saves on the night.

UCF goalkeeper Ryan McIntosh recorded three saves in the game, the first shutout of his collegiate career. It was the first time UCF and UC-Riverside faced each other, and the first full career. It was the first time McIntosh had played in two weeks after his home opener was rescheduled due to lightning.

The Golden Knights improved their record to 2-2-1 on the year and the Highlanders fell to 2-3-2.

UCF returns home Thursday when the Knights will face conference rival Stetson at 7 p.m. It will mark the first time the two schools have met in men’s soccer.

The Golden Knights lead the all-time series against the Hatters by a large margin. The Golden Knights are 21-5-1 all time versus Stetson. UCF faces a tough challenge in their first conference match, as Stetson tied for first in the Atlantic Sun last season.

The Hatters also return the deadly Ian Zarate, who scored 11 goals and had 3 assists last year. Stetson is 2-5 on the year so far and is 0-0 in the A-Sun. This is the first conference game for the Knights.

FROM PAGE 14

She has four career triple-doubles and three this season. She averaged 11 kills, 5.9 assists and 14 digs for the weekend.

Career weekend
Four Golden Knights set career highs in three games last weekend. Against Liberty, Sante recorded 26 digs, Arral had 12 kills and Dell had 11 kills, all personal bests. One game later, Dell improved her career best to 14 kills against Rice. Watts knocked a career-high 17 kills against Rice and recorded 19 digs against Georgia.

Statistical leaders
UCF leads the Atlantic Sun in assists with 14.16 and kills with 15.69. Senior Lindsey Whalen leads Conference Hall of Famers, and is fourth in digs with 2.9. Watts tops the A-Sun in kills with 3.89 and service aces with 0.37. She is sixth in digs with 2.75.

Junior Lindsey Whalen leads the conference in digs with 3.5. Sophomore middle blocker Amanda Stout leads the league in blocks with 0.93 and service aces with 0.26. Watts is third in the A-Sun in hitting percentage (.278).

DO YOU GIVE A SHIRT?

I GIVE A SHIRT
ABOUT UCF

THEN PROVE IT!

Bring a shirt from another college or university next Wednesday Sept. 25th at the Student Union from 11am - 1pm and exchange it for a brand new UCF shirt!

(All shirts will be donated to Goodwill Industries)
King scores twice in UCF win

CHAVI MAGDAONG
STAFF WRITER

The UCF women's soccer team improved its record to 6-1 with a 3-2 win over Colorado College in Colorado Springs on Friday.

Senior Amanda King scored two goals against the Tigers. Her first goal opened the scoring at the 28:03 mark, but CC struck back five minutes later. CC's Cortney Kitchen put the ball past Golden Knights' goalie Jessica Kuhlman on assists from Courtney Michel and Sarah Chadwick.

With about 10 minutes to go in the first half, freshman Jennifer Montgomery, who assisted on King's first tally, netted a goal to give UCF a 2-1 advantage. Montgomery leads the team with five goals and four assists, for 14 points for the season.

In the second half, King scored her second goal and eventual game-winner off an assist from Allison Blagriff. The Tigers made the game interesting, scoring with under six minutes left in the match. CC's record drops to 4-4.

The Golden Knights play their second Atlantic Sun game of the season Thursday when they travel to Georgia State. They beat conference-rival Florida Atlantic 2-0 back on Sept. 8.

This Week

Women's Soccer
Thursday vs. GSU
4 p.m. at Georgia State

Men's Soccer
Thursday vs. Stetson
7 p.m., UCF Arena Field
Defense contains Leftwich

From Page 18

Third down streak ends
After failing to convert a single third down for the first time in school history against Arizona State, UCF missed their first three conversions against Marshall. That extended their streak of futility to 14.

But on their next attempt they ended the streak in a big way. On third-and-one Schneider handed off to Alex Haynes, who broke several tackles and used a stiff arm to get a 50-yard touchdown.

Still, UCF was barely successful on third down conversions for the game. The Knights went 4-for-13 and are 15-for-43 on the season.

UCF has first attempts on fourth down
The Golden Knights had their first fourth down attempts of the season, going one-for-two against Marshall.

In the first quarter they used a quarterback sneak by Schneider to convert a fourth-and-inches. The second attempt came in the fourth quarter on UCF’s last offensive play of the game. On that fourth-and-three, Schneider tried to hit Jimmy Fryzel downfield but was picked off by Terrence Turpley on a回接.

Himm kicks career high
Ryan Himm recorded the longest punt on his career against Marshall. Kicking from the UCF 36 in the third quarter, he punts the ball 61 yards to the endzone for a touchback. His previous high was 50 set two weeks ago against Arizona State.

Overall he had his best collegiate game, punting seven times for an average of 46.9 yards.

Prater gets day off
For the first time this season UCF freshman place-kicker Matt Prater did not attempt a field goal. He was relegated to extra-point attempts and kicks off. He had been the most consistent scorer for the Knights, who had just three touchdowns through the first two games. He is 5-for-6 on field-goal attempts this season.

Wiggins starts
As expected, offensive lineman Kyle Wiggins made his first start of the season and his Division I-A career. With right guard Taylor Robertson out with an injury, right tackle Garvel McCray slid over and Wiggins took over at tackle.

The 6-foot-6 Wiggins transferred to UCF from Tyler Community College in Texas this spring, but fell behind in the offensive line rotation when he missed several two-a-days with an injury.

Miller plays tight end
Quarterback Brian Miller spent most of the spring and summer learning how to play the tight end. After backing up Schneider last year, he decided to switch position in an effort to get more playing time. But an injury to backup quarterback Brandon Sumner forced Miller back into his old role.

With Sumner back, Miller was finally able to debut at tight end against Marshall. He did not have a catch.

Defense holds Leftwich down
The defense was certainly impressive in holding Marshall to just 26 points. In addition to forcing the Thundering Herd to punt four straight times in the third and fourth quarter, the defense also kept Leftwich in check.

The Heisman candidate did have 340 passing yards, but it ended his string of five straight 400-yard games. Most of those yards came on underthrow routes, as the Golden Knights played a soft zone designed to guard against long plays.

Injury report
Linebacker Chris Pilinko, tight endMichael Gaines and safety Atari Bigby all suffered sprained ankles during the game. Pilinko and Gaines both returned soon after, but Bigby never returned.

Bigby played the entire game with a cast after bruising his ribs against Arizona State. The ribs might have been a factor on two weak throws in the fourth quarter that resulted in interceptions.
Article 1: The Student Body

Section 1: Name
The name of this organization shall be the Student Body of the University of Central Florida. The governmental entity of this organization shall be the University of Central Florida Student Government, hereinafter referred to as the Student Government.

Section 2: Jurisdiction
All students of the University of Central Florida shall be members of the Student Body and shall be subject to this Constitution.

Section 3: Franchise
All students enrolled at the University of Central Florida shall be entitled to vote in the general and special elections of the Student Body.

Section 4: Referendum Election
The Student Body has the right to call for a referendum election, provided that a petition signed by at least two percent (2%) of the Student Body is submitted in a timely manner.

Section 5: Delegation
The current edition of Black's Law Dictionary, unless otherwise noted in the Constitution, Statutes of the Student Body and Rules and Procedures, shall be used to interpret the terms contained within the Student Government Associations, Statutes and Senate Rules and Procedures.

Article II: The Legislature

Section 1: Legislative Authority
The legislative authority of the Student Body shall be vested in the Student Senate, hereinafter referred to as the Senate.

Section 2: Composition
The Senate shall be comprised of:
A. A number of students who shall be known as Senators.
B. A Senate President who shall be the Student Body Vice President.

C. A Senate President Pro Tempore selected from the Senate.
D. All members of the Student Senate as appointed or elected to sit in the Senate Rules and Procedures.

Section 3: Senate Section
The Senate section shall be open and end with each full semester election.

Section 4: Appointment and Election of the Student Senate
The Senate shall be appointed and elected by the students. The Senate shall be elected by majority vote.

Section 5: Powers, Duties and Limitations

Article III: The Executive

Section 1: Executive Authority
All executive powers and those powers specifically granted herein to other branches of Student Government shall be vested in the Student Body President, assisted by the Student Vice President, and all such administrative officers as the President shall appoint to effectively carry out the business of Student Government.

Section 2: Election of Executive Officers
The President and Senate President shall be elected according to the Constitution, by a majority vote of the Student Body, and shall serve a one-year term of office following each election.

Section 3: Duties and Powers of the President
The President shall:
A. Administer and enforce all laws of the Student Body.
B. Appoint administrators and executive officers, with the concurrence of the Senate.
C. Appoint qualified students to various Student Government offices, with concurrence of the Senate.
D. Serve the office of the Student Senate within (10) school days of invasion from the Senate office. The action by the Student Senate within (10) school days of invasion approval of the removal by the Student Body President. The student President shall select one (1) of the other Senate members to vote on the current measures in question. The action by the Senate within (30) days shall constitute approval of the measure by the chief student officers.
E. Call and preside over meetings of the Student Body and student assemblies when appropriate.
F. Address the Senate at least once each calendar term and on other occasions, upon the invitation of the Senate.
G. Instruct budget procedures for the fiscal year to provide for the general welfare of the Student Body.
H. For a referendum of the Student Body when appropriate, subject to concurrence to a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Senate.
I. Remove, at the President's discretion, any appointed officer, with the exception of committees appointed to exercise elected officers of the Constitution.
J. Grant, withhold or withdraw registration of any registration under the jurisdiction of the Student Body.

Section 4: Duties of the Vice President
A. The Vice President shall assume the powers of the President upon the President's absence or request.
B. The Vice President shall serve as the President in the absence of the President and shall be subject to a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Senate.

Section 5: Order of Succession
1. In the event that the President resigns or is unable to perform the duties of President, the Vice President shall become President.
2. In the event that the President is unable to fulfill the duties of office, the Senate President Pro Tempore shall become Vice President.

Additional Executive Branch Officers
There shall be an elected Vice President for the Executive Branch who shall be responsible for the Executive Branch functions as determined by the Student Body President. The Vice President shall serve in the capacity of the Student President who presides over the Senate.

Section 6: The Judiciary

Article IV: The Judiciary

Section 1: Judicial Power
The judicial authority of the Student Body shall be vested in a judicial council and such judicial officers as the Student Body shall see fit to time their appointment to establish.

Section 2: Purpose
It is the function of the judicial council to maintain the standards of the Student Body by enforcing the rules of the Student Body.

Section 3: Amending the Constitution
All amendments to this Constitution shall be published on the Student Body's website at www.sga.ucf.edu to inform the Student Body.

Article V: Amending the Constitution

Section 1: Proposal of Amendments
A. An amendment to this Constitution may be proposed by:
1. A two-thirds (2/3) of the Senate, or
2. A written petition, presented to the President of the Senate, or
3. A two-thirds (2/3) of the students, or
4. A petition to the President of the Senate, or
5. A ten percent (10%) of the Student Body enrolled in the fall term of the year.

B. The proposed amendment shall be presented in the regular Student Senate meeting and published for twelve (12) consecutive weeks prior to the Senate meeting of the Student Body. The vote on the said amendments (constitutional amendments) shall be held during the regular Student Senate meetings.

C. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for considering the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

D. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

E. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

F. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

G. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

H. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

I. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

J. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

K. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

L. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

M. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

N. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

O. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

P. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

Q. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

R. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

S. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

T. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

U. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

V. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

W. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

X. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

Y. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.

Z. The amendment shall be presented to the Student Senate for the consideration of the amendment, and an election to the Student Body shall be conducted.
University of Central Florida
Thirty-Fourth Student Body Senate
Constitutional Amendment 34-04

Baskettball battles end historic first week of Intramurals

The first week of fall basketball action over in the Recreation and Wellness Center was completed, and some familiar teams looked to pick up where they left off in last season. The season kicked off Wednesday night as defending champs’ Trash Turtles blew out the Wed. Explosion, 42-23. Trevor Anderson led the Trash Turtles with 19 points, and Colin dishoed seven assists in the victory. Loaded Oats look to be their early competition, as they shut the Wifflesballs, 80-60. In women’s action, Action took care of business, 66-47, over some fellow freshmen behind Alpi Xi Delta 16-12 in an offensive struggle. Kappa Alpha looks to be the surprise team of the year after they upset ZTA.

On Thursday night, defending five-on-five women’s champ Alpine Delta 19-10 got off to a fast start with some fresh faces by defeating Alpha Xi Delta 16-12 in an offensive struggle. Kappa Alpha looks to be the surprise team of the year after they upset ZTA.

The most competitive league looks to be stacked, as 2000 champion Lake Show dazzled over the Latin Ballers 95-45. The Bus Drivers Took Parkay to school with a 77-29 drubbing and the Firebirds shut down In Your Eye 54-29.

The Student Body

Section 2: Senate Session
The Senate session shall open and close each full senatorial session.

Section 3: Appointment and Election of the Student Senate
The Senate shall be appointed and elected by students for each full senatorial session.

Section 4: Duties of the Student Senate
The Student Senate shall assume all the powers and duties of the Student Senate, President and any other body created by this constitution or as otherwise provided for in this constitution.

Section 5: Powers, Duties and Obligations
A. Duty by majority vote, constitutionally binding in an open meeting of the Student Body.
B. Right to have a majority vote.
C. Provide for the complete publication of legislation.
D. All notices and a record by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, appointment of the Student Senate.
E. Impugn Student Body affairs, both elected and appointed, and provide for their removal.
F. Appoint and dismiss the chief Student Govt., as provided by statute.
G. Adopt and change the local budget of Student Govt., as provided by statute.
H. Establish and amend the constitution and bylaws, as provided by statute.
I. Establish and amend the constitution and bylaws, as provided by statute.
J. Establish and amend the constitution and bylaws, as provided by statute.
K. Assemble in open meeting at frequent intervals for the deliberation of legislation and the business of the Student Senate.

Section 6: Additional Constitutional Amendments
Amendments to the Constitution of the Student Senate shall be effective on the event that the Student Body, by majority vote, amend the Constitution of the Student Senate.

Article II: Executive

Section 1: Powers
A. The Chief Executive shall have the power to carry out the policies of the Student Body.
B. The Student Senate shall have the power to adopt the Constitution and bylaws as it deems necessary, and then submit it to the Student Senate for ratification.
C. The Student Senate shall have the power to amend the Constitution and bylaws as it deems necessary, and then submit it to the Student Senate for ratification.
D. The Student Senate shall have the power to amend the Constitution and bylaws as it deems necessary, and then submit it to the Student Senate for ratification.

Article III: Judical

Section 1: President
The Judicial Power shall be vested in the President of the Student Senate. No action by the Student Senate or by any committee of the Student Senate shall be valid unless it is approved by the President of the Student Senate.

Article IV: Legislative

Section 1: Legislative Senate
The Legislative Senate shall be divided into two classes: one class of students shall be elected for one year term, and the other class of students shall be elected for two year term.

Section 2: Senate Session
The Senate session shall open and close each full senatorial session.

Section 3: Appointment and Election of the Student Senate
The Senate shall be appointed and elected by students for each full senatorial session.

Section 4: Duties of the Student Senate
The Student Senate shall assume all the powers and duties of the Student Senate, President and any other body created by this constitution or as otherwise provided for in this constitution.

Section 5: Powers, Duties and Obligations
A. Duty by majority vote, constitutionally binding in an open meeting of the Student Body.
B. Right to have a majority vote.
C. Provide for the complete publication of legislation.
D. All notices and a record by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, appointment of the Student Senate.
E. Impugn Student Body affairs, both elected and appointed, and provide for their removal.
F. Appoint and dismiss the chief Student Govt., as provided by statute.
G. Adopt and change the local budget of Student Govt., as provided by statute.
H. Establish and amend the constitution and bylaws, as provided by statute.
I. Establish and amend the constitution and bylaws, as provided by statute.
J. Establish and amend the constitution and bylaws, as provided by statute.
K. Assemble in open meeting at frequent intervals for the deliberation of legislation and the business of the Student Senate.

Section 6: Additional Constitutional Amendments
Amendments to the Constitution of the Student Senate shall be effective on the event that the Student Senate, by majority vote, amend the Constitution of the Student Senate.

Article V: Constitution

Section 1: Adoption
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be adopted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 2: Revision
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be revised in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 3: Recodification
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be recodified in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 4: Amendment
Amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 5: Ratification
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be ratified and approved by the Board of Trustees of the University of Central Florida.

Section 6: Enforcement
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be enforced by the Board of Trustees of the University of Central Florida.

Article VI: Finance

Section 1: Appropriation
The Appropriation of funds for the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 2: Budget
The Budget of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 3: Audit
The Audit of the financial records of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 4: Accounting
The Accounting of the financial records of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 5: Accounting
The Accounting of the financial records of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 6: Auditors
The Auditors of the financial records of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 7: Proclamation
The Proclamation of the laws passed by the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 8: Amendments
Amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 9: Ratification
The Ratification of amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 10: Enforcement
The Enforcement of amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Article VII: By-Laws

Section 1: By-Laws
The By-Laws of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 2: Adoption
The By-Laws of the Student Senate shall be adopted by the Student Senate.

Section 3: Revision
The By-Laws of the Student Senate shall be revised by the Student Senate.

Section 4: Ratification
The Ratification of the By-Laws of the Student Senate shall be determined by the Student Senate.

Section 5: Adoption
The Adoption of amendments to the By-Laws of the Student Senate shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 6: Enforcement
The Enforcement of amendments to the By-Laws of the Student Senate shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Article VIII: Constitution

Section 1: Adoption
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be adopted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 2: Revision
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be revised in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 3: Recodification
The Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be recodified in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 4: Amendment
Amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 5: Ratification
The Ratification of amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.

Section 6: Enforcement
The Enforcement of amendments to the Constitution of the University of Central Florida shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the University of Central Florida.
All they wanna do is dance, dance

JEFFREY ASHKIN
STAFF WRITER

The group of people always quiet down when Alex Jebailey takes on the neon beast. They back away knowing that he needs room to stretch his wings. They see him take a breath, nod approvingly - at the task ahead and begin his maneuvers. This 20-year-old junior doesn’t even need to see the enemy in front of him. He has been doing this for two years. He is a skilled expert and knows the mission in front of him.

In a flash of minutes he’s ranked up a couple million points against this ostentatious creature. He wipes the sweat from his brow, takes a sip from his lemonade, then presses another button and goes right back into the battle.

This particular machine lives inside Wackadoos. It can be best described as a peculiar Japanese imported mini-disc arcade machine. It is about 8 x 8 feet, and has a massive silvery metal floor. Its neon-light eyes and body of sub-woofing amps welcomes many guests -every afternoon and night. The music is always played loud. The line can be long depending on the time and the regulars are always excited to try it.

This mechanical being is the Dance Dance Revolution machine, 3rd mix, located in the arcade section of the restaurant in the Student Union. It has been creating the latest craze in dance/arcade playing. A student may have heard its bumbling sound while walking through the Union, which plays optimistically in hopes that someone will come by and try it.

Rich Simon, manager of Wackadoos said he’s seen the phenomenon every day between noon and two. Classes end, the crowd grips quarters in its hands (seven-fifty-cents for this ride), cell phones are classified ad read “Smoke pot - Get paid $2,680. Private and Legal.” The 800-number provided by the ad connects to a 10-minute recording that promotes a book titled “The Confidential Report.” According to the recording, the book contains thousands of research studies that will provide participants with up to $10,000. As the recording continues, you are prompted to order the book for $19.95, which is $25.00 off the regular price.

Jeffrey Evans, a senior mechanical engineering major, answered a similar ad.

“The ad told me to send in a self-addressed envelope to get information on clipping newspaper articles for cash,” said Evans. “After I sent the envelope, I just received a brochure that advertised a book; it had nothing to do with the articles. Another classified ad read “How to change your identity and erase bad credit.” When entering the website at www.wife-beaters.com, you are introduced to a variety of products to help you “clean up your life.” Wife-beaters offers a variety of merchandise such as fake handicap parking stick­ers and parking tickets. There is also a $25 “How to book that teaches you the art of falsifying a driver’s license, social security card and credit report. For those who may want a souvenir from the site, “wife-beater” style T-shirts are available for purchase. For an additional

Nathan Bachelet, 20, battles it out on a Dance Dance Revolution Machine against Gibson Duley at Rocky’s Replay on State Road 46 in Casselberry.

True student stories: ‘My worst job’

JEFFREY ASHKIN
STAFF WRITER

Jeremy Bray hated every second that he worked at Publix. The legions of people would come inside the store asking for odd brand name products, leaving messes on the floor and expecting exquisite service. The agony was constant.

“I was the [expletive] at Publix,” said Bray. “I vacuumed the rugs, cleaned the toilets and took out the trash. I left after a day and half. When it’s like that, you know you have to leave. It’s just not worth it.”

Many people have had at least one or two very memorable, awful jobs.

“As a whole, the general population really isn’t that smart,” said Anastasia Searfoss.

She lists her cashier experience at Publix as the reason behind her theory. “People get all their groceries and forget their wallet, they change their mind about whether to have paper or plastic and ask if I could hold their items while they drive home and get their coupons. These decisions are not that big, they just aren’t thinking!”

Cardiff Shea, can relate.

“The absolute worst thing I had to do for compensation was working for Melbourne Beach supermarket... cleaning bathrooms, men’s and women’s,” said Shea. “Oh and by the way, the men’s was a lot worse.”

In college, with scholarships still in the mail, and payments for books and...
Most people ignore weird classified ads

FROM PAGE 24
charge of one dollar your shirt will be stained with your choice of cigarette burn, WD-40, nail polish or blood. While scrolling down to the "Wife-beater Hall of Fame," the site displays clearly discolored photos of Kid Rock and Ron Jeremy claiming that they too wear wife-beaters.

Some ads, though misleading, are far less bazaar.

An ad reading "Out of the Box Brownies needs brownie eaters for a chance to win $10,000," may lead readers to believe that by eating brownies, they can make money. Upon entering the website, www.100percent­brownies.com, you see a basic company web page. The $10,000 dollars advertised is a prize for a contest promoting Out of the Box. The key to winning is inside a random brownie wrapper.

Matt Nelson, a junior marketing major, recalls an ad looking for thin, female eaters for a chance to win $10,000," to believe that by eating brownies, they can make money. Upon entering the website, www.100percent­brownies.com, you see a basic company web page. The $10,000 dollars advertised is a prize for a contest promoting Out of the Box. The key to winning is inside a random brownie wrapper.

Matt Nelson, a junior marketing major, recalls an ad looking for thin, female eaters for a chance to win $10,000, "I thought it was a funny ad," said Nelson. "I usually don't give them a second look."

Ads that promote surfing the Internet and watching television at home for money are ideal for college students. In several cases, these employment opportunities require you to spend money to make money.

An ad in an Orlando publication read "Net surfers wanted. Earn $25 an hour using the Internet." Aspiring employees must send a refundable, one-time, $50 start-up fee before they can begin work. The company also states that it will take two weeks for your information to be processed.

Though they are tempting, several students are wise to these misleading ads.

"I would love to make extra money while I am in school, but some of these ads are ridiculous," said Reggie Germain, a senior at Full Sail.

Jackie Robbins, a junior business management major, said that she thinks they are all scams.

Robbins said, "I don't pay any attention to them."

CASHIERS, CAMP COUNSELORS, assistant coach among worst jobs students have worked

FROM PAGE 24

food needed, it's important to have money. "Yet, some people find it's not worth the time, effort, anguish, mind games, brushes with elderly people and near constant sustain to pick up a paycheck each week."

Sometimes it depends on how badly money is needed as to whether or not a person will subject himself or herself to a potential horrible job.

Chas Short said his worst experience came when he worked at a preschool summer camp.

"I was vomited on... repeatedly," said Chas. "Four-year-olds, grade Kool-aid and monkey bars do not mix."

Even though this experience scarred Chas emotionally, he said he would still go back working for the summer camp. He said he just would wear not-so-expensive clothes next time.

It seems that there are people who don't let these experiences get them down and continue at what they do, and others who refuse to work afterward.

"My job at T.G.I. Friday's was the second job I ever had, but by far the worst," said Michael Cepero. "The only thing I could take from a food break was when it slowed down, and some nights this wouldn't be until about 10 p.m. Also, a couple of nights I stayed until 2 a.m. cleaning up the kitchen. I had to squeegee the day kitchen because it flooded! I came into work at 8 a.m. to clean ceiling vents and fans. It came to a point where I had to ask myself why I was doing this in the first place."

Yuri Silva was an assistant coach for a team of eighth grade soccer players in Palm Beach Gardens. He said this was his worst job, because he had to help out the head coach, whom he knew was not very good. Silva claims he had better advice for the team and that he dreamed going to work, knowing the coach would make really bad calls. Yet, he didn't give up on the team.

"Other people are less forgiving," said Chas. "An anonymous freshman said the clothing store he/she worked at in the mall, abused child labor laws and threatened to fire her if she didn't come in even if she was sick."

Another freshman claimed that a movie theater in Boca Raton would let 16-year-olds work 40-hour weeks and past 12 a.m. on school nights. He/she claimed that it has changed the way it does business, but he/she quit before these changes took effect.

Whether it's babysitting, working at fast-food places, cleaning septic tanks or being the assistant to the guy who cleans septic tanks there will always be people who find no joy in their jobs.

Matthew Marceux, a senior finance major gave his advice about jobs.

"Once you find a job you like, do anything you can to keep it."

You can also see Alice Peacock perform live with her band @ Wills Pub later that evening.

Alice Peacock perform an intimate LIVE acoustic set at Park Avenue CD Jr. (located in the UCF Student Center)

Thursday Sept. 26th @ 12 Noon

See COLUMBIA / Columbia recording artist

Alice Peacock

has been compared by critics to such luminaries as Joni Mitchell, Sheryl Crow, Shon Colvin, Rodie Lee Jones, & Mary-Chapin Carpenter.

Many fellow artists lend their voices to her new release including Aware/Columbia label mates John Mayer, Indigo Girl Emily Saliers and singer-songwriter Kirsten Hall.

You can also see Alice Peacock perform live with her band @ Wills Pub later that evening.

> UCF STUDENT UNION #102A / ORLANDO, FLORIDA.
> PHONE: 407.282.1616 > WWW.PARKAVEDS.COM
> HOURS: MONDAY -- FRIDAY 10AM TO 7PM

Jackie Chan Jennifer Love Hewitt

He's not looking for trouble. He's wearing it.

The Tuesdo

OPEN IN THEATRES EVERYWHERE OCTOBER 18

September 23, 2002 • The Central Florida Future
Orlando's Upscale Nightclub

17 West Pine Street
Orlando, Florida 32801
Www.blueroomorlando.com
(407) 423-2588

Happy hour — 4 - 7 p.m.
Join the tapped out club: 101 Beers on the wall!
Try our specialty: Dirty Hoes • 21 and up after 9 pm

Featured bands of the week:
September 23: Pabst Blue Ribbon Giveaway
Beat the Quarterback Game • Monday Night Football
September 24: Danny & Lion II (Reggae)
September 25: Strongbow Giveaway • Play the Skittles
September 27: Omar • Bird Dog Bobby (Classic Rock/Blues)
September 28: Midnight Ramblers (50's - 60's rock)

Underground BluZ

"We're the downtown bar, right down the street!"

Located in the UCF plaza at the corner of Rollins and University
(407) 482-6161

Bar Orlando

Located downtown
17 West Pine Street
Orlando, Florida 32801
www.blueroomorlando.com
(407) 423-2588
21 and up welcome

Blue Room

Located downtown
17 West Pine Street
Orlando, Florida 32801
www.blueroomorlando.com
(407) 423-2588
21 and up welcome

Weekly Specials

FOOTBALL specials:
$2 Miller Lite Pints
$2 Icehouse Pints
$3 Fosters Pints
(only at NFL event college games)

EVERYDAY serving:
2-4-1 Happy Hour All Day
$2 Long Islands & 'Ritas
$1 Selected Drafts
1/2 Price Appetizers

Happy hour — 4 - 7 p.m.
Join the tapped out club: 101 Beers on the wall!
Try our specialty: Dirty Hoes • 21 and up after 9 pm

Featured bands of the week:
September 23: Pabst Blue Ribbon Giveaway
Beat the Quarterback Game • Monday Night Football
September 24: Danny & Lion II (Reggae)
September 25: Strongbow Giveaway • Play the Skittles
September 27: Omar • Bird Dog Bobby (Classic Rock/Blues)
September 28: Midnight Ramblers (50's - 60's rock)

Wednesday Night

Pulse
Premier south Asian DJs
House, Hip-Hop, K'm B, Maantra, and Desi
$2.50 Heineken
$2.50 Amstel Light
$3.00 Captain
18 and up welcome • $5.00 cover • Stylish Dress Always

PHAT TUESDAY'S

Penny Drinks
Till Midnight!!
Every Tuesday Night
25 S. Orange Ave. 407.540.0081

KICK-ASS COLLEGE NIGHT

FREE BEER 9-11PM
$2 Domestics $3 Drinks
Every Thursday Night

Providing UCF with the Ultimate Knightlife Experience!

TUESDAY

"Phat Tuesdays" @ Bar Orlando
Search For Miss Bud Light
Penny Drinks 9 - 12 $500 cash & prizes

WEDNESDAY

"Sink or Swim" @ Knight Lights
$10 All U Can Drink
Join the Thousands that already know!!

FRIDAY

"Ladies Night" @ Devaney's Too
UCF's #1 Ladies Night! Open Bar 9 - Midnight

SATURDAY

"Juni" @ Roxy
"Easy as 1, 2, 3... A New Brand of Saturday Night"
Orlando's Most upscale College Night!

WWW.PRIMO-ENTERTAINMENT.COM
Promotions | Marketing | Web Development | Graphic Design
White feather of cowardice goes to Hudson

By LAUREN THOMPSON

Best friends, Harry and Jack happily took their chances when they General called the British regiment to order.

The General informed the regiment that he had just received the news that an army of Sudanese rebels had attacked a colonial British fortress in Khartoum. With glee, he announced that all their hard training was about to pay off because they were being sent to active duty in North Africa.

All the soldiers screamed with excitement, but Harry remained silent. His eyes showed the terror in his mind.

"The Four Feathers" did a wonderful job of capturing Harry’s journey from a self-doubting boy to a courageous man.

Heath Ledger plays the lead in the movie. Harry, Ledger is known for his roles in "A Knight's Tale," "The Patriot," "Monster's Ball" and "10 Things I Hate About You."

Ledger said he didn’t think of the audience when he was preparing for this role. "I didn’t realize I was not that calculated in terms of what audience I want to please," said Ledger. "I don’t care. I have to see a performance to anyone’s expectations."

This is, by far, Ledger’s best performance. He seems to go from a boy who just wants to have fun playing rugby with his friends, to a man who realizes that the world around him is not as perfect as he once thought.

When the General announces that the British regiment is being sent to active duty, Harry must make a hard decision: whether to stay in the army and go to war, or to disappoint virtually everyone around him and resign.

Harry lets his self-doubt take over and resigns. When the other soldiers in his regiment find out about it, they are thoroughly disappointed with him. Three of them send him a white feather, a symbol of cowardice. The only one who seems to think there is a deeper explanation for his resignation is Jack.

Jack is played by Wes Bentley, who is known for his role as the weird filmmaker in "American Beauty."

Although Jack and Harry are best friends, there is one thing Harry has that Jack is jealous of, his soon-to-be wife Ethne.

Ethne is played by Kate Hudson, who is known for her roles in "Almost Famous" and "200 Cigarettes." This was a totally different role for Kate Hudson.

The character of Ethne is a reserved effi st, whereas, the other roles she has played have been light-hearted airheads.

When Harry comes to Ethne with the news that he has resigned from the army, at first she thinks the reason is so they can get married," says Hudson. "Harry explains to her that, that is not the reason. He says the reason is that he never wanted to be in the army. She too, decides that her own love is a coward and sends him a white feather.

It is frustrating that she does this because she ends up regretting it for the remainder of the movie. The only explanation for this ignorant act is that fact that the film is set in the last half of the 19th century. People were more concerned back then about what society thought of them.

Throughout the next 90 minutes, Harry dispenses himself as an Arab and goes to the Sudan alone. He forms and alliance with a mercenary warrior. About played by Djimon Hounsou, who is known for his role in "Gladiator."

Abou helps Harry go behind enemy lines and rescue all of his friends, including Jack.

Ledger said he grew really close to Hounsou during the filming of this movie. "He is my brother," said Ledger. "He’s such a beautiful soul and is very generous to work with."

The audience could tell that they had a good relationship off-screen as well as on just by the way they related to each other.

The movie invokes many different emotions, such as fear, laughter, sadness and relief.

With the movie set in such a desolate area, you have a wonder what the cast did when they weren’t filming.

"Every Tuesday night we would play drums with this Sudanese drum band," said Ledger. "We all bought bongoes. We would just kind of get blind drunk on red wine and we would keep a constant beat for like three hours straight. That was fun out in the middle of the desert. Just pounding away."

Dance Dance Revolution is creating a buzz around campus

Turned off and the massive flashbulb compound is surrounded.

"Sometimes the crowd is there to just see one or two people going on to see how many levels they can do," said Simon.

Dance Dance Revolution is a pretty simple game. There are four brightly colored arrows (up, down, left, right) on the metallic floor and the object of the game is to match your foot to the arrow that appears on the screen at the right time. All the arrows appear during songs and the sequence can be very random depending on the difficulty setting you choose (easy, medium, hard), if you can complete the sequence without missing an arrow. If you can go on at all, most, three levels without popping in more quarters. There is another set of arrows for another person to play at the same time.

Some need to take breaks between dances, others can last long periods of time without realizing how long they’ve been on it. Jebalby knows this and so it was easy for him to break. The world record for playing DDR in slang terminology.

Jebalby performed on the machine for the longest period of time last January in a contest sponsored by the XS Orlando Arcade. He was on for a record 13 hours beating Mark ET who was only on for a measly 9 hours. According to Jebalby, he will be in next year’s Guinness Book of World Records for 2006. Simon says he’s looking forward to having competitions for the game and getting the newest version, Dance Dance Revolution MAX 2: The mix. It has newer songs to dance to and even harder levels.

"There are knockoffs of this game, most notably Mega mix, Pump Plus but, he has resigned from the army, at first she thinks the reason is so they can get married," says Ledger. "Harry explains to her that, that is not the reason. He says the reason is that he never wanted to be in the army. She too, decides that her own love is a coward and sends him a white feather.

It is frustrating that she does this because she ends up regretting it for the remainder of the movie. The only explanation for this ignorant act is that fact that the film is set in the last half of the 19th century. People were more concerned back then about what society thought of them.

Throughout the next 90 minutes, Harry dispenses himself as an Arab and goes to the Sudan alone. He forms and alliance with a mercenary warrior. About played by Djimon Hounsou, who is known for his role in "Gladiator."

Abou helps Harry go behind enemy lines and rescue all of his friends, including Jack.

Ledger said he grew really close to Hounsou during the filming of this movie. "He is my brother," said Ledger. "He’s such a beautiful soul and is very generous to work with."

The audience could tell that they had a good relationship off-screen as well as on just by the way they related to each other.

The movie invokes many different emotions, such as fear, laughter, sadness and relief.

With the movie set in such a desolate area, you have a wonder what the cast did when they weren’t filming.

"Every Tuesday night we would play drums with this Sudanese drum band," said Ledger. "We all bought bongoes. We would just kind of get blind drunk on red wine and we would keep a constant beat for like three hours straight. That was fun out in the middle of the desert. Just pounding away."
claimed "God guys" who would befit us religion at board meetings, resigned in August when he came to light that he had been arrested in 1984 for masturbating (while naked from the waist down) in a parking lot in nearby Crystal River. The day before the story broke, he had asked supporters for unusually large campaign contributions, saying "the scriptures.""

In Gainesville, Fla., in August, a used car drug dealer Marcus Isom, 30, was convicted of ordering the murder of Lemand Larkin, who he believed stole from him. According to testimony, Isom had consulted both Georgia spiritual adviser "The Foot Man" and "Mass Chefs" psychic hotline to find out who scammed him, and both gave descriptions that led Isom to finger Larkin. Investigators believe a man named Truth Miller was the hit man, killing Larkin as he emerged from Boothe's Bar in Archer, Fla.

Four of the five county commissioners in Pensacola, Fla., were indicted for land-sales corruption in April, and by September, two had agreed to testify against a third (the alleged leader, the former dean of the state senate, C.D. Childers). Among the principals are a commissioner who owns a funeral home with a drive-through window (and who, as a payoff, arranged for bedroom furniture for his paramour, who rejected it as too cheap); a man who needed the bribe money to buy his son's wife breast implants because she said she was "tired of wearing a training bra"; a huge, eight-cylinder car salesman who always carries thousands of dollars in cash; and two commissioners who denied they violated the state open-meetings law during their private scam sessions, in that one of them was always careful to remain silent.
Some explicitly religious comic book characters

JEFFREY WEISS
THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS

Jewish
- Bernie Rosenthal, the non-powered sometime-girlfriend of Captain America.
- Colossus Boy, Gim Allon, is a member of the Legion of Super Heroes.
- Greenberg the Vampire. He's Jewish. And he's a vampire. Go figure.
- Ramban, leader of the Hayoth, an Israeli superhero team, is a rabbi and a Jewish mystic.
- Rory Regan, the Ragman, has powers derived from Jewish mysticism.
- Son O'God, is a wildly irreverent character from several issues of National Lampoon in the 1970s.

Christian
- Crossbreed is an evangelical Christian team of superheroes who live in Astro City.
- Daredevil, Matthew Murdock, is a blind superhero and is Catholic.
- Firebird, Juanita Juarez, is an Avenger and a conservative Christian.
- Nightcrawler, Kurt Wagner, is a member of the X-Men and is planning to become a Catholic priest.
- Nightwing, Dick Grayson (the original Robin), has de Talk CDs and a New International Version Bible in his apartment.
- The Punisher, Frank Castle, is a former Catholic seminary student.
- Son O'God, is a wildly irreverent character from several issues of National Lampoon in the 1970s.
- Wolfsbane, Rahn Sinclair, a New Mutant, is Scottish Presbyterian.

Other
- Dr. Stephen Strange is Master of the Mystic Arts.
- Thor is one of many Norse gods.

Recipe Corner

Cæsar Salad

Ingredients
1/3 cup olive or vegetable oil
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons anchovy paste
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground mustard
1 garlic clove, finely chopped
1 large bunch romaine, torn into bite-size pieces (10 cups)
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
Freshly ground pepper

Instructions
1. Mix oil, lemon juice, anchovy paste, Worcestershire sauce, salt, mustard and garlic in salad bowl.
2. Add romaine; toss until coated. Sprinkle with croutons, cheese and pepper, too.

Scrambled Egg Burritos

Ingredients
Eggs

Milk
Salt and pepper to taste
Butter or margarine
Shredded Cheddar cheese
Tortillas
Sour cream

Instructions
1. Beat eggs, milk, salt and pepper for 6 eggs) with a wire whisk.
2. Cook eggs in a little butter in a skillet over medium heat, gently lifting cooked portions so they thin. Uncooked portion can flow to bottom. Cook until eggs are thickened but still moist.
3. Sprinkle with cheese.
4. Spoon eggs down center of tortilla; fold short ends in; fold long ends over eggs. Place seam side down on plates; sprinkle with additional cheese.
5. Serve with salsa and sour cream.

Love being extreme? Don’t care what others think about you? Sometimes we hide behind our masks, never allowing others to know the real you. These people here, though, they never seem to notice the way I look. Even the pastor guy has his eyebrow pierced. Now I know they accept me because God accepts me. And I don’t have to trade my tattoos for a tie. I’m accepted just the way I am.

Numinous

A Christian Community in a spiritual environment

Come join us for “fluid—a spiritual worship experience” first three Sundays of every month.
6 PM
www.fluidtradition.net/numinous
407.629.9807
maps at fluidtradition.net/numinous/msfluid.html
Healthy Volunteers ages 18 to 29 Smallpox Vaccine Study

The Orlando Clinical Research Center is Conducting An Important Clinical Research Study Of An Investigational Vaccine Being Developed To Immunize Against Smallpox.

To participate in this study the following must apply:
- No previous smallpox vaccine
- No history or presence of eczema or skin problems
- No immune disorders
- Willing to make 7 outpatient visits and complete a diary after vaccination

Compensation up to $250.00 for time and travel

Call today for more information:
(407) 240-7578
Orlando Clinical Research Center
4401 S. Orange Ave. Ste. 108 www.occrc.net
Late Knights

Saturday!
Sept 28th
Student Union
9 pm - 2 am

This Month Features:

🌟 Adam Sandler in "The Waterboy"
🌟 Karaoke
🌟 Comedian Craig Carmean
🌟 Inflatable Games
🌟 Live DJ

FREE FOOD & ENTERTAINMENT!
osac.ucf.edu