Central Florida Future, Vol. 36 Orientation 2003
Welcome home future Knights!

BY HESSAM JEBALEY AND BRIAN LINDEN

On behalf of The Central Florida Future, the student newspaper serving UCF since 1968, and the 2003 Orientation Team, we want to welcome you to the University of Central Florida. New you will embark on a new journey. A journey toward independence, goals, a degree and many other life-enhancing experiences. We've combined efforts to provide this guide to help you find your way, answer questions and concerns about the campus, and not-so-significant events of the past year.

Inside you will find articles relating to various campus organizations, including the Student Government Association, Campus Activities Board and the Greek Council. Also included is a special section filled with questions and answers saying straight from your Orientation Team members. They'll tell you what they wish they knew when they started their educational here. They also want to support the many newspapers who are helping to help you find your place in this organization to join and other universities.

With the start of fall classes on Aug. 25, The Future will return to its three-weekly distribution, on Mondays and Thursdays, through the one-week summer schedule. Five copies may be picked up more than 24 hours before printing the UCF Student Union, Henry classroom buildings and many area businesses.

The Future has something for everyone. It reports on a wide variety of topics, mostly related to UCF and university life. In the news section, you'll find updates on activities within UCF and the university administration, happenings on all clubs on campus or throughout the state of Florida. As the fall semester approaches, our players promises for the Division I-A football teams and sports and intramural activities. As you find a job, are looking to help your transition go smoothly, will like to submit a letter to the editor, or encounter a question or concern related to UCF and community, you'll find information in print, online or on the website. Unchecked, you'll find information about important on and off campus as well as event calendars. The sports sections will contain Division I-A statistics, UCF's other 15 official teams' annual on the range of club, sports and intramural.

If you're on the internet, be sure to check us out at www.UCFFuture.com, the official website of The Future. In addition to the articles in print, you'll find movie listings, weather updates, restaurant reviews and more. All available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. You'll also find for inappropriate topics if you have a question, comment, or concern about the campus, you'd like to submit a letter to the editor or seek help for a specific number of your staff.

As UCF continues to grow, your peers will keep you pace by picking up The Future every Monday and Thursday and visiting www.UCFfuture.com daily. Feel free to ask your contacts names for UCF news, events, sports and everything in between.

In the meantime, best of luck to you and your future. (As you intend.)

Cocoa's year. Daytona for Bike Week. But the more than its beaches. Each to visit almost anytime of the year. Cocoa is known for its beaches. Each year it has NASCAR enthusiasts for Speed Weeks and Marion Bike Week. But the excitement doesn't stop when the sun goes down. Cocoa Beach and downtown provide an evening for locals and tourists.

If you're looking for a more tranquil beach atmosphere, look no further than New Smyrna Beach. It's a great place to surf, rent several quality shops or just meet people. It's the best beach to take your family when you come to town.

Like to surf, or wish you could? Cocoa Beach is considered a surfer's mecca. Professional surfers say the waves are best on Cocoa Beach and amateurs can't get enough of Them too. cocoa beach's best-known surf landmark and one of the largest surf shops in the world. If you can't surf, you'll be sure to find the best surf shops on Cocoa Beach who can teach you how to surf. If you're interested in surfing, Cocoa Beach has several locations right on the beach and are prepared to offer lessons and rent surfboards for a minimum fee.

For the surf pros, Cocoa Beach hosts several annual surfing competitions throughout the year, including one on Easter Sunday. The calm blue waters of the beach were a surfer's mecca.

Flagler Beach, on the other hand, is the beach for you. Have beach-goers aren't allowed to bar it, and you'll be better off either if you go.

Flagler is one of the only beaches in the state if it is the beach for you and is prepared to offer lessons and rent surfboards for a minimum fee.

What do you regret spending money on when you were a freshman?

Money, money, money...

Way too much on beer and junk food... I could have saved quite a bit to put into savings to help fund my education this year.

Where are the best places and off campus to study?

College isn't all parties and studying sometimes you have to really focus. Finding the ideal place to study—free of the distractions that come college life—can be the key to keeping your grades up. Here are a few prime spots to study up on campus.

Inside the Student Union, the study area includes a lounge where you can get some quiet time. The lounge is open during the day and allows for some text in relative peace.

To get there, the Student Union is located just behind the Student Union Center, which houses a new fountain in front of the Student Union Center. The lounge is open during the day and allows for some text in relative peace.

Where's the best place off-campus to get grub?

One-campus off-campus tainting hand? If you're ready for real food, visit our real restaurant.

If you are looking for Asian dining, try El Corso, an extensive menu with the highest and low prices. El Corso is located on University Boulevard and serves fresh from LTO's menu.

Another great choice is Misto in Tijuana Flats, located at 3540 S. Okeechobee Rd. The salad has even expanded to more than a dozen Florida locations, including the original at University Boulevard and Main Road 1094.

If you're in the mood for a good, clean menu, walk within walking distance, visit the Falafel run by Brian Wheeler, a cut above the rest. The Falafel launched in 1995 by Brian Wheeler, a cut above the rest.

Where's the best place for Thai dining? Two Palms and Bob's Thai Cuisine are within 10 minutes of each other.

This Thai is located off-campus and offers the best of Thai cuisine in Florida locations, including the original Thai Palms.

If you're in the mood for authentic Thai cuisine in off-campus, visit the Falafel run by Brian Wheeler, a cut above the rest. The Falafel launched in 1995 by Brian Wheeler, a cut above the rest.

UCF athletic teams were new to new levels in 2003-04. In football, the Knights showed the Mid-American Conference what they're made of when they finished 12-1-1 in the regular season and advanced to the conference title game. In basketball, the Knights showed they can compete at the highest level with a NCAA basketball tournament bid.

Football

In the inaugural season of the MAC, the Knights were the team to beat. Under Coach Mike Ensminger, the Knights dominated their opponents on the gridiron, finishing second in the conference. The MAC season started with a bang, and there was no question that the Knights were the team to beat. The offense battled to put the move on their opponents, while the defense held their own and kept the offense in the game. The offense benefited from the move to the more powerful MAC, and the defense showed they were ready for the challenge.

ESPN's College Football rankings were especially high for UCF, with Coach Mike Ensminger's team finishing second in the MAO conference and leading by Reisman finalist Larwill. In their inaugural season of football play, the Knights finished 23rd in the nation's leader in touchdown passing, like last one.

In other sports, UCF teams showed they can compete at the highest level with a NCAA basketball tournament bid.

Basketball

UCF's men's basketball season couldn't have gone much better. With three consecutive away games, the Knights were ranked by Sports Illustrated as the nation's leader in touchdown passing. The team showed they could compete with the big boys of the MAC, and the offense continued to improve. The offense was led by senior guard Ed Spear, who was ranked second in the nation in scoring for half the season.

Getting to know your mascot

Knightro is UCF's new mascot for the 2003-04 season. The new mascot is a 6-foot-tall, 210-pound humanoid figure with a distinctive head that can be changed to reflect the team's colors. The mascot will make appearances at UCF sporting events and will be the new face of UCF athletics.

We, the current Student Government Association leaders, are devoted to continuing the traditions of student excellence. We believe the primary responsibility of SGA is to offer the programs and services that you, the students, want. Our mission is to make SGA a valuable resource for the student body by increasing services to students in the area of campus life, by becoming your voice for student concerns, and by creating an environment conducive to learning, mutual respect, individual and collective achievement, acceptance and understanding. The following is our plan of action to complete this mission by offering programs and services in the areas of UCF Community, UCF Academics, UCF Awareness and Advocacy, UCF Campus Services, and UCF Athletics and Traditions.

UCF Community
- UCF Card Discounts at Surrounding Businesses
- Main Campus Support for Branch Campus Events
- UCF Paraphernalia at Surrounding Businesses
- UCF Day in the Community: Involve the Community in UCF: Dance Marathon Community Task Force
- Bring a Reasonably Priced Grocery Mart to Campus
- Lake Claire Improvements: Shelters for Campus Shuttle Stops
- SafeRide Program

UCF Academics
- Facilitate Textbook Exchange
- Freshmen Survival Kit
- Online Teacher and Course Evaluations
- Roundtable Discussion With Faculty Senate
- Organize Fortune 500 Job Fair With All Florida Colleges
- Sign Language Recognized for Foreign Language Requirement
- Community Service Hours on School Transcripts
- Who’s Who at UCF: Publication and Scholarship
- Meet the Dean Sessions
- Pass Only Grading System
- Midnight Breakfast

UCF Campus Services
- Establish UCF Traffic GAT Support "Knightcast" Radio
- Additional Student and Client Services: Modify KnightCycle Rental Unit
- Make Copies of All Textbooks
- Increase Graduate Assistantships
- Extended hours for the Health Center: Increase Orientation: Transfers
- No School No Ticket Sales

UCF Athletics & Traditions
- Lobby for More NCAA Men’s Student Buses to All Home Games
- Free Student Parking at Driver’s License Events
- Pep Rallies for All Sports
- Lighting for Intramural Events
- Support Spirit Police
- Block and Gold Fridays
- Homecoming Traditions: UCF Founder’s Day, KnightRiders Away Night
The Student Government Association is the chief student organization. We are the voice that represents all students’ interests and concerns. Another main duty of SGA is to allocate a $10.5 million dollar Activity and Service Fee budget which facilitates student programs and services.

Student Government consists of three branches, the executive, legislative, and judicial branches. Together, these branches work on behalf of students to preserve their rights, fight for student concerns, and provide the services that students want. The Student Government Association provides the following services:

- Safe Ride – a free taxi ride home with Yellow Cab Co. within a 15 mile radius of UCF. This service is intended for UCF students who find themselves in a dangerous situation. Safe ride vouchers are available at the SGA ticket center inside the student union. Pick one up today!

- Multicultural Student Center – a programming hub for students in any cultural organization anchored by 5 of the University’s largest cultural organizations, the African-American Student Association, Hispanic American Student Association, the Caribbean Student Association, SANGAM and the Elements.

- Who’s Who at UCF – this is a scholarship program that awards $50,000 to UCF’s 100 top students. A magazine is also created annually that features the Top 100 students and biographies that is distributed to Fortune 500 companies, local and regional businesses, graduate schools, and to local, state, and nationally elected officials.

- SGA Ticket Center – located in the Student Union, the SGA Ticket Center offers discount tickets for Orlando attractions and movies. These tickets include admission to Universal Studios, Sea World, Medieval Times and Regal Cinemas, all at discounted prices. The Ticket Center also distributes free Safe Ride vouchers.

- Student Union and Recreation and Wellness Center – Both of these facilities are completely funded by SGA including their operations, equipment, and maintenance.

- SGA Computer Lab – SGA provides a computer lab located in the Student Union that contains today’s top technology and allows for free printing.

- UCF Readership Program – Distributed throughout the campus are free newspapers to keep students up to date with current events.

- Scholarships – SGA awards over $200,000 in scholarships to UCF students. Students select the criteria for these scholarships.

- Student Legal Services – Free legal counsel for students is available to ensure that your rights are not being violated.

- Open Door Policy – The Student Government Association has an open door policy. Any student with questions or concerns is welcome to stop by the SGA office, located on the second floor of the Student Union, or call us at (407) 823-2191.

- Student Advocacy Office – If you need help with student appeals or campus concerns, visit Student Government.

Funded by Activity and Service Fee through the Student Government Association.

Where do I vote?

Now that you've moved to Orlando (and you'll probably be here for a long, long time), you might want to register to vote. If you haven't already done so, check out the Voting Information Center located on the first floor of Student Union. If you live in Orange County or elsewhere in the state of Florida, you should vote in the Orange County clerk's office. To find the voting office nearest you, visit the Elections Office website or contact the Orange County Supervisor of Elections. In the unlikely event that you are a member of the military, you can vote by mail.

Shuttle tragedy hits home

Not long after one of many former shuttle astronauts to visit the media lectured on the tragedy, a keynote speech by lead media analyst Carlos Smith Jr., Jaggs University. The event was one of the most heated fields on campus Feb. 2 speaking to kids as part of her ongoing science-research funds. Students learned the Challenger needed, but assured the media and her young audience that space travel meant in on.

SAA candidates trade tantrums

Flora SAA President Belinda Battles and Kelly Daniels jockeyed against each other Thursday Feb. 3, to be the next leader who promised to be in touch with NASA officials later this morning. The shuttle Columbia disintegrated on its 16th day as it achieved orbit and destroyed another finisher's campaign material.

Web was cleared of impeachment charges, which threatened to end his presidency permanently, and allowed to complete his term. Nevertheless, Battles and his running mate, Dee McAl­ lain, who were charged with illegal campaign reporting a revelation, a promising, a promising, a promising program endorsed the state at an advertising fair before the candidates were allowed to campaign. Elected also sworn the oath of office and free from religion at the inauguration.

On March 11, the first shuttle Columbia disintegrated on its 16th day as it achieved orbit and destroyed another finisher's campaign material.

The rally was planned as a non-partisan event, but the method of Campus Peace Action shifted the focus to a sparring match between two year oppo­nents.

Shuttle tragedy hits home

Only late was one of many former shuttle astronauts who hoped to change the public's perception of the shuttle. Craig Boyles, an SAA member said, "We're all here to promote the shuttle. Nothing is more important than the shuttle."

SAA candidates trade tantrums

Flora SAA President Belinda Battles and Kelly Daniels jockeyed against each other Thursday Feb. 3, to be the next leader who promised to be in touch with NASA officials later this morning. The shuttle Columbia disintegrated on its 16th day as it achieved orbit and destroyed another finisher's campaign material.

Web was cleared of impeachment charges, which threatened to end his presidency permanently, and allowed to complete his term. Nevertheless, Battles and his running mate, Dee McAl­ lain, who were charged with illegal campaign reporting a revelation, a promising, a promising, a promising program endorsed the state at an advertising fair before the candidates were allowed to campaign. Elected also sworn the oath of office and free from religion at the inauguration.

On March 11, the first shuttle Columbia disintegrated on its 16th day as it achieved orbit and destroyed another finisher's campaign material.

The rally was planned as a non-partisan event, but the method of Campus Peace Action shifted the focus to a sparring match between two year oppo­nents.

Shuttle tragedy hits home

Only late was one of many former shuttle astronauts who hoped to change the public's perception of the shuttle. Craig Boyles, an SAA member said, "We're all here to promote the shuttle. Nothing is more important than the shuttle."

Drinking and driving was one of many former shuttle astronauts as well as the media lectured on the tragedy, a keynote speech by lead media analyst Carlos Smith Jr., Jaggs University. The event was one of the most heated fields on campus Feb. 2 speaking to kids as part of her ongoing science-research funds. The event - took the stage, a movement designed to diffuse their plans for a protest rally outside the Student Union.

Battles and Battles claimed they did not know about the spill involved in the case, and denied handing the fire alarm and consulted to students in exchange for argument in its inception has contended for the state's budget. Workers later neutralized the spill with a decisive effort to re-activate a proposal rumor.

The reigning NCAA men's rugby team turned in a routine of scoring four tries in each of its first two matches in the spring to improve its conference record to 4-2. The team is expected to continue its winning streak for at least the next two years as a result of the new facility.

The UCF Board of Trustees voted unanimously in March to approve a $5.6 million contract for Westinghouse-manufactured finger-scan systems to screen entrants to the new Student Recreation Center with a new, four-story facility. The new facility will have a capacity of 3,000 and will replace the current Student Recreation Center, which was designed to allow students to enter the fitness center by simply scanning their student ID card to get in.

Although UCF's men's rugby team was undefeated, with an 8-0 record in 2002, the team was knocked to second in the men's national title and marked the ninth time in the past 10 years that the team did not win the national title, thus ending Kentucky's string of eight consecutive national titles.

The finger-scan system, which was designed to allow students to enter the fitness center by simply scanning their student ID card, originally was implemented to forgo the high-tech security system and resort to the original computer screen as they scanned the student ID card to get in. The system was expected to malfunction for reasons of coagulated blood, rotten cheese and a topping of hole and corner. The Student Health Center, located next to the Biological Sciences Building, offers students complete medical care professionals. It's what you need when you need it. Health center helps when you're well, too.

BY ROB FAUST
Director, Student Health Services

It's the last thing in the world you need to happen tomorrow, but the "big exam" is looming tomorrow and you just had yourself coming down with one of those mega-stomach bugs. Or, it's three days before the beach weekend—your mood goes "gray" when you try to make it up.

One of the key organizations on the UCF campus that helps you—don't often need them is Student Health Services. But for those times when you can hardly drag yourself to class because of a sore throat, stomach problem or that twisted ankle, there is hardly a better place to have slow-by.

The Student Health Center, located next to the Biological Sciences Building, offers students a modern, complete medical clinic. Here, you'll find medical doctors and other experienced health professionals. It's what you might term "one-stop medical shopping!"

Without having to leave the building you can get your lab work done, get an X-ray or consultation and pick up that prescription. None of these "extra" services are provided at a premium—many of these "extras" are provided at a far cheaper price than anywhere else by the way. Or, if it's after hours, by the way, the Health Center is about filling prescription needs that will enhance your success the next day. Call the Health Center (Traveler Services 501), and take the first step.

The Student Government Association's (SGA) primary function is to appropriate about $19.5 million through various services offered to the student body.

Their mission is to make SGA a valuable resource for the administration as well as to include the following:

- Implement, but not limit itself to, the following:
  - Additional student and club space in the Student Union
  - Modity KnightRiders Away Matches
  - Golf cart transportation for the temporarily disabled
  - Make copies of all textbooks available in the library
  - Extended hours for the Student Health Center
  - No school = no tickets!

UCF campus services

The services provided to students on the campus have been overwhelming the SGA. The Battles-MacLellan administration has decided that these services need to be fine-tuned in order to maintain their efficiency. Some new services that they would like to implement are:

- Establish UCF traffic cop.
- Additional student and club space in the Student Union
- Modity KnightRiders Away Matches
- Golf cart transportation for the temporarily disabled
- Make copies of all textbooks available in the library
- Extended hours for the Student Health Center
- No school = no tickets!

UCF academics

The Battles-MacLellan administration feels that there are many necessary changes that need to be made in order to promote a learning atmosphere and promote faculty/student relationships. Some of these changes include the implementation of the following services:

- Online teacher evaluations
- Balanced discussion boards
- Facilitate textbook exchange
- Online Forum for 500 Jennings
- Sight language recognition
- Foreign language program

UCF awareness and advocacy

Most students at UCF are unaware of the number of programs and services available to them. The Battles-MacLellan administration feels that this is due in part to the following:

- Limited awareness
- Limited marketing

KEY ORGANIZATIONS

OSA has got it all

BY LAURA WALTER
UCF Student Union Information Desk

Want to get involved with student life at UCF?
The Office of Student Activities (OSA) provides environment programming, community service opportunities, and leadership development activities that enhance student life at the university.

Four student organizations operate out of the Office of Student Activities: Emerge Knights, OSA Council, Emerging Knights, and Emerge Knights. In addition, the Office advises more than 130 student organizations including Family Weekend and Late Night, and plans monthly outings of the Roundtable for student organizations.

Over the last few years, big names like comedian Dave Attell, J. D. Drew, Billy Mays, Nappy Roots, Fountains of Wayne, and Film Society of Lincoln Center have visited UCF with the help of the Campus Activities Board (CAB).

CAB is a student-run board composed of 13 committees that entertain, advise, and enlighten UCF students through sponsored activities. Each committee plans, coordinates, promotes, and implements the various programs in its area.

The board of directors, composed of the directors of the 10 committees, organizes the UCF operations of cinema, comedy and variety, resource, musical and fine arts, dance, professional, special events, student leadership, and film and video productions.

Emerge Knights can help Student Leaders develop their leadership skills as a resource to students, staff, and faculty. Student Leaders are in charge of and responsible for the organization's activities and events. The office assists the leadership team in the development of their leadership skills.

The Emerge Knights office provides Emerging Knights with assistance in organizing their events and providing the consultants with the opportunity to share their leadership experience. If you want to be a leader on campus, Emerge Knights is the place to start.

Volunteer UCF (VUCF) is dedicated to providing community services and volunteer opportunities to UCF students. Through a variety of programs and committees, VUCF helps interested students with community-based organizations that host their interests, talents and skills.

VUCF has a strong commitment to social change through community service and encourages students to participate in VUCF events. Students represent the following categories: arts and recreation, mentoring, children and education, criminal justice and domestic violence, animal care and the environment, elderly awareness, health and mental health, homelessness, hunger, and literacy issues.

Students are invited to meet with the director to research agencies or sign up for an accepted-organization list.

OSA is committed to providing opportunities for students to explore and experience diversity with these agencies. Through education, understanding, and participation, students will gain valuable knowledge and experience with a great variety of organizations and cultural experiences.

Northern Illinois University students from the Emerging Knights program hosted 16 student organizations that operated on campus while benefiting the community.

In the past, the biggest of these projects has been UCF presented by UCF with the help of VUCF. This past year, students involved in annual Hunger Banquet, Get Clean Out, and Food Drive and Green Ribbon Gala, an Arbor Day Dedication Tournament, and two expos where local agencies visited students to explore community volunteer opportunities to UCF students.

UCF’s fraternities and sororities: The start of a lifelong experience

BY RYAN D'ORIORE
President '06

It is safe to say that college experiences exist that can simultaneously be rewarding in a diversity or severity. With 41 national fraternities and sororities, UCF’s award-winning Greek community provides something for everyone. At UCF, fraternities and sororities provide students with a unique opportunity for leadership, growth, development and involvement. As a new student, UCF may be asking yourself several of the following questions:

Will I be involved in campus organizations and better my leadership skills?

Will I be able to prepare and network for a career?

Will I find a part of the campus community (or just a network)?

Fraternities and sororities can personalize your UCF experience and provide a home away from home. After all, 2,600 members can’t be wrong.

What is fraternity and sorority life all about?

Unfortunately, MTV and several movies have inaccurately portrayed fraternities and sororities. They never would have survived for more than 200 years and would not continue to exist at UCF if they resembled the images projected on TV.

To put things in perspective:

Fraternities and sororities have been at UCF since 1972 — when UCF was still called Florida Technological University. Before CliOs and DOBs were invented, belief cell phones existed and before UCF had a football team.

Scholastic achievement

The UCF Greek community continuously encourages scholastic excellence in other words, students have to maintain certain grade point averages in order to retain active member status of their chapter.

The average GPA of fraternity and sorority members generally ranks above the overall student population. If anything, more than 70% of sorority women are on the dean’s list, earning a 3.5 GPA or higher. The sorority average at least a 3.0 GPA, with these organizations averaging at least a 3.10 GPA.

For members, support Greek members are provided with structured study halls, educational programs, scholarships, travel grants and more, as well as financial aid to help them succeed.

Social activities

For many students, the involvement in Greek organizations guarantees the start of a lifelong experience. In other words, students have the opportunity to get involved in various intramural sports and other organizations at UCF. Fraternities and sororities can offer a family atmosphere and go beyond ordinary social policies than most other clubs and organizations.

Greek social life helps make college campuses more unique and organized than fraternities and sororities lend a helping hand in academic pursuits. Community service and fraternity, sorority philanthropy can also be of the highest degree and stay in school than non-affiliated students.

Leadership

If, as any other entities, each chapter selects officers to manage the operations of their organization, and these officers are assisted by members serving on committees. The national headquarters of each organization have leadership conferences and programs where students can learn a variety of leadership skills. Attendees play an important role as leaders and members, and UCF organizations help students network, explore opportunities, and graduate.

Campus involvement and school spirit

Joining a fraternity or sorority can be one of the best ways to get involved in other organizations at UCF. Many campus leaders — from the President’s Leadership Council to student government members — are Greek.

Fraternities and sororities also sponsor teams in participating in various intramural sports and other organizations at UCF. These sports include flag football, soccer, baseball, softball, softball and other activities. Fraternity and sorority philanthropy can also be of the highest degree and stay in school than non-affiliated students.

UCF sends eight teams to the University of Florida Greek Slam competition, which includes fraternities and sororities. In 2001, the Greek Slam competition was held at the University of Florida.

Members of the Greek community volunteer to help a variety of local causes and charities throughout the school year.

UCF's chapter recognize that lacking has no place in their organizations.

UCF has a proactive committee responsible with shared and chapter members in all chapters to provide a positive and rewarding experience. Hence, new-student progress is a key way to blend the history of the chapter and national organization and are not "dormensional." New members simply attend weekly meetings and get involved with chapter activities that provide a great way to make new friends.

Some sororities expensive?

You might be surprised.

Housing arrangements vary on-campus.

Living arrangements differ chapter to chapter. Some fraternities, three Latin fraternities, three Latin sororities, two black fraternities, a Jewish fraternity; some students' individual talents, interests, and acceptable activities. A Greek is difficult to stereotype, despite what you may hear.

Who joins fraternities and sororities?

While certain values, roles and procedures are very unique to a Greek Life, the role of our organization, fraternity and sorority members regard "individual talents, interests, and accomplishments." A Greek is difficult to stereotype, despite what you may hear.

Members of fraternities and sororities are often from different racial, religious, and socioeconomic backgrounds. UCF's fraternity and sorority members include:

Even though the average cost of being in a house in Greek Park was $2,206, including dues, rent and meal plans.

What are intramural sports, and how do I sign up?

Many new students often try to find ways to get outside and get some exercise. Since Florida has the best weather in the United States, most UCF students take advantage of this opportunity by joining outdoor sports activities.

Access to a computer is also needed to sign up for any of the many intramural sports UCF offers. IEU Intramural Sports offers sports such as basketball, softball, tennis, flag football, dodgeball, floor hockey, and bowling—just to name a few.

Once you purchase the necessary fees, you can register for the Intramural Sports program by going to the UCF Intramurals website at www.ucffuture.com.

What are some off-campus weekend activity suggestions?

As the weeks go by, your first year will soon be over! You will soon find out why Orlando has been the number one city in the United States with numerous activities for all ages.

Downtown Disney, Universal Studios, and SeaWorld Orlando and Point Orlando all offer numerous activities and attractions. You can spend an evening at any of these venues watching a movie at a cinema or a nightly show, visiting the theme parks, or dancing all night at one of the many night clubs.

Downtown Orlando also offers a lot more than that. Orlando has been the number one city in the United States for its nightlife. Whether you enjoy dancing, drinking, or just hanging out, you will find something for you.

You can also attend movies at the West End Cinema, located at 407-447-2443

How can I become a leader at UCF?

Maybe you want to be president sometime—or maybe you just want to make the most of your time at UCF. Whatever your reasons, becoming a campus leader can be an unforgettable experience.

On a campus with over 220 clubs and organizations, and a student government that is responsible for governing over 36,000 students, it's easy to find something to be involved in.

You might be interested in becoming involved in student government if you like politics, meeting people and influencing students' lives.

There are several ways you can get involved with the Student Government. The Council, located in Room 204 of the Student Union, starts off by deciding which branch interests you the most—executive, legislative, or judicial.

The executive branch is composed of the student body president, vice president and these positions, who are elected by the student body each spring and fall.

The executive leaders appoint their own cabinet members.

The legislative branch consists of the student senators, elected by the student body for each fall and spring semester.

The judicial branch upholds the SGA constitution, handles grievances and is appointed by the student body president for the duration of his or her term.

If politics isn't your thing, you can get up information about many other student organizations in the offices of Student Activities, Located in Room 209 of the Student Union. OAU sponsors organizations such as the Campus Activities Board, EKCEL, Every Knight Can Excel in Leadership, the Homecoming Band, Military ROTC, Late Knights, Greek affiliations—and more than 200 other clubs and organizations.

The Campus Activities Board sponsors student entertain ment such as comedians, bands, and cultural events. Meanwhile, the Homecoming Band organizes a week of activities during Homecoming weekend. And when they can't, they help send invitations to the return of UCF football.

Volunteer UCF provides various opportunities for students to serve the university and the community work with the elderly, collecting cans for the needy, or mentoring children.

EKCEL is a leadership organization that offers training and development to students at all leadership levels. Greek Affiliates discusses information about UCF's social fraternities and sororities.

There are hundreds of other student-run clubs and organizations at UCF and these groups are diverse as they are numerous. They include the Student Philharmic Society, College Democrats, College Republicans, the Red Oxen Club, EKCEL, LEAD, and many more.

All of the clubs at UCF have formed for academic, social, international, political, military, professional, religious reasons. If you can, form an official UCF club if you have at least 12 members, a constitution and a common interest.

Your parents might tell you that you should be anything you want to be. Maybe they didn't mean it quite so literally. If they had, the perfect place to get started is right here at UCF.
The most scholarship recipients are required to keep their full-time status to keep their scholarships—and if that is the case, there is generally a minimum grade point average requirement as well. In the case, you probably won't have time to work much. Writing papers and studying for midterms takes time and you will be losing money if you lose your scholarship by quitting your job.

If you desire extra spending money, but money is not critical, try finding an on-campus job. Campus employers are usually understanding about work/study schedules and other school-related obligations. You also won't have to worry by driving to work.

To find a job, visit ucfjobs.ucf.edu, the classified section of the Central Florida Future (jail Orlandos). These sources usually list several employment opportunities, both on and off campus. It takes trial and error, patience and time management to find a balance between work and school. When you eventually learn how much time anything takes, you will surprisingly find that balance. - JAVON PORTER

What are some tips for meeting new people?

Imagine that it’s your first day at school. IfUCF has never visited your first right will to immediately be your first college class, sit at the front of the classroom. People are usually friendly.

First, do not panic. There are thousands of other UCF students who are in the same position. Start, look on the friends who are doing it—college is a new start, so do the same. If you are nervous, talk to the people in front of you. What do you do if?

Our first three hours a week都会 be spent in academic advising to campus students. Our experience teaching a dance competition and listen to keynote speakers have taught us everything from thick to keynote speakers. By the end of the semester, a truly appropriate and diverse student body. practicing our welcome dance, we were thrilled. Twenty-nine of us had decorating our residence halls when I filled out an application for being selected as a member of the O-Team.

O-Team journey began when I filled out an application for the position last September. After an intensive interview process, several desired O-Teamers showed up at my doorstep. December day with buildings and out to wounds, preparing me for being selected as a member of the O-Team.

Needless to say, I was thrilled. Twenty-nine of us who had been selected were a diverse group of students from different backgrounds. The diversity of our team was a truly important aspect of the UCF student body.

At the beginning of the spring semester, we welcomed two new team members for our O-Team retreat. This year, the retreat was designed to strengthen our bond and to help us grow as a team.

O-Teamers served as academic advisers to the freshmen. We work alongside the professional administrators to help students plan out their schedules.

The one inspiring figure who keeps us going is our leader. She is someone who has a major role in leading O-Teamers.

Although we worked hard and stayed late, we were happy. We were an unstoppable force, capable of making a difference in the lives of our teammates.

We dream of a church... where people find real help, discover real answers and experience real change. Avalon CHurch
