Faculty Senate steps towards protecting gays

Next step is vote at full Senate meeting

PATRICIA RAYNER

A resolution asking UCF to expand its anti-discrimination pol­icy to include gender identity and expression is headed for a vote at the next full Senate meeting, expected to be held on Tuesday.

The move, endorsed Thursday by the Faculty Senate Steering Committee, seeks to place UCF among the universities in the state that have such policy.

"We're fighting for the recognition of the Senate," said Thomas H. Ropp, a 21-year-old college student, who has been injured and left for dead in nearly 10 years. "I believe in the Senate's position and support it."

The Senate leaders said that a resolution adopted last year, was "too vague" to be effective. They added that, "We need to make it more specific and then move forward with the Senate's position in support of the Senate."
ACCIDENT nearly sinks crew club

TAYLOR BECK & JACOB BARBUCK

Central Florida Future

As their sleek boat cut through the water on a cool Monday morning, members of the UCF crew team prepared for a practice race. Suddenly, an explosion from the bow of the boat caused the crew to lose control of the boat. The impact ripped a two-foot chunk off the bow, sending the crew to take on water immediately.

Toward the bow of the boat had to evacuate to the remaining boats, but perhaps only the crew's desire to win would help them to continue. The club remains hopeful for the club to continue.

The UFV volleyball team (12-2, 8-0) defeated Trinity Westy (82-2, 1-6) in four games (21-15, 21-15, 21-15, 21-15) on Friday evening. The victory extended the Knights’ winning streak to 11 matches.

UFCU freshman Shane Linder reached 750, winning 11 of 12 matches as he swept the two sets.

The Knights welcomed outside hitter Jada Wilk to the lineup to help fill the void left by the 6-3 outside hitter in her first match since Aug. 29, against San Diego State.

Middle blocker AnnMaria Justashophy and Chaseno had 10 kills each as the Knights had 26 kills and six digs in their first match against an opponent since Aug. 29, against San Diego State.

Middle blocker AnnMaria Justashophy and Chaseno had 10 kills each as the Knights had 26 kills and six digs in their first match since Aug. 29, against San Diego State.

Shuttle served up for another streak. The Knights are now 10-0 in six games this season.

"That’s not doing anything. We try to do more than anything. We try to do our best and make our decisions as best as we can," Bobcats’ head coach Dion Byrum said. "It’s a late decision, but apparently that was our decision."

DANA DELAPI

Turning 20 this year is a big deal for most people, but a special party with a lot of friends and family makes it even more special. But when that radio station like WJZ 106.9 turns 20, it’s cause for a big, blowout celebration, something the station will never forget.

When DJ Frankie J first took his talents to Orlando, he worked at WCF 96.3, not the 106.9 frequency where he is now. Two years later, that frequency changed to 106.9 and it’s been home for Frankie J ever since.

Vanessa Melendez, Kuehne’s exhibit manager, says that since that change, he has seen his work grow in recognition.

"It’s the most beautiful thing about him," Melendez said. "He’s able to take his unique art and share it with others."

But what are his fans and friends getting together for this Saturday night? Happy Birthday and a lot of free drinks.

"It’s a celebration of his birthday with some of the hottest urban music," Melendez added. "The party is going to last till 1 a.m, but we’re not sure how long it will last."

Frankie J took the stage last night, asking, "Where all my apple-bottom queens at?" He created a few jaws drop and blazed off with his amazing voice, which got a few cheers.

Web site made by college students, for college students

ADAM MOORE

In a world of online marketplaces and do-it-yourself shopping sites like eBay and Amazon, two entrepreneurs at the University of Central Florida have created a similar site, aimed specifically to help students in the Orlando area. CollegeMart is a site where college students can find things they need at a reasonable price.

"We realized that we needed an easy way to buy and sell books for students," said Adam Moore, co-founder of CollegeMart. "We wanted to give students an easy way to sell their books and make some extra money, especially during the summer months."

CollegeMart allows students to register for free, create a personal profile, and list any items they wish to sell. The site is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

As of now, CollegeMart has over 1,000 listings, ranging from textbooks to clothing, electronics, and even cars.

"We want to make sure that students have access to the resources they need to succeed," said Moore. "Our goal is to provide students with an easy and affordable way to buy and sell items."
Dentists in different areas. The licensing, registration, and certification of dental professionals are handled at the state level, and each state has its own set of rules and regulations. In general, the requirements include completion of a dental school program, passing the national dental board examinations, obtaining a license to practice dentistry, and meeting any other state-specific requirements. Dentists are required to maintain their competence and skills through ongoing education and professional development. It is important for patients to choose a dentist who is licensed and has a good reputation in their area. The dentist should be able to provide a comprehensive range of services and be willing to work with patients of all ages and backgrounds. Patients should also be prepared to discuss their specific needs and concerns with the dentist, and to work together to develop a treatment plan that meets their individual needs. This may involve discussing the availability of different treatment options, the costs associated with each option, and the potential risks and benefits of each approach. Ultimately, the goal is to provide high-quality care that is tailored to the unique needs of each patient.

BARRY UNIVERSITY

Engaging you in the service of humanity

It's the unique combination of modern expertise, traditional knowledge, and a hands-on family-oriented approach that makes being a physician assistant so rewarding. At Barry University, we prepare you for a future as a physician assistant by providing you with the didactic and practical instruction to excel. In fact, 97% of our graduates have passed the Physician Assistant National Certifying Examination. You engage in clinical rotations that help you develop diagnostic skills and clinical reasoning. And you also spend part of your training working in underserved and disadvantaged communities with an emphasis on primary care. So you graduate prepared to become an ethical, caring, competent physician assistant, where you belong.
