The new vending machine at UCF is sleek, sturdy and safe, and is being used to dispense free DVDs. The machine is designed to provide a convenient way for students to access a wide variety of movies, and it aims to promote responsible movie consumption by allowing students to borrow movies for a limited time and return them on schedule.

The vending machine uses specialized software to track the number of times a DVD is borrowed and returned. If a student does not return a DVD on time, they will be charged a late fee. The machine also has a feature that prevents students from borrowing a movie more than once in a given period.

The machine is a part of a larger initiative to promote media literacy and critical thinking among students. By providing a platform for students to access a diverse range of movies, the vending machine aims to foster a culture of informed and responsible movie consumption.

The vending machine is located in the Student Union and is available to all UCF students. It is part of a larger project to integrate technology into the educational experience, and it represents a new approach to delivering content to students.

All right, today the Student Government Association sponsors a vote driver, with free music and food. The SGA Office in Student Union Room 342 also has the formal welcome speech, starting at 8 p.m. and ending at 10 p.m. to begin to vote.

The Orange County primary elections take place Aug. 8, and the general election occurs Nov. 2. Women must be registered by Aug. 2 to vote in the primary and by Oct. 4 to vote in the general elections.

Planning now
The last day to drop classes is Aug. 9, with the last day to withdraw is Summer B is July 14 at 7:45 p.m.

We would like to go to Perkins at June 9 at 7:45 p.m.

The Orange Room of Minis- terially Management will have the exhibit "Tacky Vintage Florida Souvenirs" for the celebration of the back-to-school.

In conjunction with the Orange County Regional History Union the Rosen Library display has artifacts that can take a look at "mossy" memorabilia, trinkets and postcards. The Orange Room is located on the first floor of the library.

A new computer lab is being installed near International Drive. For more information about the library's homepage at http://library.ucf.edu/music.

Frank Negley, 20, a junior at UCF, said that he can not find a female UC student to go to the beach with him.

According to UCF Police, Negley's date, who called police on May 23, then Negley was driving his car on the university's campus.

The woman, who called UCPD Police after she saw Negley looking on a street.

The state of Florida and Florida State Uni- versity have similar policies.

Police say that the woman was not the first to take the form of human body. Human body appre- ciation is an important form of speech and is protected by the First Amendment. Free speech protections extend to all forms of communication, including written, oral, or visual means.

In addition to freedom of speech, freedom of the press is also protected. This means that the press can publish information without fear of retribution. The press has the right to investigate and report on the activities of government officials and public figures, as well as on issues of public importance.

The First Amendment also protects the right to petition the government. This means that individuals can band together to demand change and seek redress of grievances.

When a Bobcats player is suspended, he or she is not allowed to participate in team activities. This can include attending practices, games, or other team-related events. The suspension period can range from one day to the entire season.

The suspension is intended to deter the repeat offender. It is also a way to send a message to other players that such behavior will not be tolerated.

Stopping bad copies, public service ad- ministration and research needs the support of the students. The Office of Student Life is committed to making a difference in this area.

Correction
The Future incorrectly identified a truck and field athlete in an article with the headline "Florida State's Mike Johnson living in Florida," which appeared in the June 5 edition of the Central Florida Future.

While many students like Wiggins are concerned about the cost of copying, public service administrators need to invest in technology to prevent piracy.

KELLY ROBERTS, MD

Every time I go off of a diet, my weight swings to between right and left. What is the most effective way to lose weight and how can I keep it off for good?

If you consume more calories than you burn off, you will gain weight. If you burn more calories through daily activity and exercise than you eat, you will lose weight. Therefore, the unfortunate reality of the weight-loss battle really boils down to "eat less, exercise more." There are no magic pills or foods that will make the pounds dip away. So, how do all of the "fad diets" work? They are the most popular diet creations. Numerous scientific studies have demonstrated that people on any diet that restrict food, such as the grapefruit diet, the lemonade diet even the Atkins diet, are losing weight because they are eating fewer calories. The problem with most diets is that we view them as temporary — after all, who could possibly go through the whole life eating only grapefruit or drinking only lemonade? What the diet soon ends, the "fast" victim resumes their former pattern of overeating, and the weight quickly finds its way back.

The key to sustained weight loss, therefore, is to make dietary and lifestyle changes that you can continue for a long time. The best way to do this is to avoid consuming too many foods from your diet. The key is to burn off calories from your diet. To do this, most of the foods that you eat need to be unprocessed foods. The best way to do this is to avoid consuming too many foods from your diet. The key is to burn off calories from your diet.

Drinking more water — at least eight glasses per day — will help fill you up on foods and vegetables as well as water throughout the day, thus avoiding the temptation to overeat. Go light on the "diet" beer. Even "Lite" beer is packed with calories — about 99 calories per 12 fluid ounces, compared with 127 calories per 12 fluid ounces. Be especially cautious about some mixed drinks — an eight-ounce glass of wine has about 70 calories, and a six-ounce glass of red wine has about 120 calories.

Several studies have shown that we can promote weight loss by simply changing what we eat. Try keeping a list for just two weeks of what you eat and how much you eat. Many people find that they eat too much food over the counter-weight loss/cals

Nader selects Green Party activist Carmeo as running mate

pendent presidential candidate Ralph Nader selected longtime Green Party activist Peter Carmeo to be his running mate on Monday, an attempt to boost his chances of winning the Green Party's endorsement and its access to ballots in 23 states and the District of Columbia.

Carmeo had been one of two leading contenders for the Green Party's presidential nomination. Nader, who ran as the Green Party candidate in 2000, is not seeking the party's nomination but he has pursued an endorsement from the party's third party.

Nader also has been endorsed by the Indymem party, which gives him access to the ballot in at least seven states, including Florida.

Nader garnered nearly 3 percent of the vote in 2000, which he won by tying in Florida, as having cost Democrat Al Gore the White House by taking votes in the deciding state of Florida.

Carmeo received more than 2 million votes as the Green Party candidate for California governor during the 2002 recall campaign that led to the election of Democrat Gray Davis.

Carmeo ran for president as the California Reform Party nominee in 1996.

As a gubernatorial candidate in California, Carmeo sup-

Speraw inks another b-ball transfer

UNC guard will be ready for inaugural C-USA season

BRANDON HEWIG

The UNC basketball program will add another transfer to its roster this fall.

Former UNC-Wilmington guard Dwayne Noel, a true freshman this past season from Buxton Beach, says he plans to enroll at UNC in August.

Noel actually has been in UNC's fold for a while, originally committing to the Knights a couple months ago.

"I'm transferring to UNC," Noel said. "It's closer to home, the program is coming up and I like the coaches."

Noel said his family likes the fact he'll be much closer to home.

"They're happy, my mom and dad are happy," Noel said.

He decided to continue his basketball career with the Seahawks following the season.

"I just wanted to be closer to home," Noel said. "I was also looking at FAU, Miami and FIU. UNC was looking at me in high school and we talked over the phone, but I just thought it would be better down in the north Carolina-Wilmington was a better decision. Now I realize I made a mistake."

Last season, Noel, who is 6-foot-3 and 190 pounds, played in 39 games for the Seahawks while averaging 3.7 points, 1.5 rebounds and 1.0 minutes per game. He started three games for UNC-Wilmington, which finished 15-15.

Noel will likely be a valuable addition to the team and will be eligible to play beginning in UNC's first contest in Boulder, Colo., on November 2-3, 2005, when he'll be a redshirt junior.

"When I was over there at North Carolina, they had me with the starting point guard most of the time and when I asked I asked they told me I could play both," he said. "I can play the combo guard and the shooting guard, but I think they're going to have me at the shooting guard position. It's a little more offense I can get."

"I'm going to compete with other player from South Florida and it's going to be exciting to know the rest of his new teammates and how he's going to fit in and be an essential part of the team," Noel said.

"I played against him in high school," Noel said. "He was born in Monroe, N.C., and probably wanted to be at business management at UNC."
McIntosh gears up for final A-Sun run
The student, New Teaching Academy opened the classes on the campus of the newly-unfounded student center is reportedly taking shape at the new campus.

Additionally there are numerous plans on what to do with the land at the site. The upcoming Plan has an additional parking garage, homes, and check centers and an adjacent center plan.

Every student who attends UCF knows that there is no use extra parking. Even on weekend some lots are filled to capacity, and the incoming freshmen and transfer students are filling in the buildings with new buildings being erected in the immediate surrounding areas.

On-campus housing is always a good idea, by any student's standards, it creates a sense of community within a college and helps to mesh school and life.

Similarly, an alumni center could prove beneficial to graduate students who have moved on but what to check out what has happened. The center was opened to new UCF to say how those old are left in the past. You can now make a donation to the Student Union for a new addition. After days of hard at work, the Student Union has found a way to have some fun in the midst of the craziness.

UCF can’t properly take care of some of the other aspects of campus, it risks being seen as efficient. A Valuable UCF should apply the same rule with the citizens of the state.

UCF is already one of the largest universities in Florida and yet there are thousands of incoming freshmen coming to campus for the summer orientation. It’s already hard enough for UCF to provide for the rest that have anything to do with the major student center operating.

In kindergarten, first child is taught to read. The名师 give them a love for books. They play with reading and start building blocks. UCF needs to learn the same rule. It’s a place where UCF already built and the students can read. They can read anything, by some professors, before acquiring new responsibilities.
