Campus groups unite for hurricane relief efforts

ASHLEY BURNS

UCF campus organizations are working to raise funds, personal items, and clothing for the victims of Hurricane Katrina.

"The university is always concerned about the well-being of students," Assistant Vice President of Undergraduate Admissions Gordon D. Chase Jr. said. "Many are injured, homeless, or without clothing because of Hurricane Katrina. We are happy to help them as much as we can."

Displaced students have until 5 p.m. this Friday to apply to UCF. Students can call 407-823-8608 for more information. Applications will be verified and the Florida Board of Governors authorized the state universities to charge students in-state tuition, rather than the more expensive out-of-state tuition.

"I think it's great that we can help these students to get a head start on their education in the wake of such a disaster," UCF Business Major Orlando Gutierrez said.

Displaced students will be accepted on a case-by-case basis. These students might provide transcripts, which will be asked to do so at a later date and all students will be registered to sign a form declaring they were registered at another university.

Local spot serves up ‘origamic’ sushi

NATALIE ZEVA

Sushi lovers are in for a treat as Origami Sushi, a new restaurant in the Audubon Commons shopping center on East Colonial Drive and Audubon Trail, has patrons flocking up to the door for its fresh and creative sushi. Owner Christa Calabrese said she ‘grew up’ with sushi and knew she loved getting the ‘Miyagi roll’ the most.

"I knew and my sister-in-law agree that the deep-fried sushi status ‘Miyagi’ roll, which is served with spicy mayo and eel sauce, is addictive. ‘Both lunch and dinner have become more and more creative,’ said Long. ‘If we ever get busy, we’ll have to move to another location.’

Now, new students pack Origami’s tables and enjoy the variety of Japanese cuisine — everything from chicken tempura to shrimp tempura. For the vegetarian Origami offers all-vegetable choices.

The food and bamboo decor may make students think of traditional Japan but the music is decidedly modern. Songs by Jack Johnson, Sade and the Postal Service can be heard echoing throughout the dining room.

UCF senior Emily Mallen, an aspiring model major, has been to Origami five times in the past week alone. ‘It’s not Origami,’ Mallen said. ‘It’s origamic!’

With the recent destruction caused by Hurricane Katrina, Tulane University and Loyola University are expecting a significant impact

Tulane, a private college located in the heart of the garden district, has dozens of unique sushi choices and a large variety of Japanese cuisine — everything from chicken tempura to shrimp tempura. For the vegetarian Tulane offers all-vegetable choices.

Travis first female president pro temp in past six years

JAY ALLEN

Travis was ambitious about student life and the 1966 election was no exception. She was a strong candidate for the position.

"I’m planning on running for the 38th Senate position," said Travis. "I plan to foster extensive relationships with the student body and be a voice for those students who feel they are not being heard.

In addition, she discussed her vision for the future of the Senate, stating that it would be her goal to increase attendance and engagement.

"I believe Travis is the right choice for the position," said Perez. "She is a strong leader and will be an asset to the Senate.

Travis is excited about the opportunity to serve her campus as the first female president pro tempore. She is looking forward to making a positive impact on the student body and the university as a whole.

"I am proud to be a part of this historic election," said Travis. "I am looking forward to working with my fellow student leaders to make a difference in the lives of our peers."

FOOTBALL: GAME ONE — UCF 15, SOUTH CAROLINA 24

THE STREAK LIVES

A slow defensive start did the Knights in last Thursday at South Carolina as UCF fell to the Gamecocks 24-15, despite a furious fourth-quarter rally.

UCF lost, but showed that this year things will be different

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The UCF football team may have fallen short last Thursday against these South Carolina Gamecocks, but despite this loss one thing is for certain. This is not the same football team that went 0-11 last year.

Despite a furious run spelled out by the Knights' defense in the fourth quarter, UCF could not complete the comeback and fell to the Gamecocks 24-15 in front of 82,753 fans at Williams-Brice Stadium on the campus of the University of South Carolina.

"They had a chance," UCF Coach George O'Leary said, "all the things out there are correctable, that we made mistakes with, we just have to get better in some areas."

The Knights got off to a nightmarish start, giving up two quick touchdowns in the first quarter, but recovered nicely to put a considerable amount of pressure on USC in the fourth quarter, garnishing the attention of Gamecocks' Coach Steve Spurrier.

"They outplayed us," Spurrier said. "They probably out-did us a little bit as far as the line of scrimmage goes, especially their defensive line—men they were tough, we couldn't get a enough push, but we're 1-0 and we're not going to lie around here and cry about it because we could have lost the dammed thing."

UCF, which is ranked No. 1 on ESPN's Preseason poll, did not complete the comeback and fell to the Gamecocks 24-15.

On a damp and gloomy evening, the UCF soccer team was able to get their season off to a bright start.

With impressive play on offense from sophomore Adham Rashwan and stellar work in net by senior goalkeeper Ryan McIntosh, the Golden Knights won their season opener, 1-0, over Lafayette College on Friday night at the UCF soccer complex.

Even though UCF was dominated throughout the game — the Knights had seven more corner kicks and out-shot Lafayette 6-4 — Coach Brent Erwin admitted that this victory did not come easy.

"It was a game like that, it is extremely important, especially this early in the year," Erwin said. "I was proud of the boys tonight. Playing against a team that is so organized, we couldn't do some of the things that we normally want to do. I felt we adjusted well. I think our guys played very admirably."

A disorganized offensive effort by the No. 27 Golden Knights led to their 2-0 loss to Ole Miss on Saturday afternoon. The Rebels (3-0) outplayed UCF on both ends of the pitch.

The Territories — The offense was as explosive as ever. The defense was more than adequate as well. The Territories opened the season with a 41-14 win over the University of Hawaii in Paradise.

Southern California, led by Heisman Trophy runner-up Matt Leinart, opened its season with the Territories only one loss in 14 games, and quarterbacks Steven Moffett and Blake Mitchell have passed up a chance to be the first to lose.

ANDREW JACKSON

Katrina’s victims deserve support

The sudden death of U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist added to the tragedy of Hurricane Katrina last Monday. The mounting challenges facing America are daunting.

At a time when the devastation caused by the largest natural disaster in U.S. history is threatening to face our country is affecting many Americans profoundly. The legacy that Chief Justice Rehnquist leaves behind, and the promise his vacant post holds for our nation’s future, is a greatly needed reminder of the America he can be.

Rehnquist had an wide-reaching career, encompassing Roe v. Wade, the Clinton impeachment, and, most recently, the controversial decision concerning 2000 election.

While some justices will strengthen their traditional values once confirmed, Rehnquist has always been a conservative and morally guided vote on the issues facing our nation.

Rehnquist began his career as a Supreme Court Justice in 1972 after a nomination by President Richard Nixon. He became the highest court in the nation.

Some said his arrival he served his place in history as one of the most important justices against the highly publicized Roe v. Wade decision which overturned all state laws outlawing abortion.

Rehnquist’s published career of similar decisions, which all came during his time as chief justice, concluded with his death in 2005. His determination to vote his mind against personal external influence was promoted to the honor of Chief Justice by President Ronald Reagan in 1986.

As chief justice, Rehnquist would oversee several historical situations. One of the most publicized involved the impeachment of President Bill Clinton. Rehnquist presided over the Senate’s trial of the president, the U.S. leader of the charges.

By the time Rehnquist resigned as chief justice to devote himself to the center of another historical situation. Amid the controversy surrounding the 2000 presidential election, the Supreme Court was called upon to resolve the constitutionality of the Florida recount.

Rehnquist served as one of the five voters which ended the Florida recount, and announced George Bush as the winner of the 2000 election.

Because of the strong leadership Rehnquist displayed throughout his career, nominations to the Supreme Court in 2000 would face great uncertainty.
