Men have trouble getting late ride from SEPS

SEPS says it does not discriminate between genders

Student Escort Patrol Services provides students with a safe escort during evening hours to any area on campus, but Christopher Downing, 79, and he’s been denied a ride twice.

“The first incident was with the Orientation Team.” Downing said. “I called and said ‘hi,’ we’re like a ride back to our dorms because we used to be in the Student Union, and they’re ([SEPS]) like ‘sir, we can’t give service to males’.”

After being denied, a ride, Downing said he called SEPS back only to be told males cannot be escorted because football players had been abusing the service. Not every male is out to misuse the escort service, he said.

“I explained that I’m a 220-pound little guy that could easily take advantage of it,” Downing said. “It’s unfair that I don’t get to use the service because football players are abusing it.”

Students await drop in price of dining out

Popular chain in the UCF area is beginning to lower prices and offer more promotions in response to a national dining slump. But UCF students still prefer a fast casual experience.

Today reports that popular casual dining restaurants such as Applebee’s, Outback Steakhouse and Bennigan’s are lowering prices and expanding menu options in downtown markets in an attempt to contain the slump. None of the statistics say that should be the case at our school. Public relations profes­ sor at the UCF Rosen College of Hospitality Management, Ashley who also serves as director of hospitality. Students have yet to see a change in the way the university is promoting their students.

Information Technology major Kyle Gabrus said. “People don’t have the money to go out and spend like they did when gas was $2.00 a gallon,” Gabrus said. “The rise of gas prices is making people cut back, and eating out is one of the easiest things to do without.”

Many students choose eating at home instead of dining out to save money for gas and other activities.

Mechanical Engineering major Chase Hanot, 22, prefers to cook at home and earn a decent dinner—not Hamburger Helper or Ramen Noodles—every night. “I thought that if I used my money wisely, I could eat well,” Hanot said.

Missing runner rescued

It was a normal day for 62-year-old Eddie Roop when he took what he thought was a shortcut. Little did he know that a routine jog would turn into a four-day battle with nature.

The long-time Florida Ocracoke member spoke to family, friends, co-workers and a plethora of media Wednesday at the Florida Hospital East Orlando.

The best resin直属 from what I have ever been through,” Meadows said.

After checking that the path he had gone down had no distinguishing features around it, he thought the right way. After wandering for four days, the trekker then to-morrow. Meadows said he went into “panic mode.” His biggest fear, he said, was spott­ ing his wife of 40 years, Arias Meadows.

He continued to try to find his way out Thursday he even heard the UCF marching band playing in the distance. He tried to follow the sound, but he was not aware of the “unscalable forest and underbrush.” He tried using a stick to clear a path, but would quickly dig himself deeper and deeper into the woods.

The two students get a ride back to their dorm from SEPS. The trained student escorts wear brightly yellow vests with the insignia SEPS on it and are only used by students who are enrolled in the University of Central Florida. They are selected and trained by the university police department. In addition to that, the SEPS team carries radios that are linked directly to the police department. Escorts are trained to report any unusual situations.

Corporal James Roop, computer relation’s supervisor and public information officer, said SEPS does not discriminate it’s caller is male or female.

“If there’s a 200-pound football player that wants a safe escort... but there’s also those females waiting,” Roop said. “We would probably prioritize (and pick up) the females over the 200-pound football player.”

“But I don’t think that we would deny him because he’s a man,” he said.

Roop has been in charge of SEPS since July 2006. Prior to July 15, Signage of SEPS was the officer in command.

PLAN B OTC

Pills nonprescription status approved by FDA, available on campus

Central Florida Future

FREE — Published Ashley Meador and interns

Women can get pill for $29

Birth Control Options

CNCSU is looking at the “morning-after pill,” Plan B 80 mg present in over-the-counter pharmacist’s remembrance pills. A 20 mg of unoccupied pill. Plan B does not protect against AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases.

Plan A

- 8 mg contains an amount of an estrogenless pill (a nonhormonal pill), the same amount found in an existing pregnancy.

Plan B

- People who have not had a successful pregnancy (within 36 hours after unprotected sex and after a successful pregnancy attempt) can have a successful pregnancy attempt to plan for.

For more information about the morning-after pill, call the U.S. Pharmacopeia’s National Drug Information Center at 800-238-2338.

Women with career path into business can sign up for a seminar if they are uncomfortable with the machines or weight machines, or if they want to get more familiar with the facilities that are available.

For more information or to schedule a session, call Stephanie Gaski at (407) 823-2508.

Gopjian warned about the public health consequences of having many students may fear visits to the clinic.

After a year, many students have taken the liberty to find a doctor away from home.

The FDA says that only stores with a pharmacy, health clinics and hospitals emergency rooms may sell Plan B and it must be kept behind the counter whether purchased by a prescription or not.

In other words, don’t expect to see Plan B at pharmacy, Walgreens and other health stores on the local gas station any time soon, if you find that test, proof of age may be required.

Several campus organizations, including the College Democrats, encourage other students to cover up.

College Democrats President Michael Mondona, a 23-year-old mechanical engineering major, from the Philadelphia area, said that “to date, no pregnancy has been harmful, and they held help together.”

Victoria Berenson, a 23-year-old journalism major, is the vice president of the National Organization for Women.

She said that selling Plan B over the counter to the responsibility of the UCB Health Center, the decrease unwanted pregnancies, and open up discussion about safe sex and reproductive rights.

Many student say that they already, have. New Jersey by law, women 18 and older can buy Plan B without a prescription. The new rule includes a warning against the capability to prevent birth control. Plan B is a nonprescription hormone, and when it comes to contraception, Plan B can reduce the risk of pregnancy by 89 per cent.

Efficacy declines as the interval between intercourse and its failure to continue to increase.

In addition, it does not provide protection from HIV and other sexually transmitted diseases, so it is not recommended that the drug be used beyond the 72-hour window, the FDA ruled that women 18 and older can buy Plan B without a prescription.

While Plan B is an over-the-counter emergency contraceptive pill, evaluation, students, save time can still make an appointment with the Health Center and bring their prescription medicine.

Medication requests should be made by as many as 20,000 adults at a 15-year-old girl who seeks sex to perform, authoritative approval to help herself to rock Plan B.

The UCB Health Center said that the 15-year-old girl was taken to the hospital, which took place on Monday in a house, a 40-year-old man who also had been arrested the previous day was charged, authorities said.

Plan B’s spokesman said the pill had to be conveyed to an illegal garage.

According to court papers, the 15-year-old girl told police she was between the ages of 15 and 16, the 15-year-old girl, who looked like a 15-year-old.

The alleged victim and two friends were in a house, where the child performer and two teenage boys, according to court papers, the two 15-year-old admitted he also had sex with the 15-year-old and told police that the 15-year-old girl he beat, it chased the papers said.

The emergency rooms may sell Plan B to girls who want to go badly enough to the clinic. It takes 72 hours after unprotected sex and after a successful pregnancy attempt to plan for.

The FDA ruled that women 18 and older can buy Plan B without a prescription.

Violence continued in Baghdad by Iraqi officers.

Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki signed a document taking control of Iraqi small armed forces and air forces and the 8th Iraqi Army Division, based in the south. However, it is still unclear how rapidly the Iraqi forces will be prepared to take over their own security.

"From today forward, the Iraqi military responsibilities will be increasingly conceived and led by Iraqis," said Gen. George Casey, the top U.S. commander in Iraq, at a ceremony.

Handling over control of the country's security to Iraqi forces is vital to any eventual drawdown of U.S. forces here. After disbursing the remaining Iraqi army following the U.S.-led invasion in 2003, coalition forces have been training the new Iraqi military. However, it is unclear exactly how quickly Iraqi forces will be prepared to take over their own security.

Previously, the U.S.-led Multinational Forces in Iraq, commanded by Casey, gave orders to the Iraqi armed forces through a Joint Ameri­can and Iraqi headquarters known as the command of the command. Senior U.S. coalition officials currently control many army divisions but a handful of units were command­ed by Iraqi officers.

The shift of the command of forces directly from the prime minister to his role as Iraq commander in chief through the new Ministry to an Iraqi military headquarters, from which the orders go to Iraqi units on the ground, itself, this would apply only to the 8th Iraqi Army Division, the air force and the army. The other nine Iraqi divi­sions remain under U.S. command with authority gradually being transferred. U.S. military officials said there are no spe­cific timetable for the transition.

Days before the engage­ment, the 8th Division's com­mander, Brig. Gen. Obaid al-Na­fidi, said The Associated Press that his forces still needed support from the U.S.-led coalit­ion for things such as medical assistance, storage facilities and air support.

U.S. military spokesman Maj. Gen. William Caldwell said Wednesday it would be up to al-Maliki to decide "how rapidly he wants to move along with assuming control."

"They can move as rapidly as they want," Caldwell said. "I know conceptual­ly they've talked about perhaps two divisions a month."

The 8th Division was recently in the center of a fierce battle between Iraqi forces and Shiite militias. The division's troops fought militia­men in the southern city of Dhi Qar, 80 miles south of Baghdad, for 12 hours in a bat­tle that left more than 20 sol­diers and 50 militia members dead.

Politicians have been opti­mistic about handover. President Jalal Talabani said that with such a meeting with British Foreign Secretary Robin Cook, fighting in Iraq will have abated by the end of 2007, and that Iraqi forces will be able to handle any remaining violence.

British troops handed over control to Iraqi authorities of the southern Muthanna province in July and al-Maliki has said another southern province, Diwaniya, is to follow this month. Violence continued in the hours before the hand over Thursday. Six bomb attacks targeting police patrols in Baghdad killed at least 17 peo­ple and wounded more than 50.

A suicide car bomb target­ing a police patrol outside a gas station near the Eleven Hospi­tal in central Baghdad killed 10 people, including four police­men, and wounded 21, the prime minister's office said. Police initially reported two civilians and two policemen were killed. Two suicide car bombs exploded near al-Mina Mosque in southern Baghdad, the prime minister's office said. Nobody was hurt in the first, but the second killed three civilians and wounded 12.

Another suicide car bomb in Tayaran Square in the center of the city killed two civilians and two police special forces members, and wounded 13 police, police said.

In western Baghdad, a road­side bombing in Qal'at al-Jadid killed 17 police and wounded 15, the prime minister's office said.

Two American soldiers were killed Wednesday in separate inci­dents, the U.S. military com­mand said.

One soldier, assigned to 1st Brigade, 10th Armored Division, died in the routine Anbar province west of Baghdad due to injuries sustained from enemy action.

A second soldier, from the 3rd Brigade, 25th Infantry Division, was killed while on a mission near Hilla, 150 miles south of Baghdad.

The Interagency Coordinating Board for Telecommunications has made it easier for students to get in touch with someone who can help them. The board has established a national directory of individuals who are experts in telecommunications issues.

The directory includes information on how to contact individuals from government agencies, universities, and private companies. It also provides resources for consumers who need assistance with their telecommunication services.

The Interagency Coordinating Board for Telecommunications believes that this directory will help to increase access to telecommunications services for people who are unable to afford them. The directory is available online and can be accessed by anyone who needs help.

The board is committed to ensuring that everyone has equal access to telecommunications services. The national directory is a step in that direction.
Lower-priced menus expand

By Adam Cohen, UCF Student Body President

As we all know, the economy has been tough. As a consequence, Lower-priced menus are expanding in all types of restaurants. For example, Outback Steakhouse has plans to lower prices on ribs, side salads, appetizers and drinks by November.

Paul Eagles's plan to price-fewer diners is now on a three-course Southwest Fiesta promotion for $9.99. The promotion will include an appetizer, an entrée and a dessert.

Other restaurants offering value promotions include T.G.L. Friday's, The Cheesecake Factory, Bemag's and Ruby Tuesday.

These chain restaurants feel that they must respond to the demands of consumers. Statistical data from companies called Kapsy Track, which monitors chain restaurants, reported that the food billing casual dining industry posted a 14 percent same-store sales in June, and, at counts were down 10 percent.

Lowering prices seems to be the only flexible option.

"This is unprecedented," Paul Avery, COO of OIS Restaurant Partners, which includes Outback Steakhouse

Professor stumbles across Meadows

Over the next three days, I have attempted to see the ten as a guide to make my way out of the woods. "We don't know where you're going, or where you are," he said.

I told him that I could even hear the traffic snapping and the noise of the crowd. He survived the four days solely on swamp water and gators.

After three days, Ron Eagles, a UCF student and fellow resident, decided to go home. We ordered a Monday looking for a body, Eagles said.

During the search on Monday morning, Eagles said that he heard a "shuffling" sound coming from a swamp area nearby. He thought that he his own, and immediately called the police.

"Are you looking for Eddie Meadows?"

"I am Eddie Meadows," the man shouted back.

Upon arriving at the hospital, doctors concluded that Meadows had suffered dehydration, acute kidney failure and slight muscular damage as a result of the dehydration.

After all that he had been through, Meadows said, "I feel good." He also said that he is "ready to run again." For sure, I am sure that he will be running again within next year.

Escort service provides 252 rides in August

SEPS employs Andrew Martin. He said picking up clients is based on orders. SEPS is a profit, and which student is more route-efficient. They only allow students earning the service, he said.

"There's been a bunch of drivers, and we just need to make sure we are service for the ride," he said.

Every now and then, there are students that actually want a ride.

In second incident in 2005, Downing said SEPS refused to provide an escort stating they do not only give service to females. After a late night study session in the first, and the dark worried him, he said.

Adam Cohen, 23, said he was denied service in late 2003 while walking up the Wal-Mart Neighborhood Market by Pogoskan Lapping to buy groceries. He wanted a ride back to Lake Claire Apartments in Academic Village to save himself some time and energy.

"They [SEPS] denied the services saying 'we're a guy, you can't pay us for this ride,'" Cohen said. "The service is for students, I pay for it. I pay the money. He should at least tell me if he can't give me service, or you students find other service to the service.

But SEPS should not only use it for students if afraid of their safety. If we have a team of football players that want to be escorted and we have other people calling that are party from now, we must ask them if they can either walk or it doesn't service for people who are scared. It's not a taxi service," Cohen said.

For the month of August, SEPS has provided 155 self-defense rides (students that are picked up without calling and billed rides). SEPS said it's very hard to tell who is abusing the service, but actually unlikely, he said.

Cohen said he wasn't one of the 252 rides SEPS provided in August.

"Since that time [late 2003] I have never heard SEPS back. It's just not worth your money. Many students don't feel safe," Cohen said. "I got denied once, then why should I ever use it again?" SEPS could run out of SEPS on August 28th. If the service is not used, they will be hired for this service.

A win over No. 7 Florida could be the springboard UCF needs to the BCS

CHRIS MOYLER

Sports Editor

There's no set criteria for finding a mid-major team capable of winning on the road against a Big Ten opponent. But every year it happens once or twice, and in some cases, the win for the non-BCS conference team is a springboard to a run at an undefeated season.

Texas Christian last season. Utah and Boise State in 2004. Northern Illinois in 2003. All went on the road and earned September wins over big-time schools on route to double-digit win seasons.

In UCF's case, it led to a BCS berth and an undefeated season, capped by a Fiesta Bowl destruction of Hawaii.

These teams had two factors: experience and confidence. They all returned the majority of their previous team, something which they showed in true blowout fashion and came out on top.

The 2006 UCF Knights share these threads with those teams.

Experience comes in the form of a career-long .500 record. They enter this week's opener Thursday in Pittsburgh against the 1999, a little, independent football powerhouse.

When I finally found my friends and made our way to the stadium, the party started to die down in the stands, my friends and I made our way to the stadium. Now working for the paper allows me to do a few things, not many but a few and one of those are to go in the Media Center on game day to mingle with the fans.

I was happy to be there, but just not for the party I saw some who were dressed from head-to-toe as Knights. I saw guys who had their stomachs and faces painted and I even saw a guy in a flat霓l chasing UCF. I knew he had to be in the rhythm of playing out in that heat in a fun suit if they're going to win.

Culpepper has won over teammates

STEVEN WINE

Sports Writer

David Pla... in his 3/12 months with the Miami Dolphins, Daunte Culpepper has won praise from teammates for his talent, toughness, public leadership, work ethic and pleasant personality. When a quarterback is understated, the critiques are always favorable.

Toward as worthy heir to Dan Marino, Culpepper had his questions and uncertainties to keep on the line when he made his Dolphin debut in the`98 opener Thursday in Pittsburgh against the Super Bowl champions.

But Culpepper is unfazed by the expectations and eager to play his first regular-season game since tearing three ligaments in his right knee Oct. 30 with the Minnesota Vikings.

"I've extremely excited," he said Sunday. "To get hurt and go through all that, it was tough. But right now I've got a huge smile because of where I've come from and where I see us going."

The Dolphins believe they're poised to end a four-year playoff drought and New England's reign in the AFC East.

Such optimism is based largely on the acquisition of Culpepper, a three-time Pro Bowl quarterback in six seasons as a starter at Minnesota.

When the Dolphins acquired him for a second-round draft choice in March, they were unsure whether Culpepper's knee would allow him to take the field.

Instead, the quarterback missing the game will be the Steeler's Ben Roethlisberger, who's still on the long-term disabled list. Culpepper made a rapid recovery from his mid-summer rehabilitation regimen, took part in the team's off-season workouts and practiced in each of the team's three exhibition games, completing 22 of 30 passes for 289 yards.

"I just wanted to get back into the rhythm of playing quarterback," Culpepper said. "I wanted to take a few hits and..."

Meyer's mid-major experience means respect for Knights

"I think really helps Meyer's mid-major experience means respect for Knights and company," O'Leary said. "He's one of those coaches that knows offense, defense and special teams. He can run a pro-style offense as good as any anywhere in the nation, but he isn't the perfect fit for Meyer's spread offense option look.

"He belongs to true freshman signal caller (J)im Thorpe, who scored a running touchdown against Southern Miss and will be one of the match ups to watch in the SEC this season. That will be evident when Harvin takes the field. In his first college game, Harvin finished second on the team with 31 receiving yards, but he showed that speed by taking the lead in punt returns with 55 yards on four carries. He is rated as the nation's top receiving prospect by Scout.com and some team­mates have highly compared him to Tennessee wide receiver Peer Bajée Baggs.

"Burnett and Neat have been labeled as the top two playmakers on the UCF offense, running back, true freshman Danny Fletcher (14) and Neat, respectively. "Burnett will present a bigger challenge this week," O'Leary said. "He will be running behind a more-expe­rienced offensive line this time. It will be Stipe's job to keep an eye on him and make sure that he doesn't reach Florida's secondary or break long turf that gave UCF any critical momentum. Last year Burnett last second on the Gators in tackles on the field, but he's not the Golden Gators anymore. He recorded 13 tackles in last's week's win over Southern Miss.

"The Knights can go to work on whatever schemes they like," O'Leary said. "We'll have our own game plan for Saturday.

The 1-0 Knights can go on what has become aPattern League circuit. In the last season ranked 18-6, 13 of those wins were against teams ranked in the top 25.

"As the game began to get out of hand, the coach turned to the media and said, "Next year, we'll win the SEC."

"There's not too many seats available."
From mirrored lenses to steel frames, sunglasses are always a fashion statement.

Big sunglasses have been all the rage in 2006 among college students and adults alike. The most popular style is said to mimic the pairs famously worn by Jackie Kennedy Onassis in the '60s. Aviator sunglasses have also made a comeback. They were first made for military pilots in 1936, but became a fashion statement in the '70s and '80s.

So what if you look like a bug wearing them? They're cool.
Local favorite Will's Pub ends run as a music venue to the dismay of fans.

BART ZINO

For 11 years it rocked the streets of Orlando with its tiny entry bend of local and national acts. Now, more than a year after an Orlando city council voted to expand a nearby health clinic, landmark Will's Pub is firing up the smoke for one last go.

On June 27, the Orlando City Council approved a request to expand the nearby Waters Park, a U.S. Park Police Clinic in a parcel of land directly south of the existing clinic.

"I grew up seeing some really great acts there," Local musician Will's Pub and adjacent Locust Hives Motor Inn were smash in the middle of it all.

The closure received considerable attention, from Orlando CityBeat, Orlando Weekly and even the Orlando Sentinel. And then there are the fans. Ask any Orlando native who has paid a visit to Will's over the years and they'll be happy to tell you about the good times gone by.

At first, there isn't much to look at. Will's is just a bar with a handful of pool tables scattered around, of course, but there is also a nightclub.

For Orlando local music fans, the run-down feel of the place just adds to the atmosphere.

As for the music, Will's has hosted its share of bands from across the musical spectrum mentioning a handful here would hardly put a dent in the waiter's record. Bands like Elliphant, Love the Destroy, Breaking Benjamin, Staind; Three Days Grace, The Wallflowers, The Honorary Title and even the occasional rock of similar songs and cherry-pick the best from them and make one.

Fans of Florida's Premier Live Music Venue to the dismay of fans.

A LA MODE:

Randy Harmon, 19, sophomore, University of Central Florida;
Cesar Ramirez, 24, senior, Rollins College;

Where did you get your sunglasses?

Cesar: From the Gap, like 10 years ago. I was at a street vendor in Italy.

Cesar: From the Gap, like 10 years ago. Are you wearing your sunglasses because you want to look cool or to protect your eyes from the sun?

Nancy: I will wear ugly sunglasses instead of cool ones so I can be bright. I'm wearing them for a little bit of both things.

Cesar: Definitely to protect my eyes from the sun. I'm not going to lie; also for the style. I will not wear ugly glasses.

Are you wearing your sunglasses more for style or to protect your eyes? I really like aviators and it's really bright out here, so both.

Why do you wear your sunglasses?

Nancy: I believe if you see someone's eyes, it reveals too much about the person. I don't want too many strangers to know that much about me at all.

Cherie: At Target.

Both: At Target.

"I grew up seeing some really great acts there. Everybody knows Will's Pub. I'm a little upset that they're moving."
Sky, sauce, you need not worry. Melt the jalapenos, while the pesto keeps the mushroom and feta cheese balanced. And finally, the balsamic vinegar awakens Lazy and recently visited a place that is on every corner: from the Kitchen and Independent Booksellers Alliance will be hosting their annual trade show at the Gaylord平行nent and Convention Center. In celebration of the trade show, Urban Think! was contacted about having a book signing with Mlynowski and several others. It is the perfect event for such occasion. “Urban Think! features authors, writers and poets,” said event manager of Urban Think! said the event is for everyone and fun. “We have been wine and wine— we have everyone’s a good time.”

The new downtown book store, located in Thornton Park in Downtown Orlando. It sets the tone for the psychedelic theme. The store introduced writers and artists such as Marielle Blair, Cindy Mancuso and Casmir, Friday nights are usually filled with students, professionals and even retired people attending.

Far-out pizza spot awakens taste buds

Mellow Mushroom

Living is a college town, good pizza is easy to come by. It’s on every corner from Lazy Lion, by Brocchi, in the Sky and near California Pizza Kitchen and UNF’s Chicago Grill. S. I. even wine and dine to this. However, for someone who is always searching for something a little more unique, Lazy Lion’s mushroom slices are not original, but the new oven- wowed even off to expand my pizza repertoire and recently visited a place that was covariance my bread and butter.

Mellow Mushroom on Aloma Ave. in Winter Park is a different take on pizza. This 200-slab (the thousand of them under a seasonal pizza, salads and soups, featuring toppings.com I couldn’t begin to dare. These pizzas are creatively named, keeping with the pizza bands.

Out of my favorites is the Magical Mystery Tour. It features pimento cheese, sun-dried tomatoes, Portobello and button mushrooms, bacon, cheese, and jalapenos. The smooth, rich mushroom and bacon cheese makes a creamy sauce that sets the whole thing over the edge. It’s a rush of flavors I can’t wait to hope your taste buds. Of course, this vegetarian also has classic favorites such as Hawaiian chicken, ranch and “mighty near.”

If you love a lot of tomato sauce, you need worry. Mellow Mushrooms offer it. Due to their deep-fried bases olive oil garlic, tomato and their delicious peppers, so there is truly something for everyone. You also have the opportunity to create your own topping combinations. Another great option at Mellow Mushroom is their wide variety of pizzas. Some, such as the "wicked cheese" are served piping hot, wrapped in tin foil. The melted provolone cheese is enough to make anyone drool. All the hagons are placed behind the cold toppings—such as bacon, banana peppers and vegetables— are added, giving the bread a golden-brown crust.

Mellow Mushroom is also known for their delicious fresh salads. They have all the basics like Greek and Caesar, which are always classic favorites. My favorite, however, is their Italian inspired Capell salad, which is a triangle combination of fresh mozzarella balls, tomatoes, basil and juicy tomatoes, fresh basil, field greens, and a tangerine dressing of balsamic vin­gar and olive oil.

The service was excellent and the price was reasonable. Please come in small, medium and large, with the 10 percent off your bill. In price from $8.95 to $12. Hoborgies are half so white and range from $4.90 for a half. The vibe in the restaurant is relaxed and quiet. The walls are white with people sitting at white tables with cartoonish mushrooms on them. The pizza was overall, a little too cheesy for me. (Know I have just offended all the cheese lovers of the world, but they’ve got your back.) The extra seating shocks of flavors didn’t hesitate to make up for it.

So, next time you are about to dial Domino’s, your adventures side and discover something both new and delicious.
