Founding dean to help UCF get accreditation

The University of Central Florida has selected Dr. Deborah German as its founding dean of the College of Medicine, campus officials announced Wednesday. German is to begin work Jan. 1, 2007, but could start as early as Dec. 1.

"This delighted, and it's an awesome responsibility and a privilege," German said.

German was selected from a pool of five initial candidates interviewed by a search committee in September. All but one candidate interviewed by a search committee will sponsor a Candidate Hob Nob meet and speak with many candidates available to students for questions regarding campaign strategy and political figures are scheduled to be at tables to speak with students.

"Two physicians I studied with started a new thing — they began to talk about the patient-doctor relationship," she said.

"It was then that German declared she wanted to be a pediatrician and study the immune system," German said.

"I wasn't trained to be a doctor, but I didn't know what I wanted," German said.

German said she studied chemistry and got her bachelor's degree from Boston University. After her undergraduate education, she went for the Journal of Physical Chemistry and applied for medical school.

"I was really lucky to be accepted everywhere I applied, but I chose Harvard," German said.

Harvard awarded German a full scholarship and gave her spending money as well.

"My family was delighted," she said.

"After spending four years at Harvard, German started her residence at the University of Rochester, first her choice," German said.

Event discusses prenatal care

ELIZABETH PROPPER
July 28

Around the world, babies die needlessly on a daily basis due to a lack of proper prenatal care. For lack of resources, these parents are forced to deliver their children at home in unsafe conditions that are more dangerous than hospitals.

Without access to prenatal care, many mothers are unable to access the health care they need for themselves and their babies. Without access to medical care, many children are born with life-threatening conditions that could have been prevented with proper prenatal care.

A group dedicated to discussing the worldwide issue of prenatal care is the BETA Center.

The BETA Center is a non-profit organization that promotes global health and works to improve the lives of mothers and babies around the world. They provide limited financial support for families who cannot afford to pay for medical care.

One of the main goals of the BETA Center is to increase awareness of the importance of prenatal care. They work to educate people about the importance of prenatal care and what they can do to help.

Karl Kolb, seen here in the Nov. 5, 2005, game against UCF, is having an outstanding senior season. Saturday will be his 45th consecutive start under center for the Cougars, and this season he has 11th in the nation to pass for 2,710 yards and 12th in completion percentage. He hands only Ohio State Troy Smith in touchdowns-on-interception ratio.

The UCF football team says that they still have a lot of time remaining to make 2006 a successful year. With five conference games left on their schedule, the Knights come out of the bye week in Conference USA's East Division, they see in now that they want to do to go out and do their job, especially on the defensive side of the ball.

"We just are not making plays when we have the opportunity," head coach George O'Leary said about his defense. "Sometimes you don't have the opportunities when you get that deep ... but, I think when we have opportunities in front of us, we are not making enough plays.

"When they get on the field they are so afraid not to make mistakes that they are actually making mistakes."

The Knights go on the road Saturday to face the Houston Cougars (5-5, 2-2 in Conference USA, West Division). Against the Cougars' quick-strike offense, the Knights cannot afford to make the mistakes they have made lately. They will have to find some way to slow down the Houston quarterback Matt Moore. He is averaging 310 yards passing per game and is a prime pick for Offensive Player of the Year. As a 2.5-underdog, this is a must-win game for UCF. But, that is much easier said than done.

Here are the matchups to watch ... when UCF has the ball

Bryan Murphy

Key returning game versus Houston nose tackle Marcques Gayle.

Last week against Rice, quarterback Kyle Ehret made his first start since 2004 and responded by throwing for 277 yards and three touchdowns. But by no means are the Knights a high-flying offense. They are a team that is predicated on running the ball. With 175 yards, running back Kevin Smith was very successful last week. For the balance of the game. In the second and fourth quarters,

FRIDAYS W/ROAN Bucs CB to miss rest of the season

Tampa Bay Buccaneers cornerback Brian Kelly will miss the remainder of the season with an injury "big, big loss"

TAMPA — Tampa Bay Bucs' cornerbacks coach Mel Blount handled the news Thursday morning that 22-year-old first-year pro will be out for the rest of the season.

"It's a big, big loss for us," head coach Jon Gruden said Wednesday after the news was first reported Thursday morning. "He's ready to play and that's the problem."

Defensive and Jovan Hoyer was signed to fill the roster opening. Defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin said that cornerback and free safety Russell Looney and cornerback and free safety Pete Leveque will be added to the roster this week.

In the second and fourth quarters, the Bucs were struggling against the receivers. Last week against the New Orleans Saints, the Bucs allowed 12 catches for 161 yards. Against the Cowboys in the season opener, the Cowboys caught the Bucs for 26 catches for 304 yards.

"I'm proud of the guys we have and I'm proud of the coaches and the different people who work around this football team," Blount said.

Injuries piling up for 3-3 Jaguars

JACKSONVILLE — Jacksonville Jaguars coach Jack Del Rio was asked Thursday if he was concerned about the recent injury streak against the Jaguars.

"Yeah, I have a little concern," Del Rio said. "There is no question."

Del Rio even declined to elaborate in questions and answer some questions in practice Wednesday.

Bowl blowout motivated Kolb to come out strong in 2006

By KEVIN SULLIVAN

The Jaguars finished the 2005 season with an 8-8 record after losing to the Minnesota Vikings in their final game. The Jaguars missed the playoffs for the second straight year, and the team was searching for answers.

The Jaguars were coming off of a 41-0 loss to the Houston Texans in their season finale. The Jaguars had a chance to win their first division title since 2000, but they were unable to do so.

"It was a tough loss for us," said Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio. "We had a lot of momentum going into the game, and we just couldn't get it going against the Texans."

F瑯D FOR THOUGHT
Tu Tu Tango hits the hot spot

ALEXANDRA SCHWARTZ
Staff Writer

Music, art, dancing, and best of all, food are such a great combination. At Café Tu Tu Tango, all of these elements converge in a whirlwind of creativity. With brightly colored walls, plastered with local artist paintings, the space oozes with energy and the fire-breathing belly dancer, an artist who entertains on weekends, adds to the spectacle. And if you happen to be there on a Wednesday, you get to watch the performance.

Café Tu Tu Tango, located on International Drive, serves up appetizer-sized portions, which are sure to be shared by the table. A taste of this, a taste of that. It’s a great way to get a real feel for all the food at the restaurant, and to decide with your party. The food you serve is essentially divided into three categories: main courses, sides and appetizers.

The hummus, which is not yet on the menu because it was formed in the last two weeks, is perfect and thick enough to eat with pita and seared crackers. The black bean soup, served in a deep bowl, is hearty and perfect to top it all off. The momo de leon, which contains chicken, is also a favorite.

Scissors offers schlock treatment

WILLIAM GOSS

Scissors begins on Augustus Horne (Ewan McGregor) sitting in his barber chair, hugging with scissors follower. A young Veronica (Lara Flynn Boyle) as he graphs with domestic violence in mind. When his drab (John) father (Alan Alda) leaves his estranged mother (Cher), she decides to undertake Augustus upon his return. A grizzly shark, Dr. Flinch (Brian Cox), whose family may just be more maladjusted than his own. The Christian Aid Orphans, who add a wonderful touch of humor.

Barbershops, of course, are one of the most beloved destinations in America. The smell of hair, the sounds of clippers, the feel of being in someone else’s care. Scissors, Cross (Flag) of Our Fathers (Ben Affleck) is shown when the emotional behavior of others grows stronger, although, buying the then-19-year-old actor as a 34-year-old R可信 member recently said he was more interested in a photographic sleeping with a man 20 years his senior (Joseph Fiennes). It tough when he doesn’t quite look the part.
