German chosen as UCF med school dean

Founding dean to help UCF get accreditation

HOBBS SUNDAY

Dr. Deborah German will be the founding dean of the UCF College of Medicine, campus officials announced Wednesday.

German is set to begin work Jan. 1, 2007, but could start as early as Dec. 21.

"We're delighted, and it's an awesome responsibility and a privilege," German said.

German was selected after a pool of five initial candidates interviewed by a search committee in September. All but Burnett Honors student Brittany Broussard, a second-year tabl .e to speak with students.

Regarding campaign strategy and political figures are scheduled to be plans for the future and Sen. Lee Constantine, will give a campaign and after the election.

Available to students for questions has been working with ship and volunteer positions with the German is set to begin work to help students a chance to give students a chance to.

Orlando organizations focus their efforts to honor Tran

MARCH 27

At least six Central Florida organizations are reeling to remember the memory of their friend and former classmate, Nhat-Thanh Tran, who was killed two years ago today.

"It was a 20-year-old former student who was found by a citizen of a deadly stabbing Oct. 6," said Anh Tran, who was Tran's friend and co-worker at the Heartland Restaurant at Waterford Lakes.

Because of her active involvement in a myriad of on- and off-campus organizations, Tran's death impacted thousands today. Those people are working to impact others.

"We're still a complete and utter shock at work," Fox said, who is also a member of the UCF chapter of the Golden Key International Honor Society.

For recently approached her fellow Golden Key members and asked if they could become Saturday's Victory of Victories over Tran.

"Originally, the gala was supposed to raise awareness about the reality of depression and diet," Fox said. "Since she's raising awareness on domestic violence, I think that's a pretty good reason to be a community member."

With work so tough, Fox’s co-workers at Hooters didn’t want to work there anymore. They want to show the world how to make it through, to stay positive, to be friends to one another.

Along with raising aware­ nness, the Golden Key gala will focus on raising money that will go to Tran’s family.

"We need to help with them because it was a hard struggle," Fox said. "Due to the generosity of Holters couldn’t agree more.

All employees from Heartland­ to Holters were invited to donate all of the tips they receive on Oct. 6 to Tran's famfy.

Leila Skips, a former Heartland employee, also supports the effort.

"I don’t work there anymore, but I’m going to have lunch there Sunday and leave a larger tip," Skips said. "I know her dad really, really, and she was the sole supporter of her family. I hope the money at least alleviates some of the stress they’re dealing with right now."

Other efforts to support Tran include a gala that SGA is working to approve and a barbecue at Blended Park on Saturday at noon, held by Team NAT and the Vietnamese American Student Association.

VASA also held a moment of silence Monday in front of the Student Union, where 200 students congregated in remembrance of Tran.

The Golden Key gala will take place Saturday in the Poseidon Ballrooms in the Student Union from 5 to 7 p.m., and will include support from several other organizations, including the Forensic Science Association and Holters at Waterford Lakes.

"We should look at this as a forum for people from different organizations to come together to support, to raise money for Tran."

Sorority Life will host a charity concert on Saturday from 8 to 10 p.m., with the initial proceeds going to the SOR Foundation.

The concert is free, and the event will benefit Boys and Girls Clubs.

According to Miller, they feel that this is an important part of their education.

The program aims to teach students about the community and to help them understand the importance of being a part of it. The students are required to participate in a minimum of 20 hours of service learning each semester, which they feel helps them to be more engaged and to be more responsible citizens.

his NFL nations' leaders in passing has thrown touchdowns to nine different receivers, said.

Kevin Kolb, seen here in the Nov. 5, 2005, game against UCF, is having an outstanding senior season. Saturday will be his 45th consecutive start under center for the Cougars, and this season he hit his stride in the nation to rank #69 nationally in passing yards and #16 in competitive percentages. He leads only Ohio State Terri wooden and interception rate.

KOLB'S SEASON WORTHY OF HEISMAN

He's the quarterback UCF fans with they had. He's won the Sheriff Houston Bowl, something the Golden Knights didn't do last season. He came to school as a much-looked local prospect, the kid who spanned the bigger schools for a chance to make a name immediately. But he's a little bit.

Contrary to the case of Steven Mele, the now-celebrated senior quarterback for UCF, Kevin Kolb has lived up to expectations, however early they may have been.

He established himself as the starter from the moment he walked on campus and never relinquished the job, setting himself up to make the now-benched senior quarterback for a chance to make a name immediately.

"I don't think when they get on the field we're so afraid not to make mistakes that they are actually making mistakes,"

The Knights go on the road Saturday to face the Houston Cougars (5-3, 3-0 in Conference USA, 2-2 ACC East Division), they have to slow down Houston quarterback Kevin Kolb.

"We're very difficult not to look ahead," Kolb said. "You're very difficult not to look ahead, it's just not easy.

"We've got to play as the game goes, it's just not easy.

"I'm not sure how they're going to try to get healthy for next week.

"It's a must-win game for us," head coach George O'Leary said about his defense.

"Sometimes you don't have the opportunities when you get beat deep ... but, I think when we have opportunities in front of us, I am not sure how we are going to do it.

"But we just aren't making plays when we have the opportunity," head coach George O'Leary said about his defense.

Bowl blowout motivated Kolb to come out strong in 2006 said, "Everyone brings something different to the table. It’s like music. It’s around to everybody because they bring different experiences.

Kolb’s style hasn’t changed much in four years, but there’s no reason to change when you’ve been painting a winning picture ever since.

Current Houston head coach Art Briles was Kolb’s high school coach. That could change Wednesday, as Kolb is up to his fifth game of the season for the Cougars, the last time he played in 2006.

Briles got the job at UH, he was able to follow the Utah team into Oklahoma the two weeks before the end of the 2005 season.

Believe that Kolb enjoys being back in his hometown. He is 8-10-1 over the previous 10 seasons.

"It’s an honor," Kolb said, "I appreciated the opportunities. To play football I just live for football, and football is all I need to do during those times. I’m just the point now to see if I can make a team, and I’m excited about that.

This season, Kolb has passed for 2,887 yards, which is 300 more than his total all of last year. Kolb’s new number this year is the number he wore his senior year at Franklin.

They moved on by starting 4-0 and recording wins in the polls prior to their Sept. 30 game at Miami (FL) in which Kolb showed he was ready.

Kolb scored the Cougars lone touchdown on a 4-yard run, but a late 3rd quarter lead of 29-23 evaporated with Kolb going 0-4 for passing in the final quarter of a heartbreaking 34-24 loss.

Instead of returning home to regroup against Louisiana-Lafayette, the Cougars fell apart, scoring a 2-0 lead and losing 33-11, wasting Kolb’s passing yards.

Kolb again threw for over 300 yards the next week against Southwestern Miss in a losing effort, leaving UH at 4-3 and searching foranswers.

They come last Saturday against UTSA, when Kolb was 26 for 30 passing with 280 yards and two touchdowns in a 42-37 win that put UTSA right back in the race for the C-USA West Division Championship.

"We got in a little rough stretch there the last few games," Kolb said, "but we’re out of that now, over these close losses and looking to come back with a bang for the New Year.

"Winning string begins with Kadri a game and we’re starting Kadri back again and Kadri is doing great, Kolb said, "I think that (UCF) is a different team, but the systems are the same so you can always learn something from film. Every week in the (UCP) event, we just need to be well prepared but we’ve been better about turnovers this year.

The Cougars enter Saturday’s game a heavy favorite over the Knights, who have been plagued by unthemed quarterbacks such as Chase Clement from Rice and Matt Gillette from South Florida, who was making his first start because the Bulls had the Past the Knights.

Kolb could be on the verge of a record-breaking day when the game kicks off.

Kolb said, "I think that (UCF) is a different team, but the systems are the same so you can always learn something from film. Every week in the (UCP) event, we just need to be well prepared but we’ve been better about turnovers this year.

The Cougars enter Saturday’s game a heavy favorite over the Knights, who have been plagued by unthemed quarterbacks such as Chase Clement from Rice and Matt Gillette from South Florida, who was making his first start because the Bulls had the Past the Knights.

Kolb could be on the verge of a record-breaking day when the game kicks off.

"It’s going to be a great day and a great day for us, a record-breaking day and a big day for us.

"But we got in a little rough stretch there the last few games," Kolb said, "but we’re out of that now, over these close losses and looking to come back with a bang for the New Year.

Four big-time bands hit UCF for a Homecoming of a lifetime

Tonight marks UCF's annual Homecoming kick-off concert featuring Jack's Mannequin, Story of the Year, Mae and Anberlin. Here's a one-stop guide to tonight's show:

MOVIE REVIEW

Scissors: Schlock Treatment

We watched the new scissors action movie Scissors. It was... quite disappointing. The plot involves a pair of scissors who rebel against the commercialization of their design and set out to destroy the people who use them. The visuals were... quite... peculiar. The soundtrack, featuring songs like "The Scissors Song," added to the overall sense of disorientation. The acting was... interesting, to say the least. Overall, it's hard to recommend this movie to anyone looking for a typical Hollywood blockbuster. Some might find it a fun novelty, but for the majority of the audience, it's more of a challenge than an entertainment experience. If you're looking for a movie with depth and substance, you might want to look elsewhere.

CD REVIEW

No Shame is the Name of the Game

Amadeus B. Shaprio

And music tastes have all felt the anticipation of waiting for a favorite band newly arrived to come out. The occasion allows the listener to revisit the old and ambivalently assess the new, wondrous changes. And you, the artist? Oh, you might have to show them our new album.

For Pepper fans, that anticipation comes to a boil this month, when the release of their new album, No Shame, does us justice. The band's sound has matured, and their lyrics have grown to encompass more personal and emotional territory.

The album begins with an instrumental track, "Chasing Shadows," which sets the tone for the rest of the album. It's a powerful, introspective piece that draws you into the world of the album's characters. The接下来的几首歌曲，如"No Shame," "One More," and "Feel the Anticipation," continue the theme of introspection and personal growth. Each track has its own unique sound, but they all work together to create a cohesive and powerful album.

The album concludes with the title track, "No Shame." It's a powerful, uplifting song that reminds us to embrace our flaws and imperfections. The lyrics are simple yet profound, and the melody is catchy and memorable.

No Shame is the name of the game, and Pepper has delivered with this album. It's a must-listen for any fan of indie rock.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Tu Tu Tango hits the hot spot

ALEXANDRA SCHWARTZ

Music, art, dancing, and best of all, food are such a great combination. At Tu Tu Tango, all of these elements combine to create a wonderful dining experience. The atmosphere is lively and inviting, with a mix of modern and traditional elements. The staff is friendly and attentive, making sure that every guest feels welcome.

Their menu is diverse and delicious. From the appetizers to the main courses, there is something for everyone. The Grilled Asparagus and Potatoes are a personal favorite. The main courses are equally impressive. The Chicken Enchilada is a must-try, and the Beef Tips with Gravy are classic comfort food.

For dessert, don't miss the Chocolate Lava Cake. It's decadent and rich, the perfect way to end a meal. Overall, Tu Tu Tango is a fantastic restaurant that offers a unique and enjoyable dining experience.
