ABSTRACT

A Beautiful Belly is a feature-length, microbudget, digital motion picture, produced, written, and directed by Andrew Kenneth Gay in pursuit of the Master of Fine Arts in Film & Digital Media from the University of Central Florida. The guiding question behind the production of A Beautiful Belly was whether digital “no budget” production was particularly suited to the telling of a particular kind of cinematic story — the interior journey. The pursuit of an intimate cinema shaped every decision of the filmmaker and his collaborators, and this thesis is a record of their production experience.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank the entire faculty and staff of UCF Film for their ongoing support and creative investment. In particular, I must thank my thesis committee, Mary Johnson, Ula Stoeckl, and Lisa Cook, who have taught me more than I can ever acknowledge; Steve Schlow and Randy Finch, who have challenged me more than most people care to be challenged, but always with beneficial results; Mark Gerstein who has spent countless hours above-and-beyond the call of duty guiding my editorial process; Lisa Mills, whose modest narrative suggestion proved the missing piece of the puzzle; and finally, Patty Hurter, the brains and heart of the entire UCF Film operation, who has almost single-handedly made this entire process bearable and without whom no graduate student could hope to reach his or her greatest potential.

I would also like to thank my cast and crew. Filmmaking is the most collaborative art form, and this film is born of their energies and inspiration as much as mine. In particular, I must thank my two leads, Chris Worley and Lauren Brown, for opening themselves emotionally and spiritually to my direction more than I thought possible; my cinematographer, Marco Cordero, whose singular visual talent oozes through every frame of this film; and Morgan English, my editor and most involved collaborator, who gave almost a year of her life away to this project and without whose hard labors there would certainly be no finished product.

Last but not least, I must thank my family: most of all my wife, Angelyn, who has sacrificed years of her life to make this dream possible, and my parents, who have never once blinked before enthusiastically supporting my goals.

I am eternally grateful to you all.
For Mary Johnson, who has invested her life in teaching others to see, and in so doing, has been a constant source of inspiration to all her many students;

And for Calliope, my life imitating art, for whom I can only hope a life so richly lived.

CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION

A wonderful fact to reflect upon, that every human creature is constituted to be that profound secret and mystery to every other. A solemn consideration, when I enter a great city by night, that every one of those darkly clustered houses encloses its own secret; that every room in every one of them encloses its own secret; that every beating heart in the hundreds of thousands of breasts there, is in some of its imaginings, a secret to the heart nearest it! (Dickens 9-10)

It is not much of an exaggeration to say that the passage quoted above is the reason I tell stories. I read A Tale of Two Cities many years ago, and this passage has driven my growth as a writer and filmmaker ever since. Many powerful, magnificent films have been made about exterior journeys (the classic hero’s quest). The things that interest me as an artist, however, are the interior journeys behind the eyes, inside the hidden chambers of the human heart, and these are precisely the kinds of stories that resist the prying eye of the cinematographic apparatus.

I have written and directed three successful, festival-screened short films, and each has dealt with the things we cannot or choose not to reveal to one another. In “Naked,” my first short, a husband and wife with a healthy sex life realize that they never sit casually naked together. In this case, non-erotic nakedness represents true vulnerability, the willingness to stand bare and be accepted by your partner. In “Love is Deaf,” winner of six awards, a man in a tux washes up on a beach after jumping overboard to commit suicide on the day of his true love’s wedding. He finds a moment of companionship, however, after meeting a deaf woman in a bridal gown on the beach. Though they have no ability to communicate, the man confesses his deepest secrets to her and opens his heart to her in a way he never could to the woman he loved, and as result, he experiences a new moment of hope and possibility. Finally, in my second award-winning short, “Melissa With A Heart Around It,” a young Christian teen harbors the secret of her homosexuality from her pastor and her teenage crush. When a moment finally presents itself for her to confess and expose her secret to the girl she loves, she chooses to bear the weight of her secret alone, drowning in a broken heart.

When William Faulkner accepted his 1949 Nobel Prize in Literature, he told his audience that writers had “forgotten the problems of the human heart in conflict with itself, which alone can make good writing because only that is worth writing about, worth the agony and the sweat” (par. 2). I cannot compare myself to Faulkner, but at least when I set out to make intimate stories centered on interior journeys, I can lay claim to a great artistic tradition. Faulkner's lament, however, proves a tricky challenge for the filmmaker, who despite possessing the many cinematic tools not afforded the novelist (image, diegetic sound, music, color, movement), lacks access to literature's ease of expression for emotional and mental states. The filmmaker must instead be a careful study of subtle human behaviors, the things we see that tell us what we don't see. As Bluestone writes, “The face becomes another kind of object in space, a terrain on which may be enacted dramas broad as battles, and sometimes more intense” (27).

A Beautiful Belly is a film about the secret conflicts of our human condition, about the fact that we remain always most mysterious to the ones that think they know us best. In other words, it is a movie about marriage. There is a Ben Folds song about this called, “You Don’t Know Me.” The opening lyrics follow:

I wanna ask you / Do you ever sit and wonder, / It’s so strange / That we could be together for / So long, and never know, never care / What goes on in the other one’s head? / Things I’ve felt but I’ve never said / You said things that I never said / So I’ll say something that I should have said long ago: You don’t know me / You don’t know me at all. (Folds)

This is the challenge of every marriage. Over time, the labels of “husband” and “wife” become masks we wear to veil our true selves, our insecurities and doubts. Every marriage has its cupboard full of masks that spouses hide behind: religion, work, school, family, sex, whatever. They’re all just easy ways to categorize our counterpart’s behavior and avoid having to try to understand what’s really going on in the other one’s head. Non-verbal behaviors – the position of the hand on the hip, the slight downward turn of the lip – are the cracks in those masks.

A Beautiful Belly centers around an aspiring artist and an expectant mother. “Aspiring artist” and “expectant mother” are both common cinematic cliches, and that’s just the point. By turning these stereotypes on their heads, I hoped to examine how we mislabel those closest to us, just when we think we’ve figured them out. If my characters ever took the time to watch one another, to see, they'd have saved themselves a lot of trouble.

A Note About Thematic Layers

One of the goals I had in writing A Beautiful Belly was to create a nuanced piece with multiple thematic layers. Rather than narrowing down to one idea and saying, “the movie is about this,” I tried to write a script that engaged a number of issues: the complex problems of young marriage, the anxieties of approaching parenthood, the inevitable fascination committed partners will sometimes have with other people, the pull of creative expression for career oriented artists, and finally, religious faith as a substitute for faith in the people we love. This last question, the question of religion, was one of the most contentiously debated among early readers of the script, who either felt the religious elements were out of place or played too minor a role. It has also posed important marketing questions: is it too religious for a secular audience but not religious enough for the faith-based crowd? In the end, I found that in shooting the film, all of these themes began to fight each other for primacy, and ultimately, I had to peel away
many of the layers in the editing process and zero in on two fundamental ideas: parental anxiety and romantic temptation. I believe the film works best when engaging these issues, and runs into ambiguity where the other thematic layers are concerned. I wish I'd been more successful in engaging the other issues I had hoped to bring to light.

From Script to Screen

If any artistic mediums have formed the creative template for A Beautiful Belly, they are the stage play and the photograph. If it seems odd to reference two more limited art forms in the construction of a motion picture, the choice was made purposefully, in search of a cinema that elevates intimacy over the cinematic.

In writing the screenplay, I placed an emphasis on dialogue that has fallen out of fashion in Hollywood. As one Slamdance reviewer remarked of my script, “Being primarily dialoguebased drama, rather than drama actuated by overt plot action, the concept of the story is one to be listened to rather than watched by an audience, a form of dramatic storytelling that used to be confined to radio” (see chapter 3). This effort goes back to my goal of examining internal states and emotions. However, this early reviewer — having only read the script and no knowledge of my directing style — could not anticipate my directorial emphasis on performance and non-verbal behavior. The stage, not the radio, is the proper precursor to my script.

In visually actualizing the screenplay, I again looked to methods of keeping the action intimate. The film primarily takes place indoors, in familiar surroundings (the homes of each of the characters), and in shallow focus, lending it the feel of flipping through a family photo album. This is not Lawrence of Arabia, nor was it meant to be, but a purposefully inward-looking character study. The cinematography is beautiful and visually compelling but forsakes the compositional showiness so common among the works of young filmmakers these days.

Technology and the Microbudget Model

Microbudget filmmaking is almost entirely predicated on the idea of intimacy in cinema.
Budget and technology work together in a complimentary fashion to tell a story suited to the strengths and limitations of the model. Motion pictures are exceedingly expensive. In order to make a film for under $50,000, one has no choice but to narrow his focus away from flashy and costly set-pieces. On the other hand, scenes of a few actors talking about their lives and their problems are relatively cheap to capture.

One example of budget serving the storytelling is the choice of our camera. Initially, we pursued the Canon 5D Mark II because it was inexpensive and exceedingly sensitive to light, which would allow us to forgo major equipment rentals and a large lighting crew. However, as we became familiar with the camera, we began to realize that its small size and unintimidating appearance led to a more relaxed and intimate experience on set. It allowed for fewer people behind the camera watching the actors, and an increased level of comfort for the performers.
Instead of performing before a large audience and a huge 35mm camera rig, the actors conducted themselves in front of an almost invisible camera and a small audience of trusted friends.

Challenges within the Microbudget Model

Despite a project tailor-made for microbudget feature film production, we encountered numerous challenges at every step of the creative process. Most of these problems stemmed from the collaborative nature of filmmaking and the limited number of skilled collaborators willing to work either unpaid or at a discounted rate on a feature project, regardless of its quality. In numerous instances, we were required to work with the inexperienced and uninitiated, which often resulted in mistakes, unusable footage, and money lost. We spent more than $2,000 on damaged property, for instance, damages that may have never occurred had we been able to secure experienced crew members. Situations such as these raise the question of whether microbudget filmmaking is truly sensible or sustainable.

Another challenge with collaborative filmmaking at the microbudget level is time availability. This has been particularly difficult at the post-production stage, where the availabilities of my editor, sound mixer, and composer have all posed significant hurdles to completing the film on a preset timeline. In each of these cases, I was able to work with experienced and skilled collaborators at an inexpensive rate, but I was unable to set the kinds of deadlines I would have liked. The film took at least six months longer to complete than it should have because of these budgetary issues.
Editing the Film: Making and Re-Making

Despite a strong script, fantastic cinematography, and an excellent cast, A Beautiful Belly was primarily shaped in the editing. Our first cut was 2 hours, 15 minutes long. Our final cut comes in at just over 90 minutes. How did we cut 45 minutes of footage from the film? Doing so required a serious re-evaluation of the film's essential plot and themes. Huge narrative sections were cut, as were numerous lines of dialogue from specific scenes. Major content cut included scenes developing Jason and Danny's backstory, scenes highlighting Jason's career frustrations and fear of fatherhood, scenes exploring Danny's dissatisfaction with the state of her sex life, and scenes exploring Jason's ambivalence toward religion. For the most part, I do not miss these scenes when watching the finished picture, but cutting them has resulted in a few loose threads that can be detected by perceptive audiences, particularly upon repeat viewing of the film. Each cut required an assessment of gains and losses: what did we gain in terms of rhythm and pacing, and what did we lose in terms of character development and narrative logic? Of course, I wish I had anticipated these issues at the script-writing stage, where I could have trimmed with more flexibility, but I feel we've cut together a very strong film from the material we shot.

The Way Forward

For the most part, the making of A Beautiful Belly was a positive, rewarding, and ultimately successful experience. I certainly succeeded in my primary goal of exploring intimate cinema through the microbudget model of production. That having been said, I would not wish to make another film quite this way again. While I have little desire to shoot huge budget Hollywood films, the microbudget method leaves too much out of the director's control. I have learned much from this process that I hope to take with me to my next directing experience, but I also hope to bring more professional collaborators into my next project.

INT. ELEMENTARY SCHOOL - CAFETERIA STAGE - DAY

TIGHT on JASON ACKART (24) kneeling down beside a SECOND GRADE BOY.

JASON

Don’t worry about the audience, okay? What do they know? Just sing from here -- from your gut. You’ll do great.

The boy nods, and Jason slaps him on the back.

JASON (CONT’D)

Okay, let’s do it again.

FULL BACK, as Jason stands and walks over to an upright piano at the front of a classroom full of SECOND GRADERS. The boy steps back into place among his peers.

JASON (CONT’D)

Ready? 1 - 2 - 3 and --

Jason performs “JINGLE BELLs” as the kids sing along.
E1 EXT. JASON’S HOUSE – FRONT PORCH – DAY

Jason grabs the mail as he enters his house, including a large, overstuffed envelope from “HappyKidz Productions.”

F1 INT. JASON’S HOUSE – KITCHEN – DAY

Jason sets the rest of his mail on the counter and opens the envelope from HappyKidz, pulling out a DVD marked “Jason Ackart Audition Demo” and an accompanying letter.

He reads it:

“Dear Mr. Ackart: We regret to inform you that after reviewing your submission, we have determined that we cannot use your talents at this time. While your passion for children’s entertainment is clear, we believe your persona lacks a marketable hook that will engage young television viewers.”

G1 INT. JASON’S HOUSE – RECORDING STUDIO – DAY

Jason enters a small padded room full of musical instruments and recording equipment. He pins his rejection letter to a bulletin board where others like it have already been posted and slumps down at his desk with a bottle of beer.

As Jason stares at the bulletin board, his gaze stops on a photograph of a beautiful brunette partially obscured by a sticky note. Jason pulls down the photo and removes the sticky note, revealing a sort of family snapshot, folded on the left edge. Photographed from right to left are Jason, his brother, his niece, his sister-in-law, and the brunette.

Jason leaves the room.

06/16/09 -- BLUE
In the kitchen, Jason’s brother WILL (28) and Will’s wife RACHEL (24) prepare food with Rachel’s best friend, DANIELLE “DANNY” PAGE (23) -- the pretty brunette from the photo. Around the corner from the kitchen, the front door opens, and Jason enters.

JASON

Hello?

Will’s daughter IZZIE (4) runs across the house to Jason.

IZZIE

Uncle Jellymaaaaaaan!

Izzie jumps into Jason’s arms.

JASON

Hey, kidde! Whaa. You’re getting so heavy.

He sets her down.

RACHEL

Hey, J.

JASON

DANNY

Hey, J. How’s it going?

JASON

Good. What are you guys up to?

WILL

Bible study.

JASON

Ah, well, don’t let me get in your way. I can come back another --

Will, standing behind Danny, waves Jason off, mouthing the words, “Chris and Danny split up.” Jason has trouble reading the message. Will repeats. Jason gets it, and Danny and Rachel look at Will. Rachel throws a croissant at him.

DANNY

What just happened?

06/16/09 -- BLUE
WILL, I was just thinking, you were gonna show me --

Yeah, that thing!

Will and Jason leave the room, and Rachel shrugs at Danny.

JASON
Chris and Danny split up?

WILL
Yes!

When?

WILL
Like a week ago.

JASON
And you're just telling me now?

WILL
Never mind that. You gonna stick around or not?

JASON
You think I have shot?

WILL
Well, I'm not telling you to hit on her, but sticking around wouldn't hurt.

JASON
(wincing)
Bible study?

WILL
Oh, grow up. Why'd you come over, anyway?

JASON
Wanted to work with Izzie on my act some. Bounce a few ideas off her.
WILL
Well, stick around, and you can do that after.

INT. WILL & RACHEL’S HOUSE – LIVING & DINING ROOM – NIGHT

Jason passes through a gathering of YOUNG COUPLES, most of them with Bibles, eating potluck-styled dishes from paper plates and casually drinking beer and wine. The group includes PASTOR DAVE (30) and his wife ANNIE (28), Will,
Rachel, and Danny, and a half dozen others.

Jason and Danny make eye-contact across the room. She smiles.

As Jason tries to cut across the room toward Danny, the other group members keep stopping him to chit-chat and greet him with affection.

PASTOR DAVE
It’s great you could come tonight,
Jason.

Jason offers a half-hearted smile.

JASON
Yeah. Really just stopped in to say hi. I actually --

PASTOR DAVE
Absolutely. Just be sure to dish up some of Annie’s greenbean casserole while you’re here.

As Jason nods, someone bumps him from behind. He spins around to find himself face to face with Danny.

DANNY
Hey.

Jason gives her an awkward smile.

JASON
Hi.

PASTOR DAVE
(to the whole group)
Okay, if everybody’s dished up, what do you say we start moving into the living room?

The group members comply.

DANNY

You gonna stay?

JASON

Uh, yeah, I guess so. I didn’t bring a Bible.

DANNY

Look on with me.

Jason and Danny sit down together in the only open seats available. Danny opens her Bible and leans in to share with Jason. He pretends to be interested in the passage but can’t keep himself from stealing glances at Danny.

INT. WILL & RACHEL’S HOUSE – DEN – NIGHT – LATER

CLOSE ON a photograph of Jason, Will, and their DAD (30s), Will and his Dad both dressed in firefighters’ uniforms.

The photograph sits on the top of an upright piano where Jason, wearing his father’s dress uniform cap, has joined Izzie, who happily pounds the keys.

Danny enters.

DANNY

So here’s where you’ve been hiding. Nice hat.

JASON

Oh. It was Dad’s. Izzie made me put it on.

He removes the hat and hangs it on a hook above the piano.

DANNY

You hanging with Uncle Jellyman, Izzie?

IZZIE

Yes!

Jason stares at Danny.

DANNY

Permission to come aboard, Cap’n?

JASON

Oh, yeah. Sorry.
He lifts Izzie onto his lap, and Danny sits beside him on the piano bench. Danny looks at the photo of Jason and Will with their father.

DANNY

It was your dad that got Izzie calling you Uncle Jellyman, right?

JASON

He used to do these puppet shows for us when we were kids, and the puppets were like our alter-egos. Will was Mr. P.B., and I was Arthur Jellyman. Guess it resurfaced when Rachel had Izzie.

She smiles.

JASON (CONT’D)

Will didn’t tell me until I got here tonight about you and Chris. What happened?

DANNY

Guess he just wanted something else.

Jason opens his mouth but hesitates.

DANNY (CONT’D)

But it’s cool. You know. I’m thinking of applying to grad school next year.

JASON

Yeah?

DANNY

Don’t wanna bartend forever.

JASON

Whatcha thinkin’ about?

DANNY

Not sure yet. Maybe something with a social conscience?

She looks down at Izzie, banging on the keys, and looks back up at him.

DANNY (CONT’D)

Play something.

JASON
Oh, no. That’s all right.

DANNY
Come on.

She nudges him with her shoulder. He relents.

JASON
Okay. What’s your favorite animal?

DANNY
I dunno. Koala?

JASON
Koala. All right.

Jason makes up a silly song about koalas on the spot. Danny laughs, but Izzie tries to swipe his hands away to keep the piano to herself.

EXT. WILL & RACHEL’S STREET – NIGHT

A full moon shines down on Jason and Danny as they stand by her car, talking, as the other couples from the meeting file out of the house to their cars.

DANNY
You should come more often.

He smirks.

DANNY (CONT’D)
You hate it, don’t you?

JASON
I don’t hate it.

His lie is obvious. They both laugh.

JASON (CONT’D)
It’s just my feelings about God and the universe are personal to me. I’ve never felt comfortable discussing them in committee.

Danny nods.

JASON (CONT’D)
It was good to see you though.

JASON
Night.

Danny climbs into her car, closes the door, and starts the engine. She looks out her window and waves goodbye to Jason, and he waves back.

She faces forward but doesn’t leave. Instead, she rolls down her window.

DANNY
Or you could come over to my place for coffee. You know. Whichever.

TITLE SEQUENCE - A SERIES OF TIGHT CLOSE-UPS, ALL INTERCUT

A) A FLAT PATTERED SURFACE.

In a progression of stop-motion movements, items of clothing fall against and cling to the surface: a shirt, a bra, another shirt.

Still in stop-motion, two out-of-focus BODIES collide with the surface, their hands clutching, their legs intertwined.

As the bodies writhe, the patterned surface peels away: a fitted sheet pulling away from its mattress.

B) A NEW LOCATION, OUTSIDE SOMEWHERE, shot @ normal speed.

HAPPY FACES have gathered together to celebrate, all talking and laughing.

A wrapped gift is handed off from person to person, down a long chain. At the end of the line, Danny begins to open the gift, and Jason pitches in, both of them now wearing wedding rings.

Jason and Danny unwrap their gift, revealing a strange, multi-colored object: some kind of baby's toy.

C) In the bedroom, in stop-motion again, Jason tries to unwrap a brightly colored condom. Danny swipes at his hands, knocking the condom out of his grasp, and they clitch again.

D) At the party, Jason and Danny unwrap one baby toy after another.

E) Danny's hands (sans wedding ring) open a pregnancy test.

F) In stop-motion, the condom drops to the floor.

G) Jason, wearing his father's dress uniform cap and performing in costume as "Captain Jellyman," stands before a gaggle of attentive children, while Danny, Rachel, and Izzie watch his new act.

H) They unwrap another gift at the party, this one "From Pastor Dave & Annie": an illustrated Baby's First Bible.

I) Pastor Dave holds out a Bible with two wedding rings sitting on its cover. Jason and Danny exchange the rings in a small, private ceremony, with Will and Rachel as witnesses.

J) They unwrap a box of lullaby CDs. Someone at the party says, "You know, in case the baby gets sick of hearing Jason's music," and everybody laughs.

K) In bed, Jason and Danny lock lips, but this is another scene in another bedroom: now they're wearing wedding rings.

L) At the party, they unwrap a large nursing bra, and someone jokes about natural breast enhancement. Everybody laughs.

M) At the altar, we PUSH IN on Danny's eyes as she closes them tight just before the marriage ceremony reaches its conclusion.

N) In the bedroom, we PUSH IN on Jason's eyes as he closes them tight. END TITLE SEQUENCE.

EXT. WILL & RACHEL’S HOUSE - BACK PORCH - DAY

A smiling Jason opens his eyes to a row of vertical bars. His smile fades just a little.

JASON
Wow.

FULL BACK to reveal a beautiful baby’s crib. Behind the crib sit Jason and Danny, surrounded by the gifts they’ve been unwrapping. Though Danny is now pregnant, you wouldn’t immediately know it from looking at her.

DANNY
Will, it’s beautiful!

Will stands beside the crib. FRIENDS have gathered in patio chairs to throw Jason and Danny this baby shower.

JASON
This is too much.

WILL
Please. It’s Izzie’s old crib with a fresh coat of paint. Shut up, and be thankful.

JASON
No, it’s very nice. I just don’t know where we’re gonna keep it.

DANNY
You were aware we’d eventually need a crib, right?

JASON
No, I know. I just thought we’d have more time to figure out where all that stuff goes, that’s all.

DANNY
The nursery?

JASON

Right? Where’s that gonna be?

She stares at him.

JASON (CONT’D)
Wait. My studio?

Rachel cuts them off before Danny can answer.

RACHEL
Okay. Enough crib talk. You still need to open my present. Well, really it’s more for Danny than you, Jason, but whatever.

The group passes Rachel’s gift around the circle.

Danny peels away the wrapping paper to reveal a framed nine-month calendar, counting down the weeks from conception to due date. Across the top of the frame are pictures of nine silhouetted women standing in profile, depicting each month of belly growth, from flat to bulging round, something like the stages of human evolution. At the bottom of the frame, a digital clock counts down the months, weeks, days, hours, minutes, and seconds to Danny’s due date in real time.

JASON
Is it a bomb?

RACHEL
It’s a custom maternity calendar-slash-picture frame. My cousin Alice had one. It’s fun. You’re supposed to take a picture for each month of pregnancy and put the pictures in over the silhouettes.

DANNY
I love it. We can hang it in the nursery.

Will washes dishes as Jason enters.

JASON

JASON

EXT. WILL & RACHEL'S HOUSE - BACK PORCH - THAT MOMENT

Danny and Rachel sit alone in the backyard, watching Izzie play with a garden hose while wearing a firefighter's helmet.

DANNY
This was great of you guys.

RACHEL
Hey, when we had Izzie, I was dumber, and you were poorer, but you were always there for me.

Danny smiles.

RACHEL (CONT'D)
You're really lucky, you know?

DANNY
How so?

RACHEL
Jason's already so great with kids. Believe me, it took Will time to figure it out.

Izzie drops the hose.

IZZIE
Mommy, I want an ice cream sandwich.

RACHEL
Ask Daddy.

She runs inside, and Danny touches her stomach.

Will swoops her up.

WILL

IZZIE
I want an ice cream sandwich.

WILL
An ice cream sandwich? Hmm. What do we say?

IZZIE

WILL

He gives her a kiss, and Jason sets her down. She runs out.

JASON
She really digs you, huh?

WILL
It’s a Daddy thing, I think. It’s like you’re their entire template for what it means to be a great human being. It’s the best part, I’m telling you. Your kid’s gonna wanna be just like you, J. Trust me. It’s like having a dog only a hundred times better.

INT. JASON & DANNY'S HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

Jason and Danny settle with their gifts, and Danny starts to undress for the night. Jason sits down on the couch and picks up the calendar frame. As he stares at the pregnant silhouettes, he nervously fidgets with his wedding ring by rolling it on his finger with his thumb.

DANNY
We really made out like bandits

She cocks her head at him.

DANNY (CONT'D)
I'm not feeling sick tonight. Wanna go to bed early?

He pushes the calendar aside and places his hand on her torso, caressing her skin.

JASON
Who needs a bed?

He pulls her forward, kissing her tummy. She runs her fingers through his hair. Jason starts to unbutton her jeans, and as he reaches for her pants, she pulls him tight against her.

INT. JASON & DANNY'S HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT - LATER

Jason and Denny lie naked on the couch under a blanket, both looking very content.

DANNY
I love you so much.

JASON
I love you too.

She nuzzles him with her head, her eyes sleepy.

Jason sits up. His eyes drift back down to the maternity calendar on the floor and its digital countdown.

JASON

We can hang it in the nursery.

INT. JASON & DANNY’S HOUSE - RECORDING STUDIO - NIGHT

Jason walks into his studio. In one corner stands a life-sized cut-out of Jason dressed as “Captain Jellyman.”

Jason sits down at his keyboard and looks over at the rejection letters on his bulletin board. He begins to pick out a tune. As he plays the bass octaves with his left hand, his wedding ring CLICKS loudly against the keys.

CONTINUED:

Danny stands in the doorway in profile, now sporting a significant baby bump.

She surveys the room. On the wall hangs the pregnancy calendar/picture frame, where Danny has marked off six-months of pregnancy. Pictures of Danny posing at every month have replaced the silhouettes to the current point in time, but she’s just about due for another photo.

INT. JASON & DANNY’S HOUSE – LIVING ROOM – DAY – CONTINUOUS

Danny walks out to find Jason slumped over on the couch, asleep and surrounded by recording equipment, a Keytar across his lap, headphones plugged-in.

She cocks her head at him.

Danny leans over and drags her fingers across the keys of the Keytar, and Jason launchees from his slumped position, knocking the headphones off his ears.

DANNY

Morning.

Jason stares at her, stunned, still not fully awake. Danny leaves the room.

INT. JASON & DANNY’S HOUSE – DINING ROOM – DAY – LATER

Danny sits at the table reading with a cup of coffee and a plate of waffles with cherries on top. Jason enters in his work clothes.

JASON

Danny looks up but doesn’t say anything.

JASON (CONT’D)

Summer break? More time together?

RACHEL
You kidding? I think Will has a fetish. I couldn't beat him off with a stick.

DANNY
Maybe he's part dolphin.

RACHEL

DANNY
Something I was watching on TV earlier. Apparently dolphins are like crazy attracted to preggos. In Peru they have this thing called dolphin therapy, where mommies-to-be go to have their bellies kissed by dolphins. Saw video. It was all very phallic.

RACHEL
Weird. Maybe Jason needs dolphin therapy. Teach him to love the bump.

Or some kind of therapy, anyway.

RACHEL

DANNY

Yeah? Give it here. I'll have it reshaped.

Besides, you could use some sparkly newness in your life right now.

She slides the ring into her pocket.

DANNY (CONT'D)

What do you say we put you to bed, and I'll do stuff to you?

Rachel and Danny look around the loft. A few large portraits color, and Danny absentmindedly strokes her own ashy-brown

JASON

I got it.

He gets violent with the cabinet door.

PASTOR DAVE

Just --

Jason finally frees the door.

JASON

See. I'm ready for children.

Jason grabs a new bottle of dish soap.

PASTOR DAVE

So anyway, I was saying. Well, I understand things have been a little bumpy for you and Danny lately.

Jason looks at Pastor Dave.

PASTOR DAVE (CONT'D)

In the bedroom, that is.

Jason shuts the water off.

INT. JASON & DANNY'S HOUSE - PANTRY - NIGHT - A MOMENT LATER

Jason and Pastor Dave stand inside the pantry, and Jason closes the slatted pantry door.

JASON

What was that now?

PASTOR DAVE

Well, Danny confided in Rachel, who confided in Annie, and Annie confided in me. Thought maybe we should have a talk about it.

JASON

Is this a joke?

PASTOR DAVE

Now, I've read that some men associate the pregnant body with obesity, and as a result, they sometimes lose the desire for their pregnant wives.

06/16/09 -- BLUE
JASON
Pastor Dave, I’m really not comfortable discussing my sex life with you.

PASTOR DAVE
Absolutely. Believe me, when Annie was first pregnant with Joshua, I was a little weirded out about the sex myself. Just, you know, didn’t see her that way, so we had to work at it a little bit. Maybe try reading some love poetry together. Or start with a sensual massage.

JASON
I’m also not comfortable with you saying the words “sensual” and “massage” to me. Ever. In any context.

PASTOR DAVE
You know, I wouldn’t normally suggest this kind of thing, but if you’re really having a hard time, maybe you should, I dunno, watch some videos together.

Jason buries his face in his hands.

JASON
Make it stop.

PASTOR DAVE
Now, I’m not saying anything X-rated. Just something a little racy. You know, like maybe Top Gun.

JASON
Thanks, that’s great advice. I’ll do that. Message received.

PASTOR DAVE
Or Dirty Dancing.

JASON
That’s great. Perfect. Thank you.

PASTOR DAVE
Point is you need to be open with your wife, Jason. Whatever’s going on, talk to her about it. Find a way to work through it together.

JASON
Yeah, okay. I hear you. Can we not talk about this any more?

Danny opens the pantry doors and stares at the two men.

She reaches for an unopened jar of maraschino cherries.

DANNY
Will you open this?

She hands Jason the jar. He twists off the lid and hands it back to her, and she closes the pantry door again.

INT. JASON & DANNY'S HOUSE - KITCHEN - LATER

The guests have all gone as Jason finishes cleaning up. Jason sees the mail on the counter. Flips through the bills. Sees the grad school letter addressed to Danny. He looks up at the fridge where Danny has posted a picture of her latest ultrasound.

INT. JASON & DANNY'S HOUSE - BEDROOM - CONTINUOUS

Danny sits in bed reading. Jason pokes his head through the dero and knocks. She looks at him.

JASON
Interesting group tonight.

DANNY
The spirit move you?

JASON
The husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife? Come on,
Danny. I know a set-up when I see one.

DANNY
Lord works in mysterious ways.

Jason moves from the doorway into the closet to change.

JASON
So Dave tells me you think our sex life is in trouble.

DANNY
You're calling him Dave now?

JASON (CONT’D)
How bout a foot massage?

DANNY
You want me to massage your feet?

JASON
I meant, how bout I give you a foot massage.

DANNY
Oh. Sorry. I’d love that. Thanks.

Jason moves to sit at the end of the bed and massages her feet.

DANNY (CONT’D)
You know, it’s not about sex. Or not just, anyway.

JASON
I know.

DANNY
You haven’t been present. It’s like you’re avoiding me.

JASON
I’m not avoiding you. It’s just, right now, when I look at you -- I guess it freaks me out a little.

She recoils from him.

DANNY
Well, I’m glad we cleared that up.

JASON
That’s not what I mean. It isn’t
you. It’s --

DANNY
The baby?

He shrugs.

DANNY (CONT’D)
But you love kids. They’re your life. Look at you and Izzie.

JASON
I love ‘em, yeah. I’m just not sure I’m ready for the responsibility of feeding and watering one.

She gets up out of bed and heads for the bathroom.

DANNY
They’re not like plants, you know.
Like a potted plant?

JASON
I get it. That’s not --

DANNY
Or a Chia Pet? It’s not like that either.

JASON
Yes, I realize --

She steps into the bathroom and closes the door.

JASON (CONT’D)
Okay. Pause.

He lays back on the bed. After about thirty seconds Danny opens the bathroom and stands in the doorway.

DANNY
You were saying?

JASON
I dunno. I guess I’m just having trouble looking beyond the pregnancy, right now.

DANNY
Must be hard on you.

JASON
Maybe I just need to find some way of re-contextualizing you in my head, you know?

She moves back to the bed.

DANNY
I love it when you talk dirty to me.

But?

JASON
Not but. And. I love you, and. This whole transition to husband-and-father is all a little bigger than expected.

He climbs into bed. She softens.

DANNY
Well, you didn’t exactly get much of a chance to perfect the just-a-husband bit before moving up, did you?

JASON
Not really. No.

She reaches her hands out to him and pulls him closer. They kiss and snuggle up for a minute.

JASON (CONT’D)
Thought maybe I could teach piano lessons here at the house. You know, for extra cash until I figure out what’s next.

DANNY
That’s a good idea.

She buries her head underneath his chin.

JASON
So I met this interesting woman today.

DANNY
Okay.

JASON
Grad student. She’s interning at one of the local cable channels. She has this idea for a kids’ show based on Captain Jellyman.

She sits up.

DANNY
What kind of show?

JASON

CLOSE ON Danny's closed eyes, flickering as she dreams.

DANNY'S DREAM SEQUENCE - A SERIES OF SHOTS

We cut quickly between the following images and STOCK FOOTAGE INSERTS of dolphins darting through the water:

A) Danny asleep in bed. Her hair is red, like the woman in the photograph at Nathan's loft.

B) The silhouette of a man at the door to the bedroom.

C) Danny opens her eyes. Removes her sheet. She's not pregnant.

D) The man steps into the light, revealing himself to be Nathan.

E) Danny sits up. Nathan grabs her and kisses her.

F) Danny and Nathan sink into the sheets to make love.

G) Jason sleeps soundly on the edge of the bed as Nathan makes love to his wife. With no expression on his face, Jason sings: "I want an ice cream sandwich."

INT. NATHAN’S PHOTOGRAPHY STUDIO – DAY

Danny, Nathan, and Rachel sit at a computer screen, reviewing proofs of their session.

Danny’s face contorts.

I really like the one on the left.

NATHAN
Danny, you okay?

DANNY
I’m sorry. It’s not you. I just --

She stands up and walks away. Rachel gets up to follow.

INT. PHARMACY – NIGHT

Danny walks through the pharmacy, wearing sweatpants and flip-flops, which makes her appear several years younger than her actual age. She stops in the cosmetics section and looks at the shelf, comparing boxes of red hair dye.

Another SHOPPER (50s) walks past her, browsing the dye selection herself. She glances at Danny a couple of times, and Danny finally looks up at her.

SHOPPER
You know, sweetheart, you’re really not supposed to use dye when you’re pregnant.

Danny shrinks like a scolded schoolgirl.

DANNY

Slim the Seven-a-topus / he was an Octopus / but he lost one of his

Danny enters the bedroom in a lace maternity gown and places the candle on the bedside table. The hair around her face is a flickering ring of fire in the candle’s glow, an impression accentuated by the light-catching flecks of gold in her blue-grey eyes.

Danny reaches in front of Jason and switches off the lamp on his side of the bed, settling in beside him and caressing his shoulders.

JASON (CONT’D)
(sort of shouting over his headphones)
When’d you get home?

DANNY
While ago.

JASON
Didn’t hear you come in.

They don't know that, it's just not

JASON
Well, for one, better safe than

Jason opens the door and turns on the light. As he reaches for the tissues on the changing table, his eyes meet the pregnancy calendar’s digital countdown display. He freezes.

JASON (V.O.)
Just a dinner thing. She wants to pitch this show idea she’s got.

WILL
Where’re you meeting her?

JASON (V.O.)
Her place. She’s fixing something.

WILL
You better watch yourself, buddy.

JASON (V.O.)
Please. She’s a professional. You’re making the assumption that if a man and woman interact with each other in a social situation, somehow there has to be sexual tension between them.

JASON
So why on earth is anyone at your job gonna listen to you?

Danny climbs into bed and turns her back to Jason.

JASON
Where the hell did that come from? I came by tonight, didn’t I? Brought you a rose?

Wasn't that what pissed you off in the first place?

Allison tries to read his expression.

ALLISON

INT. JASON & DANNY'S HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - DAY

Jason sits on a piano bench with a LITTLE BOY (8).

JASON

So why don't we start by having you show me the C Scale.

LITTLE BOY

What's that?

JASON

The notes of the C Scale? All the notes in the Key of C?

The boy stares at him with a confused look on his face.

JASON (CONT'D)

Okay, let's start smaller. Can you tell me where Middle C is?

The boy looks the keyboard up and down and settles on pressing a low F#.

JASON (CONT'D)

Okay, I'll give you a hint, it's near the middle.

Danny comes in carrying some shopping bags, and Jason turns to see her in the doorway. She holds out a tiny plastic baggy with his wedding ring in it. He stands.

JASON (CONT'D)

Hey.

DANNY

Hey.

He holds out his hand. She slips the ring onto his finger.

DANNY (CONT'D)

With this ring, I thee wed.

They kiss. The boy hits a high G note.

JASON

(to the boy)

I said in the middle. It's in the middle of the keyboard. Middle C.

RACHEL
Green dragon. Haven’t decided yet. Soon. I’m forcing Will to purge himself of all the crap that’s accumulated in the garage.

WILL
Yeah, J, I’m finally gonna sort through all of Dad’s old stuff if you wanna help. May wanna come over, see if there’s anything you wanna keep.

He stares at the ring and takes it off again.

JASON (CONT’D)
Really? Guess I forgot to put it on when I left. Sorry, babe. Just got used to being without it, I guess.

He walks out. He comes back. Picks up the ring. Puts it down again.

JASON (CONT’D)
I just forgot it.

He walks out. A second later he returns and grabs the ring.

ALLISON

Jason turns around to see PATTY (50s), a force of a woman, who immediately shakes his hand with the grip of a Texas senator.

To learn?

PATTY
More than week?

JASON
Probably.

PATTY
That's no good then. What about harmonica? Oh, or the Jew's Harp! Is it okay to say Jew's Harp? Is it actually a Jewish thing, or is that some kind of slur?

JASON
I have no idea.

Allison comes back. Hands him a glass of wine.

ALLISON
Hey. Good. You found each other.

PATTY
You know, Snoopy used to play a Jew's Harp. You'd think if Snoopy could handle it, I could make do.

Danny cleans up after Jason’s mess. She notices that the drawer where she left his ring is lying on the floor upside down. She gets down on the floor to pick it up, looking through its dispersed contents.

The ring is missing. Danny panics.

She searches as frantically as Jason had for the little silver wedding band, finally catching something shiny under a piece of furniture. She reaches underneath and retrieves the ring, relieved.

Danny walks along a railing, looking down at the dolphins swimming below.

Jason and Izzie enter the park, and Izzie runs ahead to frolic at the edge of a waterplay fountain’s dancing spray.

JASON
Don’t get too close, Iz.

Danny walks down a ramp into a viewing area with large underwater windows peering into the dolphin pool.

Danny walks up to the glass, placing her hand against it, and one of the dolphins comes close and interacts with her. The attention from the animal overwhelms her emotions.

Jason watches as a gleefully laughing Izzie reaches her arms out into the fountain’s animated jets of water.

As the dolphin observes Danny through the window, she smiles and lifts the bottom of her shirt to show her belly.

Danny grabs Rachel’s camera and holds it out at arms length to snap a photo of herself with the dolphin in the background.

JASON

Will steps over to view the contents of the box. Inside lay two old, hand-made puppets.

Hey! It’s your old namesake, Arthur Jellyman. What’s my guy’s name again? Mr. Fibb?

Mr. P.B.

Right. P.B. Man, I haven’t thought about those puppet shows in years. Those were great though, huh?

Professional Script Feedback

Overview of Feedback

Early in the process of shaping the screenplay, I sought professional script feedback, called “coverage,” from several well-respected film organizations and used this feedback to shape subsequent drafts. The coverage acquired from the Slamdance Screenplay Competition is included below (next page) as a sample. Note that the screenplay draft referred to in the following section is not the final shooting script included in the previous section and contained numerous differences from the script that went into production.
Sample Script Coverage

SLAMDANCE 2008 SCREENPLAY COMPETITION COVERAGE
Title: A Beautiful Belly (E)

Evaluation:

Jason Ackart’s wife Danny (Danielle) is pregnant and feeling stress at not having had sex from her husband in some time. It could be for many reasons: Jason is reluctant to have sex with Danny so far advanced in her pregnancy. There is also the possibility Jason may have sought sex with someone else. In fact, the reason does not appear to be either of these. Jason, for whatever reason, seems content with the prospect of being a father but also wrapped up in his music composition and especially his ice cream sandwich song.

Jason teaches music privately to children and works in a musical instrument store. One day a TV producer for a children’s show, Allison Flores, barges in to inquire of Jason about a harmonica. When she learns he is composing music for children she offers to consider a demo CD and to pass it on to get him a composing gig on the show. It’s all perfectly Platonic and harmless—at first. It so happens that when they first met Jason didn’t have his wedding ring on as Danny was having it reshaped.

However, Danny has been bending the ear of Annie, Pastor Dave’s wife, about Jason’s not being sexually interested in or satisfying her. Pastor Dave privately confronts a very reactionary Jason over this situation and is basically pushed off. This is not reassuring to Annie, Pastor Dave or especially Danny.

In the restaurant where Danny works she meets Nathan Long, a photographer who finds Danny and her pregnancy a perfect subject for a nude pregnant woman photographic study series, a subject of special interest for him. Danny is understandably reluctant to oblige Nathan though he does at least talk her into trying Dolphin therapy at Marineland.

Jason finds professional solace from Danny’s doubts and hectoring. Allison does a track with him for his demo and on occasion has lunch with him. As luck would have it they are spotted having lunch together by Rachel, Danny’s co-worker. At first, Danny considers it harmless and, correctly, as having to do with Jason’s music. But, eventually she does some snooping into Jason’s effects, with the result that she suspects there may be more to the relationship.

All Jason will tell Danny is that he has a surprise for her, but not that he has gotten a composing contract for Allison’s children’s show. And Jason is still not wearing his reshaped wedding ring when he meets Allison though he keeps massaging his finger where the ring would naturally reside.

Stress from failure of Jason and Danny to communicate builds. Jason has spottted Danny in Nathan’s company and done some digging of his own in the records of Danny’s GPS trips to Nathan’s house. Again coincidentally, Jason confronts Nathan just as Danny, having yielded momentarily to posing in the nude, abruptly gets the guilts and calls the whole thing off. She is in midst of putting her clothes back on when Jason arrives. Jason assaults Nathan and storms off.

Any further development of the relationship between Jason and Allison is killed when she confronts him about his constantly rubbing the indentation on his finger left by the ring he has not been wearing in her presence. He admits he is married which sends Allison into raging recrimination.

Through it all Jason and Danny themselves come to realize that of all the people in the world each of them is the most important person to the other and that their forthcoming daughter simply completes them as a married couple. They reconcile.

The script abounds with human emotional integrity and authenticity; the dialogue articulates well exactly the issue that could confront husband and wife in the situation Jason and Danny find themselves, with Jason torn between his musical pursuit and the demands of Danny for his attention and demonstrated affection during her pregnancy.
An excellent example of this is the following speech by Jason on Page 24:

Hear me out, will ya? I just, Pastor was saying how maybe I see you as this very maternal figure right now, you know? And so maybe it's hard for me to think of you in terms of, well, getting it on, because all I see is, that's my kid in there. And it's kinda weird to do it with your kid in the room. Maybe that's it.

Jason is articulating a feeling quite insightful and profound, if you consider here is a young husband trying to preserve the sanctity of his relationship though we’re not sure he really believes having sex with his wife in proximity to their future child is the reason for the tension with Danny in the story. Maybe his reasoning is an excuse for another reason.
It still makes perfect emotional sense for Jason who tries to comfort Danny, whether he’s telling the truth about the way he feels or not. In either event it is certainly one hell of a good answer to Danny’s concerns and a sophisticated one at that. This speech is very telling about the conflicts in Jason in many more ways than one and is superb intimate dramatic dialogue.

The script has internal narrative cohesion with excellent scene connectivity. It makes sense and the script is generally very easy to read, which is a definite plus. Broadly speaking the protagonists can command the conventional sympathies of an audience, which concern for someone in a story is essential to its success. Audiences must have someone to cheer to care how the story ends.

In marketability terms though the script has the virtues summarily described above it is,
despite the rather engaging way in which mutual suspicion of Jason and Danny escalates, a formulary story of a married couple who endure stress in their relationship as a result of a forthcoming child, but who reconcile in the end with the child to be born now a source of bringing them together, rather than tearing them apart. Though the script has the emotional veracity we have already mentioned and the plot perfectly admissible narrative argument, script and plot are also dialogue heavy with little in the way of production.
value or roles with star appeal which are always important to decision makers, but especially so in straight dramas, such as this one.

Being primarily dialogue based drama, rather than drama actuated by overt plot action, the concept of the story is one to be listened to rather than watched by an audience, a form of dramatic storytelling that used to be confined to radio. And we readily concede the dialogue is very conducive to be listened to and concentrated upon. However, the simple fact is that scripts desired by motion picture decision makers these days require a high concept departure from narrative formula for the type, or genre, of story and, unless the story is an action-adventure/war or horror piece, such as The 300 or 31 Days Of Night, star roles are deemed essential along with a high concept plot and production value and scope.

This script is very intimate and confined drama, requiring not stars, but simply capable actors and a director who can get the most out of their talents. Theater screens are now and have been for years populated mainly by films long on elaborately mounted action, SFX and other action oriented production value, with star personalities and are much less based on dialogue motivated drama.

This is not to say this concept and script can’t find a buyer. We simply believe it will be hard to find a buyer in the current market. And we hasten to add the script has many creative virtues as a concept and treatment.

What Works:

The script works readily as a coherent and often compelling story and within the scope of the drama the writer does much with the plot situation, especially with sustained dialogue based action. The story arc is good, starting at just the right point in the relationship of the protagonists with Danny feeling neglected by Jason because of her pregnancy though she doesn’t know why and is left to speculate to an unhealthful degree.

In Jason’s above quoted dialogue speech we noted that he is giving Danny as much a rational diplomatic excuse for his sexual inattention to her as he is giving Danny an honest answer to her questions—perhaps even more so, but we understand and accept his statement even if he is being diplomatic. In intimate characterization terms this is quite sophisticated and also bespeaks Jason’s ultimate concern not to hurt Danny and a deep and abiding care for her that ultimately makes their reconciliation work. In terms of human relations and dramatic motivation this is all very good.

What doesn’t work?

We cannot fairly say that anything out rightly doesn’t work though we do have concerns about some aspects of the narrative. Jason arrives just as Danny happens to be putting on her clothes. Though the setup to the scene is logical it seems a little too coincidental and also begs credibility somewhat for Danny to follow Nathan to the door and announce she is getting her clothes on in earshot of whoever might be calling. We would expect Danny to be far more discrete in the situation even though she is innocent of anything so terribly wrong.

The problem here is that the average audience is not going to see the events and character actions with the same rigid moral squint as does the script. For that reason Allison’s explosion as to Jason’s revelation of being married is going to strike people as over the top. We are not aware from the script that these two people were ever that close. At best, Allison comes off as a professional mentor.

The script seems to assume that if a man and woman interact with each other somehow there has to be sexual tension between them and that sexual jealousy must automatically arise on the part of a third party who might happen to be a lover or spouse of either the man or the woman. Certainly in the music world of which Jason wants to be a part that simply isn’t true. In the creative arts and professions people relate to and work with each other for reasons having nothing to do with sex. The fact is that human motivation is not that simple; sex doesn’t rule the world and doesn’t rule human relationships—certainly not as much as the desire for power.

If anything, the script has an implicit over concern with sex as the only source of tension and the only reason why people (of the opposite sex) associate with each other. That is why all of the characters jump too readily (and with dramatically dubious motivation) to exaggerated and/or erroneous conclusions about any association between the sexes automatically meaning sexual misbehavior in the eyes of the beholder. Quoting Gershwin: It ain’t necessarily so and really shouldn’t be for dramatic purposes. Good dramatic characters have to be less one-dimensional and more complicated than that for impact and the story accordingly more complex.

How can it be improved?

If this script is to have a fair chance at being successfully marketed the writer must be prepared for more novel plot complication than we have now. Though logical, coherent and admissible as a plot and story arc the current concept and treatment lack enough of novel action plot complication/dramatic interest happening in the story.

In suggesting improvements to a story we generally try to avoid materially altering the writer’s concept. That is difficult to do because the concepts her constrains the story to within plot events and character motivations governed exclusively by what (for want of a better term) we call conventional and conservative sexual mores. All of the characters are so constrained and act and react accordingly, which is why Allison’s reaction to Jason’s being married seems excessive in the circumstances and why Jason’s ultimate reconciliation with Danny is so predictable. Within such limits all of the characters react as if they are all on the same wavelength which, for purposes of effective drama, all the characters shouldn’t be. In a good story somebody needs to be on a different wavelength. That gives the story capacity for unconventional conflict and consequences to character actions.
To sell these days a script needs that high concept story the progress of which isn’t so predictable. An analyst might be impressed by either Jason or Danny or both separating and going with people who appear to be quite unlike them, demonstrating the truth of the proposition that people don’t always fall in love with people with whom a relationship is either safe or otherwise healthy.

For either or both Jason or Danny the results of new relationships could be either salutary or disastrous, depending on the way the writer wants the story to end. Whether Jason and Danny would reconcile or not has to be the result of more obstacles, struggle and conflict than we have now. This is necessary to maintain interest. Despite the frequent profundity of the dialogue, the fact is that too much emphasis on dialogue however scintillating weary's decision makers and audiences alike. Film is a dramatic medium in which characters need to be presented with obstacles that require them to act against the possibility of failure.

There need to be antagonists in every drama. In this story we really have no villain. Everyone has honorable intentions. There is no malice in a story about a world full of it. A new relationship for either or both Jason and/or Danny can bring them in contact with a lover who might prove a fatal attraction for either Jason with such a girlfriend or Danny as object of the girlfriend’s malice and possessiveness of Jason. Such situations have led to murder of the innocent spouse by the lover of a philandering husband. The possibilities for development of a story along these lines are innumerable.

Next:

Though the situation and character portraits in the current treatment suggest possibilities for development of a good romantic drama we do not feel it yet has the dramatic plot or production value to go on the market. However, the writer has an obvious command of the elements of screenwriting, especially character portraiture and dialogue and that bodes well regardless of subject matter. We hope the writer will apply that talent to reconsider the story in light of the issues raised in this analysis and wish the writer success.
Marketing Plan

Overview

Having conducted two test screenings of A Beautiful Belly, we believe the target audience for the film will fall into one of three categories:

- Young, married couples expecting children.
- Young, culturally and politically progressive Christian couples.
- Young couples employed in artistic or creative fields.

By young, we generally mean 18-35 years of age. A viewer who overlaps into all three categories would fall into our ideal, core audience. We believe our audience is likely to live in urban or suburban areas, likely to view more movies at home than at the theater, likely to consume media in unconventional ways (through Facebook and Twitter, via digital download and streaming services such as Netflix and Hulu, and via mobile devices) and are open to watching unfamiliar content if it is recommended by a trusted source. Our approach will begin with a conventional festival campaign supplemented by the kinds of new strategies outlined by Jon Reiss in his book Thinking Outside the Box Office. While we don't believe conventional distribution is likely for A Beautiful Belly, given its lack of name-talent, we will remain open to it, depending on the film's world festival premiere.

The Festival Circuit

While we will first target top tier fests like Sundance and SXSW for a world premiere, we will also look to such content-appropriate festivals as the Heartland Film Festival, which awards a $100,000 prize to the best dramatic feature. We will also research appropriate second and third-tier festivals in regions likely to have a high population of our target audience groups (for example: college towns, cities with thriving arts scenes, etc.). We will try to work with our fans to build city-by-city word of mouth utilizing social networking tools, so cities may be targeted based on the popularity of such tools in their area. According to Twitter.Grader.com, for instance, the following cities have the most active Twitter users:

1. London
2. Los Angeles
3. Chicago
4. New York
5. Atlanta
6. Toronto
7. San Francisco
8. Boston
9. Seattle
10. Sydney

If this is the case, Twitter may be a more effective marketing tool in these regions than in others. Because we expect to forgo a traditional distribution model, we are likely to sell DVDs directly to our fans at each festival we screen. However, this strategy would likely change if we were to premiere at a fest such as Sundance or SXSW. Because we hope to build word-of-mouth through our festival run, we will look primarily for festivals with a proven track record of attracting energetic audiences. A festival in a small region that sells-out is better than a festival in a major city that does not attract an invested audience. We will also look for forward-thinking festivals that are looking to lead in the new media environment (for instance, the Boston Film Festival's recent "official selection" of an iPhone app), rather than backward-looking festivals that refuse to innovate (Baltrusis).

DIY Distribution & Word-of-Mouth

In all likelihood, A Beautiful Belly will be self-distributed. With that being the case, we will carefully weigh the opportunities presented by such aggregators as Distribber and will seek a reputable foreign sales rep. Whatever model we utilize, word-of-mouth will be key to the successful marketing of the picture.

We have begun compiling a list of gatekeepers whose recommendations matter to our target audience (particularly the young Christian progressives we hope to reach). Some examples include Cameron Strang, publisher of Relevant Magazine; Matthew Paul Turner, author and blogger behind JesusNeedsNewPR.com; Pastor Isaac Hunter of Summit Church in Orlando and son of Joel Hunter, one of President Obama's trusted spiritual advisers; and Donald Miller, popular author of Blue Like Jazz, which actually appears in the movie. By enlisting the support of such gatekeepers, we hope to get a strong Facebook/Twitter campaign in support of our festival run and simultaneous DVD release.
Transmedia Storytelling

We are currently considering strategies to broaden the story of A Beautiful Belly across other mediums. Two of these include a novelization of the film and the web-launch of PeeplesFace.com.

The under-taking of a self-published eBook for sale from our website could prove profitable, but we would only consider it if it could be executed at a high quality. There may be time for me to adapt the film into prose form before its world festival premiere, but I would have to feel that the release was merited.

Finally, the website PeeplesFace.com is used as a plot-point in the film, and we do own the rights to the URL. If a site could be designed at a reasonable cost, it could be launched as a tie-in between the film and the proposed novelization, perhaps revealing a subplot only hinted at in the other two mediums.

SCREENPLAY PURCHASE AGREEMENT

THIS SCREENPLAY PURCHASE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into on this the 27th day of March, 2009, and is by and between Andrew Kenneth Gay, an individual (hereinafter “Owner”), at 109 Cosmos Drive, Orlando, FL 32807, and C.F.P. Media, LLC, a Florida Limited Liability Company (hereinafter “Purchaser”), at 109 Cosmos Drive, Orlando, FL 32807, with respect to the development and production of a feature-length motion picture or (the “Picture”) based upon Owner’s original unpublished motion picture screenplay currently entitled “A Beautiful Belly” (which together with the title, ideas, plot, themes, contents, products, characters, translations, story lines and other versions thereof whether now existing or hereafter created is referred collectively as the “Property”). Owner and Purchaser shall sometimes be referred to individually as “Party” or collectively as the “Parties.”

1. CONSIDERATION: As consideration for all rights granted and assigned to Purchaser and for Owner’s representations and warranties, Purchaser agrees to pay to Owner and Owner agrees to accept the total sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) (the “Purchase Price”) for all the rights granted herein, including the production of one or more theatrical or television motion pictures.

(a) For any sequel or remake of a theatrical or television motion picture based in whole or in part on the Property, Purchaser will pay or cause Owner to be paid one-half (1/2) of the original Purchase Price or the total sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), whichever is greater, for sequels (and/or prequels), and one-third (1/3) of the original Purchase Price or the total sum of Seven Thousand Five Dollars ($7,500.00), whichever is greater, for remake which shall be payable upon commencement of principal photography of the subsequent production.

(b) For any mini-series based in whole or in part on the Property, Purchaser will pay or cause Owner to be paid Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per hour, pro-rated for part hours.

(c) For any television series produced, based in whole or in part on the Property, Purchaser will pay or cause Owner to be paid the following royalties per initial production upon completion of production of each program: up to thirty (30) minutes, $1,500.00; over thirty (30), but not more than sixty (60) minutes, $1,750.00; over sixty (60) minutes but not more than ninety (90) minutes, $2,000.00; over ninety (90) minutes, $5,000.00; and in addition to the foregoing, as a buy-out of all royalty obligations, one hundred percent (100%) of the applicable initial royalty amount, in equal installments over five (5) years, payable within thirty (30) days after each such renewal, or subject to the WGA minimums, whichever is greater. Owner shall have a right of first negotiation to direct the pilot for any television series.

(d) If in Purchaser’s sole discretion, Purchaser decides to have the script re-written, Owner will be offered the first opportunity to be employed to do a re-write for a flat fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), which shall be full and complete compensation for Owner’s services. Purchaser shall have no obligation to employ Owner for any subsequent rewrites of rewrites. Any work created by Writer for such rewrite shall be a work for hire and all rights to Owner’s work and the results and proceeds thereof shall be owned and controlled by Purchaser or its assignees.

2. RIGHTS GRANTED: Owner hereby sells, grants, conveys and assigns to Purchaser, its successors, licensees and assigns exclusively and forever, all motion picture rights (including all silent, sound dialogue and musical motion picture rights), all television motion picture and other television rights, videocassette, videodisc, and computer-assisted media, together with limited radio broadcasting rights and 7,500 word publication rights for advertisement, publicity and exploitation.

purposes, merchandising rights, sound recording, and certain incidental, ancillary, subsidiary and allied rights thereto of every kind or nature whatsoever, throughout the universe, in any and all mediums, technical formats and media whether now known or hereafter devised, in and to the Property and in and to the copyright and trademark thereof and all renewals and extensions of copyright and trademark. Included among the rights granted to Purchaser hereunder (without in any way limiting the grant of rights hereinabove made) are the following sole and exclusive rights throughout the world:

(a) To make, produce, adapt and copyright one or more motion picture adaptations or versions, whether fixed on film, tape, disc, wire, audio-visual cartridge, cassette or through any other technical process whether now known or hereafter devised, based in whole or in part on the Property, of every size, gauge, color or type, including, but not limited to, musical motion pictures and remakes of and prequel and sequels to any motion picture produced hereunder and motion pictures in series or serial form, and for such purposes to record and reproduce and license others to record and reproduce, in synchronization with such motion pictures, spoken words taken from or based upon the text or theme of the Property and any and all kinds of music, musical accompaniments and/or lyrics to be performed or sung by the performers in any such motion picture and any and all other kinds of sound and sound effects.

(b) To exhibit, perform, rent, lease and generally deal in and with any motion picture produced hereunder:

(i) by all means or technical processes whatsoever, whether now known or hereafter devised including, by way of example only, film, tape, disc, wire, audio-visual cartridge, cassette or television (including commercially sponsored, sustaining and subscription or pay-per-view television, or any derivative thereof); and

(ii) in any place whatsoever, including homes, theaters and elsewhere, and whether or not a fee is charged, directly or indirectly, for viewing any such motion picture.

(c) To broadcast, transmit or reproduce the Property or any adaptation or version thereof (including without limitations to, any motion picture produced hereunder and/or any script or other material based on or utilizing the Property or any of the characters, themes or plots thereof) by means of television or any process analogous thereto whether now known or hereafter devised (including commercially sponsored, sustaining and subscription or pay-per-view television), through the use of motion pictures produced on films or by means of magnetic tape, wire, disc, audio-visual cartridge or any other device now known or hereafter devised and including such television productions presented in series or serial form, and the exclusive right generally to exercise for television purposes all the rights granted to Purchaser hereunder for motion picture purposes.

(d) Without limiting any other rights granted Purchaser, to broadcast and/or transmit by television or radio or any process analogous thereto whether now known or hereafter devised, all or any part of the Property or any adaptation or version thereof, including any motion picture or any other version or versions thereof, and announcements pertaining to said motion picture or other version or versions, for the purpose of advertising, publicizing or exploiting such motion picture or other version or versions, which broadcasts or transmissions may be accomplished through the use of living actors performing simultaneously with such broadcast or transmission or by any other method or means including the use of motion pictures (including trailers) reproduced on film or by means of magnetic tape or wire or through the use of other recordings or transcriptions.

(c) To publish and copyright or cause to be published and copyrighted in the name of Purchaser or its nominee in any and all languages throughout the world, in any form or media, synopses, novelizations, serializations, dramatizations, abridged and/or revised versions of the Property, not exceeding 7,500 words each, adapted from the Property or from any motion picture and/or other version of the Property for the purpose of advertising, publicizing and/or exploiting any such motion picture and/or other version.

(f) For the foregoing purposes to use all or any part of the Property and any of the characters, plots, themes and/or ideas contained therein, and the title of the Property and any title or subtitle of any component of the Property, and to use said titles or subtitles for any motion picture or other version of adaptation whether or not the same is based on or adapted from the Property and/or as the title of any musical composition contained in any such motion picture or other version or adaptation.

(g) To use and exploit commercial or merchandise tie-ups and recordings of any sort and nature arising out of or connected with the Property and/or its motion picture or other versions and/or the title or titles thereof and/or the characters thereof and/or their names or characteristics.

All rights, licenses, privileges and property herein granted Purchaser shall be cumulative and Purchaser may exercise or use any or all said rights, licenses, privileges or property simultaneously with or in connection with or separately and apart from the exercise of any other of said rights, licenses, privileges and property. If Owner hereafter makes or publishes or permits to be made or published any revision, adaptation, sequel, prequel, remake, translation or dramatization or other versions of the Property, then Purchaser shall have and Owner hereby grants to Purchaser without payment thereof all of the same rights therein as are herein granted Purchaser. The terms "Picture" and "Pictures" as used herein shall be deemed to mean or include any present or future kind of motion picture production based upon the Property, with or without sound recorded and reproduced synchronously therewith, whether the same is produced on film or by any other method or means now or hereafter used for the production, exhibition and/or transmission of any kind of motion picture productions.

3. RIGHTS RESERVED: The following rights are reserved to Owner for Owner’s use and disposition, subject, however, to the provisions of this Agreement:

(a) Publication Rights: The right to publish and distribute printed versions of the Property owned or controlled by Owner in book form, whether hardcover or soft-cover, and in magazine or other periodicals, whether in installments or otherwise subject to Purchaser’s rights as provided for in Section 2.

(b) Stage Rights: The right to perform the Property or adaptations thereof on the spoken stage with actors appearing in person in the immediate presence of the audience, provided no broadcast, telecast, recording, photography or other reproduction of such performance is made. Owner agrees not to exercise, or permit any other person to exercise, said stage rights earlier than five (5) years after the first general release or telecast, if earlier, of the first Picture produced hereunder, or seven (7) years after the date of exercise of the Purchaser’s option to acquire the Property, whichever is earlier.

(c) Radio Rights: The right to broadcast the Property by sound (as distinguished from visually) by radio, subject however to Purchaser’s right at all times to: (i) exercise its radio rights provided in Section for advertising and exploitation purposes by living actors or otherwise, by the use of excerpts from or condensations of the Property or any Picture produced hereunder; and (ii) in any event to broadcast any Picture produced hereunder by radio. Owner agrees not to exercise, or permit any other person to exercise, Owner’s radio rights earlier than five (5) years after the first general release or initial telecast, if earlier, of the first Picture produced hereunder or seven (7) years after the date of exercise of Purchaser’s option to acquire the Property, whichever is earlier.

(d) Author-Written Sequel: A literary property (story, novel, screenplay, teleplay, drama or otherwise), whether written before or after the Property and whether written by Owner or by a successor in interest of Owner, using one or more of the characters appearing in the Property, participating in different events from those found in the Property, and whose plot is substantially different from that of the Property. Owner shall have the right to exercise publication rights (i.e., in book or magazine form) at any time.

(e) Inasmuch as the characters of the Property are included in the exclusive grant of motion picture rights to Purchaser, no sequel, prequel, remake rights or television series rights may be granted to such other person or company, but such characters from the Property which are contained in the author-written sequel may be used in a motion picture and remakes thereof whose plot is based substantially on the plot of the respective author-written sequel.

It is expressly agreed that Owner’s reserved rights under this Section 3 relate only to material written or authorized by Owner and not to any revision, adaptation, sequel, translation or dramatization written or authorized by Purchaser, even though the same may contain characters or other elements contained in the Property.

4. RIGHT TO MAKE CHANGES: Owner agrees that Purchaser shall have the unlimited right to vary, change, alter, modify, add to and/or delete from the Property, and to rearrange and/or transpose the Property and change the sequence thereof and the characters and descriptions of the characters contained in the Property, and to use a portion or portions of the Property or the characters, plots, or theme thereof in conjunction with any other literary, dramatic or other material of any kind. Owner hereby waives the benefits of any provisions of law known as the “droit moral” or any similar law in any country of the world and agrees not to permit or prosecute any action or lawsuit on the ground that any Picture or other version of the Property produced or exhibited by Purchaser, its assignees or licensees, in any way constitutes an infringement of any of the Owner’s “droit moral” or is in any way a defamation or mutilation of the Property or any part thereof or contains unauthorized variations, alterations, modifications, changes or translations.

5. DURATION AND EXTENT OF RIGHTS GRANTED: Purchaser shall enjoy, solely and exclusively, all the rights, licenses, privileges and property granted hereunder throughout the world, in perpetuity, as long as any rights in the Property are recognized in law or equity, except insofar as such period of perpetuity may be shortened due to any now existing or future copyright by Owner of the Property and/or any adaptations thereof, in which case Purchaser shall enjoy its sole and exclusive rights, licenses, privileges and property hereunder to the fullest extent permissible under and for the full duration of such copyright or copyrights, whether common law or statutory, and any and all renewals and/or extensions thereof, and shall thereafter enjoy all such rights, licenses, privileges and property non-exclusively in perpetuity throughout the world. The rights granted herein are in addition to and shall not be construed in derogation of any rights that Purchaser may have as a member of the public or pursuant to any other agreement. Unless otherwise to the contrary as set forth herein, all rights, licenses, privileges and property granted herein to Purchaser are irrevocable and not subject to rescission, restraint or injunction under any circumstances.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES: Owner represents and warrants to Purchaser that: (i) Owner is the sole author exclusive proprietor, throughout the world, of the rights in and to the Property; (ii) the Property is unpublished and has been applied for registration in the office of the United States Register of Copyrights, Washington D.C.; (iii) Owner has not assigned, licensed nor in any manner encumbered, diminished or impaired the rights granted herein; (iv) Owner has not committed nor omitted to perform any act by which these rights could or will be encumbered, diminished or impaired; (v) there is no outstanding claim or litigation pending or threatened against or involving the title, ownership and/or copyright in the Property, or in any part thereof, or in the rights which are covered by the within option; (vi) no attempt hereafter will be made to encumber, diminish or impair any of the rights herein granted and that all appropriate protections of such rights will continue to be maintained by Owner; (vii) no motion picture or dramatic version of the Property, or any part thereof, has been manufactured, produced, presented or authorized, no radio or television development, presentation or program based on the Property, or any part thereof, has been manufactured, produced, presented, broadcast or authorized, and no written or oral agreements or commitments whatsoever with respect to the Property or with respect to any right therein, have heretofore been made or entered into by or on behalf of Owner; (viii) Owner has not adapted the Property from any other literary, dramatic or other material of any kind, nature or description, nor, excepting for material which is in the public domain, has Owner copied or used in the Property the plot, scenes, sequence or story of any other literary, dramatic or other material; (ix) the Property does not infringe upon any common law or statutory rights in any other literary, dramatic, or other material; (x) insofar as Owner has knowledge, no material in the Property is libelous or violative of the right of privacy or publicity of any person and the full use of the rights in the Property which are covered by the within option would not violate any rights of any person, firm or corporation; and, (xi) the Property is not in the public domain in any country in the world where copyright protection is available.

7. INDEMNIFICATION: (a) Owner agrees to indemnify and hold Purchaser harmless against all judgments, liabilities, claims, damages, penalties, losses and expense (including reasonable attorney’s fees and costs) which may be suffered or assumed by or obtained against Purchaser by reason of any breach or failure of any warranty, representation or agreement herein made by Owner.

(b) Purchaser shall not be liable to Owner for damages of any kind in connection with any Picture it may produce, distribute or exhibit, or for damages for any breach of this Agreement (except failure to pay the money consideration herein specified) occurring or accruing before Purchaser has had reasonable notice and opportunity to adjust or correct such matters.

(c) All rights, licenses and privileges herein granted to Purchaser are irrevocable and not subject to rescission, restraint or injunction under any circumstances.

8. PROTECTION OF RIGHTS GRANTED: Owner hereby grants to Purchaser the free and unrestricted right, but at Purchaser’s own cost and expense, to institute in the name and on behalf of Owner, or Owner and Purchaser jointly, any and all suits and proceedings at law or in equity, to enjoin and restrain any infringements of the rights herein granted, and hereby assigns and sets over to Purchaser any and all causes of action relative to or based upon any such infringement, as well as any and all recoveries obtained thereon. Owner will not compromise, settle or in any manner interfere with such litigation if brought; and Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold Owner harmless from any costs, expenses, liabilities, claims or damages which Owner may suffer as a result of any such suit or proceeding.

9. COPYRIGHT: Regarding the copyright in and to the Property, Owner agrees that:
(a) Owner will prevent the Property and any arrangements, revisions, translations, novelizations, dramatizations or new versions thereof whether published or unpublished and whether copyrighted or uncopyrighted, from vesting in the public domain, and will take or cause to be taken any and all steps and proceedings required for copyright or similar protection in any and all countries in which the same may be published or offered for sale, insofar as such countries now or hereafter provide for copyright or similar protection. Any contract or agreement entered into by Owner authorizing or permitting the publication of the Property or any arrangements, revisions, translations, novelizations, dramatizations or new versions thereof in any country will contain appropriate provisions requiring such publisher to comply with all the provisions of this clause.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Property or any arrangement, revision, translation, novelization, dramatization or new version thereof is published in the United States or in any other country in which registration is required for copyright or similar protection in accordance with the laws and regulations of such country, and Owner further agrees to affix or cause to be affixed to each copy of the Property or any arrangement, revision, translation, novelization, dramatization or new version thereof which is published or offered for sale such notice or notices as may be required for copyright or similar protection in any country in which such publication or sale occurs.

(c) At least six (6) months prior to the expiration of any copyright required by this provision for the protection of the Property, Owner will renew (or cause to be renewed) such copyright, as permitted by applicable law, and any and all rights granted Purchaser hereunder shall be deemed granted to Purchaser throughout the full period of such renewed copyright, without the payment of any additional consideration, it being agreed that the consideration payable to Owner under this agreement shall be deemed to include full consideration for the grant of such rights to Purchaser throughout the period of such renewed copyright.

(d) If the Property, or any arrangement, revision, translation, novelization, dramatization or new version thereof, shall ever enter the public domain, then nothing contained in this Agreement shall impair any rights or privileges that the Purchaser might be entitled to as a member of the public; thus, the Purchaser may exercise any and all such rights and privileges as though this Agreement were not in existence. The rights granted herein by Owner to Purchaser, and the representations, warranties, undertakings and agreements made hereunder by Owner shall endure in perpetuity and shall be in addition to any rights, licenses, privileges or property of Purchaser referred to in this Agreement.

10. CREDIT: Purchaser shall have the right to publish, advertise, announce and use in any manner, paid advertisement or medium, the name, biography, photographs or likenesses of Owner in connection with any exercise by Purchaser of its rights hereunder, provided such use shall not constitute an endorsement of any product or service.

During the term of the Writer's Guild of America Minimum Basic Agreement ("WGA Agreement"), as it may be amended, the credit provisions of the WGA Agreement shall govern the determination of credits, if any, which the Purchaser shall accord the Owner hereunder in connection with photoplays. If the Purchaser or his assignee is not a party to said WGA Agreement, the provisions of the WGA Agreement shall no longer directly govern the determination of such credits, and when the WGA Agreement or any amendment is not effective as between the Purchaser or assignee and Writer's Guild of America, such credits shall be determined with reference to the Credit rules of the WGA, with any dispute arbitrated by the American Arbitration Association.

Owner

Purchaser
Subject to the foregoing, Owner shall be accorded a credit on a single card, or on a card shared with the director credit for the Picture, on screen and in all paid ads controlled by Purchaser and in which any other writer is accorded credit, as follows:

“Written By: Andrew Kenneth Gay”

Purchaser shall determine, in its sole discretion, the manner, form, size, style, nature and placement of any credit given to Owner. Such credit shall be provided in paid advertising, subject to any distributor’s and customary exclusions. No casual or inadvertent failure to comply with any of the provisions of this clause shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement by the Purchaser. Owner hereby expressly acknowledges that in the event of a failure or omission constituting a breach of the provisions of this Paragraph, the damage (if any) caused Owner thereby is not irreparable or sufficient to entitle Owner to injunctive or other equitable relief. Consequently, Owner’s rights and remedies in the event of such breach shall be limited to the right to recover damages in an action at law, and Owner shall have no right in such event to rescind this Agreement or any of the rights assigned to Purchaser hereunder or to enjoin or restrain the distribution or exhibition of the Picture.

11. RIGHT OF FIRST NEGOTIATION: Purchaser shall have a right of first negotiation on all Reserved Rights. The term “Right of First Negotiation” means that if, after the expiration of an applicable time limitation, Owner desires to dispose of or exercise a particular right reserved to Owner herein (“Reserved Right”), whether directly or indirectly, then Owner shall notify Purchaser in writing and immediately negotiate in good faith with Purchaser regarding such Reserved Right. If, after the expiration of thirty (30) days following the receipt of such notice, no agreement has been reached, then Owner may negotiate with third parties regarding such Reserved Right subject to Section 12.

12. RIGHT OF LAST REFUSAL: The Purchaser shall have a right of last refusal on all Reserved Rights. The term “Right of Last Refusal” means that if Purchaser and Owner fail to reach an agreement pursuant to Purchaser’s right of first negotiation, and Owner makes and/or receives any bona fide offer to license, lease and/or purchase the particular Reserved Right or any interest therein (“Third Party Offer”), and if the proposed purchase price and other material terms of a Third Party Offer are no more favorable to Owner than the terms which were acceptable to Purchaser during the first negotiation period, Owner shall notify Purchaser, by certified mail or telegram, if Owner proposes to accept such Third Party Offer, the name of the offerer, the proposed purchase price, and other terms of such Third Party Offer. During the period of thirty (30) days after Purchaser’s receipt of such notice, Purchaser shall have the exclusive option to license, lease and/or purchase, as the case may be, the particular Reserved Right or interest referred to in such Third Party Offer, at the same purchase price and upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in such notice. If Purchaser elects to exercise thereof by certified mail or telegram within such thirty (30) day period, failing which Owner shall be free to accept such Third Party Offer; provided that if any such proposed license, lease and/or sale is consummated with a third party within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the aforesaid thirty (30) day period, Purchaser’s Right of Last Refusal shall revive and shall apply to each and every further offer or offers at any time received by Owner relating to the particular Reserved Right or any interest therein; provided, further, that Purchaser’s option shall continue in full force and effect, upon all of the terms and conditions of this paragraph, so long as Owner retains any rights, title or interests in or to the particular Reserved Right. Purchaser’s Right of Last Refusal shall inure to the benefit of Purchaser, its successors and assigns, and shall bind Owner and Owner’s heirs, successors and assigns.

13. NO OBLIGATION TO PRODUCE: Nothing herein shall be construed to obligate Purchaser to produce, distribute, release, perform or exhibit any motion picture, television, theatrical or other production based upon, adapted from or suggested by the Property, in whole or in part, or otherwise to exercise, exploit or make any use of any rights, licenses, privileges or property granted herein to Purchaser.

14. EXHIBITS: Concurrently with the execution of this agreement Owner agrees to and has executed Exhibit “A” (Assignment of Copyright) and Exhibit “B” (Certificate of Authorship), which shall be deemed to be effective and these Exhibits shall constitute valid and binding agreements and assignment effective as of the date of this Agreement.

15. REVERSION: The Parties agree that if the Purchaser does not produce any motion picture or television production based upon the Property within Fifteen (15) months from the date of this Agreement, then this Agreement shall automatically terminate and all rights in and to the Property shall immediately revert to the Owner, unless the Parties mutually agree in writing to extend this reversion right at any time prior to such date of reversion. The Owner shall retain all sums therefore paid. Purchaser shall immediately execute and deliver to Owner any assignments and documents required to effectuate the Reversion. If Purchaser shall fail or be unable to do so, Purchaser hereby grants owner a limited power of attorney coupled with an interest to execute and deliver such documents as Purchaser’s attorney-in-fact.

16. ASSIGNMENT: Purchaser may assign and transfer this Agreement or all or any part of its rights hereunder to any person, firm or corporation without limitation, and this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their successors, representatives and assigns forever.

17. NO PUBLICITY: Owner will not, without Purchaser’s prior written consent in each instance, issue or authorize the issuance or publication of any news story or publicity relating to: (i) this Agreement, (ii) the subject matter or terms hereof, or to any use by Purchaser, its successors, licensees and assigns, and (iii) any of the rights granted Purchaser hereunder.

18. AGENT COMMISSIONS: Purchaser shall not be liable for any compensation or fee to any agent of Owner in connection with this Agreement.

19. ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION: Owner agrees to execute and procure any other and further instruments necessary to transfer, convey, assign and copyright all rights in the Property granted herein by Owner to Purchaser in any country throughout the world. If it shall be necessary under the laws of any country that copyright registration be acquired in the name of Owner, Purchaser is hereby authorized by Owner to apply for said copyright registration thereof; and, in such event, Owner shall and does hereby assign and transfer the same unto Purchaser, subject to the rights in the Property reserved hereunder by Owner. Owner further agrees, upon request, to duly execute, acknowledge, procure and deliver to Purchaser such short form assignments as may be requested by Purchaser for the purpose of copyright recordation in any country, or otherwise. If Owner shall fail to so execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, the assignments or other instruments herein referred to, Purchaser is hereby irrevocably granted the limited power of attorney coupled with an interest to execute such assignments and instruments in the name of Owner and as Owner’s attorney-in-fact.

20. NOTICES: Unless otherwise to the contrary herein, all communications and notices required or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made when delivered by hand, or three (3) Business Days after being sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or on the next Business Day when sent by overnight courier or when transmitted by means of telecopy or other wire transmission (with request for assurance of receipt in a manner typical with respect to communications of that type and followed promptly with the original thereof) in each case to the address of each Party as set forth hereinabove, or such other address as designated by either Party in writing.

21. RELATIONSHIP: This Agreement between the Parties does not constitute a joint venture or partnership of any kind. All rights, remedies, licenses, undertakings, obligations, covenants, privileges and other property granted herein shall be cumulative, and Purchaser may exercise or use any of them separately or in conjunction with any one or more of the others.

22. WAIVER: A waiver by either Party of any term or condition of this Agreement in any instance shall not be deemed or construed to be a waiver of such term or condition for the future, or any subsequent breach thereof.

23. SEVERABILITY: If any provision of this Agreement as applied to either Party or any circumstances shall be adjudged by a court to be void and unenforceable, such shall in no way affect any other provision of this Agreement, the application of such provision in any other circumstance, or the validity or enforceability of this Agreement.

24. COUNTERPARTS: This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same document. For purposes of executing this Agreement, a document signed and transmitted by facsimile machine or telecopier shall be treated as an original document. The signature of any Party thereon shall be considered as an original signature and the document transmitted shall be considered to have the same binding effect as if it were the signed original.

25. GOVERNING LAW: This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the domestic laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Florida or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Florida.

26. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: The parties agree that any controversy, dispute or claim arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this Agreement, or the making or interpretation thereof, or the performance, enforcement, breach, termination or validity of any of the terms hereof, shall first be submitted to non-binding mediation and, if not resolved at mediation, shall thereafter be determined and settled by final, binding, and non-appealable arbitration pursuant to the rules and procedures of Independent Film & Television Alliance ("IFTA"), as said rules may be amended from time to time with rights of discovery if requested by the arbitrator. Such rules and procedures are incorporated and made a part of this Agreement by reference. If IFTA shall refuse to accept jurisdiction of such dispute, then the Parties agree to arbitrate such matter before and in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect before a single arbitrator, mutually approved by both Parties and familiar with entertainment law. The venue for such mediation and arbitration (whether state of federal) shall be in Orlando, Orange County, Florida. The Parties further agree that the arbitrator is directed to award to the prevailing party reasonable attorneys’ fees, costs and disbursements, including reimbursement for the cost of witnesses, travel and subsistence during the arbitration and hearings. Any award rendered thereon may be entered in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction. Under no circumstances, and at no time during this Agreement or after the termination hereof, shall Owner be entitled to any special or equitable relief of any kind whatsoever, including that of injunctive relief. The Parties agree to accept service of process in accordance with the IFTA Rules. Under no circumstances, and at no time during this Agreement or after the termination hereof, shall Owner be entitled to any special or equitable relief of any kind whatsoever, including that of injunctive relief.

27. CONSTRUCTION: The Parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Any reference to any federal, state, local, or foreign statute or law shall be deemed also to refer to all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, unless the context requires otherwise.

28. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: The Parties agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including all exhibits hereto, constitute the entire agreement between the Parties and supersede any prior understandings, agreements, or representations by or between the Parties, written or oral, to the extent they related in any way to the subject matter hereof. If Contractor is entitled to deferred compensation under the terms of this agreement then, subject to the production and sale of the Film, and subject to Contractor’s performance of all obligations and services specified herein, Contractor shall be entitled to receive Contractor’s deferred compensation set forth hereinabove, which shall be deferred and paid to Contractor pro rata with all similar deferrals of compensation, and payable only after one hundred ten percent (110%) of investor cash recoupment, but prior to the payment of owner percentage participation of Production Company’s Gross Equity.

5. Contractor shall be solely responsible for obtaining Contractor’s own liability and collision insurance and deductibles on Contractor’s personal vehicle when used in conjunction with the production of the Film. Contractor further agrees that if Contractor is requested by Production Company to drive or ride in a production vehicle that Contractor will not use any drugs, artificial stimulants, non-prescription drugs or alcohol, at any time, while driving or riding in production vehicle. Contractor agrees to notify Production Company if at anytime Contractor is too fatigued or tired to safely operate a production vehicle or any piece of production equipment. Contractor’s failure to comply with the terms hereof will result in Contractor’s immediate termination and dismissal. Failure to do any of the foregoing, or any violation of this Paragraph, will subject Contractor to personal liability, and Production Company shall not be responsible or liable to Contractor in any manner whatsoever. Should Production Company be held responsible and liable for any damages as a result of Contractor’s breach of this Paragraph, Contractor agrees to indemnify Production Company in accordance with this agreement.

6. Contractor hereby acknowledges and agrees that this agreement and any other information or materials accessed by Contractor concerning the Film while performing services on behalf of Production Company are strictly confidential and proprietary to Production Company, and as such Contractor shall not disclose (verbally or in writing) such details, materials or information to any third party without the prior written consent of Production Company. Any breach by Contractor of this confidentiality agreement shall be deemed a material breach of this agreement and Production Company shall be entitled to any and all legal recourse, whether in an action at law for damages or in equity, in order to enforce this confidentiality agreement. This confidentiality provision shall survive and remain in full force and effect after the termination of this agreement, after production has been completed on the Film, and for the commercial life of the Film.

7. Contractor acknowledges and confirms that Contractor does not have or claim any rights in and to the Picture, and Production Company shall own, control and exploit, in its sole discretion, in perpetuity throughout the universe, all rights in and to the results and proceeds of Contractor’s services in connection with the Film, including without limitation all ancillary and subsidiary rights thereto, and to all materials and ideas of any kind, nature, or description contributed by Contractor to the Film (collectively “Material”), in any and all media and technical formats of any and every nature whatsoever, whether new known or hereafter devised. Without limiting the foregoing, Production Company shall be the sole owner of all the results and proceeds of all services performed by Contractor hereunder, and all rights in and to the Material are hereby granted to Production Company for all purposes throughout the universe in perpetuity. Production Company shall be the copyright author and owner of, in and to, all results and proceeds of Contractor’s services herein which shall be deemed a “work-made-for-hire” for Production Company pursuant to the provisions of the Copyright Act, and all services and Material delivered hereunder shall be registered for Copyright in the name of Production Company or its designee as author and copyright owner. In accordance with Production Company’s ownership of the rights granted herein, Production Company shall be free to commercially exploit, exhibit and distribute the Material, and all related materials, in any and all markets and forms of media, whether now known or hereafter devised, throughout the universe in perpetuity. If under applicable law the services and/or Material is not a “work-made-for-hire”, and not effective to place authorship and ownership of the services and/or Material and all rights therein in Production Company, then to the fullest extent allowable and for the full term of protection otherwise accorded to Contractor under such applicable law, Contractor hereby automatically assigns and transfers to Production Company any and all right, title and interest of Contractor in and to the services and/or Material, and any other works now or hereafter created containing the material, or any derivative thereof. Contractor hereby expressly waives and relinquishes any moral rights or “droit moral” in and to any Material created by or contributed to the Film by Contractor.

8. Production Company agrees to reimburse Contractor only for Production Company prior approved expenses (in writing) in connection with the Picture that have been paid out directly by Contractor, which are properly accounted for, upon proof and verification of valid receipts. Production Company shall not provide Contractor with any travel or accommodation expenses or reimbursements, or per diem, during the Term of this agreement. At the discretion of Production Company, transportation may be provided for other set locations. If Contractor normally drives to set, then all fuel and other costs will be the sole responsibility of the Contractor unless expressly stated otherwise in writing.

9. Contractor acknowledges that Contractor's services hereunder are of special, unique, unusual, extraordinary and intellectual character, giving them a peculiar value, the loss of which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages in an action at law, and in the event of the breach or threatened breach of this agreement by Contractor, and without limiting any other rights or remedies, Production Company shall be entitled to any equitable relief by way of injunction or otherwise. Under no circumstances, and at no time during this agreement or after the termination hereof, shall Contractor be entitled to any special or equitable relief of any kind whatsoever, including that of injunctive relief, which would prevent Production Company's, or its licensees and assigns, right to commercially exploit, distribute, exhibit, or market the Film.

10. The parties agree that any controversy, dispute or claim arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this agreement, or the making or interpretation thereof, or the performance, enforcement, breach, termination or validity of any of the terms hereof, shall first be submitted to non-binding mediation and, if not resolved at mediation, shall thereafter be determined and settled by final, binding, and non-appellate arbitration pursuant to the rules and procedures of Independent Film & Television Alliance ("IFTA"), as said rules may be amended from time to time with rights of discovery if requested by the arbitrator. Such rules and procedures are incorporated and made a part of this agreement by reference. If IFTA shall refuse to accept jurisdiction of such dispute, then the Parties agree to arbitrate such matter before and in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect before a single arbitrator, mutually agreed upon by both Parties and familiar with entertainment law. The venue for such mediation and arbitration (whether state or federal) shall be in Orlando, Orange County, Florida. The Parties further agree that the arbitrator is directed to award to the prevailing party reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements, including reimbursement for the cost of witnesses, travel and subsistence during the arbitration and hearings. Any award rendered thereon may be entered in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction. The Parties agree to accept service of process in accordance with the IFTA Rules.

11. Contractor is obligated to comply with the injury and illness prevention procedures per OSHA's guidelines. Production Company shall have the customary rights of suspension and termination by reason of any event beyond Production Company's control which materially hampers production of the Film including but not limited to force majeure, incapacity of Contractor's director, director of photography, or any principal cast or crew member. Any criminal or civil acts of sexual harassment and/or the use of alcohol, artificial stimulants, or non-prescription drugs during your services hereunder, or while in Production Company's vehicles, will result in Contractor's immediate dismissal without any further compensation or credit of any kind whatsoever to Contractor. Without limiting the foregoing, Production Company reserves the right to discharge you at any time, subject only to the obligation to pay the balance of any compensation due to you up through your date of termination and nothing thereafter (Production Company may also withhold credit in its sole discretion). Should Production Company be held responsible and liable for any damages as a result of Contractor's breach of this Paragraph, Contractor agrees to indemnify Production Company in accordance with this agreement.

12. Contractor is entering into this agreement as an independent contractor. Contractor has no right to bind the Production Company to any agreement. Production Company shall not be liable for any withholding tax, social security taxes, worker's compensation, insurance or other expenses or liabilities attributable to an employee/employer relationship. Contractor shall not be considered as having an employee status or as being entitled to participate in any plans, arrangements or distributions by Production Company, or its successors and assigns, pertaining to or in connection with any pension, stock, membership, bonus, profit sharing or similar benefits. In the event that the Internal Revenue Service should determine that Contractor is, according to I.R.S. guidelines, an employee subject to withholding and social security contributions, Contractor agrees that all payments to Performer are gross payments, and Contractor is responsible for all income taxes, withholdings, medicare and social security payments thereon.

13. If Contractor appears on camera in the Film, or in any other Production Company production or other audiovisual program, including without limitation "The Making Of", behind-the-scenes, promotional and/or documentary films related to this Film, or in any still photograph to be utilized by Production Company, Contractor grants Production Company the perpetual and exclusive right to use, and to grant others the right to use, Contractor's actual or simulated likeness, photograph, name, voice, personal characteristics and other personal identification in, and in connection with, the Film and/or any and all other Production Company productions, and for the advertisement, promotion, publicity, distribution, exhibition and/or other exploitation thereof, including all ancillary and subsidiary rights therein, in any and all languages, formats and media, now known or hereafter devised, throughout the universe in perpetuity, without any further compensation to Contractor except as provided for herein.
14. Nothing herein shall be construed to obligate Production Company to produce, distribute, release, perform or exhibit any motion picture, television, theatrical or other production based upon, adapted from or suggested by the Contractor or from his or her services, in whole or in part, or otherwise to exercise, exploit or make any use of any rights, licenses, privileges or property granted herein to Production Company.

15. Production Company shall have the right to assign this agreement, in whole or in part, to any third party in its sole discretion. Contractor shall not assign this agreement, or any part hereof, or any or all of Contractor's rights to payment.

16. Production Company shall have the customary rights of suspension and termination by reason of any event beyond Production Company's control that materially hampers and/or delays production of the Film including, but not limited to, force majeure, incapacity of Contractor, director, director of photography, or any principal cast member.

17. Contractor shall defend, indemnify, make good, save and hold Production Company, its shareholders, directors, managers, members, officers, agents, contractors, successors, licensees and assigns harmless from and against any and all liabilities, damages, charges, causes of actions, claims, costs, charges, attorney fees, recoveries, actions, judgments, penalties, expenses and other losses whatsoever, which may be obtained against, imposed upon, or suffered by Production Company and its shareholders, directors, officers, agents, contractors, successors, licensees and assigns arising from a breach of any of Contractor's representations, warranties, and agreements hereunder, or from Contractor's omissions or violations of any of the terms of this agreement.

18. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes, replaces, and terminates all prior contracts and agreements, whether verbal or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Neither this agreement nor any of its terms may be altered, amended, modified, canceled or waived other than by written instrument executed by each party hereto. This agreement shall bind, and inure to, the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, administrators, executors, and conservators. A waiver of any term or condition of this agreement will not be deemed to be, and may not be construed as, a waiver of any other term or condition. If any provision of this agreement is adjudicated to be unenforceable or invalid for any reason, that part will be severed from the balance of this agreement, and the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this agreement will in no way be affected or impaired unless the severed portion was essential to the intended purpose of this agreement. The laws of the State of Florida applicable to contracts signed and to be fully performed within the State of Florida shall apply to this agreement.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. Production Company engages Performer as an actor in the role (set forth hereinafter) in the Film, and shall cause Performer to render all services customarily rendered by actors in features-length motion pictures at such times and places designated by Production Company and in full compliance with Production Company’s instructions in all matters. Without limiting the foregoing, Performer’s services shall be in accordance with the following:

   (a) Start Date: Principal Photography of the Film shall commence on or about the Start Date set forth hereinafter and continue until the completion of principal photography or until recording of said role. The Start Date shall be automatically extended without notice for a period equal to the duration of any default, disability and/or force majeure (as such terms are defined below and regardless of whether Performer’s services are suspended therefore), or due to any location requirements, director and/or cast unavailability, weather conditions, and/or other similar contingencies.

   (b) Exclusivity: Performer’s services hereunder shall be on a first-priority, exclusive basis for Production Company during the production of the Film; and on a non-exclusive, but on a first-priority basis for Production Company during the Post-Production Period.

   (c) Retakes and Other Additional Services: During and after the Term hereof, and at Performer’s professional availability, Performer shall render any such additional services Production Company may desire in producing retakes, added scenes, transparencies, close-ups, sound track (including ADR, dubbing and looping), process shots, trick shots and trailers for changes in and foreign versions of the Film. Such additional services shall be performed by Performer without any additional compensation. Without limiting the foregoing, at Production Company’s sole discretion, Production Company may provide for and pay Performer’s reasonable travel, accommodation and food expenses should Production Company require Performer’s additional services. Production Company shall not be responsible to pay for any out-of-pocket expenses by Performer, unless Performer acquires Production Company’s prior written consent.

(d) Nights, Weekends, Holidays, Work Time: No increased or additional compensation shall accrue or be payable to Performer for services rendered by Performer at night or on weekends or holidays, or after the expiration of any number of hours of service in any period.

2. As full and complete consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, for all services to be rendered by Performer and for all of the rights granted by Performer to Production Company hereunder, and on condition that Performer is not in default of the terms hereunder, Production Company agrees to pay Performer, and Performer agrees to accept the following:

(a) Fixed Compensation: Performer acknowledges receipt and agrees to the fixed compensation total sum set forth hereinabove as payment for his or her services under this Agreement, which may be paid up front or over the course of the production schedule for the Film.

(b) Deferred Compensation: If Performer is entitled to deferred compensation under the terms of this agreement, then conditioned upon the production and sale of the Film, and subject to Performer’s performance of all obligations and services specified herein, Performer shall be entitled to receive Performer’s deferred compensation set forth hereinabove, which shall be deferred and paid to Performer pro rata with all similar deferments of compensation, and payable only after one hundred ten percent (110%) of investor cash recoupment, but prior to the payment of owner percentage participation of Production Company’s Gross Equity.

3. Screen credit shall be at Production Company’s sole discretion and conditioned upon Performer performing all services required in connection with the Film. All matters regarding prominence, placement, form, size, style, and color of credit shall be in Production Company’s sole discretion. Performer may be granted an on screen credit in connection with the Film, and in any paid advertising in connection therewith where such credit is customarily given (subject to the standard exceptions and exclusions of the distributor of the Picture). No casual or inadvertent failure to comply with the provisions of this paragraph shall constitute a breach of this agreement, or give rise to any equitable relief, whosoever. Performer acknowledges that in no event shall Performer be entitled by reason of any such breach to restrain and/or enjoin the production, exhibition, distribution, advertising, exploitation or marketing of the Film.

4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary as provided herein, Production Company shall not provide Performer with any travel or accommodation expenses or reimbursements, or per diem, during the Term of this agreement. At the discretion of Production Company, transportation may be provided for other set locations. If Performer normally drives to set, then all fuel and other costs will be the sole responsibility of the Performer unless expressly stated otherwise in writing.

5. Production Company shall have the exclusive, perpetual right to use, and to grant others the right to use, of Performer’s name, sobriquet, photograph, likeness, voice, caricature, personal characteristics and other personal identification, and shall have the right to simulate Performer’s name, sobriquet, photograph, likeness, voice, caricature, personal characteristics and other personal identification and/or signature and appearance (collectively referred to herein as “name and likeness”) in and in connection with the Film, including without limitation “The Making of”, behind-the-scenes, promotional and/or documentary films related to this Film, and all ancillary and subsidiary rights therein, in any and all languages, and in the advertising, publicizing, exhibition, and/or other exploitation thereof, in any manner and by any means now known or hereafter devised, throughout the universe in perpetuity, and in connection with commercial advertising and publicity tie-ups thereof, without any other additional compensation to Performer. Production Company is also granted the further exclusive right and license, but only in connection with the role portrayed by Performer in the film, to use, and to grant others the right to use, of Performer’s name and likeness in and in connection with any merchandising and/or publishing undertakings, without any other additional compensation to Performer.
6. At Production Company's request, Performer shall, subject to his or her professional availability, participate in any publicity events (publicity junket, press conferences, etc.) whether in Orlando, Florida, or elsewhere, on behalf of the Film without any other additional compensation to Performer. It shall be within Production Company's sole discretion whether or not to pay for, or reimburse, Performer for all reasonable travel, accommodation, and meal expenses for any such publicity event that Production Company authorizes Performer to attend with Production Company's prior written consent. Performer shall not engage in any publicity event or interview, in connection with or on behalf of the Film, without the prior written approval of Production Company.

7. Performer grants, and Production Company shall have, the perpetual and universal right to photograph and rephotograph Performer (still and moving) and to record and re-record, double and dub Performer's voice and performances, by any methods or means now known or hereafter devised in the future, and to use and authorize others to use Performer's name, voice and likeness for and in connection with the Film, the soundtrack (including a soundtrack album), trailers, and documentary and/or "making of" Films, and all advertising (including without limitation Performer's name and likeness on sleeves, jackets and other packaging for soundtrack albums, video cassettes, videodiscs, written publications and the like), merchandising, commercial tie-ups, publicity, and other means of exploitation of any and all rights pertaining to the Film including all ancillary and subsidiary rights therein and any element thereof. Production Company shall own all rights in and to the results and proceeds of Performer's services hereunder, including the copyrights thereof, and as such owner, Production Company shall have the right (among all other rights of ownership) throughout the universe in perpetuity: (i) to include such results and proceeds in the Film and in advertising and publicity relating to the Film, (ii) to reproduce such results and proceeds by any present or future means, (iii) to combine such results and proceeds with photographs and recordings made by others for use in the Film, (iv) to exhibit and perform such results and proceeds in theaters, on the radio and television, and in or by any other present or future media, for profit and otherwise, and for commercial or non-commercial purposes and purposes of trade, and (v) to license and assign Production Company's rights to any other person or other third party company. Without any way limiting the foregoing, the results and proceeds of Performer's services hereunder include, without limitation, any and all material, words, likeness, writings, ideas, "gags," dialogue, melody and lyrics composed, submitted or interpolated by Performer in connection with the preparation or production of the Film (hereinafter referred to as "material"). All said material, the copyrights therein, and all renewals, extensions or reversion or copyright law or hereafter provided, shall automatically become the property of Production Company, which shall be deemed the author and owner thereof. It being agreed and acknowledged that all of the results and proceeds of Performer's services hereunder are a specially ordered and commissioned "work made for hire" within the meaning of the U.S. Copyright Act. If under any applicable law the services and/or material is not a "work-made-for-hire", and not effective to place authorship and ownership of the services and/or material and all rights therein in Production Company, then to the fullest extent allowable and for the full term of protection otherwise accorded to Performer under such applicable law, Performer hereby automatically assigns and transfers to Production Company any and all right, title and interest of Performer in and to the services and/or material, and any other works now or hereafter created containing the material, or any derivative thereof. Performer hereby expressly waives and relinquishes any moral rights or "droit moral" in and to any services and/or material created by or contributed to the Film by Performer including all of Performer's performance.

8. Performer is entering into this agreement as an independent contractor. Production Company shall not be liable for any withholding tax, social security tax, worker's compensation, insurance or other expenses or liabilities attributable to an employer/employee relationship. Performer shall not be considered as having an employee status or as being entitled to participate in any plans, arrangements or distributions by Production Company, or its successors and assigns, pertaining to or in connection with any pension, stock, membership, bonus, profit sharing or similar benefits. In the event that the Internal Revenue Service should determine that Performer is, according to I.R.S. guidelines, an employee subject to withholding and social security contributions, Performer agrees that all payments to Performer are gross payments, and Performer is responsible for all income taxes, withholdings, medicare and social security payments thereon.

9. Performer agrees to furnish all modern wardrobe and wearing apparel reasonably necessary for the portrayal of said role; it being agreed, however, that should so-called "character" or "period" costumes be required, the Production Company shall supply the same.

10. Performer is obligated to comply with the injury and illness prevention procedures per OSHA's guidelines. Production Company shall have the customary rights of suspension and termination by reason of any event beyond Production Company's control which materially hampers production of the Film including but not limited to force majeure, or incapacity of Performer, director, director of photography, or any principal cast or crew member. Any criminal or civil acts of sexual harassment and/or the use of alcohol, artificial stimulants, or non-prescription drugs during your services hereunder, or while in Production Company’s vehicles, will result in Performer’s immediate dismissal without any further compensation or credit of any kind whatsoever to Performer. Without limiting the foregoing, Production Company reserves the right to discharge you at any time, subject only to the obligation to pay the balance of any compensation due to you up through your date of termination and nothing thereafter (Production Company may also withhold credit in its sole discretion). Should Production Company be held responsible and liable for any damages as a result of Contractor’s breach of this Paragraph, Performer agrees to indemnify Production Company in accordance with this agreement.

11. Performer warrants that to the best of Performer’s knowledge Performer is in good health and has no condition which would prevent Production Company from obtaining life, health, accident, cast or other insurance covering Performer at premium rates normal to Performer’s age and sex, without any unusual exclusion or limitation of liability on the part of the insurer.

12. All payments to Performer hereunder shall be deemed to be equitable and inclusive remuneration for all services rendered by Performer in connection with the Film and to be paid by way of a complete buy-out of all rights granted to Production Company hereunder and, except as otherwise provided herein, no further sums shall be payable to Performer by Production Company by reason of the exploitation of the Film and all results and proceeds of Performer’s services hereunder in any and all media now known or hereafter devised in the future, throughout the universe, in perpetuity. Nothing herein contained shall in any way obligate the Production Company to use Performer’s services in the Film, or to produce, exhibit, advertise, or distribute the Film, provided that upon condition that Performer shall fully perform all of the terms and conditions hereof, nothing contained in this paragraph shall relieve the Production Company from its obligation to pay Performer the amount of compensation as stated herein, and Production Company’s obligation to Performer hereunder shall be deemed fully performed by payment to Performer of said amount.

13. Performer shall be solely responsible for obtaining Performer’s own liability and collision insurance and deductibles on Performer’s personal vehicle when used in conjunction with the production of the Film. Performer further agrees that if Performer is requested by Production Company to drive or ride in a production vehicle that Performer will not use any drugs, artificial stimulants, non-prescription drugs or alcohol, at any time, while driving or riding in production vehicle. Performer agrees to notify Production Company if at anytime Performer is too fatigued or tired to safely operate a production vehicle or any piece of production equipment. Performer’s failure to comply with the terms hereof will result in Performer’s immediate termination and dismissal. Failure to do any of the forgoing, or any violation of this Paragraph, will subject Performer to personal liability, and Production Company shall not be responsible or liable to Performer in any manner whatsoever. Should Production Company be held responsible and liable for any damages as a result of Performer’s breach of this Paragraph, Performer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Production Company in accordance with this agreement.

14. Performer acknowledges that Performer’s services hereunder are of special, unique, unusual, extraordinary and intellectual character, giving them a peculiar value, the loss of which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages in an action at law, and in the event of the breach or threatened breach of this agreement by Performer, and without limiting any other rights or remedies, Production Company shall be entitled to any equitable relief by way of injunction or otherwise. Under no circumstances, and at no time during this agreement or after the termination hereof, shall Performer be entitled to any special or equitable relief of any kind whatsoever, including that of injunctive relief, which would prevent Production Company’s, or its licensees and assignees, right to commercially exploit, distribute, exhibit, or market the Film.

15. Performer hereby acknowledges and agrees that this agreement and any other information or materials accessed by Performer concerning the Film while performing services on behalf of Production Company are strictly confidential and proprietary to Production Company, and as such Performer shall not disclose (verbally or in writing) such details, materials or information to any third party without the prior written consent of Production Company. Any breach by Performer of this confidentiality agreement shall be deemed a material breach of this agreement and Production Company shall be entitled to any and all legal recourses, whether in an action at law for damages or in equity, in order to enforce this confidentiality agreement. This confidentiality provision shall survive and remain in full force and effect after the termination of this agreement, after production has been completed on the Film, and for the commercial life of the Film.
16. The parties agree that any controversy, dispute or claim arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this agreement, or the making or interpretation thereof, or the performance, enforcement, breach, termination or validity of any of the terms hereof, shall first be submitted to non-binding mediation and, if not resolved at mediation, shall thereafter be determined and settled by final, binding, and non-appellable arbitration pursuant to the rules and procedures of Independent Film & Television Alliance ("IFTA"), as said rules may be amended from time to time with rights of discovery if requested by the arbitrator. Such rules and procedures are incorporated and made a part of this agreement by reference. If IFTA shall refuse to accept jurisdiction of such dispute, then the Parties agree to arbitrate such matter before and in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect before a single arbitrator, mutually approved by both Parties and familiar with entertainment law. The venue for such mediation and arbitration (whether state of federal) shall be in Orlando, Orange County, Florida. The Parties further agree that the arbitrator is directed to award to the prevailing party reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements, including reimbursement for the cost of witnesses, travel and subsistence during the arbitration and hearings. Any award rendered thereon may be entered in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction. The Parties agree to accept service of process in accordance with the IFTA Rules.

17. Production Company shall have the right to assign this agreement and/or lend Performer's services to any third party. Performer shall not assign this agreement, or any part hereof, or any or all of Performer's rights to payment.

18. Production Company shall have the customary rights of suspension and termination by reason of any event beyond Production Company's control that materially hampers and/or delays production of the Film including, but not limited to, force majeure, incapacity of Performer, director, director of photography, or any principal cast member.

19. Performer shall defend, indemnify, make good, save and hold Production Company, its shareholders, directors, managers, members, officers, agents, employees, successors, licensees and assigns harmless from and against any and all liabilities, damages, charges, causes of actions, claims, costs, charges, attorney fees, recoveries, actions, judgments, penalties, expenses and other losses whatsoever, which may be obtained against, imposed upon, or suffered by Production Company and its shareholders, directors, managers, members, officers, agents, employees, successors, licensees and assigns arising from a breach of any of Performer's representations, warranties, and agreements hereunder, or from Performer's omissions or violations of any of the terms of this agreement.

20. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes, replaces, and terminates all prior contracts and agreements, whether verbal or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Neither this agreement nor any of its terms may be altered, amended, modified, canceled or waived other than by written instrument executed by each party hereto. This agreement shall bind, and inure to, the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, administrators, executors, and conservators. A waiver of any term or condition of this agreement will not be deemed to be, and may not be construed as, a waiver of any other term or condition. If any provision of this agreement is adjudicated to be unenforceable or invalid for any reason, that part will be severed from the balance of this agreement, and the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this agreement will in no way be affected or impaired unless the severed portion was essential to the intended purpose of this agreement. The laws of the State of Florida applicable to contracts signed and to be fully performed within the State of Florida shall apply to this agreement.

LOCATION AGREEMENT

Date:

Location of real property ("Premises"): ____________________________

Description of Premises: Will and Rachel’s Home: Patio, Living Room, Dining Room, Kitchen, Spare Rooms

Dates of Use ("Dates"): "A BEAUTIFUL BELLY" is tentatively scheduled to begin principal photography on June 23rd, 2009 and wrap on July 17th, 2009. Use of this location is scheduled to tentatively occur on June 30th, July 1st, and July 2nd, but dates are subject to change due to production scheduling conflicts. All conflicts and deviations from these tentative shooting dates will be reflected in writing and agreed upon by both the Production and the Property Owner.

1. For good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Licensor, whose name and address are set forth below, hereby grants to C.F.F. MEDIA, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Producer" or "Licensor"), and its agents, licensees, designers, successors, assigns, employees, independent contractors, suppliers and other persons connected with the feature-length motion picture currently entitled "A BEAUTIFUL BELLY" ("Picture"), the following irrevocable rights with respect to the Premises:

   a. To enter and remain upon the Premises with personnel, equipment and sets for the sole and express purpose of recording and photographing by motion picture, film, videotape, and still photography and to make sound recordings live or on tape, film or by any other process of the Premises (including, without limitation, exterior and interior of buildings) ("Buildings"), other structures ("Structures"), signs, furniture, and pictures contained in or on such Buildings and/ or Structures which are on or in the Premises, and to photograph and record any animals on the Premises, on the Dates indicated above, provided however, that if weather conditions or production exigencies make the Dates impractical, the Dates may be postponed to another mutually acceptable date. Such permission shall continue until the completion of all scenes and work required. At any time within six (6) months from the date Producer completes its use of the Premises, Producer may, on not less than five (5) days prior written notice to Licensor, re-enter and use the Premises for such periods as may be reasonably necessary to photograph re-takes, added scenes, etc. derived by Producer upon the same terms and conditions contained in this agreement.

   b. To use the name of the Premises and/or the name of any Buildings or Structures, including all signs (and the names, trademarks, logos, and velour contained on such signs) located on the Premises, in connection with Producer’s use of the recordings, photographs, film or videotape made pursuant to this agreement. Such right shall include the right to refer to the Premises by its correct name or any fictitious name and the right to attribute both real and fictitious events as occurring on the Premises and to fictionalize the Premises itself.

   c. To construct and photograph a set duplicating all or part of the Premises, and Buildings or Structures (including, but not limited to, any signs or any interior of Buildings and Structures).

   d. To change the location of and/or replace furnishings in Buildings located on the Premises for the purpose of recording, photographing, filming or videotaping scenes pursuant to this agreement.

   e. To remove all of Producer’s sets, structures, and other materials and equipment from the Premises, and to restore the Premises as nearly as possible to its original condition at time of Producer’s taking possession thereof, reasonable wear and damage not caused by Producer’s use excepted.

   f. To own all rights, including all copyrights, in and to all recordings, photographs, film or videotape (whether still or moving) made by Producer pursuant to this agreement throughout the universe in perpetuity, and the irrevocable and perpetual right to use and exploit the same in and in connection with the Picture, and in any and all media and technical formats whether now known or hereafter devised, or as Producer may desire. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, Producer may use such recordings, photographs, film or videotape in connection with advertising, publicity, marketing and exploitation of the Picture.

2. Licensor warrants, represents, and agrees that: (a) Licensor is the owner, or the agent for the owner, of the Premises and has the sole right and authority to grant to Producer all of the rights set forth herein, and to enter into and sign this agreement; and (b) it is not necessary for Producer to obtain the consent of, or pay any amounts to, any other person, corporation or entity in order to exercise the rights granted to Producer herein. Licensor acknowledges that Producer has described generally to Licensor any unusual or unlikely manner in which the Premises and/or the name of the Premises may be used by Producer.

3. Producer shall indemnify Licensor and hold Licensor harmless from and against all bodily injury and property damage (ordinary wear and tear excepted), which is solely caused by Producer's negligent or intentional misconduct on the Premises. Producer shall not be responsible for any such damage or injury, or both, caused by the negligent or intentional misconduct of Licensor (including Licensor's employees and agents). Licensor shall indemnify and hold Producer, its agents, licensees, successors, assigns, designers and employees harmless from and against any and all liabilities, costs (including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, claims, damages and suits arising out of Licensor's breach of its representations, warranties, and agreements hereunder.

4. Licensor hereby releases Producer and its agents, employees, licensees, successors, assigns, distributors, exhibitors, designers and all other persons or entities from any and all claims demands, or causes of action which the Licensor, its heirs, successors or assigns may now have or hereafter acquire by reason of Producer's recording, photographing, filming or videotaping of the Premises, and using the aforesaid in any manner whatsoever, including without limitation, all Buildings (interior and exterior), Structures, equipment, facilities and signs thereon.

5. Licensor acknowledges and agrees that the promotional value and exposure of having the Premises displayed in the Picture shall constitute sufficient consideration because of the marketing and promotional benefit Licensor may acquire by having its Premises displayed in the Picture. Producer is not obligated to actually use the Premises, or produce the Picture, and include materials photographed or recorded hereunder in the Picture. Licensor acknowledges that Producer is relying on the rights granted by Licensor and that any breach by Licensor of this agreement will cause Producer irreparable damage which cannot be fully compensated for by money damages.

6. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the law of the State of Florida. If a dispute arises from or relates to this Agreement or the breach hereof, the parties agree first to try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation under the Mediation Rules of the American Arbitration Association, before resorting to arbitration. If the dispute is not settled by mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute to final, binding, and non-appellable arbitration pursuant to the rules and procedures of Independent Film & Television Alliance ("IFTA"), as said rules may be amended from time to time with rights of discovery if requested by the arbitrator. Such rules and procedures are incorporated and made a part of this Agreement by reference. If IFTA shall refuse to accept jurisdiction of such dispute, then the Parties agree to arbitrate such matter before and in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect before a single arbitrator, mutually agreed upon by both Parties and familiar with entertainment law. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Unless otherwise agreed upon by both parties, the arbitration venue shall be in the city of Orlando, Orange County, Florida. The prevailing party in the arbitration proceedings shall be entitled to attorney's fees and costs in connection with the arbitration proceedings and any legal action taken to enforce the award of arbitration. At no time shall Licensor, nor any other person, corporation or entity, be entitled to terminate this Agreement or seek any type of equitable relief, including that of injunction, arising out of any use of said recordings, photographs, film or videotape made hereunder.

7. TERMS:
   a. The Production agrees that the renters of the property will receive the most updated information pertaining to the filming schedule as it becomes available, so as to avoid unknown inconvenience. Should monetary losses be incurred by the property owner directly and exclusively resulting from unreasonable inconvenience caused to the tenants by the Production, compensation will be negotiated and mutually agreed upon for said losses between the property owner and the Production.
   b. The Production agrees that the home and its internal and external contents and fixtures will be left exactly as they are found. No heavy equipment or furniture will be relocated, especially that which is on hardwood floors.
   c. The Production agrees that the cast and crew will begin and end shooting at times agreed upon by all tenants.
   d. No props or equipment will be left or stored on the premises after filming is completed, unless mutually agreed upon in writing beforehand.
   e. Garbage produced during production will be properly disposed of according to Winter Park regulations.
   f. Any on-site parking will be according to City of Winter Park regulations.
   g. If re-shoots or pick-ups need to be done, they will be done no later than six weeks after the end of the initial shooting period at this location, as indicated in the dates of use above; and only at the discretion of, and at a time agreed upon by the landlord and all tenants.
8. This Agreement supersedes, replaces, and terminates all prior communications, negotiation and agreements with respect to the subject matter of this agreement and shall constitute our full understanding, unless amended or modified to the contrary in writing and signed by both parties. Producer has the right to transfer and assign its rights and/or obligations pursuant to this Agreement to any other person, corporation or entity.

Re: Engagement Letter - C.F.P. Media, LLC's "A Beautiful Belly"

Dear Mr. Gay,

Thank you for retaining the law offices of Scott M. Goldberg, PLLC to represent you. The scope of the matter, as we understand it, is to provide general transactional legal services, specified in more detail below. We look forward to earning your needs in this matter and to continuing a mutually satisfactory relationship. Please note that our representation of you shall not include litigation of any kind. Should you require litigation representation, our firm will assist you as best as possible in acquiring adequate litigation representation.

The purpose of this letter is to confirm our engagement as counsel and to provide you with certain information concerning our fees, billing and collection policies and other terms that will govern our relationship. Although we do not wish to be overly formal in our relationship with you, we have found it a helpful practice to confirm with our clients the nature and terms of our representation. This engagement letter agreement will govern our relationship.

Our firm agrees to provide entertainment development, production and distribution transactional legal services, as production counsel, for you on behalf of your feature-length motion picture currently entitled "A Beautiful Belly," written by Andrew Kenneth Gay (the "Motion Picture"). Our legal services shall include those services typical of production legal services including corporate governance matters of C.F.P. Media, LLC. If you desire our firm to perform additional work beyond the legal services described herein, then you shall be billed at our firm's hourly fee, which is currently Two Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($225.00) per hour, or pursuant to another fee structure as negotiated and agreed in writing between you and our firm.

Our fees are not set by law, but are subject to negotiation between you and our firm. Accordingly, we have agreed to represent you for the total sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash ("Fixed Compensation"), plus deferred and contingent compensation as set forth herein. We have agreed to commence development legal services for the Motion Picture for the up-front deposit total sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00). This deposit amount shall be non-refundable and shall be deemed earned upon receipt by our law firm, which the parties agree constitutes fair and reasonable consideration for the legal services to be provided to you in connection with the Motion Picture. Our development legal services shall include, drafting the Operating Agreement for C.F.P. Media, LLC, drafting the Production Investor Subscription Agreement and the Private Placement Memorandum; and drafting an Option/Purchase Agreement for the screenplay of the Motion Picture.

In addition to the non-refundable deposit, you agree to pay our firm the balance of the total Fixed Compensation, which equals the total sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), at least thirty (30) days prior to commencement of principal photography of the Motion Picture, which you anticipate to commence in June of 2009. Furthermore, you agree to pay our firm deferred compensation in the total sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) ("Deferred Compensation"), which shall be payable at the same time and upon the same definition as all other holders of deferred compensation in connection with the Motion Picture.

In addition to the Fixed Compensation and the Deferred Compensation, you agree to grant our firm contingent compensation equal to a total of Two Percent (2%) of One Hundred Percent (100%) of C.F.P. Media, LLC's Net Profits from the commercial exploitation of the Motion Picture. in any and all markets throughout the universe in perpetuity. Our firm shall receive such Contingent Compensation at the same time and upon the same definition as Producers and all other holders of an equity ownership interest in C.F.P. Media, LLC and the Motion Picture.

You agree to be responsible for and pay all direct costs and out-of-pocket expenses involved in the course of providing legal service to you, including but not limited to costs for all copies, long distant phone charges, postage and mailing costs, registration and document filing costs, travel and lodging accommodation expenses in excess of fifty (50) miles from Orlando, and any other hard costs not within our law firm's direct control.

Our firm shall also be entitled to a credit in Motion Picture in substantially the following form: "Legal Services: Scott M. Goldberg, Esq."

Our firm does not guarantee the outcome or disposition of any matter with respect to which we are representing you, and you agree to pay our fees and other charges regardless of any outcome unless our firm has a specific written agreement with you to the contrary.

Our firm will send you an invoice for services and costs incurred on a monthly basis. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, you shall pay each such invoice within fifteen (15) days of its date. Our firm's invoice shall state the basis thereof. Invoices that are not paid within thirty (30) days are subject to a late payment charge of 1.5% per month (i.e., an 18% annual percentage rate) payable in arrears on the unpaid balance. Monthly late payment charges are retroactive to the dates of the statements on which the charges for services and/or other charges first appeared. All late charges are posted to each client's account as of the last day of the month. The purpose of the late payment charge is to encourage prompt payment of our invoices, thus reducing our billing and collection costs.
You shall have the right, at any time, to terminate our firm’s representation of you upon written notice to our firm, and our firm shall immediately after receiving such notice cease to render additional services except as required by law. Such termination shall not, however, relieve you of the obligation to pay the fees due for services rendered and costs incurred prior to such termination, which shall be billed at our standard hourly rate. If you fail to meet any of the your obligations under this Agreement or for good cause as provided by law, our firm shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and you shall take all steps necessary to excuse our firm of any obligation to perform further, including without limitation, the execution of any documents necessary to complete our firm’s discharge or withdrawal. The right of our firm hereunder is in addition to those created by statute or recognized by rules of professional conduct.

As you know, attorneys are governed by rules of ethical conduct, which, under certain circumstances forbid their representation of clients with conflicting interests. Our firm cannot, and will not, without appropriate written consents, represent a new client if we determine there is a conflict of interest with any of our other existing client matters. In order to avoid conflicts of interest, we ask that when you return the signed copy of this Agreement you advise us of the names of all principal individuals or entities with whom we may be involved in your representation. Our firm has advised you that, whenever an attorney represents more than one individual, there exists a potential for a conflict of interest to arise in connection with such representation. Regardless of such previously existing relationships, should any exist, our firm agrees to represent your interests to the best of our ability and agrees to refrain from participating in any and all actions by others represented by my firm, or having a relationship with my firm, that would adversely affect you or your reputation in the entertainment industry.

The validity and effect of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws. You and our firm hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court sitting in Orlando, Orange County, Florida for the purpose of any action arising out of or relating to this agreement (an “Action”), and agree that all such Actions shall be heard and determined in such Florida federal or state court. Each of the parties hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any Action in Orlando, Orange County, Florida. The prevailing party in any Action shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses (including without limitation, all such fees, costs, and expenses incident to arbitration, appeals, bankruptcy, and post-judgment proceedings) incurred in that action or proceeding or any appeal, in addition to any other relief to which the party or parties may be entitled.

Our firm shall have a lien on all of the your documents, property (both real and personal, regardless of homestead), or money in our possession or another’s possession for your benefit, to secure the payment of all sums due under this Agreement, and upon property or funds received or receivable by you by settlement, judgment, or otherwise, or which was an issue in litigation between the parties. During the course of our representation of you, you may be asked to provide to us various documents. We will hold these records for you during our representation of you and for six (6) months thereafter. We will retain the balance of your file for a reasonable time period. It is your responsibility, however, to secure the return of your records.
Nothing herein is intended to create any benefit for a third-party. The attorney-client relationship, which is the subject of this Agreement, would, if created, exist only between the firm and the undersigned client(s) unless expressly specified otherwise. A third person or entity who is not named herein as the client(s) has no legal right to claim that this firm owes it (them) any duty or obligation as a result of the execution of this Agreement. The firm’s only duty of representation is to the client(s) named herein and that duty arises only when the attorney-client representation is established in conformity with the terms of this document. The client(s) named herein understands that (he/she/it) should not say or do anything which might lead a third-party to believe that this firm is representing the interests of that third-party. Whatever legal advice is given to the client(s) by this firm is intended only for the benefit and use of the client(s).

If you are in agreement with the terms of this engagement letter, please sign and date in the appropriate place below, and mail back an original signed copy to this law firm, together with your non-refundable deposit check. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties hereto and shall remain binding when fully executed. This Agreement may only be modified by a subsequent written agreement executed by the parties hereto.

We look forward to working with you. If you have any comments or questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely yours,

SCOTT M. GOLDBERG, PLLC

Scott M. Goldberg
